LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Ladies' tailoring at Moss & Ansel's, Walhalla.—Adv.

Mrs. C. G. Jaynes returned from Atlanta last week, where she had been to purchase her fall stock of millinery.

Prot. C. R. Wilcox, of Chattanooga, Tenn., spent a few days of the past week visiting at the home of his brother, Rev. G. M. Wilcox, in Walhalla.

Miss Cora Strong returned to Walhalla Monday evening after an absence of several weeks. She will soon return to her college work at the North Carolina Normal College, Greensboro.

"Tess and Ted"—you school children know them—at our store Saturday next. Come in and see us. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight.—Adv.

The residence belonging to Miss Georgie VanDivere, on College street, Faculty Hill, has been greatly improved in appearance by the liberal and expert use of paint. Other property owners in town might well profit by this example.

Mrs. Annie Crawford and children, of Charleston, who spent two weeks pleasantly in Walhalla, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hughes, returned to their home last Saturday, to the regret of their numerous friends here.

Highest prices paid for chickens and eggs. W. A. Peehuff, at Walhalla Cotton Mill. adv.

John V. Stribling, of Anderson, was among the guests in Walhalla during the reunion of Orr's Regiment last week. Mr. Stribling is just recovering the use of his right leg. In August, 1913, he accidentally fell at Tallulah Falls, Ga., and broke his hip and leg.

Mrs. Ed. Sanders, who lives with her husband and family near Walhalla, is quite ill, suffering from pelagra. Her many friends will join with us in the hope that she may soon be restored to health. Mrs. Sanders is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Oliver.

The Courier joins with numerous other friends of W. M. (Billy) Fennell, who has joined the ranks of laboring men. He has accepted the position of clerk of the Board of County Commissioners, succeeding Hugh P. Holleman, who resigned and has taken a railway position at Seneca.

Arthur Brown, who has been spending some time at Cape Girardeau, Mo., attending college, arrived in Walhalla to-day, accompanied by his sisters, Misses Myrtle and Ruth Brown, who were on a business trip to Atlanta. Mr. Brown will remain here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Brown, for some time.

New styles and fabrics on display at Moss & Ansel's for the ladies' fall and winter suits.—Adv.

Mrs. Craig Knox, of West Union, returned last week from Atlanta, where she spent some time selecting a stock of millinery and studying the prevailing styles this year. Mrs. Knox will open a large millinery stock in the near future in the Mulkey stand in West Union and will be glad to have all her friends and the public generally to examine her stock.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Moss & Ansel, of Walhalla, who are now ready to serve the ladies of the town and county, presenting for their inspection a handsome line of materials which they have made to order at cost less in many instances than ready-made articles. Call and see them. They will appreciate your visit whether or not you buy.

Auction Sale of Household Goods.—I will sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder, at my residence on Main street, Walhalla, at 3 o'clock p. m., on Saturday, September 5th, instant, all my household and kitchen furniture and other articles too numerous to mention. This sale is made preparatory to my breaking up housekeeping and moving away, and the articles must be sold. Mrs. M. A. Ervin.—Adv.*

Mrs. J. P. Mickler was taken Tuesday morning to Columbia for treatment at one of the hospitals there. Mrs. Mickler has been in feeble health for some months, during which time she has been staying at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Strother. She is quite an aged lady and has been under the constant care of a trained nurse for some time. It is hoped that hospital treatment will be of benefit to her. Years ago Mrs. Mickler was a resident of Walhalla, her husband at one time being one of the most prominent merchants of the up-country. We trust that her condition may be greatly improved.

ADVICE AND INFORMATION

are cheerfully given at our institution, and new comers are assured of the same courtesy as we are extending to our old patrons. Your money will be well looked after by us when its disposal is left to the Directors of the Bank of Walhalla. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

Bank of Walhalla, WALHALLA, S. C.

T. E. Alexander sells Rock Hill buggies. Walhalla, S. C. adv.—t.

Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Wickliffe, of West Union, August 24th, a daughter.

Louis C. Harrison, of Greenville, spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Harrison, and among friends.

Miss Carrie Burnside, of Sellersburg, Ind., spent the past week in the Pleasant Hill section visiting her niece, Mrs. S. K. Thompson.

Mrs. L. R. VanDivere has been quite unwell for several days, but is reported some better at this time. We hope that she may soon be enjoying her usual health.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Walhalla Methodist church will meet with Mrs. J. W. Bell tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at 4 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Hey, you school kids! Drop in and see us next Saturday and get a "Tess and Ted" school tablet free. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight.—Adv.

Oliver M. Abbott, of Toccoa, Ga., was among relatives and friends in Oconee last week for a short while, stopping over in Walhalla Thursday.

Because of the fact that Monday of next week (September 7th) will be Labor Day, and a national holiday, the post office will observe holiday hours, and there will be no service on the rural routes.

Walter G. Orr is spending some time with relatives in the Wolf Stake section. Mr. Orr has just completed four years of service on the U. S. S. New Hampshire. He is as yet undecided whether he will "ship over" or not. His friends are glad to have him back home.

Bear in mind the excursion to Atlanta and Birmingham, which will be run to-morrow. The round trip fare to Atlanta from Walhalla is $2.75, the fare being the same from West Union. The fare prevailing for Seneca is $2.50 and $5.50. Train leaves Walhalla at 11.40 a. m., West Union at 11.45.

"Tess and Ted" at Bauknight's store, Walhalla, next Saturday. We want every school child to visit our store that day, sign their names and get a handsome "Tess and Ted" school tablet free.—Adv.

The lovers of picture shows in Walhalla are particularly fortunate these days, there being two good shows in town, the Triangle Theatre open every night in the week, giving a matinee on Fridays, and remaining open from 2 to 10 p. m. on Saturdays. Geo. L. Wilson is operating a good show at the school auditorium on Tuesday, Friday and Saturday nights of each week. It is not boasting when we say that we doubt if another town the size of Walhalla enjoys as good picture facilities as does Walhalla to-day. Each of the places of amusement is high class in every respect, and all patrons are given every consideration as to comfort and clean, wholesome entertainment. At the Triangle Theatre to-morrow (Thursday) special features will be given, and an additional performance will be offered. The hours will be from 3.30 p. m. to 5.30 p. m., and from 7.30 to 10.30 p. m. That great feature, "The Fall of Troy," will be presented, including the grand scene of 2,000 armored gladiators and the wonderful portrayal of the destruction of the city of Troy by fire. Added to this special feature for to-morrow the regular service of three reels will be given, making in all five splendid reels (two specials), and all at the remarkably low admission price of 10c. for adults, 5c. for children. This offers a splendid opportunity to the citizens of surrounding communities and the country to enjoy the very best service ever offered in the now world-popular moving picture service.

W. M. Brown is breaking records for low prices on brood mares this week. See him.—Adv.

Mrs. J. W. Davis and daughter, Miss Blanche, are visiting relatives at Lavonia and Toccoa, Ga., this week.

Advertised mail in Walhalla post office for week ending September 1st: Craig, Mrs. C. F.; Davis, J. N.

Miss Marjorie Nield, of Vicksburg, Miss., spent some time here recently visiting her grandmother, Mrs. G. K. Maxwell, and among other relatives. She returned last week to her home, to the regret of many.

Protracted services are still in progress at the Methodist church. Services are held twice daily. This afternoon a special service for church members under 20 years of age will be held. The hour for this special meeting is 4 o'clock.

We can fill the wants of the most fastidious lady in tailoring for fall. Moss & Ansel, Walhalla.—Adv.

Sam Maxwell, of Columbia, is spending this week in Walhalla among relatives and friends. He is visiting his sisters, Mrs. J. R. Hughes and Miss Sue Maxwell, and other relatives.

Charlie Thompson, after spending two months in Laurens and Greenwood counties, is at home again with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Thompson, of the Pleasant Hill community.

Among the veterans who were in Walhalla last week was J. Russell Wright, of Johnston, this State, who is well and favorably known to most of the people of Oconee. He is spending some time in the Bounty Land community visiting his sons and their families. He is being most cordially welcomed on a sides.

E. M. DuPre, who lives two miles west of Walhalla, exhibited at The Courier office last Saturday a large rattlesnake, which measured 4½ feet in length and sported 10 rattles and a button. Mr. DuPre has a farm rented near Poor Mountain, and during this year has killed four large rattlesnakes in the field on this farm.

The many Walhalla and Oconee friends of Rev. N. G. Ballenger, of Pendleton, will be pleased to learn that he and his estimable family will soon become residents of this section. Next week they will move to Midway, where they will occupy Rev. Mr. Ballenger's home, just a short distance from the incorporate limits of Walhalla. They will be most cordially welcomed.

Clarence Norman, of Seneca, delivered a splendid address at St. John's Lutheran church last Sunday morning, a large congregation being present to hear him. He is a young man of marked ability, and there are many here who are always glad to greet him. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Norman, also spent last Sunday in Walhalla as guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Norman.

See W. M. Brown's lot of fine brood mares this week even if you do not want anything. They are good to look at.—Adv.

An occasion of more than ordinary interest to the people of Oconee is the educational rally to be held at Salem to-morrow (Thursday) beginning at 10.30 o'clock in the morning. This occasion will be in the interest of the Methodist school to be located at Salem. This school will be under the care of the Methodist church in South Carolina, and it is sure to prove a great up-builder for the Salem section as a whole, as well as much of the territory outlying. Dr. Henry N. Snyder, president of Wofford College, will deliver the main address, which will be in the forenoon, and he will be followed, at the afternoon session, by Rev. J. W. Speak, of Anderson; Rev. T. C. O'Dell, presiding elder of the Anderson District, and Col. R. T. Jaynes, of Walhalla, each of whom will talk along educational and religious lines. It is earnestly hoped that the people of all denominations will make it a point to be present at this time, lend their assistance and influence to the cause, thus helping to give to the Salem section one of the greatest advantages she could possibly hope to realize. A picnic dinner will be served on the grounds, and all are requested to bring baskets well filled and prepared for the occasion.

Citizens of Walhalla were saddened indeed this morning when the news of the death of William O. Keith was received. Mr. Keith passed away at his home near town last night about 12 o'clock after a long illness, during which time he suffered much from cancer of the face, though he bore his suffering with a wonderful degree of patience and resignation. Mr. Keith was 63 years of age. On December 25, 1875, he was married to Miss Sophie Keil, who, with two daughters, survives him. The daughters are Mrs. Wade Alexander and Miss Ada Keith. He is also survived by three sisters—Mrs. M. J. Keil, Mrs. S. E. Burley and Mrs. E. O. Burley. Mr. Keith moved to this section from Newberry county about the year 1869, since which time he had been numbered among the most prominent and prosperous farmers of Oconee. He was a thorough Christian, though not a member of any denomination, and a citizen in whom any community could feel just pride. Honest, honorable, upright in his every dealing with his fellow man, he was known far and wide as a man "without fear and without reproach." In his passing away Oconee has lost a valuable citizen, and many there are who will mourn over his death. Funeral services will be held at the home this afternoon at 3 o'clock, the services to be conducted by Rev. L. D. Mitchell, of the Baptist church. Interment will follow after the services at the Baptist cemetery in Walhalla, about 4 o'clock. The Courier joins with many others in extending to the bereaved ones sympathy in their deep sorrow. Mr. Keith was a native of South Carolina, having been born in Fairfield county on December 25, 1851.

W. M. Brown has real war prices on a fine lot of mares, while they last.—Adv.

Mrs. Connor, of Charleston, spent last week in Walhalla visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Harrison. She has visited here on other occasions, and has numerous friends who are always delighted to meet her.

The Walhalla Light and Power Company turned on the lights in West Union and Midway last Sunday afternoon. Everything at the power plant is moving along smoothly. It is understood that the street lights in Walhalla will be ready for current by October 1st.

Mrs. J. S. Rutledge is visiting in the High Falls and Picket Post communities this week. Mr. and Mrs. Rutledge have been married thirty-five years, and this is the first time during that period that Mrs. Rutledge has taken a pleasure vacation among relatives and friends. We hope the visit will be a pleasant one. We know it will be profitable.

The ladies of Rock Springs Methodist church invite you to a Good-Time Social at Richland Friday evening of this week, September 4th. A silver offering will be taken at the gate to be used in behalf of the church. Refreshments will be served free to all present. Several entertaining features are being planned by the ladies, and they earnestly request you to come and enjoy the evening with them. Remember the date, Friday evening, September 4th, 8 o'clock, at Richland.

H. W. Murph, division deputy collector, in the internal revenue service, was in Walhalla for a short while last week. The service has been recently reconstructed, many changes being made. Hereafter the work that has been done by Deputy Marshal Orr and others in Oconee will be looked after by officers sent out from the division offices. It is generally believed that this practice will be "greatly appreciated" by those who make whiskey in the mountains, as it is hardly probable that they can care for the work as efficiently as under the old system. Mr. Murph's territory embraces 11 counties in this State up to the North Carolina line, and he works under the direction of D. C. Heyward, recently appointed to the internal revenue service.
