LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

—For Sale—Nice cow with young calf. Apply to Jas. H. Darby, Walhalla, S. C.—Adv.

—Miss Irene White, after a pleasant visit to relatives and friends in Atlanta and Gainesville, returned to her home here Monday evening, to the delight of her many friends.

—Sheriff J. W. Davis, Chief Geo. L. Jones, Marshal A. T. Reid and Constable J. A. Keaton are in Greenville this week attending the session of United States Court. G. M. Ansel and W. Thos. Maxwell are attending as jurors.

—T. E. Alexander sells Rock Hill buggies. Walhalla, S. C. adv.-tf.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Whitmore, of Pine Mountain, Ga., passed through Walhalla last week on their way to their home, after a most pleasant and extended visit to their daughter, Mrs. Sam Massey, in Seattle, Wash. During their stay they also visited the exposition.

—Marcus C. Long, Esq., announces that, in response to numerous requests, he will teach a class of 20 pupils in shorthand and typewriting. He will begin the course November 1st. Consult his announcement elsewhere in this issue and see him if interested.

—Jacob Bradberry died at the home of his nephew in the Old Pickens section last Saturday. He was a native of Georgia and was about 70 years of age. Interment took place at Ebenezer Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. F. H. Pressley.

—Fine apple vinegar, 35c. per gallon; 3 gallons for $1. John Kuemmerer, Walhalla.—Adv.

—J. Hoyt Hill, of Los Angeles, Cal., passed through Walhalla last Saturday on his way from Horse Cove, N. C., where he had been on the sad mission of attending the funeral of his brother, who met death at Los Angeles by accident on September 30th.

—Miss Frances Stribling has gone to New York City to resume her studies in art. She and her sister, Miss Sallie, attended one of the art schools of that city, the latter completing the course last year. Miss Stribling's many friends wish for her every success in her studies.

—Mrs. H. C. Busch and daughters, Misses Lula and Rosa May, returned to Walhalla last Thursday night after spending some days in Tampa, Fla., with relatives. They bring back the welcome information that their relative, William Rose, who has been quite ill for some time, is very much improved. We hope for his early complete recovery.

—For Sale—50 acres of land adjoining corporate limits of town of West Union; on public road and railroad; 25 acres in cultivation; six-room dwelling and good barn; $50 per acre. Moss & Littleton, Walhalla, S. C.—Adv.

—We are requested to announce that there will be a "box sale" at the West Union school house Friday night of this week, beginning at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend and to patronize the entertainment liberally. The proceeds of the sale and entertainment will go towards a fund for the benefit of the West Union school.

—The largest sweet potato that we have ever seen is now in the Courier office. It was grown by John R. Peay, who lives near West Union. Mr. Peay states that he has about a half acre in these potatoes (the Triumph) and he anticipates a yield of 50 or 60 bushels. The potato brought to this office weighs five pounds and 14 ounces. It is a real beauty and has every appearance of fine quality.

—Rev. G. G. Mayes occupied the pulpit of the Walhalla Presbyterian church last Sunday, both morning and evening, preaching to good congregations at each service. Rev. Mr. Mayes was at one time pastor of the Walhalla church, and he is always a welcome visitor here. He presented the cause of home missions on this occasion. Rev. G. M. Wilcox, pastor of the church, was absent, being in attendance upon the session of Synod at Charleston.

—We are requested to announce that the Methodist Guild will meet Thursday (to-morrow) afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Miss Gertrude Smith.

—Mrs. E. M. Smith, of Hartwell, Ga., is spending this week in Walhalla visiting her sister, Mrs. Mary N. Ansel. Mrs. Smith was at one time a resident of Walhalla and has hosts of friends here who are always glad to meet her.

—Miss Essie Macaulay, of Woodruff, and Mrs. John W. Rollins, of Lake City, S. C., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Macaulay this week. Mrs. Rollins is a niece of Mr. Macaulay, Miss Macaulay being a sister. They are being cordially greeted by numerous friends.

—Lost—At or near Poplar Springs church, Sunday, October 2d, gold Lavalier. Finder leave at The Courier office and get reward.—Adv.

—Auditor D. A. Smith has in hand the money with which to pay off all election accounts (for managers, etc.) in the recent election on the question of prohibition or local option. Some claims have already been presented and paid. Checks will be mailed out next week to all parties who have not called for their money.

—The many friends of James M. Hughs, who has been for some time residing at Vineyard Haven, Mass., will be pleased to learn that he will be in Oceone for some time. Mr. Hughs has been quite ill for some time, and wrote The Courier (September 20) that he was then able to be up and expected to start for his old home at Richland within a few days.

—Brownlee & Company, of Westminster, have a very important announcement on this page. Read it and call on them. Their special sale will begin Saturday of this week. They have some specials that will be ready for the public promptly with the opening of their store next Saturday morning. They have made a cut on everything except two items. The ad. will tell you what those are.

—Prof. W. H. Hand delivered a splendid lecture at the High School auditorium Monday night of last week. Mr. Hand was heard by quite a good audience, and his remarks were well received. He advocated the addition of an eleventh grade to the Walhalla school, which may be done in the near future, though the school now ranks on a practical equality with eleventh grade schools in the State.

—The Walhalla plant of the Monaghan Mills is closed for a week while certain repairs are being made. New boilers are being placed and other improvements are being made. Owing to these contemplated changes, the mill did not close down during the summer for a week's rest for the operatives, but waited until now, in order that the changes might be made without unnecessary loss to the operatives. The mill will be in full operation again next Monday.

—There are many friends in Oceone of Luther L. Davis who will be interested to learn that he has entered the Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Ky. Mr. Davis states that at the opening of the institution, September 29th, there were present 225 students—the largest number in the history of the institution. It is thought that the enrollment will reach the 300 mark in the very near future. Mr. Davis notes the fact that, in connection with the seminary, there is a training school for girls, in which department the enrollment numbers between 50 and 75. Mr. Davis is a 1914 graduate of the Walhalla High School.

—The Sunday school rally in Walhalla last Sunday was very gratifying to the workers, the attendance being quite large. The pupils of the various Sunday schools assembled on Main street as the line of march proceeded from the Methodist church to the Lutheran church and thence down Main street to Presbyterian church to hear Mr. Webb, general secretary of the Interdenominational Sunday School Association in this State. The total number of children in line was 208, these being divided by denomination as follows: Baptist 134, Methodist 67, Lutheran 63, Presbyterian 14. Mr. Webb made a fine talk, outlining the work necessary for the maintenance of a live Sunday school and urging the adoption of systematic methods in the conduct of the work of the Sunday school. Prof. W. S. Morrison, of Clemson College, also spoke, his address, however, being very brief. This was the first visit by Mr. Webb to this place in his official capacity. He has been engaged in similar work in Alabama for some time. In the morning Mr. Burnett addressed the Baptist Sunday school, rally day being observed there at that time. A large number was present at Sunday school exercises, the number present being 209.

—Kill Two Birds With One Stone. Call at our store for your November Dellicator and inspect our new line of fall goods. C. W. Pitchford, Walhalla.—Adv.

—C. W. & J. E. Bauknight have received their new lot of 4 and 5-year-old horses and mules. See advertisement on first page, and call on them if you want a good young mule.

—We are informed that it will be possibly two weeks before the Walhalla Light and Power Company will be in position to operate their plant. It was thought that only a few of the coils had been burned out by the lightning stroke, but on taking apart the machinery it was found that about 20 coils had been completely destroyed. Some new coils have been received, but not a sufficient number were ordered to repair the damage sustained by the plant.

—We have at The Courier office two bunches filled with very large berries, the first of the kind we have ever seen. They were grown by Clem Watkins at his home just west of town. He calls them the "fall huckleberry" and states that they prove an excellent relish after frost. They have much the appearance of the berry catalogued by growers as the "Wonderberry." The two sections of vine, about three feet in length, filled with berries, weighed a little over two pounds.

—Lost or Strayed—From my home, on September 27th, one red male pig, about five weeks old. Finder please return and receive reward. Billy Sanders, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ernest have moved from their town home to the country place of Mr. and Mrs. L. Good, Mrs. Ernest's parents, where they will make their home in the future. Mr. Ernest's cottage on Church street has been rented to Mr. and Mrs. C. Fred Brown, who will move into it this week from Tugaloo street. The Barrett cottage from which Mr. and Mrs. Brown will move has been rented to M. R. McDonald. (Just what our young bachelor friend contemplates we are not authorized to state, but we suspect that the bee of matrimony—Oh, well, just wait!)

—Daniel E. Good has recently completed the erection of quite a handsome suburban home on his place just west of Walhalla. Mr. and Mrs. Good moved in last week. Mr. Good will give much of his time to the care and oversight of his fine apple orchard, which has just "come into its own" this year. He is supplying this market with some of the finest apples we have ever seen, not excepting even the fruit shipped here from the North. He has christened his new home place the "Apple Grove Orchards." He is opening up a business that promises well, and we wish him every success.

—Postmaster Fant is in receipt of a letter from the Post Office Department requesting a township map of Oceone. We quote the letter below. If any one possesses such a map, its loan to the postmaster will be appreciated. The letter follows: "To aid in official mapping of rural delivery service, the department needs a township atlas or map of Oceone county, showing roads and other characteristics. The atlas or map should be as nearly as possible correct and up-to-date, with scale about one mile to the inch. If you secure such atlas or map, and will forward, without expense to the department, it will be consulted with care and returned without unnecessary delay."

—The congregations of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches will begin a series of special services next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the Methodist church. Rev. Mr. Wilcox will preach a series of sermons on the 23d Psalm, running to Wednesday morning. Then, at the evening hour, the services will begin at the Presbyterian church, and Dr. Stokes will preach, to the close of the meeting, on the book of Galatians. It is planned to have these services daily at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., to run for one week. It is the intention of Revs. Wilcox and Stokes to make them largely a season of Bible study, and it is requested that all bring their Bibles with them. Church members are requested to magnify this opportunity, so that it may result in the edification of believers and the conversion of souls. The whole community is cordially invited to attend and to take part.

—A fire that came near being a very disastrous one occurred in Walhalla last Thursday morning when the machine shop of W. John Schroder, at the corner of Main and Tugaloo streets was totally destroyed. The fire occurred about 12:30 a. m., during a veritable deluge of rain. The alarm was given and crowds assembled quickly, doing most effective work, though nothing in the doomed building was saved. This building was within twelve feet of the Schroder residence, to the east, and not more than 20 feet from a small frame store room fronting on Main street. Both the store room and residence were saved from damage. Much of the household goods was removed from the Schroder residence, the furniture sustaining considerable damage from water. It was indeed a lucky escape for the residence. Mr. Schroder estimates his loss at about $1,500 on shop building and machinery of various kinds. It is supposed that the fire had its origin in sparks from the forge. During the day employees in the place had extinguished flames among the litter from wood-work near the forge, and it is thought more than probable that some smoldering fire caught up later in the night, causing the fire early in the morning. Mr. Schroder carried no insurance.

Oceone S. S. Convention.

Sunday schools of Oceone county, take notice!

The annual convention of the Oceone County Sunday School Association will be held with Immanuel Baptist church, at Westminster, on October 28th and 29th. Program will be published later. Arrange for a full delegation. Yours very truly, Chas. F. Hetrick, County President.

Canal Closed Forty Days.

Washington, Oct. 3.—War Department dispatches to-night announced that there was little prospect of reopening the Panama Canal before November 1. Since the channel was blocked by a slide north of Gold Hill September 20 the movement of earth and rock has continued steadily. Hundreds of vessels will be held up by the closing of the canal for 40 days or more, causing the first serious interruption of canal traffic since the opening in August, 1914.
