

NOTED SUFFRAGIST IS DEAD.

Before Marriage Was Miss Inez Milholland, of New York.

Los Angeles, Nov. 26.—Mrs. Inez Milholland Boissevain, well-known suffragist and welfare worker, died in a hospital here shortly before midnight last night after an illness of ten weeks. She was 30 years old. Mrs. Boissevain was stricken while addressing an audience in this city during the recent political campaign and fainted on the platform. She was removed to a hospital and her husband and parents rushed from New York to join her here. Miss Vida Milholland, her sister, was with her when she was stricken and has been in constant attendance since that time.

Mrs. Boissevain's illness was diagnosed as aplastic anemia and blood transfusion was resorted to in attempts to improve her condition. Miss Vida Milholland twice gave blood for this purpose, and on four other occasions friends submitted to the ordeal in hope that benefit would result. After each transfusion temporary improvement was followed by relapse. It was stated that Mrs. Boissevain's trouble originated in her tonsils, which became inflamed as the result of too constant speaking during the campaign.

Inez Milholland Boissevain had been for many years widely known for her activity as a woman suffragist, a social welfare worker, an advocate of socialism, and as a practicing lawyer.

Must Enter as a Plain Man.

Vienna, Austria, Nov. 27.—The coffin of Emperor Francis Joseph has been finally closed, but the body will remain lying in state until Thursday, the day set for interment.

At the burial in the crypt of the Capuchin, a historic ceremony will be carried out, which was anciently designed to impress the monarch's successor that in spite of all pomp a sovereign is merely a mortal.

The funeral procession will be halted at the entrance to the vault by a challenge from within: "Who is there?" The reply will be made: "His most serene majesty, the Emperor Francis Joseph." The challenger will then reply: "I know him not." Responding to a second challenge the announcement will be made: "The Emperor of Austria and Apostolic King of Hungary is outside." Again the challenger will answer: "I know him not."

When, for the third time, the voice within asks who demands admission the master of ceremonies will reply: "A sinful man, our brother, Francis Joseph." The portals will then open and the procession enter.

Ebenezer R. S. I. A. Meeting.

The patrons, trustees and all interested citizens of Ebenezer school are urged to attend a meeting at the school house next Saturday, December 2d.

In the morning the men are urged to come to the school house prepared to do effective work in cleaning up the grounds and any other work that may be needed. They are requested to bring necessary implements.

The ladies of the school improvement association will serve dinner for all present. In the afternoon a very important meeting of the association will be held. This will not be for the ladies already members of the association alone, but every lady of the Ebenezer section is cordially invited and urged to attend. The co-operation of all is needed.

Both the ladies and gentlemen of the Ebenezer section are requested to bear these meetings for next Saturday in mind, and let nothing keep them from attending.

Oconee Ginnings to Nov. 14.

Local Statistician B. R. Moss furnishes us this week with the official figures of cotton ginned in Oconee up to November 14, this year, and the comparison for the same date last year. They are as follows: Ginned to November 14, 1915, 12,722; to November 14, this year, 12,635, showing that this year's ginning in Oconee is 87 bales less than it was on November 14 last year.

Don't Neglect Your Cold.

Neglected colds get worse, instead of better. A stuffed head, a tight chest must be relieved at once. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is nature's remedy. Honey and glycerine heal the irritated membrane, antiseptic tar loosens the phlegm, you breathe easier and your cold is broken up. Pleasant to take, Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is an ideal remedy for children as well as grown-ups. At your druggist, 25c.—Adv. 1.
