Rev. N. G. Ballenger and family left on Tuesday morning for their summer home at Brookside.

Announcements of the marriage of Dr. E. M. Coleman to Mrs. Stiff, of Charlotte, N. C., were received here last week. Dr. Coleman has many friends in Seneca who are extending to him hearty good wishes upon his good fortune.

Mrs. J. H. Adams was in Atlanta the past week.

Joe Byrd, Jr., took advantage of the excursion and visited relatives in Atlanta the past week.

Atlanta for several weeks, will arrive home the last of the week.

S. K. Denny, Jr., spent the past week-end with his family here.

The Success Theater is offering unusual attractions this week. Local pictures, including the photographs of numbers of Seneca babies, were made last week and are being shown for four nights this week, beginning Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Holleman spent last week in Charleston, where Mr. Holleman attended the State Bankers' Association.

Mrs. Ben Harper has returned from a visit to Atlanta and Commerce, Ga.

Miss Eleanor Norman is entertaining on Tuesday afternoon for her sister, Mrs. Arthur Norman.

The alarm of fire was given Monday morning when Lowry & Holloway's store room was caught. From water boiling over upon a gas stove. The blaze was quickly smothered and little damage done.

The meeting which was in progress at the Methodist church last week closed Sunday night. The pastor, Rev. N. G. Ballenger, did the preaching, giving fine sermons, the meeting being held preparatory to a revival which will be held in Seneca in August.

Rain is needed in Seneca and vicinity, both in crops and to lay the dust.

Miss Stella Finckann's friends are sympathizing with her in a continued illness. They hope to hear of her improvement soon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Y. Stribling, of Roswell, Ga., were in Seneca last week. They came for the funeral of Mrs. C. L. Reid. Mrs. Martha Ramsey accompanied them home.

J. W. Stribling has accepted a position with the Courtenay Manufacturing Company for the summer months. J. W. is a textile student at Clemson, having just completed the junior year.

Misses Lillian Floyd and Dorothy Mason, of Charlotte, are guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lunney. Miss Floride Uropst is teaching a class in music at Fair Play.

Mrs. M. J. Floyd, the mother of Charles Floyd, is quite unwell at the home of her son. She suffered a fall recently and has been confined to the use of a rolling chair since.

The missionary society of the Presbyterian church held an open air meeting on the lawn of Mrs. J. J. Cromer Monday afternoon. This society is divided into four circles, and during the summer months it is in-

NEWS FROM WESTMINSTER.

Sad Death of Infant—Revival Services—Local Notes.

German Report Many Prisoners.

Berlin, June 18.—The prisoners taken by the German and Austro-Hungarian armies up to June 14 totalled 1,411,000, according to the Bavarian Staats Zeitung. The newspaper says this total is divided as follows: Russians, 1,240,000; French, 255,000; English, 24,000; Belgian, 41,000; Servian, 50,000.

Children's Day at Ebenezer.

Children's Day exercises will be observed at Ebenezer on the second Sunday in July. We want everybody to come and enjoy the day with us. Bring well-filled baskets and new song books.

tended to hold the meetings with the various circles, each in turn being responsible for the program. The program on Monday was given by the banner circle, composed of the members in this community, and was presided over by Mrs. Sallie Holleman, the captain of the circle. Among other interesting features were the papers by Mesdames Heller and Shelor, setting forth the virtues of our mountain schools. Mrs. W. P. Reid made a most interesting talk on the Nacoochee Institute, and a number of children in costume made a most telling plea for home missions. Miss Eleanor Ravenel sang two delightful solos and Miss Rebecca Todd rendered an exquisite piano selection. At the close of the program M. L. Thompson and R. S. Verner delighted the company with a number of violin selections, accompanied by Miss Leila Thompson. The next meeting will be held with the circle of which Mrs. J. Ed. Sitton is captain.

CROUCH-MAXWELL WEDDING.

Beautiful Ceremony at Johnston Last Thursday Evening.

There are many Walhalla and Oconee people who will be interested in the following item clipped from the Johnston social news published in the Columbia State of June 21st. The Courier joins with many other friends of the groom in extending hearty congratulations and to the young couple every good wish for a happy future. We quote below from the Johnston correspondent:

Johnston, June 20.—One of the most beautiful weddings ever held here was that of Thursday evening in the Methodist church when Miss Elise Cathrine Crouch, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilley Westley Crouch, married Dr. Lucius Sloan Maxwell. The wedding hour was 9 o'clock, but long before this the church was filled. The interior of the edifice was decorated in the wedding colors, pink and blue, and the chancel and altar rail were banked in ferns and pink roses, and as it was a "butterfly wedding" about were these gorgeous creatures.

Previous to the entry of the bridal party a musical program was enjoyed. Miss Irene Strother, of Walhalla, sang "Just You," and again, with Avory Bland, she sang "A Perfect Day," being accompanied on the piano by Mrs. James Cullum and violin by F. M. Boyd. Mendelssohn's bridal chorus was sung by Miss Strother, Mesdames Taylor Goodwyn of Greenwood, L. C. Larimer, F. M. Boyd and Avory Bland.

As Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Emma Bouknight, began, the ushers advanced up the aisles. They were Earl Owington Crouch, Lewis Blount, W. B. Ozais and Charles Humphries of Walhalla. The ribbon girls, Misses Enla Satcher, Elberta Bland, Hallie White and Elise Mobley, drew pink ribbons to mark the bridal pathway. The attending maids and groomsmen entered in the following order: Misses Lida Caldwell, of Charlotte, and Miss Minnie Craig Taylor, of Camden, followed by Lewis Wannamaker, of Orangeburg, and Leroy Wertz, of Belton; Misses Dollie Bettis, of Trenton, and Gladys Sawyer, with Frank S. Bland and Rufus May of Greenwood; Misses Julia Maxwell, of Walhalla, and Julia Barrow, of Belton. The flower girls were little Frances Crouch and Lona Perry. The maid of honor, Miss Annie Crouch, sister of the bride, entered alone.

The bride entered with her father, H. W. Crouch, and was met at the altar by the groom, with his best man, Dr. Charles P. Corn. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. T. Thacker.

A lovely picture was the bride in her wedding robes of shimmering white messaline, trimmed in real lace and pearls. It was short length, with court train of lace and tulle, which fell from the shoulders, and the bridal veil was encircled by orange blossoms. Her only jewelry was a diamond necklace, the gift of the groom, and she carried her mother's wedding handkerchief. The shower bouquet was of orchids and lilies of the valley.

As the bridal party left the church the bridal chorus was sung. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. As the guests entered they were served with punch on either side of the broad veranda by Misses Ruth Smith, Pet LaGrone and Mesdames D. D. Moorer and Wilber Wertz. Mesdames Taylor Goodwyn and Oscar D. Black greeted the guests at the front, and in the hallway Mesdames J. A. Lot and J. L. Walker conducted them to the parlor, where the receiving line stood. Mrs. Charles E. Easley, of Florence, introducing the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Crouch, with the bridal pair, and the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Owington S. Wertz, were first in the line.

The guests were directed to the dining room by Mesdames J. C. Wertz and M. W. Crouch.

The wedding ring was drawn by Miss Gladys Sawyer; the engagement ring, Mr. Van; Miss Annie Crouch, the cat; Miss Caldwell, the owl; Miss Maxwell, the shoe; Miss Bettis, the double hearts; Miss Elise Mobley, the can; Mr. Ariele, the clock.

The refreshments, block cream, with a pink heart in the center, with fruit and heart-shaped pound cake, and later pink and blue mints, were served by Misses Ida Satcher, Frances Turner, Antonette Denny, Ella Jacobs, Annabelle Thacker and Louise Hoyt.

The guests registered, the book being presided over by Miss DeSassaure Hogan and Miss Maud Nickerson.

During the evening, as the bride mounted the stairway, she threw her

ROUTE THREE TRI-WEEKLY.

Best Service Possible Under Ruling of Post Office Department.

The following letter is self-explanatory with reference to the establishment of Walhalla Route No. 3:

Washington, June 14, 1915.

Hon. Wyatt Aiken, Abbeville, S. C.

—My Dear Mr. Aiken: With reference to your letter of the 10th instant, addressed to the superintendent, Division of Rural Mails, transmitting a clipping from The Keowee Courier relative to the establishment of proposed Rural Route No. 3, Walhalla, S. C., which has been ordered established June 16, 1915, with three-times-a-week service, wherein you again urge, by request that service on this route be made daily except Sunday, I beg to state that, while the many forceful representations made by you in behalf of the prospective patrons of the route from Walhalla who desire six-times-a-week service are appreciated, I can only reiterate the statements made in previous letters addressed to you on this subject that under the postal laws and regulations the frequency of service on newly established rural routes cannot exceed three times a week unless such routes be composed wholly or in greater part of routes having six-times-a-week service.

Regretting that favorable action on your request for daily except Sunday service on Route No. 3, Walhalla, cannot consistently be taken, I am, Sincerely yours,

A. B. Foster,
Acting Fourth Asst. P. M. General.

Service Days Changed.

It was found that the service could be better adapted to the needs of the patrons of Route No. 3 by changing the service days from Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays of each week to Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and upon the representations made to the post office department the change was ordered. From this time forward, therefore, the patrons of Route No. 3 will be served their mail on the latter days—Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

The rulings of the government, we understand, are that upon proper showing being made as to volume of business transacted by a given route, the service can be changed from tri-weekly to daily except Sunday, or to daily service, and vice versa, provided the necessary qualifications be met.

It is probable that a daily service will be inaugurated on the route. The patrons can lend material aid to this end by urging everybody along the route to patronize it and by making an effort to utilize the mail facilities for the transaction of all business that can be handled by mail.

MISUSE OF FLAG IS SUBJECT

Of Another Note to Great Britain. German U-29 Sunk.

Washington, June 21.—New representations to Great Britain on misuse of the American flag by English steamers probably will be made in the new note being prepared to deal further with interruptions to neutral commerce.

At the State Department to-day it was said no official information was at hand on the German charge that the submarine U-29 was sunk by a British steamer flying the colors of Sweden. The British admiralty has denied it. Berlin takes the view that the incident has a bearing on the negotiations with the United States over submarine warfare. American officials, while not admitting that the case has a bearing, are curious to know how the German admiralty got its information inasmuch as all on the U-29 were reported lost.

Officials, however, felt that misuse of neutral flags complicates the issue with Germany.

Well Known Publisher Dead.

New Canaan, Conn., June 21.—Wm. H. Rand, for many years head of the printing and publishing house of Rand, McNally & Co., died last night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. W. Chappell. He had been ill for some time.

Tillman Reaches Colon.

Colon, June 18.—Senator Benj. R. Tillman, of South Carolina, accompanied by his family, arrived here to-day from New York. All the party were well, although they had rough weather for two days on the way down. They will leave Panama for San Francisco about June 29.

bouquet, and it was caught by her sister, Miss Annie Crouch. Soon she returned attired in a traveling suit of putty colored chiffon broadcloth. Before their return from their honeymoon they will visit the bridegroom's relatives at Greenville and Walhalla.
