 —Mrs. C. P. Corn, of Johnston, is spending this week visiting at the home of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. W. A. Strother, in Walhalla.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Barr and children, of Greenville, spent the latter part of last week in Walhalla visiting at the home of Mrs. Barr's mother, Mrs. S. P. Dendy.

—For Sale—Oakland five-passenger touring car; practically new. See Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla. Adv.
 —Misses Marie and Fannie Isbell have just returned from Atlanta, where they spent a few days visiting friends and taking advantage of the city's opportunities for new ideas in the millinery line.

—We are requested to announce that the Young Men's League will meet next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Walhalla Baptist church. The public has a most cordial invitation to attend. All will be welcome.

—Wanted—Those who are in need of monumental work, to write the Seneca Marble and Granite Works before placing an order. By so doing you save the agents commission, because we employ no agents. Adv.

—Wm. T. McClure, of the Fair Play section of Oconee, was among the visitors to Walhalla Monday. He has recently sold out his large farming interests in the Fair Play section and will soon take up his residence in Anderson county.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Bell left Sunday about noon for Atlanta to be in the city for a few days, taking advantage of the opportunity to hear Rev. "Billy" Sunday during their stay. They were accompanied by James C. Seaborn.

—Strayed—Pointer pup, white with yellow spots. Answers to "Jack." Reward if brought in. J. R. Ward, Walhalla, Rt. 3. Adv.

—Sergt. Major Sam G. Pitchford, of Camp Sevier; Misses Myrtle and Ruth Brown, of Walhalla, and Pauline Steek, of Greenville Woman's College, were among the week-end visitors in Walhalla. The Misses Brown were at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Brown, the others of the party visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Pitchford. They left Greenville Friday night and returned Monday afternoon.

—For Sale—Public Outery, Thursday, November 22, at 10 o'clock, 102 acres good land, 3 miles east of Mt. Rest; about 20 acres in cultivation; balance heavily timbered. Good 9-room dwelling, barn and other necessary out-buildings; well watered; headwaters Village Creek; nine fine springs. Will also sell all household and kitchen furniture; horse, wagon, farm implements, crops, etc. Sale will take place at residence. A fine chance for a home-seeker. E. M. Edgus, Mt. Rest, S. C. Adv. 17*

—Butterick patterns. C. W. Pitchford, Walhalla, S. C. Adv. 47.

—The Neville school will open next Monday, November 19th. The patrons, pupils and friends of the school are urged to bear in mind this fact and lend their efforts to the making of a good session from the very opening of the school.

—150 bushels Blue Straw seed wheat, very fine quality, $3 per bushel. W. M. Brown, Walhalla. Adv.

—Attention is directed to the page advertisement of The Globe, Westminster, which will be found on the fifth page. There are many very attractive offerings made in this announcement, and a careful reading of it, followed by a visit to The Globe store, will prove both interesting and profitable.

—A trial order will be the most convincing way to satisfy yourself that the Seneca Marble and Granite Works produce only the best grade of monuments. Adv.

—Mrs. Doyle Dodd has returned to her home at Erwin, Tenn., after spending several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Mason Duncan, who has been seriously ill at the home of her brother, J. O. Riley, of Westminster. Her many friends will be pleased to hear that Mrs. Duncan is on the road to recovery. We hope she will soon be out again.

—Wanted—Lot poplar blocks. See F. P. Guernsey, at old brewery plant, Walhalla, for particulars. Adv. 46*

—Mrs. G. W. Eaton spent a few days in Walhalla the past week, having come up from the home of Mrs. A. Bearden, Seneca Route No. 4. Mrs. Eaton is for the greater part of her time now making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Bearden. Her friends here were pleased to meet her again.

—L. C. Patterson, of Seneca, announces the continued arrival of new goods of the latest styles in ladies' misses' and children's coat suits, coats, etc., and large assortments of clothing, shoes, etc., for men, boys and the whole family. An inspection of his large stock after reading this announcement will be of value to those seeking attractive goods at attractive prices.

—Wanted—Cattle and hogs, fat or lean; chickens and eggs, all you have; hides of all kinds; highest prices paid; $1 to $2 each for horse hides. See A. B. Owens, Walhalla, S. C. Adv.

—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Medlin will regret to learn of the sad death of their little daughter, Eleanor May, which occurred on the 29th of October. On the 28th, while playing with some fire, she was burned, and death came to relieve her suffering on the day following. The little girl was of a remarkably bright disposition, making friends with all who met her, and her death came as a severe blow to the fond parents. Funeral services were conducted by J. L. Vaughn, the little body being laid to rest in the cemetery of Ebenezer church. The parents have the sympathy of many friends in their sore bereavement.

—For Sale—Good 8-year-old mare; weight about 1,000 pounds; works anywhere. Terms to suit purchaser. J. F. Hedden, West Union, S. C. Adv. 47.

—A real estate deal of the past week that will bring to this section some of Anderson county's good people has been completed between Marcus King and Frank E. Alexander, real estate dealer, the latter representing the owner of a 900-acre tract of land above Walhalla. The tract was owned by T. N. Hall, of Westminster, and is well known as the Cochran lands, near Poor Mountain. The price paid for the 900 acres was $10,000. Mr. King will utilize a large part of the tract for the purpose of raising stock. He has sold out his Anderson county farm land holdings and will move to Walhalla about January 1st. While he will be engaged in improving his new property at the foot of the mountains he and his family will make their home in the town of Walhalla. Mr. King is accredited with being one of the foremost and most prosperous farmers of his home county, and we are delighted to have opportunity to welcome him to Oconee, and especially glad to number him and his among those of our town and immediate vicinity. Mr. King's family consists of his wife and three children. They will be most heartily welcomed by our people.

—Mrs. J. B. E. Sloan and Louis F. Sloan, of Charleston, were visitors in Walhalla for a short while last week, visiting at the home of Mrs. James Seaborn and among other relatives. Mrs. Sloan returned Saturday to her home in Charleston, but her son will remain for a time in the upper part of the State.

—Frank E. Harrison, Jr., of Charleston, spent the week-end in Walhalla with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Harrison, and among other relatives and among friends, Mr. Harrison about a year ago left the service of the Southern Railway, engaging in the wholesale brokerage business in Charleston.

—T. E. Alexander, Walhalla, S. C., sells land, buggies and harness. See him before you buy. Adv.

—We are requested to announce that there will be an all-day singing at Rocky Knoll Baptist church next Sunday, November 18th. Singers from a distance will be present, among them Messrs. Grusum, of Greenville, Wiggins of Central, Stevenson of Anderson, Baker of Easley, and the singers of Oconee as a body are expected to be present. All are invited to attend and to spend a day of praise and service.

—Columbus wagons are good wagons. W. M. Brown. Adv.

—The 93d annual session of the Lutheran Synod of South Carolina convened in the Lutheran church at Pomaria yesterday morning. In many respects this will be an important meeting, with some unique features. Just across the hill from the church still stands the old Elchelberger house, built nearly 160 years ago, and in which the Rev. J. G. Schwartz taught theology in 1831, the real commencement of the Southern Lutheran Theological Seminary. The members and visitors will be given an opportunity to stand on the spot thus made sacred by association and to visit the graves of Rev. Mr. Schwartz in the cemetery nearby. Rev. Edw. Follenwider, of Newberry, is president of the Synod. Rev. W. B. Aull, of Walhalla, is secretary of the body.

—100 bushels Abruzzi seed rye, $3 per bushel. W. M. Brown. Adv.

—Mrs. Lena Puckhaber returned home last week, after having spent several weeks with her mother, Mrs. H. L. Brandt.

—Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Sloan are entertaining a new boy at their home, the youngster having arrived last Saturday. Dr. Sloan, who is a member of the Medical Corps of the army, now in training at Camp Jackson, Columbia, arrived in Walhalla Sunday for a brief visit to his family and to make the acquaintance of the newest member thereof.

—Clemson Tiger: "S. C. Stribling, '16, is commandant and professor of biology, agriculture and chemistry at Castle Heights School at Lebanon Tenn. 'Strib' is remembered by the corps as one of the best all-round students that has ever been to this school. While here he was captain of Company B, editor-in-chief of The Clemson Chronicle, and representative of Clemson in the inter-collegiate oratorical contest during his senior year."

—1917 Ford for sale. See Henry King, Walhalla. Adv.

—Married, on Sunday, November 4th, by Clerk of Court John F. Craig, at his residence on College street, Miss Nannie Lou Tribble and Eugene Rowland. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Tribble, of Walhalla, while the groom is a son of A. Louis Rowland, who lives near West Union. The groom is engaged in farming and the young couple will reside near West Union. They have many friends who will join with The Courier in extending all good wishes.

—Recently the announcement appeared in the Atlanta papers of the marriage of Miss Grace Elizabeth Garwood and Leonard McClair. The marriage will take place to-morrow, November 15th. The groom-elect is a son of M. M. McClair, formerly a resident of Walhalla, and who is more familiarly known here as "Mant" McClair. In advance of the happy event The Courier extends to the young couple all good wishes for a long and happy journey through life.
