

ESCAPES FROM THE STATE PEN.

Housebreaker Makes Get-Away—Used Meat Bone Key.

(The State, 6th.)
L. H. Gunnells, awaiting trial on a charge of breaking and entering the James L. Tapp store, escaped from the South Carolina State penitentiary at an early hour yesterday morning. Blood hounds followed his trail up the canal bank, down the Broad river road, through Camp Formance, and to Elmwood avenue, where it was lost. He had not been recaptured at a late hour last night.

Gunnells has tuberculosis and was placed in the State penitentiary while awaiting trial, that he might receive the benefits of the prison sanitarium. About 2.30 o'clock yesterday morning the guard in making his rounds discovered that Gunnells had escaped. Investigation proved that he prized an iron bar with a board and escaped through a south window. From there he made his way to a door at the foot of a lookout tower on the western wall, and with a bone key, made from a meat bone, he opened the lock and had an easy time climbing the stairs. With sheets that he had taken from the hospital he made a rope and swung down the wall to liberty.

Prison guards are not stationed in the lookout towers at night, for the prisoners are all locked up in the cells or the hospital. The inside grounds are patrolled. The guard on duty at the sanitarium had passed by Gunnells' window about 30 minutes before and all was well. Upon his return Gunnells was gone. It is presumed that the escaping prisoner watched the guard and knew that his beat took him away half an hour.

A clever part of the get-away was the making of the bone key. This saved Gunnells from climbing the inside of the wall and also gave him opportunity to make his rope and securely fasten it while hidden in the lookout tower. The prisoners had been given meat and Gunnells evidently slipped a bone. It is presumed that he filed it against the iron bars. Gunnells is a Columbian.

SPANISH LINER WRECKED.

445 Persons Lost Lives When Steamer Sank Off Brazil Coast.

Santos, Brazil, March 6.—The Spanish steamship Principe de Asturias has been sunk by striking a rock. She went to the bottom in five minutes. Eighty-six members of the crew and 57 passengers have been brought to Santos.

The survivors were brought in by the French steamer Viga. A Spanish steamship is standing by.

The Principe de Asturias went down off Sebastiao Point, the western extremity of the island of that name, near the entrance to Santos Bay.

(The Principe de Asturias was engaged in the passenger service between Barcelona and Brazil. The last reports of her movements are of her departure on her previous trip eastward. She passed Gibraltar February 4 on her way from Buenos Aires to Barcelona.)

She was a large and comparatively new vessel. Her gross tonnage was 8,371, her length 460 feet, her beam 58 feet and depth 29 feet. She was built at Port Glasgow in 1914 and was owned by the Pinillos, Izquierdo y Cia, of Cadiz, Spain.)

London, March 6.—A dispatch from Santos says that 338 passengers and 107 members of the crew of the Principe de Asturias are missing. The steamer was wrecked yesterday off Sebastiao Point, the western extremity of the island of that name, near the entrance to Santos Bay.

The "Daily Girl Show."

(Kansas City Dispatch to New York World.)

Seymour Rice, manager of the Grand Opera House, believes he has solved the mystery of the decline of musical comedy.

"The new styles in woman's dress, I believe, have had a great deal to do with it," said Mr. Rice. "Now, just watch some of the women as they pass up and down the streets: note the short skirts; observe the brilliant boots and hose.

"You see in former days men and women went to the theatre and saw girls in short skirts and high-topped, fancy and brilliant shoes, with radi-

Mrs. Fannie Heron Says Rheumatism Kept Her in Bed, Helpless.

SYSTEM RUN DOWN.

She Took Seven Bottles of Tanlac and Obtained Wonderful Relief—Weight Greatly Increased.

"I think Tanlac has been blessed, it has done me and so many others so much good," is the praise given the Master Medicine by Mrs. Fannie Heron, of 1810 Taylor street, Columbia, wife of an employee of the Columbia Street Car Company, in her story of the almost wonderful relief Tanlac brought her.

Mrs. Heron must know what it is to suffer the keenest pain, for she was confined to her bed for five months with rheumatism. She could not turn herself; and every move meant the keenest pain. She began taking Tanlac, and now she can walk several blocks without suffering pain or feeling tired. She has taken seven bottles of Tanlac and now weighs more than she ever weighed before, she said.

Her remarkable endorsement of Tanlac follows:

"I suffered awful agony from rheumatism of the nerves and muscles. I was forced to remain in bed all the time for five months and the pain was so intense that it seemed at times I could not endure it. During those five months every move meant the keenest pain. I could not even turn over in bed so much did my muscles pain me.

"Indigestion, with which I also suffered, caused me great pain. It was awful. My system was run-down, and I lost weight.

"I heard of the great relief Tanlac had brought to others in Columbia and I began taking it. I have taken seven bottles. I can now walk several blocks without feeling pain or becoming tired. I am much stronger now and am in good spirits. My relief is simply wonderful, and I know it is all due to Tanlac, for I took no other medicine along with it.

"I actually weigh more now than I have ever weighed before. I intend to continue taking Tanlac until I have completely recovered from all my ailments and my strength has been fully regained. I think Tanlac has been blessed, it has done me and so many others so much good.

"A large number of my friends are taking Tanlac upon my recommendation. I can heartily recommend it, and I tell almost every visitor what great relief it brought me."

Then Mrs. Heron named several of her friends who she said had received great benefit from it.

Bills Captured Without a Shot.

Petrograd, March 5.—The following official communication regarding the capture of Bills has been issued by the war office:

"Details of the capture of Bills show that our troops attacked the position without firing a shot. The attack was made at night in a snow-storm. About 3 o'clock in the morning a bayonet charge was ordered, and the Turks, after a desperate resistance, were dislodged. The Turkish artillery position was stormed after hand-to-hand fighting, as a result of which the defenders, who fought with the greatest desperation, were all killed.

"On the position and in pursuit of the enemy we captured 20 guns of the latest Krupp type, all of which were in good condition. We also captured on the positions a huge quantity of gun and rifle cartridges, and in Bills itself a large depot of artillery munitions. During the pursuit numerous Turks were sabred. The number of prisoners has increased and includes 40 officers.

ant stockings, and the dress was a novelty.

"People saw things on the stage that were different. Women saw expensive boots that they wouldn't think of wearing themselves. They saw short skirts that they wouldn't dare wear. The men, of course, saw all these things, too.

"Well, with this parade that you can see on the streets any day, why should folks pay their way into a theatre to see the same thing and fewer of them? This show on the street is endless and daring."

Plant Good Cotton Seed.

Farmers should screen their Cotton Seed, or have something to cull all planting seed before going to the field with your planter. This can be done by using screen wire with opening large enough to allow the black, faulty seed to go through. Tack same on to a strip of plank made into a box form, or shaker box, and place this shaker box in a frame so that you can shake it back and forth with your hand, and in this way shake out all faulty seed. The process may be a little slow, but it can be done very satisfactorily and with very little trouble to most farmers.

See us at the Oil Mill if you desire further information.

We planted a row of black seed last year, and certainly would urge that faulty seed be removed.

We will be prepared to screen seed for our customers also.
