My Christmas Wish

By
GEORGE MATHEW ADAMS

This is my great, earnest Christmas wish—that the Christmas Spirit may enter me and that it may fill me, enthral me, and then that I may dip into its wealth of love and give it away—to Everybody—everywhere. So that even War can never be again. And Peace shall eternally endure in the Hearts of men.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS.

With this issue of The Courier we extend to each and every one of our patrons, readers and friends a most hearty wish for a very merry, happy Christmas. This is the time to be glad, the time to give cheer to the cheerless, help to the helpless, comfort to those in distress and to inspire hope in the hearts of those who from some cause may have lost hope. Let us each and every one this year try to find some one to make glad, some one to cheer on the weary way that may be stretching wretchedly before them. We will find this the source of our greatest personal blessing.

Pass around whatsoever of good cheer you may have. Share it with your neighbors and friends, especially with those less fortunate than yourself. More than half the pleasure of the Christmas season is found in giving. If you have never tried it, make the experiment this year in giving where no return is expected. That is the secret of the joy of giving. The pity of it is that we so seldom practice this "the true art of giving."

Pass on the good cheer of the great Christmas season; keep it going, and watch the grand results—not the least of which will be, in the end, the counting of the blessings that you may have been instrumental in bestowing.

We pass up the old world-encircling toasts as the Christmas sentiments of The Courier. Like the good deeds of humanity, it takes in all the world in its grand sweep from one to another:

"Here's to all those that love,
Here's to all those that love us;
And here's to all those that love them."

That love those that love them that love us."
May the happy Christmaside bring to each reader of The Courier, our friends near and far, every joy and every happiness that each may hold as his or her most ardent wish!
A merry Christmas to all!

ACROSS THE STREET.

The Courier is in receipt of the following brief bit of advice to the boys. The advice was written by two boys who reside temporarily "across the street" from our office in the county jail. Sheriff John W. Davis last Monday handed us this advice, and stated that the boys specially requested that it be published this week, just before the real opening of the holiday season. Here it is:
"A Word to the Boys that are Free."
"Dec. 11, 1916."

"When you are free and at home and can see Ma and Pa, just listen to what they say and keep out of trouble. Now, boys, take the advice of two poor boys and stay at home. If you do not, when you get into trouble, you will remember what your parents told you when it is too late."
"Sometimes boys will come to you and try to lead you astray, but if we can keep you out of trouble by giving you this little advice, we want to help that much. So listen to what we say. Here we are in trouble, and can only say just take our advice and keep out of jail. When you are not in trouble you think you have a lot of friends, but when you get in prison your troubles have just begun. Your friends will all forsake you. They say, 'Oh, let him stay; he had no business committing the crime, when the poor boy may not be altogether at fault.'"

"J. C. Gilliam,
"T. C. Wilson."

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS.

Love Should Be the Motive in Giving. Bits of Seneca News.

Seneca, Dec. 18.—Special: The moving picture show has been opened again and is in charge of Tom Niimons and Walter Kelley.

Mrs. T. B. Jones and son Allen arrived Sunday and will spend the holidays with Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hunter.

Services in the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening will be purely a Christmas service. The music and the sermon will both be arranged in keeping with the season, and a large congregation will doubtless be in attendance.

Miss Dell Ramsay has returned to her home in Anderson.

The college boys and girls will begin to arrive in a few days and Seneca will accord them a hearty welcome.

Misses Miriam and Catherine Jennings will spend the holidays with Miss Margaret Morrison at Clemson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hutchinson will spend the holidays in Reidsville, N. C.

Mrs. F. M. Cary went to Clemson Saturday afternoon to see her son John, who was reported sick. She found him better and able to leave the hospital.

Claude Hopkins is substituting for John Brock on the mail route to Walhalla, Tamasee and Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Calloway Mims, all of Greenville, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Livingston.

Misses Helen Cary and Dell Ramsay visited in Greenville last week.

Seneca and Westminster town teams played basket ball on the Seneca court last Friday night. Seneca won in a score of 24 to 21.

I hinted last week that the Christmas season should be made as happy and free from care as possible. Let your gifts bear the spirit of the season, love; and let them be selected with one end in view, that of giving pleasure. The merchants are advising "sensible, practical gifts—a suit of clothes or a cap for the boy," etc.

I have no patience with this sort of giving. The man who would give his wife a dress for a Christmas present is a fraud, unless it were one she did not need, and which she could use for personal adornment. Let your gift carry with it the Christmas spirit, however apparently foolish.

An old maid was asked once what she wished most in the world, and she said, "A son-in-law." Endeavor at this glorious, joyous season to give pleasure to the recipient of your gift, and send love with it. Years ago the baby boy in the family spent his earnings to buy mother a Christmas present, an apparently useless little bit of china bric-a-brac. It has all these years occupied its place on the mantel, has been moved and dusted countless times. And what tender associations cluster around it! Its weight in gold could not buy it—this to some, a foolish little dust-atcher—but it was given in love—a simple illustration of the true spirit of Christmas giving. But let us not forget that unspeakable matchless gift, coming from Him who "so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son—the great Christmas gift to mankind," "the chiefest among ten thousand and the One altogether lovely."

May the readers of The Courier have this choicest and best gift, and enough of temporal blessings to make them truly happy!

Westminster Items.

Westminster, Dec. 19.—Special: Mr. and Mrs. E. Zimmerman spent several days in Charleston last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Leathers, of Atlanta, were here the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Dunnigan, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gaines, are now the guests of relatives at Gainesville, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Watson, of Greenville, are visiting Mrs. Watson's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Smithson.

G. B. Dillard, of Greenville, is visiting his uncle, W. M. Dillard.

Rev. Easterling, of Lake City, S. C., Allied the pulpit at Westminster Baptist church last Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.

Misses Greene, Howell, Little, Buchanan and Seawright accompanied Miss Brown to her home at Royston, Ga., and spent the week-end.

Instead of receiving gifts at the Christmas season, the children as well as the grown-ups at Westminster Baptist Sunday school are going to have the joy of giving to make others happy at this season. They will give to the orphanage and to the aged ministers.

Adjutant General's Auto Kills.

Columbia, Dec. 18.—Little Elizabeth Nims, the 11-year-old daughter of Boyden Nims, chemist, was run over and accidentally killed by an automobile driven by Assistant Adjutant Gen. John B. Frost late yesterday afternoon at the corner of Gervais and Mull streets, and Boyden Nims, Jr., was also injured. The little girl, with some other children, it is understood, was starting to cross the street when Gen. Frost's car came along, turning into Bull from Gervais, and accidentally ran over the little girl, the car striking her and fracturing her skull, causing instant death. The distressing accident has caused profound sorrow throughout the city.

(A coroner's jury held an inquest and Gen. Frost was exonerated from all blame.)

Geo. W. Tidwell Ill.

(The State, 17th.)

George W. Tidwell, serving a sentence of seven years in the State penitentiary for manslaughter, has been desperately ill. His condition last night was much improved, but physicians several days last week entertained little hope for his recovery.

JOHN WALKER IN NEW JERSEY.

Negro is Wanted in Oconee on the Charge of Murder.

Sheriff John W. Davis has received word from M. J. Mulcahy, chief of police of Elizabeth, N. J., informing him that the police authorities of Elizabeth now hold one John Walker, colored, alias "Black Man," alias Israel Thompson. Walker is wanted in Oconee to answer to the charge of murder. He shot and almost instantly killed Walter Dodd, also colored, at the construction camp of Willard & Boggs, railroad contractors, near Madison, Oconee county, on August 8th, last.

The letter received by Sheriff Davis stated that one William Carr, colored, is also held as a material witness. Carr having made a statement on oath before the Commissioner of Deeds of Elizabeth, to the effect that he was a cook at the Willard & Boggs camp at the time the murder was committed, and that he was present when the shooting took place. His affidavit conforms to facts gathered at the time of the murder by Sheriff Davis acting in his official capacity.

Sheriff Davis has made application for requisition papers for the return of Walker from New Jersey to South Carolina and will go or send for his man as soon as the requisition papers are ready.

The affidavit of William Carr states: "About the latter part of July or early part of August of this year, 1916, I was second cook at Camp No. 2, Madison, S. C., in the employ of Willard & Boggs, contractors, and was working there the evening that Walter Dodd, alias 'Shorty,' a brakeman on a dinky engine, was shot. The shooting took place about 4 p. m. on a Saturday in the latter part of July or early part of August. Walter Dodd, alias 'Shorty,' had an argument over some money or a woman, and John Walker, alias Israel Thompson, colored, pulled a .41 Colt's revolver from under his overalls, which he always carried in a holster, and shot Walter Dodd, alias 'Shorty,' in the neck. Dodd lived about eight minutes. He died where he fell, in the doorway of Thomas Dorkins' home at Camp No. 2, at Madison, S. C. I make this statement of my own free will after being told that John Walker, alias 'Black Man,' alias Israel Thompson, is under arrest in this city."

The affidavit was made before the Commissioner of Deeds at Elizabeth, N. J., on the 11th day of December. The Elizabeth chief of police has been notified by Sheriff Davis to hold his man pending the receipt of requisition papers for his transfer back to South Carolina for trial.

A big crowd assembled and mobbed the speaker. The police intervened and rushed Miss Pankhurst and her friends to the police station, followed by a demonstration crowd. The prisoners were held under bail for examination before a magistrate.

Notes from County Land.

Bounty Land, Dec. 18.—Special: Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, who has been visiting her son, Dr. Van Smith, of Newberry, has returned to her home here with Hon. J. L. Smith, her eldest son.

The many friends of B. E. Bagwell will regret to learn that he has been quite unwell for the past two weeks. Last reports are to the effect that his condition is improving, but he is still confined to his bed. His daughters, Mesdames Ernest Grant, of Seneca, and W. N. Bruce, of Oakway, and his granddaughter, Miss Nita Woolbright, of Townville, have been with him during the past week.

Several of the members of J. B. Sanders' family are suffering with measles.

MOTHER AND SON KILLED

When Automobile Tumbles Into Florida River from Bridge.

Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 17.—Mrs. Oscar E. Hartley, of this city, and her four-year-old son are dead and other members of an automobile party are badly bruised as the result of an accident this afternoon. The car, driven by Mr. Hartley, ran into the open draw at Amelia river, between Jacksonville and Fernandina, and tumbled 20 feet to the water. Mrs. Hartley and her little son were pinned under the car. Six other members of the party floated and were rescued by the bridge tender and assistants. A four-months-old baby floated with the current for 300 yards and was picked up alive and unharmed. The body of Mrs. Hartley was found under the car, but the little boy's body has not yet been rescued. Other members of the party were Newborne Hart, Ulrich Hatchcock, wife and daughter. The injured members of the party were brought here to-night for treatment.

A Voice from "The Border."

El Paso, Texas, Camp Owen Berne, Dec. 12.—Editor Keowee Courier: Just a few lines to let you know something of "The Borderland." I have had a very unique experience with South Carolina's militia, but after all I find this "borderland" very beautiful, with its cactus-covered mountains and prairies. We have been sleeping under arms for the last ten days, and Company F, Second South Carolina Infantry, had a small engagement with some Mexican bandits. Reported seven bandits killed, and no Americans killed or wounded. There is not one boy in our whole regiment who doesn't want a shot at the Mexicans.

The commanding officer of the 23d United States Infantry recently paid as a compliment in the statement that we were "the best drilled of any of the regiments stationed on the border at this time."

We were informed by authorities this morning that we would remain all winter here in camp. Our camp is stationed in a bend of the Rio Grande—the most dangerous post on the border—but not a boy here is excited.

I must close. Wishing you and every one in dear old Walhalla a very happy Christmas.

John L. Edwards, Co. M, 2d S. C. Infantry. P. S.—Back to Carolina for me!
