

THE UNITED STATES OBJECTS.

Sends Note to Turkish Government, But Will Bide Its Time.

Washington, Sept. 16.—The United States to-day joined the powers of Europe who have protested to the Sublime Porte against the abrogation of the capitulations under which aliens have enjoyed certain territorial privileges in Turkey. Secretary of State Bryan made this action public to-day when he announced that Ambassador Morgenthau at Constantinople had been ordered to register the United States' objection. The following statement by Mr. Bryan is a paraphrase of the cablegram sent Mr. Morgenthau:

"You will bring to the attention of the Ottoman government that the government of the United States does not acquiesce in the endeavor of the imperial government to set aside the capitulations. Furthermore, this government does not recognize that the Ottoman government has a right to abrogate the capitulations, or that its action to this end being unilateral can have any effect upon the rights and privileges enjoyed under the capitulatory conventions. You will further state that the United States reserves, for the present, the discussion of the grounds upon which its refusal to acquiesce in the action of the Ottoman government is based, and also reserves the right to make further representations in this matter at a later date."

Reason for Postponement.

Although the note to the Turkish government did not explain the reason for the postponement of discussion, it generally is understood the United States government does not wish to become involved in tangled European diplomacy on which the question of war between Turkey and other European powers depends. The Washington government will wait until the war is over.

In the meantime it is believed the vigorous phraseology of the American note would serve as a warning to Turkey to be circumspect in her treatment of American citizens.

Don't Be Bothered With Coughing.

Stop it with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It spreads a soothing, healing coating as it glides down the throat, and tickling, hoarseness and nervous hacking are quickly healed. Children love it—tastes good and no opiate. A man in Texas walked 15 miles to a drug store to get a bottle. Best you can buy for croup and bronchial coughs. Try it. Bell's drug store.—Adv.

Fatalities in Memphis Wreck.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 17.—Several persons are reported to have been killed and a number injured when a switch engine crashed into a street car at Binghampton, a suburb of Memphis, early to-night.

About fifty persons were aboard the street car, which was struck midway by a string of freight cars. Several cars of lumber tumbled over on the wrecked car, making the work of rescue difficult. It is believed that at least ten persons are dead and probably twice that number hurt.

Parnell Gets 20 Years.

New York, Sept. 17.—Charles S. Parnell, the Brooklyn young man who shot three persons in an attempt to hold up the passengers of a New York and Hartford railroad express train from Boston, just outside the New York city limits on the night of July 25, was sentenced to-day to not less than 20 years in prison. Parnell pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree, one of the three persons who he shot having died from the wound.

IN RECOGNITION OF SERVICE.

Railway Officials Present "Capt. Billy's" Widow With $1,000.

(Anderson Mail, 18th.)

In recognition of the long, efficient, faithful and honest service rendered by the late Capt. William G. Smith, known lovingly and affectionately by thousands of people as "Captain Billy Smith," the Southern Railway has presented a voucher for $1,000 to his widow. The presentation was made in Walhalla yesterday by J. W. Warsum, superintendent of the Columbia division of the Southern Railway, and Capt. J. R. Anderson, superintendent of the Blue Ridge Railway.

Mrs. Smith has been spending a few days with friends and relatives in Walhalla, and an audience with her was procured by the railroad representatives while she was on her visit. The wording of the voucher is as follows:

"GRATUITY, in recognition of the long, efficient and faithful service of her late husband, extending over a period of 50 years, who was honorably retired from active service as conductor, Columbia division, with an unblemished record on January 1st, 1912."

Capt. Anderson stated to-day that W. H. Foreacre, general superintendent, who knew Capt. Smith personally, and who admired him greatly, secured the donation for Mrs. Smith.

No member of the family here was advised of the intention of the railway officials. They learned that Mrs. Smith was visiting in Walhalla, and they went there quietly, without advising her of their coming. She was greatly affected by the gift, which she truly appreciates.

Solicitor Kurtz P. Smith, of this city, was advised by a reporter of the Daily Mail of the gift. He, too, was visibly affected and stated that the thought on the part of the railroad officials would ever be a source of comfort to his mother and to the members of the family.

Capt. Smith died at his home here several months ago.

Working for Co-operative Creameries

D. W. Watkins, of Anderson county, a graduate of Clemson College, of the class of 1909, has just been appointed to a position in the dairy organization of Clemson College under a co-operative arrangement with the United States Bureau of Animal Industry. For the present Mr. Watkins will have charge of the field work incidental to establishing three or more cream routes in the Piedmont section. The object of these routes will be to give farmers living on them a ready market for their cream, which will be handled through a co-operative creamery which Clemson College has just opened.

A Lame Back—Kidney Trouble Causes It.

And it will give you even worse if not checked. Mrs. H. T. Strayge, Gainesville, Ga., was fairly down on back with kidney trouble and inflamed bladder. She says: "I took Foley Kidney Pills and now my back is stronger than in years, and both kidney and bladder troubles are entirely gone." Bell's drug store.—Adv.

Damaged by Northeast Gale.

Brunswick, Ga., Sept. 17.—A strong northeast wind, which has been prevailing here for the past week, culminated yesterday afternoon late in a severe gale, which did considerable damage in this vicinity. While the wind was not high enough to do any serious damage in Brunswick, it blew at a high velocity around the nearby islands. On St. Simon the new wharf and pavilion at the Hotel St. Simon was carried away. It was reported that the pavilion was blown from in front of the hotel and landed over on the beach of Jekyll Island. One or two cottages on the island were unroofed and some other little damage was reported.

Penna. R. R. Cuts Off 68 Trains.

Philadelphia, Sept. 17.—Following out the retrenchment policy inaugurated earlier in the year, the Pennsylvania Railroad dropped 68 trains to-day, when it put into effect its fall schedule. Usually the only changes made are on seashore divisions, but to cut operating costs it was decided to change all schedules now instead of waiting until November.

The trains dropped to-day make a total of 212 trains annulled since the beginning of the year, exclusive of changes in suburban service at Buffalo and Pittsburgh and on minor divisions. Similar curtailment has been made on the Pennsylvania lines west.

How To Give Quinine To Children.

HUSBAND ACCUSED BY JURY.

Mother and Baby Killed and Bodies Found—Marion County Tragedy.

Mullins, Sept. 16.—A fearful story comes from Raines to-day. W. M. Shelley, a well-known citizen of the county, living eight miles south of here, came to town and reported a tragedy in his immediate neighborhood, in which he said that a young woman and her infant are thought to have been murdered by the husband and father. Thos. Ammons, aged 21, and his wife, aged 20 years, a daughter of Steve Turner, were the parties to the tragedy, said Mr. Shelley. It was about 2 o'clock Monday morning when the neighborhood was aroused by the cry of fire, and when the neighbors arrived, according to Mr. Shelley, they found Ammons the sole survivor of the family.

Ammons claimed, it is said, that he was sleeping in a bed near the window, while his wife and infant occupied a separate bed; that when he awoke the house was ablaze and falling in, and that he barely had time to jump through the window for his life. Mr. Shelley stated that Ammons made several contradictory statements concerning the affair, and soon aroused suspicion.

Among other statements attributed to Ammons was one that the fire was caused by a lamp explosion. After the fire had spent its force, and a hurried investigation of the debris made, the remains of the mother and child were taken from the fire and examined by those present, including the coroner. It was found that the woman's skull had been crushed and her arm possibly broken, and other mutilations of the body were in evidence.

It was also reported here that the child's body showed signs of foul play, and that the whole affair is wrapped in suspicion.

Sent to Jail.

After a thorough and painstaking investigation the coroner's jury felt warranted in implicating Ammons, and he was accordingly remanded to jail to await trial.

J. C. Spirow, a member of the coroner's jury, was among the first to arrive on the scene, and he gave his version of the affair, which is practically the same as that of Mr. Shelley. Mr. Spirow had, together with the evidence, a copy of the verdict, which is as follows:

"We, the undersigned, examining jurors, find that Lola Ammons, deceased, came to her death by a blunt ended instrument, in the hands of Tommy Ammons, her husband. (Signed) D. J. Atkinson, foreman," and the balance of the jury.

The scene of the double tragedy is near where three negro children were burned to death in a house three weeks ago, while their parents were away from home.

GROW OATS, SAYS STATE AGENT.

Mr. Long Urges Farmers to Sow Oats and Points Out Opportunities.

Clemson College, Sept. 17.—"Grow oats" is the advice that is going out to the farmers of South Carolina from the extension division of Clemson College. W. W. Long, State demonstration agent and director of extension work, has distributed throughout the State 10,000 large posters which will herald forth to the farmers of the Commonwealth the opportunities in oats. This poster reads:

Attention, Farmers!

On account of the European war the cotton surplus means a decreased acreage next year. What shall take the place of cotton? Seed oats!

1. They require a minimum amount of fertilizer.
2. Plenty of seed are available.
3. If war continues European armies must have horse feed and they will have to pay our prices.
4. If peace is declared oats will furnish a large amount of vegetable matter to be plowed under.
5. Oats will pave the way for more live stock in the future.

Seed oats in the Piedmont section the last of September, other parts of the State in October. Oats sowed at these dates insure success.

Seed oats, and then seed oats! W. W. Long, State Agent and Director of Extension Work.

Cost Kept Down—Quality Kept Up.

No better medicine could be made for coughs, colds, croup, hoarseness, tickling throat, bronchitis, etc., than Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. That's why they can't improve the quality, and war or no war, the price remains the same. No opiates. Don't take substitutes, for Foley's Honey and Tar is the best. Bell's drug store, ad.

FORTY PERSONS ARE KILLED.

Train Crashed Through Bridge in Missouri—Two Cars Submerged.

Springfield, Mo., Sept. 16.—Between 35 and 45 persons were killed or drowned and a score of others were injured when the locomotive, baggage car and forward chair-car of the Texas Limited plunged through a trestle over Bush creek, near Lebanon, yesterday, and was submerged by the swollen stream. Most of the dead were drowned in the chair-car.

A great portion of these were women and children. Those who were able to escape fought their way out by breaking windows and swimming to shore.

It is estimated that 65 passengers were in the chair-car. Owing to poor communication with the place of the wreck it is impossible to estimate how many escaped. None of the sleeping cars left the track. Passengers in them formed rescue parties.

One man in the chair-car lost his wife and five children. When the accident occurred he was thrown clear of the car and swam ashore. His wife and children died while he stood helplessly near by. One of the passengers in the submerged cars was Miss Mona Campbell, a nurse of St. Louis. She broke a window, climbed out of the car, and, standing in the water, rescued five passengers.

Splendid Medicine

Stomach Trouble

I Suffered for Several Years

Peruna Restored My Health

Mrs. Elizabeth Reuther, No. 608 Twelfth St., N. W., Washington, D. C., writes: "I am pleased to endorse Peruna as a splendid medicine for catarrh and stomach trouble, from which I suffered for several years. I took it for several months and at the end of that time found my health was restored and have felt splendidly ever since. I now take it when I contract a cold and it soon rids the system of any catarrhal tendencies."

Over Ten Years Ago.

"I would not be without Peruna. Although it was over ten years ago that I first gave you my testimonial, I am of the same opinion as when I wrote it, and give you the privilege to use it as you see fit. I still use Peruna when I think it necessary. I am recommending it to my neighbors whenever a chance occurs."

HE DID IT.

(New York Tribune.)

Somebody said that it couldn't be done,

But he, with a chuckle, replied That "maybe it couldn't," but he would be one

Who wouldn't say so till he'd tried.

So he buckled right in with the trace of a grin

On his face—(if he worried he hid it);

He started to sing as he tackled the thing

That couldn't be done, and he did it.

Somebody scoffed: "Oh you'll never do that—"

At least no one ever has done it; But he took off his coat and he took off his hat,

And the first thing he knew he'd begun it.

With the lift of his chin and a bit of a grin,

(If any doubt rose be forbid it;) He started to sing as he tackled the thing

That couldn't be done, and he did it.

There are thousands to tell you if cannot be done;

There are thousands to prophesy failure;

There are thousands to point out to you, one by one,

The dangers that wait to assail you,

But just buckle in with a bit of a grin,

Then take off your coat and go to it—

Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing

That cannot be done, and you'll do it.

BUY-A-BALE AT CHARLESTON.

First Day's Work Netted 1,358 Bales at 10 Cents Pound.

(News and Courier, 16th.)

A nearly 70,000 worth of cotton contracted for, at a minimum price of 10 cents a pound, the first day of the buy-a-bale campaign in Charleston was brought to a successful close at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Reports from a considerable number of teams were lacking, and it is almost assured that these missing returns will bring the day's total to the $70,000 mark, and probably to a figure in excess of that.

The 48 workers, who were engaged in selling cotton at $50 a bale, reported that, on the whole, their fondest hopes had been realized. They admitted that they had been badly disappointed in many citizens, of alleged public spirit, because they failed to rise to the occasion by taking a bale of cotton. Some who subscribed to one bale were thought able to purchase two or more. On the other hand, the canvassers were agreeably surprised in a number of instances by receiving subscriptions from persons who were thought unable to buy as much as one bale.

Stop That First Fall Cough.

Check your fall cough or cold at once—don't wait. It may lead to a serious lung trouble, weaken your vitality and develop a chronic lung ailment. Wade Cox Loses Finger.

(Tugaloo Tribune, 15th.)

Wade Cox, an employee of the Westminster Shuttle Works, had the misfortune to get the index finger of his right hand cut off by one of the boring machines last Friday afternoon. Mr. Cox was moving some shuttles from one place to another while the machine for boring the throats in shuttles was in operation and he missed his footing, catching his hand on the machine in an effort to avoid falling. The middle finger was also cut and mashed by the machine. Drs. Walker and Simpson were called at once and dressed the wounds. Mr. Cox is getting along all right with the exception of soreness.

Hay and Cotton Hurt by Winds.

Americus, Georgia, Sept. 17.—The equinoctial storm prevailing here this morning has wrought tremendous damage to cotton and hay fields in Sumter and adjoining counties.

The fields were white with cotton, probably 25,000 bales being open and awaiting picking, and this was largely blown out or otherwise damaged by the fierce gale and heavy rain following.

Many thousands of tons of hay cut this week remained in the fields and is probably a loss.

FARMER'S WIFE TOO ILL TO WORK

A Weak, Nervous Sufferer Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Kasota, Minn.—"I am glad to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than anything else, and I had the best physician here. I was so weak and nervous that I could not do my work and suffered with pains low down in my right side for a year or more. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I feel like a different person. I believe there is nothing like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weak women and young girls, and I would be glad if I could influence anyone to try the medicine, for I know it will do all and much more than it is claimed to do."—Mrs. CLARA FRANKS, R. F. D. No. 1, Maplecrest Farm, Kasota, Minn.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should be convinced of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

DEATH RATE HAS INCREASED.

Decided Backward Step Taken for Safety in Mines.

J. A. Holmes, director of the National Bureau of Mines, stated before the section of mechanical science and engineering of the American Association for the Advancement of Science on Thursday that during the year of 1913 the United States has taken a decided backward step in the particular of safety in mines, the death rate for 1913 being 15 per cent greater than in 1912.

Some of the causes and remedies suggested by Mr. Holmes for this going backward in safety are the following:

1. The bad economic conditions under which bituminous coal mines in the United States are now operated is unfortunately such as to encourage rather than discourage hazardous and wasteful mining. These conditions should be improved.

2. The coal mine owners and miners, with a few notable exceptions, do not co-operate with each other as fully as they should in making and enforcing better rules and regulations for safety in the mines. Without this co-operation all progress in safety is uncertain.

3. The States should have more uniform and more effective inspection laws, and should give better support to their mine inspectors.

4. The national government is unfortunately far behind the needs of the situation in its investigation in behalf of mine safety. The national bureau of mines is unfortunately unable to meet the demands from the miners or inspectors in different parts of the country for information to use in better safeguarding life in the mines. It has not for use in this work a building or a laboratory worthy of the cause. It has not at its disposal sufficient men or equipment to enable it to meet these urgent needs.

"The United States has a greater mining industry than any other country," said he. "If all these agencies will do their full duty we will in a few years set all the world a model of safety and efficiency."

Tax Cotton Production?

Washington, Sept. 17.—Convinced after a search of Supreme Court records that the Federal government has a right to curtail production by means of a prohibitive tax, a committee of Senators and Representatives will recommend to the Congressional cotton conference two plans designed to limit the production of cotton in this country next year to 50 per cent of the 1914 crop.

One plan would tax 10 cents a pound all cotton produced by any planter in 1915 in excess of 50 per cent of the total he produced in 1914. Another would levy a tax of $20 an acre on the total acreage planted with cotton in 1915 in excess of the total acreage of 1914.
