

NORMAN'S DRUG STORE,

WALHALLA, S. C.

Everything Generally Carried in a Drug Store, a Varied Line of STATIONERY, TOILET ARTICLES, DYES, STOCK MEDICINES, PIPES, TOBACCOS, PURSES, POCKET BOOKS, EYE GLASSES, SPECTACLES, FINE CHINA, CUT GLASS, TOYS, CANDIES, Etc.

ICE CREAM and FOUNTAIN DRINKS.

ONE CENT A WORD

(Small advertisements under this heading inserted at rate of one cent a word per insertion. Four insertions for price of three.)

FOR SALE—International Truck. JOHN R. KAUFMANN, Walhalla, 39*

All grinding at Earle's Mill for tenth toll. 37-12

Shingle Mill and Engine for Sale. T. E. ALEXANDER, Walhalla, 38

All kinds of seed grain cleaned and graded by special machine at Earle's Mill, 10c. per bushel. 37-12

Thoroughbred Dark Cornish Indian Game Chickens for sale; $1, $1.50, $2. J. H. TANNERY, Westminster, S. C. 41*

FOR SALE—400 bushels Fulgum Seed Oats, re-cleaned, at $1.50; as they came from thresher, $1.25. JOHN F. CRAIG, Walhalla, S. C. 41*

WANTED—Wood choppers.—1,000 cords of wood to cut—1,000 cords! Apply to GROVER CRENSHAW, West Union, S. C. 39*

FOUND—Pistol, near the Two-Mile Spring, on High Falls road. Owner can get same by paying for this notice and describing pistol. G. C. VAUGHAN. 38*

Registered Duroc Jersey Pigs for Sale. Oconee County Duroc Breeders' Association. Write G. M. BARNETT, Secretary, Westminster, S. C., R. F. D. No. 4. 49*

FOR SALE—Chevrolet Roadster; practically new. See or write me for quick sale at reasonable price. W. D. PHELPS, Mountain Rest, S. C., R. F. D. 1. 39*

LOST—On Aug. 31, between Bell's Mill and Picket Post school house, 16-size gold-filled open case watch; Eastman movement. Notify me at Tamassee or leave at Courier office and get reward. TOM HOPKINS. *

GIN NOW READY—Farmers are notified that I will have my gin ready for continuous operation for the season by Monday next, September 23d. R. N. SMITH, West Union, S. C. (Wilmington Mill Gin.) 38*

LOST—On Salem-Tamassee road—account book (ledger) with various accounts for J. R. Watkins Medicine Co. Finder please return to C. C. KELLEY, Tamassee, S. C., and get reward. 38*

FOR SALE—Oehmig Property, situated in the best business center of the Town of Walhalla; half-acre lot with buildings. For information address C. F. HOEFFER, Administrator, No. 1000 Main St., Columbia, S. C. 29-1f

Littleton College

Hot water heat, electric lights and other modern improvements. The 37th annual session will begin September 25th.

White for new illustrated catalogue; also for particulars concerning our special offer to a few girls who cannot pay our catalogue rates. Address J. M. Rhodes, Littleton, N. C.

A Regular Communication of Blue Ridge Lodge, No. 92, A. F. M., will be held next Friday night, September 20th, 1918, at 8.30 o'clock.

D. A. SMITH, W. M. W. O. WHITE, Secretary. (adv)

L. O. O. F. MEETING.

Oconee Lodge, No. 64, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will meet Tuesday Night, Sept. 24, 1918, at 8 o'clock.

Visiting Odd Fellows welcomed. GEO. L. JONES, Noble Grand. ANTON GERBER, Secretary. ad.

Our fall stock is arriving daily. We can save you money, as we bought early and our prices are right. Call and see. People's Store, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Pigs for sale. W. M. Brown & Son, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Miss Norma Moore has returned to St. Matthews to resume her duties in the school room.

—Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Anderson Phosphate and Oil Co., which will be found in this issue.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. W. O. White Friday evening, September 20th, at 3.30 o'clock.

—Ladies' and men's underwear arriving daily. Buy early, as you know prices advance with every shipment. People's Store, Walhalla.—Adv.

—L. Blumenthal, of Westminster, who was recently called to the colors to serve in the limited service class, is now located in the war office for Oconee, in Walhalla. Mr. Blumenthal is the only uniformed man in the service in our county, and he is now busily engaged assisting the Oconee Military Board with registration cards, questionnaire preparations, etc.

—Standard rotary sewing machines. Long terms. W. M. Brown & Son, ad.

—Miss Mildred Moore left last Friday for Sumter, where she will attend St. Joseph's Academy, taking up a course in stenography.

—The Sunbeams of the West Union Baptist church will give a short program Sunday night next at 8.30 o'clock before preaching services. The public is cordially invited to attend.

—The union meeting of Twelve-Mile River Baptist Association will be held with King's Grove church, Pickens county, September 28th and 29th. Program will appear next week.

—Miss Jessie Dyer returned to her home in Walhalla last Sunday, after spending several months with her aunt, Mrs. J. B. Lang, of Atlanta, Ga. Her many friends are glad to have her with them again.

—I have the largest and most complete line of millinery ever brought to Walhalla. Ladies' coat suits and waists a specialty. Come and see them. Miss Nora Cooley.—Adv. 21.

—Alma, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boss Woods, died at their home near Walhalla last Friday, September 13th, at 6 a. m., after an illness of only a few days from pneumonia. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of many friends.

—Rocky Knoll W. M. S. will meet at the church next Sunday morning, September 22d, immediately after Sunday school. All members are urged to be present. Sunday school at 10.30 (old time). There will also be a baptizing at DuPre's mill at 3.30 in the afternoon.

—Corporal A. C. McMahan has returned to Charleston after visiting his father and family near Seneca, and among other relatives and friends. He had a 10-day furlough. Clifton says he is ready to go to France or anywhere duty calls him. He is in the 7th company, Coast Artillery.

—Work shoes of every description. Buy early and save money. Satisfaction guaranteed. People's Store, Walhalla.—The Store that Sells 'Em for Less.—Adv.

—Mrs. D. A. Allen, of West Palm Beach, Fla., has been spending some weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Russell, at Russell. She was accompanied on her visit by her daughter, Miss Clara May Allen, of Washington, D. C. Miss Allen is holding a government position at the nation's capital. They have many friends who were glad to meet them again. They returned to their respective homes last Thursday.

—D. Ravenel, of Keowee, was a business visitor to Walhalla last Wednesday. About the first of this year Mr. Ravenel and family moved back to the Ravenel homestead near Clemson College. On this fine farm luxuriant crops are growing, and the harvest this year will be altogether satisfactory. John L. Shelton, of Clemson College, was also a visitor here at the time Mr. Ravenel was in town. He, too, has numerous close friends in Walhalla.

—For Sale—Forty pigs. Now ready for delivery. W. M. Brown & Son, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joe N. Davis, who live on Rural Route No. 2, from Walhalla, received Saturday a telegram from Washington, announcing that their son, Jos. Lee Davis, was wounded severely in action. The telegram is brief and lacking in detail, as follows: "Deeply regret to inform you that it is officially reported that Private Joseph L. Davis, infantry, was severely wounded in action August 20th. Department has no further information. (Signed) Harris, Acting Adjutant General." Mr. and Mrs. Davis have many friends who will join with us in the hope that they will soon receive favorable news from their son. The young man has a host of friends here at his old home who will await anxiously, with members of the family, for news of his condition. Lee Davis was a member of the 1917 graduating class of the Walhalla High School. His classmates are deeply grieved to learn of his misfortune.

—Our fall stock is arriving daily. We can save you money, as we bought early and our prices are right. Call and see. People's Store, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Frank E. Alexander, of Pickens, was among friends in Walhalla for a short while this week, incidentally looking after some matters of business. Mr. Alexander was recently elected as State Senator from Pickens county. His opponent in the second primary was J. H. Earle, well known in several sections of Oconee, where he taught school a few years ago. It will be of interest to note also that J. Thos. McKinney, who at one time resided in Walhalla and operated from this point in the internal revenue service, was recently elected to the office of Supervisor of Pickens county. Mr. McKinney has many friends in Oconee who will be glad to learn of his popularity over on the other side of the Keowee as well as on the Oconee side. For several years Mr. McKinney was chief of police at Easley and later a rural policeman. Frank E. Alexander is a brother of Oconee's treasurer and also of Sheriff-elect Wm. M. Alexander. They are sons of Hon. J. C. Alexander, who at one time represented Oconee in the State Senate. The Alexanders are all former residents of Pickens county.

—Crown fenders for Ford cars. W. M. Brown & Son, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Miss Linette Cudd will leave Tuesday of next week for Rock Hill, where she will resume her studies at Winthrop College.

—Robert L. Rogers left last Tuesday afternoon for Davidson, N. C., where he will resume his studies at Davidson College.

—Mrs. J. R. Duncan and two of her sons, of West Union, are visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. G. T. Wyke, of Sapphire, N. C.

—Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Gardner, of Greenwood, spent part of last week in Walhalla visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shelor.

—Wanted—Girl to do office work. Apply to Hetrick Hosiery Mill, Walhalla, S. C.—Adv.

—We are requested to announce that there will be an anniversary service at Shiloh Baptist church on Friday of next week, the 27th of September. The service will last throughout the day, and all persons of the county are invited to attend.

—Julien Dandy, of Greenville, spent the week-end in Walhalla with his parents, Capt. and Mrs. Samuel K. Dandy. Julien announces that he "has heard the call, and is ready without exemption claim." This seems to be the almost universal answer among the 18 to 45 registrants.

—Miss Gusste DuPre, who has been absent from Walhalla for some time, engaged in teaching, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. DuPre, for a week's rest. Miss DuPre will leave next week for Georgetown, at which place she will teach during the coming session.

—Our Mr. C. W. Bauknight is now in the horse and mule markets. The stock will arrive last of the week. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight.—Adv.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Orr, who reside near Walhalla, received a card last week from their son, Harrison E. Orr, announcing that he had arrived safely overseas. Mr. and Mrs. Orr have several sons in the army, and their many friends are always glad to hear of them and to know that they are safe and in good spirits.

—Oconee friends of F. L. Pickett, formerly of the Bounty Land section of Oconee, but for a number of years engaged in occupations calling him into different parts of our country, will be interested in learning that he is at present in Paris, France, engaged in Y.M.C.A. work. Mr. Pickett is a son of Mrs. J. B. Pickett.

—On the "liabilities" side of the Westminster Bank statement, published in last week's issue, there appeared an error of $49,871.04. The item "Notes and bills rediscounted, $49,871.04" was unintentionally omitted, and we take this the first opportunity to correct same. The corrected statement will be found on the third page of this issue.

—Ladies' coat suits are arriving every week—the latest styles and best prices. Come in and be convinced. People's Store, Walhalla. ad —Mrs. J. Arthur Welby, and two children, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Duncan, of West Union, left yesterday for their new home at Rochester, N. Y. They were accompanied home by Miss Julia Duncan, who has accepted a position there as a stenographer with Vick & Son's Floral and Seed Store. We wish for Miss Duncan the greatest of success.

—Walhalla citizens will be interested in the information that Capt. R. Q. Merrick has been transferred from his old headquarters at Fort Sill, Okla., to Camp McClellan, Ala. Capt. Merrick, in requesting his transfer to be changed from Fort Sill to his new address, says: "A new artillery brigade is being formed here, and we are hard at work trying to get ready to leave here in the shortest possible time."

—We have just a few bugles left. We understand there will be no more bugles made after January 1, 1919. Buy yours now. W. M. Brown & Son, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Mrs. Geo. W. Maxwell and children, of Columbia, are spending a few weeks in Walhalla visiting Mrs. Maxwell's mother, Mrs. S. J. Hutchison, and among other relatives. Mrs. Maxwell made her annual visit here at this time in order to be present at the Wilson-Roof marriage, which will take place Thursday of this week. Mrs. Maxwell was accompanied to Walhalla by Miss Annie Wilson, who had been visiting in Columbia and other parts of the State for several weeks.

—J. H. Cannon, of Clayton, Ga., was in Walhalla Monday on business. Although a resident and citizen of Georgia, he received notice to appear in Walhalla with reference to his income tax, the matter having been somewhat confused by reason of his property holdings in Oconee. Mr. Cannon makes his income tax return in Georgia. He has numerous friends in Oconee who are always glad to see him. Mr. Cannon was accompanied by his son-in-law and two daughters.

—Wanted—A man to block shingle mill. Apply to J. C. Shockley, West Union, S. C.—Adv. 1f.

—H. D. Cheek, who has been holding the position of agent for the Blue Ridge Railway and operator for the Western Union at Walhalla for a year, left yesterday for Seneca, where he will be with his family for a very brief period, going almost direct from there to some point on the Clinchfield Railroad System. Mr. Cheek has been waiting for two months for relief from his work here, but it came only yesterday, and he left immediately on being checked out by the auditor of the road. He is succeeded by John Gambrell, who will act as agent here for the Blue Ridge, and Bob Frierson, of Anderson, will temporarily have charge of the telegraphing. Mr. Cheek made a host of friends here during his stay of a year, and his departure is regretted. Anticipating relief from his work at this point, Mr. Cheek had moved his family to Seneca some weeks ago. Mr. Gambrell has a number of friends here. Up until last January he was freight clerk in the depot here. For several months he has been agent at Sandy Springs.

TOO BUSY!

to write advertisements just now. Watch this space, and as soon as we get time we will tell you of the great advantages to be gained by buying and using

THE FORDSON TRACTOR, THE LABOR SAVER — THE TIME SAVER THE MONEY SAVER

BROWN HAS IT OR BROWN GETS IT.

W. M. Brown & Son, WALHALLA, S. C.

BROWN HAS IT OR BROWN GETS IT.

—Girls Wanted—To loop hosiery at home. Apply to Hetrick Hosiery Mills, Walhalla.—Adv. 1f.

—Miss Carrie Darby Harrison left today for Columbia to resume her studies at Chicora College for Women.

—H. F. L. and H. G. G. Hoffmeyer, of Florence county, spent the past week-end in Walhalla visiting their grandmother, Mrs. H. L. Brandt, and other relatives.

—Gordon Fant, Holleman Seaborn, George Harrison, Clifton Cobb and John Schroder left yesterday for Clemson College, where they will resume their studies.

—Joe Moss, William Stribling, Boone Fitzgerald, Dock Lay and Frank Schroder will leave Thursday for Clemson, where they will matriculate for the coming session.

—To Rent—The Schumacher house on Main street. Apply to W. L. Verner, at Bank of Walhalla.—Ad.

—Clarence Earle, just from Panama, spent the past week-end in Walhalla among relatives. For the past 13 years he has held a position in the zone, being an employ in the U. S. Treasury Department.

—On account of a number of diphtheria cases in town none of the churches were opened last Sunday. The school did not open on Monday, but will probably open Monday of next week if there are no new cases of diphtheria.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Davis, of West Union, have received word that their son, Charles Davis, has arrived safely overseas. From his letters it is judged that he is somewhere in England. He is in the artillery branch of the service.

—We have been requested to make the following announcement: "The union meeting of the upper division of the Beaverdam Baptist Association will meet with the Coneross Baptist church on September 28th and 29th. A number of prominent speakers have places on the program. A sure treat is in store for all who attend."

—For Sale—Lot of pigs and one 1917 Ford touring car. See Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla, S. C.—Adv. 1f.

—It is now Lieut. Douglas S. Seaborn. He received his commission as second lieutenant last week. Mr. Seaborn recently came to the States from the Canal Zone, where he had been for several years. We congratulate Lieut. Seaborn and hope for his continued rise in the service. He will be attached to the aviation branch, and has been ordered to report to the commanding officer at Detroit, Mich., by the 23d of this month. For the present his wife will remain in Walhalla.

—There are many friends here who will learn with regret that Harry R. Hughs, of the aviation department of the army, will be unable at the present time to pay an anticipated visit home. Mr. Hughs has just completed successfully the aviation course, standing all examinations with high marks, and will soon be ordered to take up actual training work. He had been granted a two-weeks' furlough, but the papers were delayed in Washington, in all probability making a leave of absence impossible now or in the near future.

—Plenty of cement and roofing for everybody. W. M. Brown & Son, ad.

—Fred Woodrow Taylor, aged 18 days, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor, who live in the Ebenezer section, on last Saturday night at 10 o'clock, after suffering a few days from whooping cough. Interment took place in the Fairview cemetery on Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Burial services were conducted by Rev. E. P. Taylor, of Walhalla. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor sympathize deeply with them in the loss of the little one. The parents desire us to extend thanks to friends and neighbors for many kindnesses shown them in their bereavement.

—John Morgan, of Anderson, has recently purchased from Geo. T. Morton his home place just above town and will move to Walhalla within the next week or ten days. Mr. Morgan will take possession of his home above town about January 1st and will engage in farming. His family consists of his wife and one child. There are 4 1/2 acres in the tract purchased by him, and the price paid was $60 per acre. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan will spend several months in Walhalla before taking charge of their new home. We cordially welcome these good people to our county and community.

—Dr. Geo. C. Mizelle, formerly of Atlanta, but now of Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, was in Walhalla for a brief period last Sunday, having stopped over here to see Mrs. J. A. Steek, who recently underwent an operation in Atlanta while under his care. Dr. Mizelle was called for army service some months ago, and

New Fall Line Shoes = Shoes

We have received our Fall Line of

UTZ and DUNN SHOES for Ladies,

CROSETT'S SHOES for Men,

NUNN & BUSH WORK SHOES for Men and Boys;

GODMAN WORK SHOES for Women and Children.

Our Shoes are guaranteed to give satisfaction. Remember us when buying your Fall Shoes.

C. W. Pitchford, Walhalla, S. C.

It was this fact that hastened the operation for Mrs. Steek. A few days after the operation Dr. Mizelle was called into service, and has since been located at Camp Wadsworth. He was one of the leading Atlanta specialists, but now ranks as captain in the army hospital division at Wadsworth.

—Quite a large meeting of Liberty Loan workers was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Brown Monday night last, and plans were discussed for the launching of the Fourth Liberty Loan. Oconee county will remain divided into three loan districts—Seneca, Walhalla and Westminster—with chairmen, respectively, as follows: Dr. W. F. Austin, C. W. Pitchford, Dr. C. M. Walker. The lines of the Seneca district were somewhat revised, giving to Seneca a slightly increased territory in an endeavor to more nearly equalize the three districts. No definite plans were made as to the conduct of the coming campaign, the minor details of the work being left to those who will direct the planning and work in the various districts, the district chairmen and their co-workers being left to devise ways and means that will best suit the conditions prevailing in their respective territories. There was a good attendance from Seneca, Westminster, Walhalla and West Union. The meeting was called to order by W. M. Brown and opened with prayer by Rev. I. E. Wallace, of Seneca.

—Last Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock Miss Eunice Macaulay entertained in honor of Miss Mary Ellen Wilson, a bride-elect of the month. Assisting Miss Macaulay in receiving were Mrs. N. W. Macaulay and Mrs. George Seaborn. The guests were invited into the parlor and library, where six tables were arranged for progressive rook. Pink shaded lights and bowls of pink roses about the rooms were a charming note in the color scheme which was carried out. After four progressive games cards were distributed for the guests to write "Five hints to the bride—How she should manage her husband." These were read amid much laughter, and presented to Miss Wilson. To the strains of "Lohengrin's Wedding March," played by Miss Myra Fant, two "sunbonnet babies," little Misses Catherine Macaulay and Nell Poe Sloan, entered with a clothes basket, which they placed at Miss Wilson's feet. They presented her with a pink sunbonnet and apron, like their own, which she donned to hang the contents of the clothes basket on a pink line stretched across the room. The contents of the basket proved to be a "cotton shower." Miss Sara Moss, who won the most games, was awarded a fancy handkerchief. Miss Macaulay presented a pair of silk hose to the honoree. Miss Wilson wore a dress of blue charmeuse, trimmed with fringe and braiding, and a large black picture hat. At the close of the evening Miss Isabel Macaulay and Clare Sloan served a delicious pink ice course.

Sunday School Convention. The Baptist Sunday School Convention will meet with South Union Baptist church September 20-21. Homes for delegates have been provided as follows:

Andersonville—M. H. Morgan. Beaverdam—D. H. Maret. Bethel—H. M. Cole. Chauga—E. C. Harris. Clearmont—Edwin Harris. Coneross—Ottie Burris. Corinth—W. L. Moss. Cross Roads No. 1—T. S. Crawford. Cross Roads No. 2—Joe Honea. Damascus—J. P. Myers. Double Springs A—Clyde Allen. Double Springs O—Hayward Morgan. Earle's Grove—J. S. Malone. Emanuel—Effie Harris. Fant's Grove—J. B. Waters. First Westminster—B. H. Cole. Hepsibah—H. F. Blakely. Hopewell—James Edgar. High Falls—D. M. McGuire. Jordania—W. H. Crawford. Long Creek—B. J. McCarty. Liberty—W. E. Norris. Madison—Joe Farr. Mount Olivet—E. M. Dickson. Mount Tabor A—Stann Harbin. Mount Tabor O—W. L. Hays. Mount Pleasant—William Waters. Mountain Grove—John Cartee. New Hope—J. N. Powers. Newry—S. A. Lewis. Oakdale—Perry Tate. Old Liberty—J. A. Morgan. Pleasant Hill—E. B. Keese. Pleasant Grove—H. F. Loftis. Poplar Springs—S. L. Burris. Pleasant Ridge—Lester Wiggins. Return—Joe Allen. Rocky Knoll—Mr. Ivie. Rock Hill—S. T. Cole. Shiloh—T. W. Allen. Seneca—T. D. Maret. South Side (Walhalla)—S. C. Land. Toxaway—W. L. Thomas. Village Creek—Mr. Glass. Westminster—J. H. Brown. Walhalla No. 1—J. L. Reeder. Walhalla No. 2—W. M. Gibson. West Union—W. F. Casey. Wolf Stake—Hoyt Thomas.