Mrs. Dodd, the charming honoree, was presented with a beautiful Dresden china fern dish, and Mrs. L. W. Meakin, having highest score, was presented with a similar prize.  —Announcement of the death of Miss Lizzie Harkins will be received with deep regret by many who had known her. Her death occurred at the home of her mother, Mrs. Harkins, at the Harkins old homestead, a few miles north of Walhalla, last Wednesday night about 10 o'clock, following a serious illness of about one week. Miss Harkins had been afflicted with a cancer for several years, though until her last illness she had not experienced any marked inconvenience therefrom. The interment took place at Bethel cemetery on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. Father J. H. Tobin, of Greenville, who has charge of the Catholic mission in this section of Oconee. Miss Harkins was a faithful and conscientious member of the Catholic church, a good woman, whose life had been given largely to deeds of kindness in the community in which she had spent her whole life. She was about 46 years of age. She is survived by three brothers and two sisters—Dennis, James and H. M. Harkins, Mrs. Julia O'Leary and Mrs. Fannie Coward, the latter residents of the Whitewater section of this county. Dodd died instantly. The cause of the trouble was about a woman. Both negroes came from Virginia. Sheriff Davis went to the scene Saturday night, staying until Sunday afternoon. The body was viewed by many, and testimony taken. Sheriff Davis gave permission for burial, and the railway company interred the body. Walker was captured at Mount Airy, Ga., yesterday, and Sheriff Davis left this morning to get his man. Early Monday morning Sheriff Davis began communicating with sheriffs and other officials in this State, Georgia and North Carolina. We understand that within half an hour after the killing of Dodd another negro was killed at a railroad camp on the Georgia side of the river.

ENROLL!

COUNTY CHAIRMAN CALLS ON VOTERS TO ENROLL NOW.

Enrollment Books Will Close Tuesday, July 25—Only Eleven Days Left for Enrolling Names.
 To the Voters of Oconee County:
 From reports received from different sections of the county, it appears that the voters are enrolling very slowly. It is necessary that every one enroll his name, writing it in full, on or before JULY 25, 1916, as the secretary will have to return the enrolling book to the County Chairman not later than July 28th.
 The qualifications for a voter in a primary are: He must be a white Democrat, 21 years of age, or shall become so before the succeeding general election. He shall be a citizen of the United States and of this State, and shall have resided in this State two years, and in this county six months, prior to the succeeding general election, and shall have resided in his club district sixty days prior to the first primary following his offer to enroll: Provided, that public school teachers and ministers of the Gospel, in charge of regularly organized churches shall be exempt from the provisions of the section as to residence, if otherwise qualified.
 All voters must enroll at the club nearest their residence, calculated by the nearest practical route.
 Copies of the rules are attached to all enrollment books, and the secretaries, or enrolling committees, are urged not only to see that all the voters of their clubs are enrolled, but to see to it that they are properly enrolled.
 The newspapers of the county are doing their full share in urging a full enrollment, and I call upon the candidates for the various county offices to see to it that their friends qualify themselves to vote in the primary elections.
 It is not necessary to have a county registration certificate nor a tax receipt to vote in the primary election, but it is necessary that you have your name enrolled on your own club prior to July 25th.
 Take no chances—Enroll TO-DAY!
 JAS. M. MOSS,
 County Chairman.

DEATH CALLS MRS. GEO. SHELOR

End Came Suddenly Last Saturday Afternoon—Other Seneca News.
 Seneca, July 11.—Special: The death of Mrs. George W. Shelor, which occurred at her home here Saturday afternoon, came as a shock to the many friends of the little family. While Mrs. Shelor had not been in good health for some weeks, her family and friends were not prepared for the sudden taking away of this lovely young woman.
 Mrs. Shelor had been prominently identified with church and social life since her coming to Seneca a few years ago as a bride, and by her intelligence and amiable disposition and untiring energy had won a place in the hearts of a large circle of friends here which will not be readily filled. To the stricken family the death is one of those mysteries which the human mind cannot grasp, yet God in His wisdom has removed this beautiful Christian character from the cares of this life to be with Him, and who can doubt infinite wisdom?
 Before marriage Mrs. Shelor was Miss Cora McIntosh, a member of a prominent family, and one always characterized by loyalty to the church. She leaves a baby boy only a few days old and a young husband, to whom goes out the sympathy of the entire community.
 Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. I. E. Wallace, at the residence Sunday afternoon, and interment was made at Mountain View cemetery.

Local Matters.

The Seneca Christian Endeavor will be well represented at the great convention in Atlanta this week.
 The meeting at the Baptist church will be continued several days this week. The preacher, familiarly known as Engineer Dave Fant, has proven a real blessing to the community, as he preached the word from day to day in his simple heart-searching way. His familiarity with Scripture is marvelous, and he preaches the truth with gloves off. Large congregations have heard him, and intense interest is manifested. A most impressive feature of the services has been the singing. Under the direction of Mrs. R. Anderson, the beautiful Gospel story has been told in song, the singing at the evening services by Mrs. James Lowry being most effective. The meeting will continue through the greater part of the week.
 Mrs. C. E. Mason and daughter, Miss Lucille, of Charlotte, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lunney. Mrs. Mason was heard at the Fant meeting Thursday evening in a beautiful Gospel song.
 The Atlanta Journal publishes the statement that "Atlanta has an electrically lighted tennis court, the only one in the South!" For a fact Seneca has had one for two seasons!
 Misses Sara Davis and Louise Dendy spent the week-end with the Misses Doyle at Bounty Land.
 The Georgia Legislature is trying to pass a law against the noise nuisance, making it an offense to drive automobiles without mufflers. Seneca has also gone Georgia one better in this. I would like to entertain the Seneca Council at a porch party for an afternoon, with the music of the steam shovel added to that of the unmuffled music of the auto, the natural location being ideal for the best that is in both!

On Thursday afternoon last Mrs. W. J. Holloway was hostess to the Once-a-Week Club. There was no regular program, the meeting being a strictly social one, and the last before the club disbanded for the summer. After a "Game of Travel" had been thoroughly enjoyed a delightful ice course, in green and lavender, was served. Among those adding to the pleasure of the afternoon were Mrs. C. W. Banknight and Mrs. J. M. Strother, the hostess's house guests, and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton, of Walhalla.

 Preparations for the chautauqua go steadily forward. The program shows many added attractions this year. Let our friends everywhere remember the dates—July 25, 26 and 27—and the slogan adopted last year, "We're lookin' for you."
 Miss L. E. Lowery, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Lowery, of Plains, Ga., spent a night last week with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hamilton.
 There will be two rest rooms provided this year for the use of ladies attending chautauqua, one at the school house and one on Main street.
 Mrs. R. W. Shelor and two sons, Joseph and George, were in Seneca Sunday upon the sad mission of attending the funeral of Mrs. George Shelor.
 Heavy rains are reported from all sections adjacent to Seneca, great damage resulting to crops.
 Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ballenger, of Greenville, are visiting in the home of Rev. N. G. Ballenger.
 Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Runion are occupying the cottage on Townville street formerly rented by F. P. Hopkins, Mr. Hopkins having moved into his new home near the Methodist church.
 Joe McCarey is still confined to his room, but wishes this correction made as to the cause of his indisposition. "Instead of rheumatism, as stated in the papers, it is only a slight lameness caused from dodging the ladies." He's game, however, and "still in the ring."
 Julius Edwards is on an extended trip to Canada and the Great Lakes.

A Jolly House Party.

Last week-end the Misses Stribling have had as their house guests a congenial and jolly crowd of young folks, viz: Misses Lily Watson, of Greenwood; Emily Jordan, of Greenville, and L. E. Lowery, of Plains, Ga., and Messrs. Joe Carter, of Cross Hill; Erskine Carter, of Clinton, Allan Watson, of Ninety-Six; George Watson, of Greenwood; J. J. Norton and Brown Verner, of Seneca; Witherspoon Wallace, of Atlanta, and Lloyd Ross, of Charlotte.
 On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Verner entertained at a lovely course dinner and theater party for the Liberty Lodge house party. Mrs. Verner is ever a charming hostess, and a delightful time is always assured those who are so fortunate as to be her guests, and on this occasion these young people reluctantly departed after an especially delightful evening.
 A rook party given by Mrs. John Dendy complimentary to her cousins, who compose the house party of the Misses Stribling, was an occasion of much merriment and pleasure. Besides the house party Misses Eloise Strother and Janie Harrison, Messrs. A. A. Manning and Mack Neville were guests at this lovely entertainment.
 Other entertainments planned for the house party at Liberty Lodge were a theater party by Mrs. Geo. L. Wilson and a morning at Tamassee Place as the guests of Mrs. Hayne G. Jones.
 An occasion of rare beauty and pleasure was the "42" party tendered the Misses Stribling's house party by Miss Janie Harrison Monday evening. A number of interesting games were enjoyed, after which a delicious sweet course was served by Misses Grace Beard and Carrie Darby Harrison.
 Mrs. J. W. Shelor entertained Tuesday morning in honor of her charming guest, Miss Ethyl Shelor, of Calhoun, Ga., and the visitors at Liberty Lodge.
