
NEW GOODS! .. LOWER PRICES!

The prettiest and nobbiest line of Dry Goods, Notions, Clothing, Shoes, Hats of every style.

Pretty line of MILLINERY, Ribbons, Ready-to-wear Ladies', Misses' and Children's Hats arriving every week.

Big line Crockery, Glassware, Enamel and Tin.

MR. HARRISON will be pleased to show you through the Prettiest Line of Goods you ever saw in town at such low figures.

Norman's Dry Goods and Millinery Store.

A Special Communication of Blue Ridge Lodge, No. 92, A. F. M., will be held next Friday night, October 16, 1914, at 8 o'clock. Work in first degree. W. C. Hughes, W. M. W. O. White, Secretary. adv.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

—Mules for sale by The Brown Lumber Company. Easy terms to responsible parties.—Adv. 41*

—Holy Communion at St. John's Lutheran church next Sunday, October 18. Members are urged to be present. The public is cordially invited.

—T. E. Alexander sells Rock Hill buggies. Walhalla, S. C. adv.-tf.

—Miss Lillie Thompson and Miss Sallie Grace Hamilton recently spent a few days in Walhalla among their friends, who were pleased to meet them again.

—Wanted — Reliable one-horse share-cropper. Good house; good land; good stock. Apply to Jas. D. Isbell, Walhalla.—Adv. 42*

—Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Stokes left last Thursday for Williamston, where they will spend a week among friends. Rev. N. G. Ballenger filled the pulpit at the Methodist church last Sunday morning.

—Fancy patent flour $5.25 per barrel. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, ad.

—Miss Hattie Darby left last Friday for Greenville, where she went to visit her niece, Mrs. H. C. Miller, who has been quite ill for some time. We trust that Mrs. Miller may soon be restored to health.

—Chicken chowder makes hens lay. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight.—Adv.

—T. J. Deaton and Ephraim Cobb last Saturday morning caught a large red fox on Poor Mountain after a six-hour race with three dogs. It was one of the finest specimens reported "bagged" in these parts for some time.

—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Rankin are delighted to welcome them again as citizens of Walhalla. They have moved from their country place and are now occupying the Thompson cottage on Main street.

—See our Apples. They are fine—75c. per bushel. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Mrs. W. P. Reid, of Seneca, was a visitor in Walhalla last week, she having come up to attend the Harrison-Jones wedding last Wednesday evening. She was a guest in the home of Mrs. C. G. Strong. She has a host of friends here who are always pleased to meet her.

—See Norman's new advertisement on this page. The Norman Lower Store is always in position to serve the public in the line of general merchandise at reasonable prices. At the upper store there is no deviation from this rule in the line of drugs, medicines, toilet and fancy articles.

—Ten Cents for Cotton.—Until further notice I will pay 10 cents for cotton on all guano and lien notes and old accounts. T. N. Carter, Westminster, S. C.—Adv. 1. f.

—Miss Minnie Burton, who has been spending some time in Atlanta, where she has just completed a course at one of the business colleges of that city, returned to Walhalla last week and is with her mother, Mrs. C. A. Burton. She has numerous friends here who are pleased to welcome her back.

—Married, at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. J. A. Bond, near West Union, on Sunday afternoon last at 4 o'clock, Miss Dora Lee, of the Pleasant Ridge section, and Marvin Browning, of near Westminster. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Reuben Lee, while the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Browning. The young couple have the best wishes of numerous friends.

—For National Mazda lamps, electric chandeliers, fixtures of all kinds, motors, irons, stoves, toasters and all electrical appliances, see James W. Harrison, Walhalla.—Adv. 42.

—J. R. Overton, of Columbia, spent last Sunday in Walhalla at the home of I. H. Harrison. He was accompanied by his two small sons, who will be here for some time. Mr. Overton, who is connected with the Southern Railway in Columbia, returned to that city Monday morning.

—For Sale—Mower and rake; good as new. A bargain at $45. W. O. White, Walhalla, S. C.—Adv.*

—Rev. G. M. Wilcox is spending this week in Sumter, where he is in attendance upon an important Presbyterian meeting. His family are visiting relatives at Richland during his absence. Wade C. Hughes, Esq., who is engaged professionally at Pickens this week, expects to join Rev. Mr. Wilcox in Sumter if possible, going as a delegate from the Walhalla Presbyterian church.

—W. M. Brown has real war prices on a fine lot of mares, while they last.—Adv.

There Is Hope

always, but a proper system of banking makes hope a certainty. By using the facilities offered by the Bank of Walhalla wrecks and disasters in the commercial world will be greatly lessened in numbers, and financial failures mitigated.

Bank of Walhalla,
 WALHALLA, S. C.

—Pure wheat shorts $1.40 per sack. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, ad.

—Read C. W. & J. E. Bauknight's shoe announcement on the first page this week. The Bauknights stand squarely back of their every claim for their goods.

—Highest prices paid for chickens and eggs. W. A. Peelhoff, at Walhalla Cotton Mill. adv.

—W. M. Brown announces that he is still paying 10 cents for cotton on accounts and in the daily transaction of business. Read what he has to say and give him a call. It will be worth your while.

—Mrs. J. C. Keys, of Charlotte, N. C., is spending some days of this week in Walhalla visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. K. Dendy. Her many friends here will be interested in the information that she will hereafter be closer at her old home, as she will reside at Clemson College for the present with her son, S. Clare Keys, who has been elected to a position as book-keeper at the college. He has been holding this position since last May.

—W. M. Brown is breaking records for low prices on brood mares this week. See him.—Adv.

—D. M. Tribble died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Marie Carroll, in Seneca, on October 7th, aged 60 years. Mr. Tribble was a native of Anderson county. The remains were interred in the Old Westminster cemetery the day following at 4 p. m., funeral services being conducted by Rev. L. M. Lyda. The deceased had been a member of the Baptist church for 25 years. He leaves a wife and six children to mourn their loss. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of many friends.

—Wanted—Beef cattle and hogs, also hides. Highest prices. A. L. Ellison, Walhalla.—Adv. 1. f.

—We clip the following announcement from the Cordele (Ga.) Dispatch of October 7th: "An interesting wedding of last week was that of Miss Howard Roberts and L. O. White, which took place at the Methodist church, Rev. Walter Anthony, pastor of the church, officiating. The bride was charming in a striking coat suit of myrtle green. Her hat was a black turban trimmed with a bird of Paradise. Mr. and Mrs. White have scores of friends who extend their hearty congratulations. Mr. White has a responsible position here with the Southern Realty Company. They will be at home to their friends with Mrs. P. A. Willis." The groom is well and favorably known in Walhalla, he having resided here up to the time he engaged in business in Cordele. He is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. White, and for quite a while was associated in business here with the Carter Garage. We congratulate our friend upon his good fortune in winning the heart and hand of one of Georgia's fair daughters, and extend to the happy couple our best wishes for a long life of happiness and prosperity.

—We have reduced our Improved Apple oats to 75c. per bushel. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight.—Adv.

—Arrangements have been made with the Alkabet Lyceum System of Atlanta, Ga., for six lyceum attractions for this winter. The first of these attractions would have appeared here on October 1st, but owing to the fact that a quarantine against diphtheria was in force at the time, the auditorium could not be opened. Of the remaining five attractions the first will appear at the auditorium the latter part of this month. The five attractions to be seen here are The Cartwright Brothers, instrumental and vocal quartette; Mrs. William Calvin Chilton, monodramist; Booth Lowery, humorist and satirist; The Treble Clef Club, and The Winters, entertainers. The Alkabet System has a reputation for sending out high class attractions, and no doubt all who see these artists as they appear here will be well pleased. Twenty-five per cent of the proceeds, after paying for lighting and other expenses, will be given to the Walhalla Graded School. Season tickets may be purchased from Supt. H. W. Gasque at $2 for adults and $1 for teachers and pupils. Admission at the door for those not holding season tickets will be 25 and 50 cents.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hodge and family have moved to the country to the regret of numerous friends here. Mr. Hodge has charge of the power plant about four miles from town, and his duties require closer residence to his work. He has been occupying a residence on North Broad street.

—Best quality wheat shorts at $1.35 per sack. T. N. Carter, Westminster, S. C.—Adv. 39-tf.

—Protracted services were begun in the Walhalla Baptist church last Sunday, and they are being largely attended, especially at the night services. Music is being furnished by a selected choir, which has been under the training of Chas. F. Hetrick for some time. Rev. T. L. Smith, the pastor, is being assisted by Rev. H. M. Fallow, of the New Westminster Baptist church, who is doing all the preaching for the series of meetings. He is giving his audiences strong and practical sermons at every service and much interest is being manifested from the beginning. The morning services begin at 10 o'clock and close promptly at 11 o'clock, while the night services begin promptly at 7.30. The public is earnestly urged to attend, and the members of all denominations are invited to take part in the services.

—The diphtheria situation here continues about the same as for the past two weeks, there being occasional cases reported. Little Miss Claire Sloan, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Sloan, who was a recent sufferer, is now entirely well and the quarantine has been raised on this home. Little Miss Carolyn Rogers was taken suddenly ill Sunday night, and it was found that diphtheria had developed quickly in this case. The home was quarantined immediately. The little girl is getting along nicely, practically all traces of the disease disappearing after 36 hours, during which time diphtheria antitoxin was administered. The home of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Abbott has also been quarantined, their son Ben being sick of diphtheria. The situation has not been deemed of such serious nature at present to close the public schools again.

—Good second hand top buggy for sale cheap. Will take in payment dry cow, pork or corn. J. W. Shelor, Walhalla.—Adv.*

—Mrs. R. L. Rogers was hostess to the Paul Hayne Circle on October 2d, at which time a most instructive and enjoyable meeting was held. After roll call, responded to by current events, the program for the afternoon was rendered. Mrs. Umberger, with the aid of two cleverly drawn maps by Miss Daisy Strong, gave us a very clear idea of "The Geography of South America." Mrs. Brown following with a reading on the same subject. "Life in Columbia," by Mrs. Steck, and "The Pan-American Union," by Mrs. Verner, were both well read. After a short business session, the social hour was spent with "Scott" and "Dickens" by means of an original and pleasing contest prepared by the hostess. At the close of the contest it was found that most all present were familiar with these two authors and had to draw for the prizes, which were beautifully bound books by these writers. Mrs. Darby drew first prize, the second going to Mrs. J. B. S. Dendy. A delicious sweet course was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. A. Steck and Miss Carolyn Rogers. Mrs. Siford and Misses Pelzer and Hill were welcome visitors. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. A. Steck on Friday, October 16th, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

—The Brown Lumber Co. offers easy terms to responsible parties in Oconee county wishing to purchase lumber.—Adv. 41*

King of Roumania Dead.

Amsterdam, Oct. 10.—A telegram received here from Vienna says that King Charles of Roumania died this morning.

Ferdinand Assumes Throne.

London, Oct. 12.—King Ferdinand, of Roumania, in the presence of the members of the royal family, the diplomatic corps and the other notables, took the oath of office yesterday, in succession to his uncle, King Charles, according to a dispatch from Bucharest.

King Charles died at his country seat in Sinaia on Saturday.

The new King declared he would labor for the development of the State.

Card of Thanks.

Editor Keowee Courier: Please allow us space in your valuable paper to thank our friends and neighbors for their kind assistance rendered at the time of the sudden death of our dear husband and father. May heaven's richest blessings rest upon them all is our prayer.

Mrs. J. L. Talley and Children,
 Salem, Oct. 12.

Poplar Spring to Call Pastor.

All the members of Poplar Spring Baptist church are requested to meet next Sunday afternoon, October 18th, at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of calling a pastor for another year. Please remember the date and be on hand.

THE HARRISON-JONES WEDDING.

Ceremony Was Performed Last Wednesday Amid Beautiful Decorations.

An event of great interest which occurred in Walhalla last Wednesday evening was the marriage of Miss Mary Connor Harrison, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Harrison, and Hayne Grant Jones, son of Mrs. C. Jones, of Tamassee, which was solemnized at the Harrison home at 7 o'clock, in the presence of the immediate families of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends. The impressive service of the Presbyterian church was used, Dr. J. L. Stokes, of the Methodist church, officiating. The house was brilliantly lighted and decorated throughout, the color schemes of green and white and yellow and white being artistically carried out.

Promptly at 7 o'clock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, charmingly rendered by Miss Grace Beard, niece of the groom, the bridal party entered the parlor, which was beautifully decorated in white and green. The ushers, Messrs. Earl Beard and McCurry Neville, Frank E. and Lewis Harrison, entered first, holding streamers of white satin ribbon, by means of which they formed an aisle from the door to a lovely improvised altar, which had been arranged at the end of the room. Next came little Mary Louise Beard, niece of the groom, bearing the ring in the heart of a white rose; Miss Carrie Darby Harrison, youngest sister of the bride, dressed in white lace and yellow ribbons, and carrying a gold basket of white roses. Then came the groom on the arm of his best man, Luther McRee, of Greenville, preceding the maid of honor, Miss Janie Harrison, dressed in yellow chiffon over messaline and carrying white chrysanthemums. The bride, lovely in an exquisite gown of ivory satin and duchess lace, draped in chiffon and embroidered in pearls, wearing a veil, cap effect, with bandau of pearls, and carrying a shower bouquet of valley lilies and bride's roses, entered on the arm of her father and took her place beside the groom at the altar. During the ceremony Traumerel was softly played. The glow of many candles shed a soft light over the impressive scene. Just before the entrance of the bridal party Mrs. Wade C. Hughes charmingly sang Mendelssohn's Wedding Song.

After the ceremony a reception was tendered a number of the friends of the bride and groom and their families. Receiving in the parlor with Mr. and Mrs. Jones were Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Harrison, and Mrs. Cornelia Jones, mother of the groom; Mrs. W. J. Murray, of Columbia; Mrs. James Sifton, of Spartanburg, and Mrs. W. J. Beard. Receiving at the door of the reception hall were Mrs. J. A. Steck, Mrs. Harry Harris of Greenville, and Miss Sue Maxwell.

The dining room, where the bride's table was set, was beautifully decorated in yellow and white. In the center of the room, directly over the table, which was covered with an exquisite lace cover over yellow satin, was hung a shaded lamp, from which depended white and yellow satin ribbons to the four corners of the table, where they were caught in bows. The bride's cake held the center of the table, on a beautiful silver stand, and the whole was lighted by many shaded tapers. Misses Daisy Strong and Anna Darby, assisted by Misses Grace Beard, Hannah Miller Harrison, Pauline Steck and Meta Norman, presided over the dining room and served the guests delicious refreshments.

In the gift room, where the numerous and lovely gifts were set forth, Mrs. L. M. Brown and Mrs. Jas. W. Harrison presided. Misses Anna Stribling, Theresa McDavid of Greenville, and Frank E. Harrison, Jr., of Charleston, had charge of the bride's register, while a bevy of young people dispensed punch on the veranda, which was brightly lighted by many Japanese lanterns.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones left at 10 o'clock for Jacksonville, Fla., and after a week spent in the Land of Flowers they will be at home to their friends at Tamassee. They will arrive in Walhalla to-day.

The marriage of this popular young couple was an event of unusual interest here, both the bride and groom being prominently connected and universally popular. The heartiness of the congratulations and good wishes extended personally by friends present at the ceremony and reception and by others at a distance by wire was marked indeed. To these The Courier desires to add its very best wishes for their every happiness through a long life of peace, prosperity and joy.

Baptizing at Chauga Ford.

Next Sunday, the 18th, at 3.30 o'clock, I will baptize (at the ford of Chauga, on the road leading from Walhalla to Whetstone), the candidates of Double Springs church.

M. G. Holland.

We Set the Pace in Women's Footwear.

Catering to the woman who demands, in addition to style, footwear which is perfect fitting and splendid for wear, we are handling exclusively the high grade footwear made by Urz & Dunn Co., of Rochester, N. Y. These shoes have set a high standard for thirty years and more, both for style and reliability. They are made from carefully selected stock and will hold shape under most severe wear. The styles are exclusive and the fitting qualities are nowhere equalled.

All of the season's new models now on sale at $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00

C. W. Pitchford.

Brass Beds

are coming more and more into permanent fashion. The days of the old wooden beds are numbered. The metal ones are more cleanly, more artistic and more durable. Every home should have its brass bedsteads, and we are ready to furnish them in most elaborate variety. They are strong, handsome and yet light to handle.

We have a splendid selection of both Brass and Iron Beds in Colors and in White and will make a very close price.

Ballenger Hdw. and Furn. Co.,
 Seneca, South Carolina.

Deaths Caused Far From Battles.

Rome, Oct. 11.—The appalling war now raging in Europe may have been the last blow to the heart of aged King Charles of Roumania, says the Tribuna. "Also the relatives and friends of Cardinal Ferrata say that the origin of his illness was due to excessive work in his attempt to master the situation and co-operate with the pope in trying to end the conflict. Thus the illustrious victims of the war, among the non-combatants, number already a pope, a king and cardinal, the papal secretary of state."

Farmer Dies by Own Hand.

Lancaster, Oct. 11.—News reached here to-day of the death by his own hands Thursday night last in the Unity section of this county of Robert Whitaker, a prominent citizen and well known farmer of that community. Ill health is assigned as the cause for Mr. Whitaker's suicide. It is said that he placed a shotgun to his temple and, pulling the trigger, blew the top of his head entirely off. He was 23 years of age and is survived by his wife and three children.

Beaverdam Baptist Minutes.

All churches or individuals who have not subscribed for minutes of the Beaverdam Baptist Association, or who may wish additional copies, may secure them at The Courier office, or from the clerk, Rev. L. D. Mitchell, Walhalla, S. C., Route 1, any time after Saturday morning, October 17th.

Selecting Seed Corn.

Do not wait until spring to select your seed corn. Go into the field now and pick out the best ears on the best stalks. This, according to Clemson College, is the surest and safest way to get seed that will make more and better corn at no greater cost.

Holstein Bull for Service.

I offer to the public the services of my Holstein Bull. Service guaranteed. Fee, 50c. cash and 50c. in three months; or $1.50 at end of gestation period.

FRED. BIEMANN,
 West Union, S. C.
 Oct. 14, 1914. 43*

WANTED—Industrious man; can earn $100 month and expenses selling our products to farmers. Must have means for starting expenses and furnish bond signed by two responsible men. Address W. T. Rawleigh Co., Freeport, Ill. Give age, occupation, references. 41*

NOTICE TO DEBTORS AND CREDITORS.

All persons indebted to the Estate of Samuel T. Dickson, deceased, are hereby notified to make payment to the undersigned, and all persons having claims against said Estate will present the same duly attested within the time prescribed by law or be barred.

(MRS.) EFFIE J. DICKSON,
 Administratrix of the Estate of Samuel T. Dickson, Deceased.
 Oct. 14, 1914. 41-44

In Order to Encourage Farmers to sow oats, I have decided to cut the price, for next 30 days, to 65c. for Fine Apples Seed Oats.

T. N. CARTER,
 adv. l.f. Westminster, S. C.

I OFFER FOR SALE good 75-acre farm, 7 miles from Walhalla, near Lay's Mill, $15 per acre. Three acres in cultivation, balance well timbered. Will take one-third cash, balance on time to suit purchaser, or in midding cotton at 10c. pound. C. Q. DEATON, Walhalla, Route 2. 9-7-14-l.f.

JAMES W. HARRISON, B. S.,
 Mechanical and Electrical ENGINEER,
 (Superintendent Walhalla Lighting Plant.)
 Electrical and Plumbing Contractor,
 Phone No. 43, Walhalla, S. C.
 All Work Guaranteed Strictly First Class and According to Insurance Rules.
