

In the District Court of the United States—For the Western District of South Carolina.

THE UNITED STATES Versus

A certain tract of land containing 144.29 acres, more or less, situate in Chattooga Township, in the County of Oconee, in the State of South Carolina, known as the John Lochrie Tract No. 1 (Snider tract);

A certain tract of land containing 86.62 acres, more or less, situate in Chattooga Township, in the County of Oconee, in the State of South Carolina, known as the John Lochrie Tract No. 2 (Powell tract);

A certain tract of land containing 201.35 acres, more or less, situate in Pulaski Township, in the County of Oconee, in the State of South Carolina, known as the John Lochrie Tract No. 3 (Roach tract);

A certain tract of land containing 193.40 acres, more or less, situate in Pulaski Township, in the County of Oconee, in the State of South Carolina, known as the John Lochrie Tract No. 4 (Ramey tract);

A certain tract of land containing 137.29 acres, more or less, situate in Pulaski Township, in the County of Oconee, in the State of South Carolina, known as the John Lochrie Tract No. 5 (Grahil tract);

A certain tract of land containing 472.33 acres, more or less, situate in Pulaski Township, in the County of Oconee, in the State of South Carolina, known as the John Lochrie Tract No. 6 (Black tract);

A certain tract of land containing 1005.67 acres, more or less, situate in Pulaski Township, in the County of Oconee, in the State of South Carolina, known as the John Lochrie Tracts Nos. 7 and 8 (Smith-Whitner tract);

A certain tract of land containing 238.24 acres, more or less, situate in Pulaski Township, in the County of Oconee, in the State of South Carolina, known as the John Lochrie Tract No. 9 (Fred Lee tract);

A certain tract of land containing 180.88 acres, more or less, situate in Pulaski Township, in the County of Oconee, in the State of South Carolina, known as the John Lochrie Tract No. 10 (Deaton tract);

A certain tract of land containing 1050.77 acres, more or less, situate in Pulaski Township, in the County of Oconee, in the State of South Carolina, known as the John Lochrie "Thomas and Howell Carter Tract No. 2";

A certain tract of land containing 191.06 acres, more or less, situate in Pulaski Township, in the County of Oconee, in the State of South Carolina, known as the John Lochrie "Thomas and Howell Carter Tract No. 1";

A certain tract of land containing 77.94 acres, more or less, situate in Pulaski Township, in the County of Oconee, in the State of South Carolina, known as the John Lochrie "Howell Carter Tract."

Notice that Application has Been Made by The United States to Acquire the Land Herein Described by Condemnation.

Pursuant to an order made by his honor, Joseph T. Johnson, United States Judge for the Western District of South Carolina, on the 9th day of January, A. D. 1917, notice is hereby published that application has been made to the District Court of the United States, for the Western District of South Carolina, in behalf of the United States, for the condemnation for the public use and purpose of National Forest Reserve, of a certain tract of land, owned or supposed to be owned by John Lochrie and Kathleen Lochrie, and an accurate description of said tract of land being as follows:

All that tract of land known as the John Lochrie tract number one (Snider Tract), in the County of Oconee, and State of South Carolina, formerly said to contain one hundred and forty-four (144) acres, but containing one hundred and forty-four and 29/100 (144.29) acres, adjoining lands of A. Bynum, P. A. Hull, and others, the same being a portion of the tract of land formerly conveyed to Elisha Snider by Arral Snider, by deed bearing date the 10th day of February, 1893, and recorded in the Clerk's office, in Oconee County, in Book "Q", page 509; the line beginning at corner five of the F. A. Hull "Mongold" tract, an original black jack corner, common to the F. A. Hull "Mongold" and "Ramey" and John Lochrie number one tracts; thence with the line of the F. A. Hull "Ramey" tract to corner L 1, an original corner, a twenty-eight inch pine stump; thence to corner L 2, a stone, one foot high, with witness trees facing it, an original corner of the F. A. Hull "Ramey" tract; thence leaving the line of the F. A. Hull "Ramey" tract to corner L 3, an original corner, a stone one foot high, with three witness trees facing it; thence to corner L 4, a three-inch white oak, marked "X", an original corner; thence to corner L 5, an original corner, a white stone set in the ground with several small witness trees facing it; thence to corner L 6, a flat stone marked "X", an original corner; thence to corner L 7, an original stone corner with witness trees present; thence to corner L 8, a locust stake set in the ground witnessed by several trees, a locust post being set and scribed; thence to corner L 9, an original stone corner, one foot high; thence to corner L 10, an original stone corner with an eight-inch pine for witness, set near old fence line; thence to corner L 11, an original stone corner, set one foot high; thence to corner number one of the F. A. Hull "Mongold" tract, an original stone corner common to the J. B. Jolly, John Lochrie number one, Bynum and F. A. Hull "Mongold" tracts; thence with the boundary of the F. A. Hull "Mongold" tract to corner two of the F. A. Hull "Mongold" tract; thence to corner three of the F. A. Hull "Mongold" tract; thence to corner four of the F. A. Hull "Mongold" tract, the site of the original stone corner, a pine post being set and scribed; thence to corner five of the F. A. Hull "Mongold" tract, the place of beginning.

All and singular that tract of land known as the John Lochrie tract number two (Powell Tract), in the County of Oconee, and State of South Carolina, and formerly said to contain ninety (90) acres, but containing eighty-six and 62/100 (86.62) acres, being upon both sides of the public road leading from Wallhalla, S. C., to Highlands, N. C., and on branches, waters of Village Creek, waters of Chauga Creek and waters of Tugaloo River, adjoining lands of John C. Powell, J. A. Callas, F. A. Hull and W. G. Russell, and being more fully described in a deed from John C. Powell to John Lochrie, recorded in the Clerk's office for Oconee County, in Book "GG", at page 333; the line beginning at corner one, which is corner twenty of the Southernmost corner of the W. G. Russell tract, and also common to the John Lochrie number two and F. A. Hull "Mongold" tracts, an original rock corner established by E. Callas, Surveyor, April 18th, 1908, thence with the boundary of the F. A. Hull "Mongold" tract to corner two, an original rock corner, common to the John Lochrie tract number two, and the F. A. Hull "Mongold" tract; thence to corner three, an original rock corner, common to the John Lochrie number two and the F. A. Hull "Mongold" tracts; thence to corner four, an original rock corner common to the John Lochrie tract number two and the F. A. Hull "Mongold" tract; thence to corner five, an original rock corner, set beside a ten-inch Spanish oak, marked as a corner common to the John Lochrie tract number two, and the F. A. Hull "Mongold" tract; thence to corner six, an original rock corner, common to the John Lochrie tract number two and the F. A. Hull "Mongold" tract; thence to corner seven, an original rock corner, common to the John Lochrie tract number two and the F. F. Holden and V. F. Holden tracts; thence to corner eight, an original rock corner, common to the John Lochrie tract number two and the J. C. Powell and V. F. Holden tracts; thence with the boundary of the J. C. Powell tract to corner ten, which is corner twenty-one of the W. G. Russell tract; and the Westernmost corner of the J. C. Powell tract; thence with the line of the W. G. Russell tract to the place of beginning.

All and singular that tract of land known as the John Lochrie "Roach" Tract, (No. 3); in the County of Oconee, and State of South Carolina, on Chattooga River, adjoining lands of John R. Ramey, William E. Roach and Nancy L. Roach, and being described in a deed from Chattooga River Lumber Company to John Lochrie, recorded in the Clerk's office for Oconee County, in Book "LL", at page 420; the said tract therein said to contain two hundred and thirty (230) acres, but containing two hundred and one and 35/100 (201.35) acres; the line beginning at corner one, a point in the thread of a stream of Chattooga River; which is also corner six of the Jeff Swofford tract, an oak post set and scribed "L 12", on bank of river, as a witness corner; thence with the meanders of the thread of Chattooga River to corner two, which is also corner seven of the William E. Roach tract, a point in the thread of Chattooga River opposite the mouth of a branch, an oak post in a mound of stones, scribed "No. 7", being set as a witness corner; thence with the meanders of the thread of a branch, and the boundary of the William E. Roach tract to corner three, which is also corner eight of the William E. Roach tract, an oak post in a mound of stones; thence leaving the branch to corner four, which is corner nine of the William E. Roach tract, a rock with witness trees; thence to corner five, which is corner ten of the William E. Roach tract, a ten-inch hickory with witness trees; thence to corner six; a chestnut stump with witness trees, which is also corner eight of the Jeff Swofford tract, and corner eleven of the William E. Roach tract; thence with the boundary of the Jeff Swofford tract to corner seven, which is corner seven of the M. Swofford tract, an oak post blazed and scribed; thence to the place of beginning.

All and singular that tract of land known as the John Lochrie "Ramey" tract (No. 4), in the County of Oconee, and State of South Carolina, on Fall Creek, waters of Chattooga River, adjoining lands of Thomas Ramey, J. B. Phillips, Malinda Swofford and others, being more particularly described in a deed from Chattooga River Lumber Co. to John Lochrie, recorded in the Clerk's office for Oconee County, in Book "LL", at page 420, and therein described as containing two hundred and four (204) acres, but containing one hundred and ninety-three and 40/100 (193.40) acres, the line beginning at corner one, which is corner one of the L. Swofford and L. Turpin tract, common to the lands of J. E. Phillips, a rock, no witness, an oak post in a mound of stones being set and scribed; thence following an old hacked line and the L. Swofford and L. Turpin tract to corner two, an oak post in a mound of stones being set and scribed; thence to corner three, an oak post in a mound of stones being set and scribed; thence to corner four, an oak post being set and scribed; thence to corner five, a four-inch red oak; thence to corner six, an eight-inch yellow pine, blazed and scribed; thence to corner seven, an oak post being set in a mound of stones; thence to corner eight, a rock with witness trees, which is corner seventeen of the L. Swofford and L. Turpin tract and common to lands of Thomas Ramey; thence following a ridge and the line of Thomas Ramey, to corner nine, an oak post being set in a mound of stones; thence to corner ten, an oak post in a mound of stones; thence to corner eleven, a six-inch hickory; thence to corner twelve, an oak post in a mound of stones; thence to corner thirteen, an oak post in a mound of stones; thence to corner fourteen, an oak post in a mound of stones; thence to corner fifteen, a burned stump with witness, on top of ridge, a corner common to the lands of Thomas Ramey; thence to corner sixteen, a rock with witness, a corner common to the lands of Thomas Ramey and W. H. Holmes; thence to corner seventeen, a corner made by intersection of two hacked lines, marking corner common to the lands of W. H. Holmes and Mahala Phillips, an oak post in a mound of stones; thence to corner eighteen, a thirty-inch white oak with witness, a corner common to the lands of Mahala Phillips and J. E. Phillips; thence with the boundary of the J. E. Phillips lands to corner nineteen, a rock with witness; thence to corner twenty, a fourteen-inch pine with witness; thence to the place of beginning.

All and singular that tract of land known as the John Lochrie "Grahil" tract (No. 5), in the County of Oconee, and State of South Carolina, and on the East side of Chattooga River, and more fully described in a deed from Chattooga River Lumber Company to John Lochrie, recorded in the Clerk's office for Oconee County, in Book "LL", at page 420, and therein described as containing one hundred and eighty (180) acres, but containing one hundred and thirty-seven and 29/100 (137.29) acres; the line beginning at corner one, a rock set in the ground; also corner of the J. E. Phillips land and corner six of the T. Jeff Lee tract, an oak post being set in the ground and scribed "L 6"; thence with the boundary of the T. Jeff Lee tract to corner two, a fifteen-inch red oak in a hollow; thence to corner three, which is corner six of the W. B. Doyle tract; thence with the boundary of the W. B. Doyle tract to corner of the lands of J. F. Nevill, an oak post in a mound of stones being set and scribed; continuing with the boundary of the lands of J. F. Nevill to corner four, a stake with witness, an oak post in a mound of stones being set and scribed; thence with a hacked line, the boundary of the lands of J. F. Nevill, to corner five, an oak post in a mound of stones being set and scribed; thence to corner six, an oak post in a mound of stones; thence to corner seven, an oak post in a mound of stones; thence to corner eight, an oak post in a mound of stones; thence to corner nine, a point in the thread of Chattooga River, a ten-inch white oak on the bank of the river being blazed and scribed "W C 6" as a witness corner; thence from corner nine, up the meanders of Chattooga River with the thread of the stream to corner ten, a ten-inch maple with witness on the bank of Chattooga River, a corner of the lands of J. E. Phillips, being blazed and scribed as a witness corner "W C 32"; thence from corner ten, with the boundary of the land of J. E. Phillips to corner eleven, a four-inch maple, with witness; thence to corner twelve, an oak post in a mound of stones; thence to corner thirteen, an oak post in a mound of stones; thence to corner fourteen, an oak post in a mound of stones; thence to corner fifteen, an oak post in a mound of stones; thence with the meanders of an old road, to a point N. 18-30 E. 3.87 chains from the place of beginning; thence to the place of beginning.

All and singular that tract of land known as the John Lochrie "Black" tract (No. 6), in the County of Oconee, and State of South Carolina, lying on Long Creek, adjoining lands formerly belonging to the estate of W. J. Duffie, Holmes and others, and more fully described in a deed from Clarence H. Ellison to John Lochrie, recorded in the Clerk's office for Oconee County, in Book "DD", at page 152; and therein described as having been conveyed to said Clarence H. Ellison by W. White, Master, by deed recorded in said office in Book "DD", at page 150, and therein described as containing one thousand (1000.00) acres, more or less, but containing four hundred and seventy-two and 38/100 (472.38) acres; the line beginning at corner one, a common original corner of the M. D. Lee, Dr. Thomas Earle, and John Lochrie tracts, a rock set in the ground, old witness trees present, a white oak post set in a mound of stones and scribed "No. 1-L"; thence with the line of the M. D. Lee tract to corner two, a rock on East slope, a white oak post, surrounded by a mound of stones, being set and scribed; thence to corner three, a rock, a corner common to the John Lee and John Lochrie tracts, a white oak post set and scribed; thence leaving the boundary of the M. D. Lee tract and with the boundary of the John Lee, Jr., tract to corner four, a Spanish oak stump, a corner common to the John Lee, Jr., and John Lochrie tracts; thence to corner five, a rock which is also a corner of the John Lee, Jr., tract; thence to corner six, an old chestnut, now down, on side of mountain, a corner common to the John Lochrie and John Lee, Jr., tracts, a white oak post, surrounded by a mound of stones, scribed "N-6-L"; thence to corner seven, a common corner of the John Lee, Jr., and John Lochrie tracts, a white oak post set and scribed; thence with the line of Nathan Watkins tract, to corner eight, originally a pine stake, a common corner of the John Lee, Jr., Nathan Watkins and John Lochrie tracts; thence to corner nine, a hickory, a common corner of the John Lochrie, J. Tom Thrift and Nathan Watkins tracts; thence with the line of the J. Tom Thrift tract, to corner ten, a rock, a corner common to the J. Tom Thrift and John Lochrie tracts; thence to corner eleven, a rock, a corner common to the J. Tom Thrift, W. J. Stribling and John Lochrie tracts; thence leaving the boundary of the J. Tom Thrift tract, and with the boundary of the Stribling tract, to corner twelve, a common corner of the W. J. Stribling, Dr. Thomas Earle and John Lochrie tracts; thence to corner thirteen, a pine stump, a common corner of the Dr. Thomas Earle and John Lochrie tracts; thence to the place of beginning.

All and singular that tract of land known as the John Lochrie "Smith-Whitner" tract (No. 7-8), in the County of Oconee, and State of South Carolina, one part consisting of a tract of land in Pulaski Township, on the East side of Chattooga River, on Camp Branch, waters of said river, adjoining lands of George Watkins, Jesse Watkins and others, formerly said to contain six hundred (600) acres; the other tract, also on the East side of Chattooga River, adjoining lands of J. W. Smith, Kate O. Vandiver and others; being the two tracts of land first described in the first part of the description given in a deed from C. H. Ellison to John Lochrie, recorded in the Clerk's office for Oconee County, in Book "DD", at page 152; the tract of land herein involved, in its entirety, consisting of one thousand and five and 67/100 (1005.67) acres; the line beginning at corner one, an original rock corner, common to the lands of George S. Watkins, an oak post set in a mound of stones and scribed "L-1"; thence with the George S. Watkins boundary to corner two, a pine knot stake with witness, a corner common to the lands of T. J. Thrift, an oak post being set in a mound of stones and scribed "L-2"; thence S. 26-12 W. 39.02 chains to a corner, a fallen tree with witness stones and scribed "L-3"; thence S. 80-23 W. 16.80 chains to corner, a rock in a field, an oak post set in a mound of stones and scribed "L-4"; thence N. 1-1 W. 43-83 chains to corner, a rock with witness present, an oak post being set in a mound of stones and scribed "L-4 1/2"; thence S. 80-11 E. 34.95 chains to the said corner two, a pine knot with witness, common to the lands of T. J. Thrift, an oak post being set in a mound of stones, blazed and scribed "L-2"; thence with the boundary of the T. J. Thrift lands, N. 73-47 W. 35.69 chains to corner three, a twenty-six-inch hickory, marking the corner; thence to corner four, a stone with witness; thence continuing along the boundary of the T. J. Thrift lands N. 37-34 W. and at a point 9.96 chains from corner four, leaving the T. J. Thrift lands, and continuing the same course with the W. N. Moore tract, to a point twenty-four and 71/100 (24.71) chains from said corner four; thence leaving the W. N. Moore tract, and continuing the same course with the George Smith tract to corner five, a rock with witness; thence with the boundary of the George Smith tract to corner six, a stake with witness; thence to corner seven, a stake with witness; thence with the boundary of the M. D. Lee tract, to corner eight, a corner site with witness, a corner common to the lands of M. D. Lee, an oak post in a mound of stones being scribed "L-10"; thence to corner nine, a rock and a pine knot with witness; thence to corner ten, a point in the thread of Chattooga River, a four-inch poplar on the East bank being blazed and scribed as a witness corner; thence from corner ten, down the meanders of Chattooga River, with the thread of the stream to corner eleven; thence leaving the river, S. 65-17 E. 82.50 chains to corner twelve, a rock with witness marking corner common to the lands of George S. Watkins, an oak post in a mound of stones, scribed "L-64"; thence with the boundary of the George S. Watkins lands to corner thirteen, a fifteen-inch yellow pine, blazed and scribed; thence to the place of beginning.

All and singular that tract of land known as the John Lochrie "Fred Lee" Tract (No. 9), in the County of Oconee, and State of South Carolina, and described in a deed from Chattooga River Lumber Company to John Lochrie, recorded in Clerk's office for Oconee County, in Book "LL", at page 420, as on the East side of Chattooga River, and formerly conveyed by F. B. Lee to Clarence H. Ellison, and by said Ellison conveyed to Chattooga River Lumber Company; therein said to contain three hundred (300) acres; but containing two hundred and thirty-eight and 24/100 (238.24) acres, the line beginning at corner one, a rock on the South bank of Shoulder Bone Creek, an original corner common to the John Lochrie "Fred Lee" tract, L. C. Swofford tract and N. J. Watkins tract, and lands of George S. Watkins; thence with the line of the L. C. Swofford tract to corner two, a corner common to the P. J. Carter tract, a twenty-inch post oak; thence with the line of the P. J. Carter tract to corner three, a corner common to the Oconee Timber Company, a sixteen-inch post oak; thence to corner four, a point in the thread of Chattooga River, a ten-inch ironwood, on bank of river being blazed and scribed as a witness corner "W C-4"; thence from said corner four, up the meanders of the Chattooga River with the thread of the stream, to a point in the thread of the Chattooga River, on the mouth of Shoulder Bone Creek, a thirty-inch sweet gum on bank of stream, being blazed and scribed "L W C-5" as a witness corner; from said point, thence up the meanders of Shoulder Bone Creek, leaving Chattooga River, to the place of beginning.

All and singular that tract of land known as the John Lochrie "Deaton" Tract (No. 10), in Oconee County, and State of South Carolina, on Mill Creek, of Tugaloo River, adjoining lands of William D. Deaton, B. C. Rothell and others, being described in a deed from Chattooga River Lumber Company to John Lochrie, recorded in the Clerk's office for Oconee County, in Book "LL", at page 420; therein stated to contain one hundred and ninety-two (192) acres, but containing one hundred and eighty and 88/100 acres; the line beginning at corner one, an original corner on the edge of Mill Branch, a corner common to the John Lochrie "Thomas and Howell Carter Tract No. 2" and "Deaton" tracts and the Deaton lands; thence with the meanders of Mill Branch to corner two, a stake with witness, a corner common to the John Lochrie and the Deaton lands; thence leaving Mill Branch to corner three, a pine stump with witness, a corner common to the John Lochrie tract and lands of Deaton and James Lee; thence to corner four, a rock marking corner common to the John Lochrie tract and the lands of J. T. Patton and James Lee; thence to corner five, a corner common to the John Lochrie and J. T. Patton tracts; thence to corner six, a post in a mound of stones, scribed "L-30"; thence to corner seven, a rock with witness, a corner common to the John Lochrie and J. T. Patton tracts; thence to corner eight, a rock with witness, a corner common to the John Lochrie and J. T. Patton tracts; thence to corner nine, a rock with witness; which is also corner fifteen of the John Lochrie "Thomas and Howell Carter No. 2" tract; thence to the place of beginning.

All and singular those tracts of land in the County of Oconee and State of South Carolina, formerly consisting of four tracts, described in a deed from N. H. and T. J. Carter to C. H. Ellison, recorded in the Clerk's office, for Oconee County, in Book "GG", at page 101, and in a deed from Chattooga River Lumber Company to John Lochrie, recorded in the Clerk's office for Oconee County, in Book "LL", at page 420, being four tracts first in the description therein, now consisting of three tracts and now known as—

John Lochrie "Thomas and Howell Carter No. 2" tract, in said deeds referred to as two tracts, then said to consist of six hundred and sixty-five (665) acres and five hundred and forty-eight (548) acres, respectively, but now consisting of one tract, found by more accurate survey to contain one thousand and fifty and 77/100 (1050.77) acres, lying on Big Brasstown Creek, waters of Tugaloo River, adjoining lands now or formerly of L. D. Cox, B. C. Rothell and N. H. and T. J. Carter; the line beginning at corner one, a rock on edge of Pulaski Road, marking corner common to the John Lochrie tract and the lands of D. F. Carter; thence with the meanders of the Pulaski Road to corner two, an oak post on edge of road, marking corner common to the John Lochrie tract and lands of Howell Carter; thence leaving the Pulaski Road, and with the meanders of ridge and old road, following the line between the John Lochrie tract and Howell Carter lands to a point in said road S. 87 E. 2.98 chains from corner three; thence to corner three, a stone, an oak post set in a mound of stones and scribed "L-43"; thence to corner four, a pine knot; thence to corner five, a white oak post set and scribed; thence to corner six, a rock with witness trees; thence S. 22-22 W. 3.14 chains to a point in trail; thence with the meanders of a trail and continuing with the line between the John Lochrie tract and lands of Howell Carter, to corner seven, an oak post in a mound of stones scribed "L-51"; thence leaving the trail to corner eight, a rock with witness; thence to corner nine, a pine knot with witness; thence to corner ten, a pine knot with witness; thence to corner eleven, a pine knot; thence to corner twelve, a ten-inch pine; thence to corner thirteen, a rock with witness; thence to corner fourteen, a pine knot with witness, marking a corner common to the John Lochrie tract and the Howell Carter and Deaton lands; thence leaving the boundary line between the John Lochrie tract and Howell Carter lands, and with the line of the Deaton lands, S. 89-36 E. 39.31 chains to a point; thence continuing the same course, and leaving the line of the Deaton lands, and following the line between the John Lochrie and John Lochrie's "Deaton" tracts to corner fifteen, a rock marking a corner common to the John Lochrie, J. T. Patton and John Lochrie's "Deaton" tracts; thence with the line between John Lochrie and J. T. Patton tracts to corner sixteen, a five-inch black pine; thence to corner seventeen, a rock; thence to corner eighteen, an eight-inch chestnut oak with witness; thence to corner nineteen, a rock near trail marking corner common to the John Lochrie, J. T. Patton and L. D. Cox tracts; thence with the line between the John Lochrie and L. D. Cox tracts to corner twenty, a ten-inch black pine on top of ridge; thence to corner twenty-one, an eight-inch pine with witness; thence to corner twenty-two, a ten-inch black gum on bank of Brasstown Creek; thence to corner twenty-three, a pine knot with witness, marking a corner common to the John Lochrie and L. D. Cox tracts and lands of L. D. Cox; thence with the line between the John Lochrie tract and the lands of L. D. Cox to corner twenty-four, a twelve-inch white oak; thence to corner twenty-five, an eight-inch black gum with witness; thence to corner twenty-six, a rock with witness; thence to corner twenty-seven, a rock with witness; thence to corner twenty-eight, a rock with witness; thence to corner twenty-nine, a ten-inch black pine; thence to corner thirty, a twenty-four inch pine on edge of stream; thence up the meanders of a stream to corner thirty-one, a point on the edge of stream, an oak post in a mound of stones, being scribed "L-75"; thence to corner thirty-two, a point at forks of stream, a post set in a mound of stones and scribed "L-76"; thence leaving the stream and ascending bluff to corner thirty-three, a point on top of ridge, a corner common to John Lochrie tracts and lands of Louis Phillips; thence to corner thirty-four, a twelve-inch black pine, marking a corner common to the John Lochrie tracts and the lands of D. F. Carter and Louis Phillips; thence to corner thirty-five, a black jack on edge of road, near gate, marking corner common to the John Lochrie tract and lands of D. F. Carter; thence with the meanders of a road and the line between the John Lochrie tract and the lands of D. F. Carter, to corner thirty-six, a rock by a fence at edge of road, an oak post being set and scribed "L-81"; thence to the place of beginning.

All and singular that tract known as the John Lochrie "Thomas and Howell Carter Tract No. 1", being described in a deed from N. H. and T. J. Carter to C. H. Ellison, recorded in the Clerk's office for Oconee County, in Book "GG", at page 101, and in a deed from Chattooga River Lumber Company to John Lochrie, and being the third tract in the description therein, lying on branches, waters of Chattooga River, and adjoining lands of Campbell Courtenay, Rhoelster lands and others; therein said to contain one hundred and ninety-four (194) acres, but containing one hundred and ninety-one and 06/100 (191.06) acres, the line beginning at corner one, an original rock corner set in the ground on edge of road marking corner common to the John Lochrie tract and the lands of Robertson and Taylor; thence with the line between the John Lochrie tract and the lands of Robertson and Taylor to corner two, a rock set in the ground with witness trees; thence to corner three, a six-inch poplar; thence to corner four, a rock on edge of road with witness trees; thence with the meanders of an old road, and leaving the line of the Robertson and Taylor lands to corner five, a rock with witness trees; thence leaving the road to corner six, a rock with witness trees; thence to corner seven, a twenty-six inch pine with witness trees; thence to corner eight, an eight-inch black oak with witness trees; thence to corner nine, a pine knot with witness trees; thence to corner ten, a six-inch oak with witness trees; thence up the meanders of a stream to corner eleven, a rock with witness trees; thence to corner twelve, a rock on edge of road, with witness trees; thence with the meanders of road, to the place of beginning.

All that tract of land known as the John Lochrie "Howell Carter" tract, in the County of Oconee, and State of South Carolina, described in a deed from N. H. and T. J. Carter to C. H. Ellison, recorded in the Clerk's office for Oconee County, in Book "GG", at page 101, and deed from Chattooga River Lumber Company to John Lochrie, recorded in the Clerk's office, for Oconee County, in Book "LL", at page 420, being the fourth described tract therein, on branches, waters of Chattooga River, adjoining lands now or formerly of Campbell Courtenay and N. H. Carter; therein said to contain eighty-five (85) acres, but containing seventy-seven and 94/100 (77.94) acres; the line beginning at corner one, a corner common to the Campbell Courtenay, Howell Carter and John Lochrie tracts, a six-inch oak, an original corner on top of ridge; thence with the line of the Howell Carter tract to corner two, a pine knot on top of ridge, also a corner of the Howell Carter tract; thence to corner three, a rock on South slope, a corner common to the Howell Carter and Campbell Courtenay tracts; thence with the road and the line of the Campbell Courtenay tract to corner four, a point in the road, also a corner of the Campbell Courtenay tract; thence to corner five, a point in the road, also a corner of the Campbell Courtenay tract; thence to corner six, on edge of road, also a corner of the Campbell Courtenay tract; thence to corner seven, a hickory stump on edge of road, also a corner of the Campbell Courtenay tract; thence to corner eight, a rock 30 chains from road, also a corner of the Campbell Courtenay tract; thence to corner nine, a rock on South slope, also a corner of the Campbell Courtenay tract, original witness trees present; thence to corner ten, a stump of a pine (cut down), also a corner of the Campbell Courtenay tract; thence to corner eleven, a twelve-inch red oak on Southern slope, also a corner of the Campbell Courtenay tract; thence to corner twelve, a rock on North slope, also a corner of the Campbell Courtenay tract; thence to corner thirteen, a twelve-inch pine, also a corner of the Campbell Courtenay tract; thence to corner fourteen, a stake on Southeast slope, also a corner of the Campbell Courtenay tract; thence to the place of beginning. All bearings being turned from the true meridian.

All persons interested in said tract of land, are hereby required to come forward on the 2d day of April, A. D. 1917, and file with the Clerk of this Court, at his office at Greenville, S. C., their objections, if any they should have, to the proposed purchase or acquisition of said tract of land by the United States.

J. WILLIAM THURMOND, United States Attorney. A True Copy. Attest: (Seal.) J. B. KNIGHT, Clerk U. S. D. Court. Jan. 31, 1917.

New Farm Bulletins Now Ready. The extension division of Clemson College, in co-operation with the office of the secretary of the Cotton Seed Crushers' Association, has published a bulletin on peanuts and one on soy beans. These are now ready for free distribution within the State. Peanuts and soy beans are two crops of value to the farmer under boll weevil conditions. Copies can be had upon application to the Extension Division, Clemson College, S. C.

Former Oconeean Sees Mistake. (Jno. V. Stribling, in Anderson Mail) President Wilson in his peace address before America's Congressional hall to the rulers of the nations of the world, addressed no word of recognition to the all-wise Ruler over the entire universe of worlds—without whose guidance and willing acceptance of his offer of the one Saviour of men to be ruler over all other rulers and peoples of all the nations of the world international peace is impossible.

WHAT IS LAX-FOS LAX-FOS is an improved Cascara (a tonic-laxative) pleasant to take In LAX-FOS the Cascara is improved by the addition of certain harmless chemicals which increase the efficiency of the Cascara, making it better than ordinary Cascara. LAX-FOS is pleasant to take and does not gripe nor disturb stomach. Adapted to children as well as adults. Just try one bottle for constipation. 50c.