LOCAL AND PERSONAL

—Pink salmon, 25c. can or two for 35c. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight—adv.

—C. W. & J. E. Bauknight announce opportunity to save you money on your fall suit. See advertisement and call on them.

—Walhalla friends of Will H. Jones, of Greenville, were glad to see him here Monday last, though he was on but a brief visit to relatives.

—Read advertisement this week of The Globe Store, Westminster. The enterprising managers of this establishment are making some very attractive offerings in their special sale.

—Harry Norman, who recently went to Pittsburg, Pa., to accept employment, returned to Walhalla last Saturday. He is with his father, G. A. Norman, assisting in the drug store.

—For Sale—Mountain grown (fall crop) Lookout Mountain potatoes. E. L. Herndon, Walhalla, S. C.—Adv.

—We are requested to announce that the Paul Hayne Circle will meet next Friday afternoon at 6 o'clock with Miss Sallie Stribling. The program for Mrs. Denny's meeting will be used.

—Lloyd B. Gossett, of Greenville, spent Sunday night with his aunt, Mrs. John T. Davis, near town. He has been called for military service and will leave for Camp Jackson, Columbia, to-day.

—Robert Miller spent the past week-end in Gwinnett county, Georgia, where he visited two of his brothers. Mr. Miller says crops are sure to come over in Georgia. Uncle Bob seldom takes a vacation, but when he does he has a "big time."

—Married, on Saturday, July 12th, by Rev. L. B. Norton, Miss Minnie Addis and Clinton Holmes, both of the Victor-Monaghan Mills village. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Thos. L. Addis. The young couple have the good wishes of many friends.

—Walter L. Haggerty, of Dadeville, Ala., was in Walhalla for a short while last Saturday. He was accompanied by his father, E. B. Haggerty, of the Salem section, to whom he has been paying a brief visit. Walter has many friends in Oconee who are glad to meet him again.

—We are making a very attractive price on 3-lb tin cans; also syrup cans. You know that it was hard to get these last season. Better get fixed now. Ballenger Hardware and Furniture Co., Seneca.—Adv.

—Miss Maggie Martin, of Greenwood, who has been visiting Miss Adie Tatham for a month, left last Saturday for Greenville, where she will visit for a time before returning home.

—W. A. Hetrick made a business trip to Atlanta Sunday.

—Mrs. J. R. Earle and children are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Wesley Ashe, at Cleveland, Ga.

—Mrs. A. P. Crisp left yesterday morning for Columbia, where she will spend the remainder of this week.

—Mrs. J. R. Hughes left Thursday of last week for Columbia, where she will spend some time among relatives and friends.

—Pink salmon, 25c. can or two for poplin, all colors; also navy and black tafeta. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Mrs. W. J. (Pete) Schroder is in Greenville this week, where she is receiving special treatment for a slight throat trouble and the possible removal of the tonsils.

—Mrs. G. W. Eaton, after spending a few days in Walhalla among friends, returned the latter part of last week to the home of her niece, Mrs. A. Bearden, in the lower part of the county. Mrs. Eaton recently spent a short while in Atlanta among relatives and friends.

—John W. Lee, who is now residing on the place known as the Coleman Mill Farm, near Seneca, was in Walhalla for a short while the latter part of last week among relatives and friends. He came up to see his mother-in-law, Mrs. Emily Grahl, who has been quite ill for some time. Mrs. Grahl is well past 80 years of age, and slight hope is felt for anything more than temporary relief from her ailments.

—For Sale—Lookout Mountain seed potatoes; $2.50 bushel. Can get same at my residence. Jas. H. Darby, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Sergt. Ennis Abbott, who has been for some time at Camp Jackson in training for military service, writes The Courier to temporarily discontinue sending him The Courier, as he is expecting soon to be "somewhere in France." "Here's wishing you and the others back in old Walhalla every success," he says in closing. And here's our best wishes to Sergt. Abbott and the other Walhalla and Oconee boys who are doing their duty in training camp and on the firing line! All honor to them, each, and every one!

—Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Fretwell hold a record for their sons that few families can beat, and of which they may well be, and are, proud. They have eight sturdy sons, and the fifth son—Benjamin Tillman Fretwell—two weeks ago left for training at a military camp for service in the army. The other boys of the family are under and over military age. Another of their sons, Will Fretwell, who has been in training at Camp Jackson for some time, was home for the week-end last week, and he was greeted by numerous friends here. The Courier salutes Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Fretwell, and off comes our cap to the boys of the Fretwell family. There we find what seems to us to be real, first-class, 100-per-cent American patriotism! No hurrah business at the front door, "Hock der Kaiser" at the back door, and dodging of military service at every turn. It's "Knock the Kaiser, and we'll do our part," out the Fretwell way.

—For Sale—Grant 3-passenger, 6-cylinder runabout; will trade for touring car. Apply to Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla.—Adv.

—We regret to chronicle the death of Mrs. Abbie Manthey, wife of Chas. M. Manthey, which occurred at their home in Charleston on July 11th. Mrs. Manthey will be remembered by friends in Walhalla as the wife of the late John D. Sullivan, who for many years, and up to the time of his death, was the town's policeman. She will also be remembered as Miss Abbie Wiebens, a daughter of the late F. Wiebens. Mrs. Manthey is survived by her husband and three sons by her union with Mr. Sullivan. They are: Manley Smeltzer Sullivan, of Charleston; Ensign J. DeLeon Sullivan, of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, and Scuddy W. Sullivan, of the U. S. Merchant Marine service. The deceased is also survived by three sisters and one brother, viz., Mrs. J. R. Duncanson, of West Union; Miss Dora Wiebens, of Westminster; Miss Mena Wiebens, of Atlanta, and Fred Wiebens, of California. Mrs. Manthey was a consistent member of the Christian church. Interment took place in Bethany cemetery, Charleston. To the bereaved is extended the sympathy of many friends.

—For all canning necessities, go to Ballenger Hardware and Furniture Co., Seneca. Full stock of 3-lb cans, soldering irons, etc.—Adv.

—Manley Smeltzer Sullivan and Ensign J. DeLeon Sullivan spent the past week-end in Walhalla and Oconee visiting relatives and friends. These young men are sons of the late John D. Sullivan, for many years the efficient town policeman of Walhalla. They left Walhalla in 1888 with their mother and have made their home in Charleston since that time. This is their first visit to their old home town since they moved away—thirty years ago. Everything here was new to them—new faces, new relatives, new friends, new surroundings. They are very clever young men. Manley Sullivan is an automobile dealer in Charleston. Since he left Walhalla he has quite a record as an athlete and we hope to publish this at an early date. He has during the past served 11 years in the navy. J. DeLeon Sullivan is now an ensign in the navy. He is at present attached to the secret service at the Brooklyn Navy Yard. He recently returned to the States after having spent over six months in European waters with the naval contingent. They have another brother in the service of his country, Scuddy W. Sullivan. He is now on the high seas in the merchant marine service. Walhalla and the people of the town have a right to be proud of these young men. We wish them continued success in the world and advancement in the service of their country. The young men made the trip through the country in a touring car.

—For Sale—International 4-h. p. gas engine; in good running condition. Will sell cheap. Ballenger Hardware and Furniture Co., Seneca, S. C.—Adv.

—We would advise our customers to buy salt now. Remember last winter. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight.—Adv.

—Mrs. Cal. McGee has been a great sufferer from typhoid fever for several weeks at her home in Midway. Her friends hope for her early restoration.

—We are requested to announce that there will be a meeting at the Flat Shoals church next Saturday, July 27th, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of making arrangements for the building of a new church. All interested are urged to attend the meeting and assist in the plans and necessary preliminary work.

—Mrs. W. C. Foster and Mr. and Mrs. M. R. McDonald spent the week-end in Richland with their mother, Mrs. M. J. McDonald, who has been seriously ill for several weeks. Mrs. McDonald is improving and it is hoped she will soon be well. E. D. Foster, of Richland, has also been quite ill for some weeks, and his friends hope for an early recovery.

—In a letter we have received from John F. Ritter, of Waynesville, N. C., he states that he has been very ill for some time, but has about regained his normal strength. Mr. Ritter says that he is anxious to return to Walhalla if he finds that he can secure employment in his line of work. He is recognized as an expert in certain branches of the lumber business.

—If you want the best overall try Crown Special. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla.—Adv.

—It will be a pleasant surprise to the many friends of Wm. H. Hawkins, of the High Falls section, to know that he has been selected by the faculty of Furman University to attend the training camp at Plattsburg, N. Y., during the months of August and September. Mr. Hawkins will return to Furman in September and will assist in teaching military science there.

—B. Clifton Cobb, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cobb, R.F.D. 1, left last Sunday afternoon for Charleston, where on Monday he answered his call into the naval service of the United States. He has been placed in the reserve class and will be permitted to complete his course at Clemson College, after which he will enter the regular service as an ensign. Baylus W. Harrison also left recently for Paris Island, S. C., where he will be attached to the naval service. We wish these young men great success.

—Dr. M. M. Kinard, of Salisbury, N. C., spent Monday and yesterday in Walhalla attending to matters of business. He has many warm friends here who are always delighted to meet him. Rev. Mr. Kinard shows no traces of ill effects of the strenuous work he is doing in the ministerial field. He reports also that Mrs. Kinard and her sister, Mrs. Mary Joost, are enjoying good health. Mrs. Kinard and Mrs. Joost are both remembered pleasantly here, they having before marriage been Misses Johanna and Mary Seeba, daughters of the late Capt. and Mrs. C. F. Seeba, who were among the early settlers of Walhalla.

—For sale, at a bargain, this week, dining table, sideboard, cook stove, chairs, etc. S. N. Pitchford—Adv.

—The Walhalla plant of the Victor-Monaghan Mills Company is having installed 400 automatic Draper looms, which are replacing the old-style Lowell looms that have been used in this plant. The installation is greatly delayed owing to the inability of the manufacturers of the machinery to supply it. The order for the looms was placed some two years ago. It is probable that the installation of the full number of new looms will require four or five months. The Walhalla plant is being continually improved under the new management and is fast becoming one of the best plants in the Piedmont section.

—Walhalla and Seneca friends of Rev. Kirkman G. Finlay, who at one time served the Episcopal churches of the two towns as rector, will be interested in the announcement that he will sail in a short while for France to take up religious work over there among the military forces of the United States. Bishop Guerry also will be associated in this work, and it is more than probable that the latter has already gone to France. Rev. Mr. Finlay has gone to New York to report for duty. Mrs. Finlay went that far with him and will remain in the metropolis until her husband sails. He has been granted leave of absence from Trinity church, Columbia, for a period of one year.

—Girl Wanted—To loop hostery at home. Apply to Hetrick Hostery Mills, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Several young men in uniform—deserters from Camp Sevier—have been in the High Falls community for a few days, and two of these young fellows were brought in by T. F. Cannon Monday and turned over to the Sheriff and deputy. These two young men were from Alabama, and had decided, they said, that they would "beat it" over to their native State to see their folks for a time, then return to camp. They seemed to realize that they were taking a great risk in their "stolen leave," but were willing to risk it in order to get back home. However, one of them seemed greatly relieved when he was given information that he would be sent back to Camp Sevier. "I won't be a deserter," he said, "if I get back before Wednesday, but I would have liked to have gotten home anyway." One of the young men is Nell F. Steele and the other one Norman Smith. They were sent back to Camp Sevier Monday evening. When taken up by Mr. Cannon they were in a sorry plight, their uniforms wet and dirty, for they had spent Sunday night out in the open and in the rain. They wanted Mr. Cannon to take them by auto into Tennessee, and he told them that he would have to get gasolite before he could start on that kind of a trip. They were permitted to board the car, and Mr. Cannon then drove for Walhalla, stopping first of all in front of the county jail, where he turned the men over to Sheriff Jas. M. Moss, who is also a member of the local board for Oconee

BUGGIES!

We have just received a carload of Buggies of all kinds, sizes, styles and colors. These Buggies were bought last October, and were bought cheap; in fact, they are easily $20 to $30 cheaper than the same buggy would be if bought to-day. You can save this money by buying Buggies from us within the next few weeks. See us about these Buggies while we can save you money. Remember: "Money Saved is Money Made."
