

*****
NEW GOODS
 JUST ARRIVED AT
NORMAN'S DRY GOODS AND MILLINERY STORE.
 Pretty line Lawns, Linens, Ratine, Voiles, Crepe, Piques, Dimity, Ginghams, Percalés, Prints, Chiffon, Cambrics, Suitings, Shoes, Hats, Underwear, Clothing, Notions, Millinery.
 New lot Crockery, Glass, Enamel and Tinware— all goods at lowest prices.
 One lot WINE CARDUI to go at 85 cents.
F. E. HARRISON, MANAGER.
 *****

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Two cans pie peaches for 15c. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Adv.

John M. Ledford, of Central, spent the latter part of last week in Walhalla among his many friends. He is holding an overseer's position with the Central Mills. He is always a welcome visitor in Walhalla, where he resided with his family for a number of years.

All the nice things that you can find in the city milliner's establishment you will find right here at home in our store, Diggs-Hutchison Co., Walhalla. Adv.

News of the death of Dr. John C. Carman, who occurred at Spartanburg last Saturday, will be learned with deep regret by many in Oconee. Dr. Carman was a great Sunday school worker. It was anticipated that he would hold the prominent place in the proceedings of the recent Interdenominational Sunday School Association meeting at Walhalla, but he was taken suddenly ill, his illness preventing his attendance upon the meeting here. It was not known, however, until a few days ago that his illness was of a critical nature. His services were such that he will be sorely missed from the ranks of Sunday school workers in South Carolina and other States in which he had been engaged, and in each of which he felt a personal interest.

T. E. Alexander, Walhalla, has a few cheap mules and horses to sell on easy terms. Also a one-horse farm to rent. Adv. 11.

There are numerous friends of Prof. H. W. Moore, in charge of the department of animal husbandry at the South Carolina Industrial School at Florence, who will be pleased to learn that his work at that institution has proved successful to a marked degree—so much so that it has attracted attention in other parts of the country. Prof. Moore has accepted a post with a college at Monroe, La., where he will take charge in the near future. Prof. Moore is a son of C. A. Moore, of the Oakway section, and his wife is a Spartanburg girl, a graduate of Limestone College at Gaffney. Her maiden name was Johns. We join with many other friends of Prof. and Mrs. Moore in wishing them every success, prosperity and happiness in the home of their adoption.

The Westminster Oil Mill will gin cotton on Tuesdays and Fridays of each week. Adv. 11.

The Oconee county jail is deserted by all save Sheriff John W. Davis and family. With the closing of the work of the recent session of Criminal Court all the prisoners were disposed of, some going to the county works for varying periods, some being released from custody to follow their own sweet wills, while others were released on bonds for their appearance at future terms of the Court. This is the second time during Sheriff Davis's tenure of office that the county jail has been empty. The other time this condition prevailed only over-night, when new prisoners were brought in. For five days now there has been "nobody home" at the county jail, and Sheriff Davis looks greatly pleased with the condition of things.

For Rent—6-room house, near Court House and depot. Apply to J. W. Davis, Walhalla. Adv. 11.

Friday, March 5th, was a dark and gloomy day, but the members of the Paul Hayne Circle lost all sense of gloom after meeting with Mrs. J. W. Bell. Her spacious rooms were bright with golden daffodils, suggesting sunshine, and the members could but feel that spring is waiting just round the corner. The program for the afternoon centered the attention on Brazil and its boundless natural resources: "The Mighty Amazon," Mrs. Herndon; "Brazilian Forests," Mrs. Hetrick; "Sons of the Forests." After which the Circle was carried from the new world to the old as Miss Irene Strother and William Bell sang "It's a Long Way to Tipperary." The clever hostess then entertained her guests with an original contest about trees and rivers, suggested by the afternoon's program. Mrs. W. L. Verner bore off the first prize, "made from Brazilian rubber trees to hold the warm waters of the Amazon," a face rubber bottle, dainty in a handsome case of yellow and white. Miss Gertrude Smith drew second prize, a fancy wooden trinket case, and Mrs. J. R. Anderson was presented with white and yellow shoe-trees. The unusually tempting salad course served by the hostess, assisted by the Misses Strather, carried out in every particular the beautiful color scheme of white and gold. Music, given by Mesdames Sifford and Ansel, Miss Irene Strother and William Bell, added greatly to the pleasure of the afternoon. Visitors were Miss Lord, Mrs. Sifford, and Mrs. J. R. Anderson, of Anderson, a former member of the Hayne Circle.

Lost—Pocketbook and contents. Finder please leave at this office and get reward. Adv.

Mrs. Harry R. Hughes entertained most delightfully, on Thursday last week, in honor of her aunt, Miss Williams, the occasion being the celebration of her 75th birthday. An hour was pleasantly spent in conversation and the solving of a little contest, at which Mrs. S. K. Dendy was the fortunate winner of a bottle of perfume. The ladies were then invited into the dining room, where a beautiful table was set, having for a centerpiece seventy-five lighted candles and at each place a dainty little bouquet of violets. A delicious hot supper was served, followed by cakes and cream. Mrs. Hughes's guests included, besides the honoree, Mesdames S. A. Lockwood, C. G. Strong, Dendy, S. C. Henry, Ida Darby, J. L. Stokes and M. T. Hughes. After supper the hostess charmed her guests with a delightful rendition of many quaint old melodies. The ladies then departed, after expressions of a charming afternoon and many good wishes for the honoree.

We study to please. Come and be pleased. Diggs-Hutchison Millinery Co., Walhalla. Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Fant have again set up housekeeping. They are occupying rooms in the Craig-Verner building, on Main street.

Frank Cross has been confined to his home for several days, suffering with grip. He is reported considerably better to-day.

Cotton is not the only "money crop." Bring me your corn, hay, fodder, etc., and get spot cash for it. W. M. Brown, Walhalla. Adv.

Mrs. J. R. Anderson, of Anderson, spent a short while in Walhalla last week among her many friends. She was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Moss.

Miss Daisy Strong left last Monday for Columbia, where she will spend a short while among friends. During her stay in the Capital City she will consult a specialist with regard to a throat trouble.

Seed oats—Red rust proof, Burt or 90-day and Black. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight. Adv.

The many friends of Mrs. John D. Perry will regret to learn that she has been a sufferer from an attack of grip during the past few days. It is hoped that she will be out again soon.

Guss Sullivan, who resides in the Rocky Knoll section, left this morning for Greenville, where he will be engaged in the lumber and shingle business. His many friends wish him success.

Poultry wire, best grade, 150 feet to roll, galvanized, $1.95 for the 4-foot width and $2.45 for the 5-foot. "Jaynes cuts the price and sells the goods." Adv.

Paul Fredericks has been quite ill for several days, suffering from a severe attack of grip, by reason of which he has been unable to continue his duties as conductor on the Blue Ridge road. Mr. and Mrs. Fredericks are now keeping house in Walhalla. They are occupying the Norman cottage on Mauldin street. Conductor Lunkin is making in Mr. Fredericks's place during his enforced absence from duty.

Two young cows, one older cow, all with young calves, for sale at J. P. Strubling's, Richland, S. C. Adv. 10

Married, on Sunday afternoon, March 4th, at 2 o'clock, at the home of N. P. Whitten, of Salem, Miss Myrtle Rebecca Moss and Floyd Watkins Whitten. The groom is a son of J. B. Whitten, of Pendleton. He is a prosperous young farmer of this county, having received his training at Clemson College. The bride is the fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Moss, of Salem. As Miss Moss she was most popular with the younger social set. The groom is to be congratulated upon winning the heart and hand of so charming and accomplished a young lady. After a few days spent at the home of the groom's father and among other relatives in Anderson, city and county, they will be at home to their many friends at Salem. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. A. Whitten.

The best in millinery always at the Diggs-Hutchison Co.—Adv. 11.

Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Ansel, March 7th, a son.

Dessert peaches, worth 25 cents, for 15c. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, adv.

Dr. S. G. Bruce, of Anderson, was in Walhalla for a short while yesterday among friends.

Girls wanted at the Hetrick Hosiery Mills. Apply at once. Adv.

We are requested to announce that there will be no services next Sunday at St. John's Episcopal church, as was announced at the last service. Instead of the afternoon service on the second Sunday, the next service will be held at night on the third Sunday at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to bear this in mind, and the public will be most cordially welcomed at the church on the 21st instant.

New goods arriving daily. They possess beauty and charm in style and quality, and one of the peculiarly attractive features is the very low prices that obtain at our store. Call and see. Diggs-Hutchison Co., milliners, Walhalla. Adv.

One of the biggest hawk stories that we have heard recently comes to us from the New Hope section of the county. Some ten days ago D. M. Owens, who lives on the farm of R. L. Boggs, noticed that some of his chickens were missing every now and then. He began a careful watch, and it was not long until he found the cause, which was discovered when he sighted two large hawks tearing to pieces one of his fowls. When they had finished their meal he baited and set a steel trap right where they had dined. He watched again for a concealed position, and some hours later, after seeing the birds descend to the same place, visited his trap to find that he had caught Mr. Hawk. He was dispatched, the trap again baited and set. On the following day he visited the spot and was relieved to find that Mrs. Hawk had followed in the footsteps of her husband, walking right into the trap set for her. One of the birds measured 4 feet 3 inches and the other 4 feet from tip to tip of wings.

Mrs. W. M. Brown & Co. will have their millinery opening March 19th and 20th. They want all their friends to call and see their line—not only hats, but ladies' and children's ready-to-wears. Be sure and see them before you buy. Adv. 11.

News comes to us of the death of Mrs. Mead Martin, which occurred suddenly at her home in the Return section last Thursday morning after a brief illness, death being due to an attack of heart failure. During Wednesday Mrs. Martin had complained of not feeling well, but was not thought to be seriously ill. About 10 o'clock Thursday morning she breathed her last. Mrs. Martin leaves her husband and one child, two sisters and three brothers to mourn her death. The sisters and brothers are Mrs. B. C. Sanders, Mrs. R. G. Pitt, Mack and Joe Sanders, of Greenville, and Lester Sanders, of Newry. Mrs. Martin had been twice married, her first husband being Willis White. Her maiden name was Miss Arminda Sanders, she being a daughter of the late "Uncle Johnnie" Sanders, well known to many in Oconee. On September 27th last she was married to Mead Martin. The deceased is survived by one child by her first marriage. The sympathy of many friends goes out to the bereaved ones in their hour of sorrow. The interment took place at Return cemetery.

The times say "economize." The echo answers, "Trade with Jaynes." "Jaynes cuts the price and sells the goods." Adv.

The Courier learns to-day of the death of Mason Duncan, an aged citizen of Oconee, which occurred at his home near Westminster some time during yesterday or Monday. We were unable to learn the exact time of his death. Mr. Duncan was about 80 years of age, and was well known in all parts of Oconee, having been a native of this county, being born and raised on Oconee Creek. His death was due to paralysis, he having recently suffered a second stroke of that disease. Mr. Duncan was a Confederate veteran, having served throughout the war. He volunteered for service from Oconee, but entered the German Artillery of Charleston. He was a good citizen—honest and upright in all his dealings, a true man in every sense of the word. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, having for years held his membership at Bethel church, in which he had long been an elder. He is survived by several sons and daughters. There are many friends of the deceased and his family who will learn with deep regret of his passing away. Funeral services will be held at Westminster to-day at 2 o'clock, followed by interment. The services will be conducted by his pastor, Rev. G. M. Wilcox, of Walhalla, assisted by his former pastor, Dr. John G. Law, of Walhalla, and Rev. H. A. Whitten of the Methodist church, of West Union.

Corn, hay and fodder as good as money. Bring yours and "swap" it to me for hard cash. W. M. Brown, Walhalla. Adv.

It is with deep regret that we chronicle the death of Mrs. Nancy Ann Lusk, which occurred at the home of her father, the late Major Leonard Rogers, in the Salem section last Friday morning. Mrs. Lusk had been in declining health for some time, and recently, before the death of her father, went to his home to wait on him in his last days. During the past few years Mrs. Lusk had made her home alternately with her father in the Salem section and with her sisters in other parts of the county. The deceased was 65 years of age on the 11th of October last. She had been a widow for many years. One son survives her, Frank R. Lusk, of Atlanta, who came over, reaching the Rogers home a short while before his mother died. She is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. Kate McMahan, of the New Hope section. Mrs. Lusk is also survived by two sisters, Mrs.

Daniel D. Alexander, of Little River, and Mrs. Bowers, of Pickens county. One brother, Will J. Rogers, of Evansville, Ind., also survives. Mr. Rogers was unable to be here on this sad occasion, he having been forced to return to his home after the death of his father a few days previous. Mrs. Lusk was a splendid woman, a devout Christian and an earnest church worker. There are hosts of friends of the family who will join with The Courier in extending to the bereaved ones sincere sympathy in their sorrow. Funeral services were held Saturday, the interment taking place at Whitmore's cemetery at 3.30 o'clock.

T. E. Alexander sells Rock Hill buggies. Walhalla, S. C. Adv.-11.

Lenten services at the Lutheran church Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

The Methodist Guild will meet with Misses Myrtle and Ruth Brown Thursday (to-morrow) afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

Quite a bit of hail fell in Walhalla last Friday morning, though the hail was much heavier out in the country south and west of town.

Mrs. Geo. L. Wilson, after spending a month in Florida with her husband, visiting at various points, has returned to Walhalla. Mrs. Wilson was delighted with the "Land of Flowers."

Spot cash for your corn, hay and fodder. See W. M. Brown, Walhalla. Adv.

Miss Alice Smith and Mrs. Lon Boleman, of Townville, were appreciated visitors at The Courier office last Wednesday. We are always glad to welcome the ladies of Oconee at The Courier office.

The members of St. John's Lutheran church are urged to be present next Sunday morning. Important! You are cordially invited to come in time to visit the Sunday school at 9.45 o'clock.

Thos. T. Fowler, of Ingold, N. C., was a visitor among relatives and friends in Walhalla last week. "Tom" says he likes North Carolina mighty well, and that he is getting along nicely in his new home.

Married, on Sunday afternoon, March 7th, by Rev. T. C. Ligon, at his home near Townville, Miss Vivian Land and Alvan Glenn, both residing between Townville and Fair Play. We wish for the young couple every joy and happiness through a long life.

Loans on farm lands Terms easy. Address R. T. Jaynes, Walhalla, S. C. Adv. 11.

On Sunday, February 28th, Mrs. Winfield Baldwin died suddenly at her home on the farm of E. B. Keese near South Union. Heart failure was the cause of death. She was stricken while sitting in her home nursing her baby, death being almost instantaneous. She and her husband moved from Georgia to Mr. Keese's farm about Christmas of last year. The deceased leaves her husband and one child. Mrs. Baldwin was about 20 years of age.

The fifth number of the lyceum course will appear at the auditorium on Monday, March 15th. This company, "The Alkhest Favorites," is one of the best sent out by the bureau, and is composed of three young ladies, each an artist in her line. Miss Cora Cawthorn, reader, of Mobile, Ala., heads the company. She is ably assisted by Miss Gailey, violinist, and Miss Beatty, soprano. The program will consist of violin and soprano solos, readings, sketches and monologues. The prices for admission are: Adults, 35 cents; children, 25 cents.

Up goes the smoke over the battlefield! Down go the prices at Jaynes's. "Jaynes cuts the price and sells the goods." Adv.

Last Thursday night the store of C. H. Chastain was entered from the side door on Tugaloo street. This door is barred from within with a medium heavy piece of wood slipped into iron fastenings on either side. The bar is about half-way between the bottom and top, and leaves the lower half easily movable. By means of a stick used as a pry, the door was forced open from the bottom. No money had been left in the store over night, and so far as Mr. Chastain has been able to discover, nothing was stolen from his stock. The entry into the building was made almost directly under the rays of a 60-watt light, which hangs almost within reach of the door.

Last Tuesday afternoon a most happy occasion for the smaller children of Walhalla was a surprise birthday party which Mrs. E. R. Lucas complimented Eleanor on her seventh birthday. Promptly at 4 the little band assembled, carrying dainty gifts for the favored one, after which many happy games were indulged in. Not too soon, however, did the hour come for them to be invited into the dining room, where the table, most attractive to their eye, candles burning on a large cake, places adorned with dainty baskets filled with mints, accompanied with the ever cherished sweets so dear to the child's heart, were enjoyed. After two hours of much merriment each one left with a good

The Kind You Need When the Roads Are Bad.

(A Studebaker is Always Ready to Go.)

No Loose or Broken Hub Bands on Studebaker wheels

Studebaker hub bands are made of a specially refined iron perfectly adapted for this use. Hub bands are welded by electricity and then shrunk on by hydraulic pressure.

There is not the slightest possibility of Studebaker hubs weakening from usage or from weather conditions. No strain or climate severe enough to injure them.

Studebaker Wagons

Every part—iron or wood—is made in the same careful way as the hub and bending. That's why Studebaker wagons run easy, and last longer.

Come in and see the Studebaker.

C. W. PITCHFORD General Merchandise Walhalla

wish to Eleanor, carrying in their memories a most happy afternoon. Those invited were: Emma Dendy, Caroline Darby, Ruth Hetrick, Marie Pitchford, Lillian Pitchford, Lillian Fant, Marguerite Craig, Carrie D. Harrison and Meta Norman.

The Courier is in receipt of the following invitation: "1915.—The Graduating Class of The Baker Sanatorium most cordially invite you to the First Annual Commencement Wednesday, March tenth, at eight o'clock p. m., Freundschaftsbund Hall, Charleston, South Carolina." We are pleased to note that among the list of 18 graduates there appears the name of Miss Sophie M. Puckhaber. She is well known to the people of Walhalla, as she spent her young girlhood here. She is a daughter of Mrs. Lena Puckhaber, of Charleston, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Brandt, of Walhalla. Miss Puckhaber has many friends here, with whom The Courier joins in extending congratulations on her attainments and all good wishes for a bright and useful career.

Anoma Class, Baptist S. School.

The Anoma Sunday school class of the Baptist church met in business session at the church on Friday evening last for the election of officers for the ensuing year. The following officers were elected, to wit: Charles Hetrick, Jr., president; Olive Hunt, vice president; Gladys Burley, secretary and treasurer; Linnie Cudd, corresponding secretary. Chairmen of committees were elected as follows: Julia Duncan, membership committee; Maggie Ray Burley, reception committee; Fannie Mulkey, entertainment committee; Fred Fowler, devotional committee, and Lola Kelley, visiting committee.

An invitation was extended the class to attend a reception at the home of the teacher on next Friday evening, which was accepted.

Linnie Cudd, Cor. Sec.

MAY HAVE BEEN MURDERED.

Lynchburg Officers Do Not Believe Syfan Killed Himself.

Abbeville, March 7.—The body of A. R. Syfan, who was killed in Lynchburg, Va., Friday, was brought here for burial. The funeral took place from the residence of M. C. Syfan, a brother of the deceased, this afternoon.

It was at first reported that Mr. Syfan had committed suicide by shooting himself through the head with a pistol, but police investigation seems to have established serious doubts as to this. It is reported here this evening that Mr. Syfan was murdered, and that a party in Lynchburg has been arrested in connection with the alleged crime. It is said that a watch of Mr. Syfan's was pawned, and that following up this clue the police made the arrest.

Abbeville was Mr. Syfan's home from boyhood. He had many friends and relatives in this section. He was a locomotive engineer and had been out of work for some time. He had been in Lynchburg only a short time.

Notice to Public.

On account of my absence the Court of Probate will be closed from Monday, March 15th, to Friday, March 19th, 1915, inclusive. The office will be open, to those wishing to examine the records, from 9.30 a. m. until 12.30 p. m., each day.

F. V. Martin, Judge of Probate.

Single Comb White Leghorn and Plymouth Rock Eggs for setting. Price, 50c. setting of 13. J. H. BARNETT, Westminster, S. C., R. F. D. No. 4. 11***

WANTED—A white nurse, German preferred; comfortable home to the right party. Apply, stating age and references, to MRS. H. L. ERCKMANN, No. 53 Ashley Ave., Charleston, S. C. 10

Lynched for Stealing Hogs.

Clarendon, Ark., March 4.—Jeff Mause and H. M. Candy, white fishermen, accused of stealing hogs, were taken from officers and shot to death by a mob near Clarendon, according to reports made to the sheriff here to-day.

The men were arrested at their homes in a remote section, and were being taken in a boat through a narrow bayou to jail when the mob, partially hidden behind bushes on the bank of the stream, ordered that the prisoners be landed. The men were heavily armed, the officers declare, and the command was complied with. Later the bodies of the fishermen, riddled with bullets, were found by a searching party.

Efforts to-night to secure information as to the identity of members of the mob were unsuccessful.

The Bailey Military Institute of Greenwood has received 20,000 rounds of ammunition from the United States War Department. The ammunition will be used by the cadets in target practice during the spring.

FOR SALE!

FRESH CORN MEAL, water ground, of country corn; delivered anywhere in town at 25c. peck, $1 per bushel. Phone 66.

NICE, BRIGHT PEAVINE AND CANE HAY for sale—$1.00 per 100 pounds.

IF YOU PLANT ANY COTTON, plant the best. I can spare 50 bushels of Triumph Big Boll Seed at $1.00 per bushel. The earliest Cotton that grows.

GEORGE A. HARRISON, Walhalla, S. C.