

ONE CENT A WORD

(Small advertisements under this heading inserted at rate of one cent a word per insertion. Four insertions for price of three.)

FORD ROADSTER for sale. In good condition. See me at once. J. L. MOSER, Walhalla, Rt. 1. 29*

NOTICE.—The Probate Court will be closed on the days appointed for the county campaign meetings. V. F. MARTIN, Judge of Probate.

FOR SALE.—Drug Store, $8,000. Invoice $10,000. Want $3,500 cash; balance four years. Owner in France. Write GRIFFITH'S PHARMACY, Marietta, Ga. 29*

WANTED.—500 bushels blackberries; will pay 20 cents per gallon. See us and make arrangements in advance. J. H. BARNETT & SON, Westminster, S. C. 24-

WANTED.—100,000 young chickens, from one pound up; also hens and eggs, beef hides; highest cash price. R. D. OELKERS, West End, Walhalla, S. C. 26-1f

HOUSES FOR SALE.—Three houses on Mauldin street, Faculty Hill, belonging to the estate of Mrs. Rosa Fahnestock. No reasonable offer refused. Write W. M. J. OWENS, Walhalla, S. C. 30*

WANTED.—Man in deferred military class, or exempt by physical disability, to learn manufacturing wholesale optical business. A big opportunity to learn a business with good future. GLOBE OPTICAL & MFG. CO., Greenville, S. C. 29-30

FOR SALE.—Oehmg Property, situated in the best business center of the Town of Walhalla; half-acre lot with buildings. For information address C. F. HOEPPER, Administrator, No. 1000 Main St., Columbia, S. C. 29-1f

WANTED.—1,000 bushels peaches; 75c. to 90c. per bushel, according to quality. Bruised fruit lowers grade and price—pick carefully. See us at once. Also want 500 bushels apples. J. H. BARNETT & SON, Westminster, S. C. 31*

LAND FOR SALE.—127 acres known as the estate of Mason Duncan, deceased, on Oconee Creek; one five-room house; good mill shoal; plenty of wood and water; several acres of bottom land. At least $2,500 worth of saw timber. In the boundaries of the agricultural school. Also, one small tract near Westminster, S. C.—5 1/4 acres, more or less—of fine farm land; 5-room house, plenty of wood and water. For particulars apply to J. M. DUNCAN, Westminster. 29-32

I. O. O. F. MEETING.

Oconee Lodge, No. 64, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will meet Tuesday Night, July 23, 1918, at 8 o'clock.

Visiting Odd Fellows welcomed. GEO. L. JONES, Noble Grand. ANTON GERBER, Secretary. ad.

A Regular Communication of Blue Ridge Lodge, No. 92, A. F. M., will be held next Friday night, July 19, 1918, at 8.30 o'clock.

D. A. SMITH, W. M. W. O. WHITE, Secretary. (adv)

Littleton College

Hot water heat, electric lights and other modern improvements. The 37th annual session will begin September 25th.

White for new illustrated catalogue; also for particulars concerning our special offer to a few girls who cannot pay our catalogue rates. Address J. M. Rhodes, Littleton, N.C.

IMPORTANT

Sale of Real Estate

IN TOWN OF WALHALLA.

I hereby offer for sale, for CASH, on salesday, the 5th day of AUGUST, A. D. 1918, at 11 o'clock A. M., in front of the Court House door, at Walhalla, S. C., the following real estate, to wit:

All that certain piece, parcel or tract of land situate, lying and being in the Town of Walhalla, in the County of Oconee, and in the State of South Carolina, containing forty-six (46) acres, more or less, known as the J. S. Floyd homestead, adjoining lots of T. A. Grant, Mrs. Ida H. Darby and others, being within two blocks of the Court House.

One six-room residence finished throughout, excellent barn, and other outbuildings, good pasturage, and five acres of good, well-improved creek bottom, and a fine orchard, and about six or seven acres in woodland. An ideal suburban home, combining the advantages of town and country conveniences.

The only reason for selling is that the present owner resides in Oklahoma. For further particulars call on the undersigned.

B. R. MOSS, Walhalla, S. C., Agent for Owners. July 17, 1918. 29-31

NOTICE TO DEBTORS AND CREDITORS.

All persons indebted to the estate of Miss Martha A. McDonald, deceased, are hereby notified to make payment to the undersigned, and all persons having claims against said estate will present the same, duly attested, within the time prescribed by law or be barred.

HENRY W. McDONALD, Executor of the Estate of Miss Martha A. McDonald, deceased. P. O. Address: Westminster, S. C. July 17, 1918. 29-31

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

—Got your name on your club roll. Put it there to-day!

—Louis Theiling, of Charleston, is spending some time in and around Walhalla visiting relatives.

—Mrs. R. L. Rogers and daughter, Miss Carolyn, are spending this week among relatives at Fountain Inn.

—Sergt. J. Marion Moss, of Camp Sevier, was a visitor to his father, Jas. M. Moss, and family, the past week-end. He is looking well, and it is probable that he will leave shortly for overseas service.

—For Sale—Good family or farm horse; will work anywhere. Apply to Mrs. B. F. Sloan.—Adv.

—Mrs. T. Hudson, of Bascomville, Chester county, has been spending several days in Walhalla visiting her son, Will O. Hudson. It is probable that Mr. and Mrs. T. Hudson will move to Oconee at an early date.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Zachary, of the Cross Roads section, desire us to express through our columns their thanks and appreciation of many kindnesses shown them by friends and neighbors, occasioned by the recent loss by fire.

—Friends of John F. Schumacher, formerly of Walhalla, will be pleased to learn that he has arrived safely overseas. Mr. Schumacher was in training at Camp Cody, N. M., for about a year. He was drafted to that camp from Minnesota.

—We notice by the daily papers that the 30th Division, U.S.A., has been moved up to the fighting lines in France. The First S. C. Regiment is a unit of this division. In Company A of this regiment are a number of Oconee boys. We wish them well in active service.

—For Sale—Grant 3-passenger, 6-cylinder runabout; will trade for touring car. Apply to Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Miss Julia Timmerman, who has been visiting at the home of her uncle, Rev. W. B. Aull, has returned to her home in Newberry county. She was accompanied on her return home by little Misses Sara and Eileen Aull, who will spend some time visiting among relatives in Newberry county.

—We have received notice to discontinue Loyd's Brown paper going to Camp Wadsworth. It is presumed that he has left for another point. We have also received notice to discontinue Burnham Addis's paper, recently sent to Rhode Island. He, too, it is understood, has been moved to other parts.

—Chas. S. Reid, of Woodbury, Ga., arrived in West Union last week to be with his family, who are visiting at the summer home of Mrs. R. C. Strother. Mr. Reid was accompanied by his sister, Miss Roxie, who will be here among relatives and friends for some time. Mr. Reid's family have been at the Strother home for some time.

—Mrs. J. A. Steck returned last Sunday afternoon from Atlanta, where she had been for a month under the care of Dr. Geo. C. Mizell. Her many friends will be glad to learn that the operation she underwent terminated successfully and that she is recovering from it satisfactorily. Mrs. Steck is able to be up in the home for short periods during each day.

—One Oakland auto for sale; good as new; all Goodyear tires, brand new, all-weather tread. Price right. See J. Bert Gillespie, Walhalla.—Ad.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Fretwell, of Anderson, have announced the marriage, on Tuesday, July 9th, of their daughter, Miss Caroline, and George Paul Browne, of Anderson. The bride has numerous friends here who will join with The Courier in extending all good wishes and to the groom hearty congratulations. An account of the marriage, taken from the Anderson Daily Mail, will be found elsewhere in this issue.

—Rev. John W. Link, of Strasburg, Va., camp pastor at Camp Sevier, will deliver an address in the Lutheran church next Sunday night at 9 o'clock. The service will be under the direction of the Woman's Missionary Society and the offering will be devoted to missionary work.

—There will be some good music rendered by a number of the best singers in town. This is the regular union service and is for all the people of the town and community.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McAbee and three sons, Jeff, Herbert and Welling, and daughter, Miss Leonte, of Piedmont, were recent visitors at the home of their uncle, Newton Crenshaw. They made the trip over in their Chevrolet car. Early in May Mr. McAbee made a trip to St. Augustine, Fla., and points further south entirely by auto. Speaking of our good country roads, Mr. McAbee remarked that he "would like very much to borrow our county supervisor."

—For Sale—Lookout Mountain seed potatoes; $2.50 bushel. Can get same at my residence. Jas. H. Darby, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Wilbur D. White, who has been spending a few weeks in Walhalla with his uncle, R. T. Jaynes, left this morning for Branchville, where he will be for a few days with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. White, before going to military training at Plattsburg, N. Y. Mr. White received notice yesterday that he had been chosen, along with a few other Wofford students, to take the special training at Plattsburg, at which place he will report July 25th for a two months' training course. This course is designed to specially fit a body of students of each of the colleges and universities for future service in training the student body in military tactics. It is evident that the military feature will hereafter have a prominent place in all of the larger institutions of learning all over our country. Young Mr. White has numerous friends who will be interested in his career and his attainments.

—Wagons, harness, plows, tin cans, etc. Prices right. See me. J. Wade Dickson, Westminster.—Ad29.

—Miss Lillian Meldau, of Charleston, arrived in Walhalla last week and will spend the summer here with her father, Geo. F. Meldau.

—Mr. and Mrs. John F. Craig and family left the first of this week for Hendersonville, N. C., where Mrs. Craig and children will remain for some time. Mr. Craig will return to Walhalla after a brief rest.

—Dr. Wallace, of Pickens county, is spending a few days with Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Craig. The latter have moved from Main street to one of the cottages recently built by Dr. J. W. Bell, on Catherine street, North.

—Miss Natalie Norman, of Sumter, is spending some time here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Norman. She was accompanied to Walhalla by her friend, Miss Walsh, of Sumter, who is visiting at the Norman home.

—Several new candidates are announced this week—W. P. Mason and M. R. McDonald, Esq., for the House, the former for re-election; Capt. V. F. Martin, for re-election to the office of Probate Judge; W. M. Brown, Walhalla, for County Supervisor.

—Two 1917 and one 1914 five-passenger Ford cars for sale at a bargain; also one Harley-Davidson motorcycle. J. S. Carter & Co., Westminster, S. C.—Adv.

—George Seaborn, of the Enterprise Bank, spent last week at Kanuga Lake, N. C., attending a meeting of South Carolina bankers. Mr. Seaborn states that although he was absent only one week, he managed to squeeze a month's vacation into the seven days.

—We have been informed that several auto tire thefts have taken place in this section of late. W. John Schroder is the latest loser. His car was moved from his home in West Union to a patch of woods, about 400 yards distant, where the tires were removed and the car left. Other complaints of a similar nature are also spoken of.

—A nice shower came yesterday (Tuesday) evening to relieve the long, hot spell that has practically put gardens out of commission. Indications are for a continuation of showers for some days, and they will be most acceptable. There is still ample time to get in a number of different vegetable seeds for the late garden. Late gardens are quite as profitable as early gardens, especially so under conditions such as have prevailed during the present summer.

—Tugalo Tribune, 16th: "Mrs. Martha Whitten, wife of Edwin Whitten, died at their home in Pendleton on Monday, July 8th. Mrs. Whitten was 71 years old. She leaves her husband and six children, one of the sons being Dr. B. O. Whitten, of Columbia, who is well and favorably known here. Her body was buried at Pendleton last Tuesday. Mrs. Whitten was a member of the Methodist church. Before marriage she was a Miss Douthit, being a sister of B. Frank Douthit, a former sheriff of Oconee."

—For Sale—Mountain grown (fall crop) Lookout Mountain potatoes. E. L. Herndon, Walhalla, S. C.—Adv.

—News reached Walhalla Tuesday of the death of Rev. Wilkins, which occurred at the home of Otis Burris, in the South Union section, Monday night. About three weeks ago Rev. Wilkins suffered an attack of cholera morbus, from which he never recovered. He was about 60 years of age and came here from Greenville. For several months Rev. Mr. Wilkins had been supplying the Baptist churches of which Rev. C. D. Boyd was pastor. Mr. Boyd being forced to give up the work temporarily on account of bad health.

—Two Oconee young men who have recently returned from the Plattsburg (N. Y.) Training Barracks are Wm. L. Austin, a son of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Austin, of Seneca, and W. L. England, Jr., a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. England, of Westminster. These young men are splendid fellows, and completed the course of instruction prescribed for young men of the upper classes of various military colleges. They went to Plattsburg as representatives of Clemson College. Young Austin was one of 200 men out of 2,880 who were recommended for special and additional training for commissions.

—Friends of Thos. J. Davis, formerly of West Union, will be pleased to learn that he has been promoted from second to first lieutenant in the army service. Young Davis has been in the service only 25 months. He recently completed a special course at Camp Perry, Ohio. At present he is with his old command, Company M, 122d Infantry, Camp Wheeler, Ga. It is reported that Lieut. Davis will be assigned as assistant intelligence officer for his regiment, (on the colonel's staff). This will be quite an honor for Lieut. Davis. We wish for him continued advancement and success in the service of Uncle Sam.

—I can save you money on mowing machines and hay rakes. J. Wade Dickson, Westminster.—Ad29.

—Hon. John L. Smith, who lives near Seneca, was a visitor to Walhalla for a short while last Saturday. Mr. Smith is looking remarkably well and finds the rural mail service work peculiarly attractive in that his health permits him to give almost uninterrupted service to his patrons. He has been serving Seneca Route No. 2 for almost 17 years. Reference to the present 3-cent postage rate recalled to Mr. Smith that, after all, it had not been so long since we were paying three cents for the carrying of letters by the government. Mr. Smith was living in Pickens county at the time, and recalled that he bought the first 2-cent postage stamp sold by the postmaster at Easley. That was in 1882. The occasion of Mr. Smith's trip to Easley from the country was the bringing of his brother, Van Smith, to Easley to take train for a medical college to begin his course of medical lectures. This brother is now living at Newberry.—Dr. Van Smith, well known in his adopted county as well as in his old home county of Pickens and BUGGIES!

We have just received a carload of Buggies of all kinds, sizes, styles and colors. These Buggies were bought last October, and were bought cheap; in fact, they are easily $20 to $30 cheaper than the same buggy would be if bought to-day.

You can save this money by buying Buggies from us within the next few weeks.

See us about these Buggies while we can save you money. Remember: "Money Saved is Money Made."

BROWN HAS IT OR BROWN GETS IT. W. M. Brown & Son, WALHALLA, S. C. BROWN HAS IT OR BROWN GETS IT.

in Oconee. John L. Smith is a very interesting talker, having been prominently connected with affairs public and semi-public for a number of years, and he has numerous friends in Walhalla who are always glad to meet him.

—Miss Carrie Darby Harrison is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Hayne Jones, at Tamasee.

—J. C. King, of Walhalla, is the only Oconeean drawn for jury service at the August term of Federal Court at Greenville. He has received his summons to be on hand at the opening of the session on the 12th.

—Married, on Sunday, July 14th, Miss Ola May Medlin, of West Union, and Elsie Morgan, of Seneca. The young couple have the best wishes of many friends. Notary J. H. Hunicutt performed the ceremony.

—Dr. D. M. Ramsay, of the Greenville Woman's College, was in Walhalla for a short while yesterday looking up the young ladies of this place who have been attending his institution. His visit here was greatly appreciated by them.

—We are requested to announce that the Picket Post school will open next Monday, July 22d. Misses Gertrude Dunlap and Mary Lee Walker will be in charge as teachers. The patrons of this school are urged to have their children ready to start on the opening day.

—Mrs. J. T. Holleman, of Anderson, spent several days in Walhalla last week visiting among relatives. Cards received in Walhalla this week announce that J. Townes Holleman has arrived safely overseas. He will be engaged in Y.M.C.A. work in the European war zone.

—J. Russell Wright, who has been for some time in this section attending to business matters, left last week for Anderson, where he expected to be for a few days before taking a more extensive trip, the object and destination being left a mystery to his friends. He will be absent for some time.

—William A. Morrison, of Clemson College, who graduated there in 1916, and who enlisted in the Marines in May, 1917, has been promoted to a captain in that organization. Young Morrison is a son of Prof. and Mrs. W. S. Morrison, of Clemson, and there are hosts of friends who will watch with interest his career.

—Ex-Governor Martin F. Ansel, of Greenville, spent a part of Saturday and Sunday in Walhalla with relatives. He came over especially to make an address to the selectmen who were to leave for Camp Wadsworth on Monday morning. The speaking took place at the auditorium Sunday afternoon at 6 o'clock. A large audience was present.

—Mrs. S. G. Pitchford, of Greenville, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Pitchford. All this family lacked of having a complete reunion on Sunday was the filling of two vacancies in the home, two sons, Chas. W. and Sam G., being "somewhere in France." Mr. and Mrs. Pitchford hear regularly every week from "the boys," who report themselves well and in the best of spirits, but anxious to again "put their feet under 'Pap's' table."

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown returned yesterday from an extended bridal trip to points in the West. Their many friends are delighted to welcome them back to Walhalla. Mr. and Mrs. Brown took their friends by surprise a few weeks ago when they were married at Spartanburg without taking any of their friends into their confidence. Mrs. Brown will be remembered by many here and elsewhere in the county as Miss Grace Prince.

—The many friends of Rev. Geo. M. Wilcox, former pastor of the Walhalla Presbyterian church, will be interested to learn that for several months he will be located at Charleston, where he will be engaged in a very important work as camp pastor. During his absence from Bennettsville Mrs. Wilcox and children will be among relatives in this county and at Elberton, Ga. They are now at the latter place, and will spend the greater part of the summer in that city.

—At the funeral of Mrs. Lucy Sanders last week all of the children of the deceased were present at the grave except the oldest son, Louis, who is now with the United States forces in France. The children were with their mother at the end when she passed away in Atlanta, and came on to Walhalla with the remains. The children are: Mrs. A. H. White, Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. Ed. Mulkey, Alice, Billy, Effie, Emma, Earlene and Neal Sanders, all of East Point, Ga. During their brief stay here they were with relatives and friends, who sympathize deeply with them in their bereavement. They returned to their homes last Saturday.

Equip Your Car!

Before you start on your vacation trip, equip your car with new tires.

WE SELL AJAX Plain and Road King Casings. Also, Ajax Red and Gray Inner Tubes.

C. W. Pitchford, Walhalla, S. C.

—Ike White, of Anderson, spent a part of last week in Walhalla with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. White.

—Miss Dora Pitchford, after spending a week at the home of her parents, returned to Atlanta Sunday afternoon.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reid and daughter, of Anderson, are spending the week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Pitchford.

—Mrs. Wm. A. Hetrick and children, after a pleasant visit of some weeks to relatives at Philadelphia, returned to Walhalla last Sunday.

—C. W. Pitchford calls attention to his line of automobile tires and inner tubes. See him when you want your car fitted up. Announcement on this page.

—Mr. and Mrs. Julian Dendy and child, of Greenville, spent the week-end in Walhalla visiting at the home of Mr. Dendy's parents, Capt. and Mrs. S. K. Dendy.

—Mrs. C. F. Hetrick and children, who have been spending some time with relatives at their old home in Philadelphia, returned to Walhalla last Friday evening.

—There are many friends in and around Walhalla who will learn with deep regret of the death of Mrs. Errett Zimmerman, of Westminster, who passed away Thursday of last week, July 11th, after a brief illness. She was ill but six days, having been taken sick on the 5th of July, undergoing an operation on Wednesday night, the 10th. She was but 28 years of age, and was universally beloved in her home town. She was a daughter of Mrs. H. J. Reeder. Eight years ago she was happily married to Errett Zimmerman. She is survived by two brothers, W. J. Reeder, of Greenville, and S. F. Reeder, of Westminster, and four sisters, Mrs. A. R. N. Polger, of Gaffney; Mrs. J. P. Keese, Misses Eva and Lila Reeder, of Westminster. In the sad bereavement that has come to her husband, mother and other relatives The Courier extends sincere sympathy. Funeral services were held last Friday, Rev. J. T. Black, of Anderson, a former pastor of the deceased, conducting the services. Mrs. Zimmerman was a consistent and consecrated member of the Christian church, and passed to her reward with a full assurance of the future in the Church Triumphant through a lively faith and active work in the church militant.

—A. T. Thompson Dead. (Tugalo Tribune, 16th.) Augustus T. Thompson died at his home in Westminster last night, July 15th, at about 9 o'clock. He had been suffering of heart and stomach trouble for a long time and bore his affliction with patience and fortitude.

Mr. Thompson was in the 80th year of his age, having been born April 2, 1839. He was a native of New Gloucester, Maine, and was a brave Union soldier during the War Between the States, serving three and a half years without a scratch or wound. He was a man of humble disposition, and declined promotion while in the war, preferring some one else to receive the honor.

Mr. Thompson had been in the south for about 43 years, living first 10 years in Florida, 16 at Seneca, and 15 at Fair Play and a little less than two at Westminster. His wife died in October, 1916. She was a native of Maine. Shortly after her death he moved here and lived with his only daughter, Mrs. John F. Dorroh. The deceased is also survived by one son, J. C. Thompson, of Hefflin, Ala. The interment took place in the cemetery of Fair Play Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon.

Oak Grove Community. Oak Grove, July 15.—Special: Rev. Wm. Abbott filled his regular appointment at Pleasant Hill Sunday and preached a very interesting sermon on "Repentance."

Crops in this section are looking fine, but the red spider has made its appearance in several cotton fields.

W. F. Orr and son Luther, of near Picket Post, spent a few hours in this community Monday.

Miss Julia Paters, of Charleston, is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. A. Schaffer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Snipes and little son, of Anderson, spent Friday night at the home of R. J. Snelgrove.

J. H. Barnett has purchased a Ford truck to be used in the transportation of canned goods.

We are sorry to report that the baby of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bolt has been very sick.

Mrs. W. D. Barnett and mother, of Columbia, are spending some time at the home of J. H. Barnett.

W. A. Schaffer is the latest owner of a touring car in this community. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Snelgrove visited friends in the New Hope section last week.