WALHALLA, S. C.:

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 16, 1918.

GOVERNOR COOPER, PROSPECT.

Sunday School Workers Looking Forward to Presence Next Year.

Editor Keowee Courier:

May I use your paper for a message to your readers who are Sunday school workers?

Fellow-workers: My first official act was to write (August 30th) to our nominee for Governor, Robert A. Cooper, and ask him to attend and address our County Sunday School Convention next summer. A recent mail brought this answer.

Laurens, S. C., Sept. 14, 1918.
My Dear Mr. Morrison:

Please accept my sincere appreciation of your letter of August 30. I beg to assure you that my delay in answering is due to the fact that it has been physically impossible to answer promptly the many letters that I have received since the election.

The vote of confidence which the people of this State have given me is very gratifying personally, and causes me to form a new resolution to give to the people the best service of which I am capable.

In reference to your invitation to address the Oconee County Sunday School Convention during the latter part of next August, I will be glad to comply with your request if possible to do so at that time.

With assurance of personal esteem, I am,

Very sincerely yours,
R. A. Cooper.

I thank you, Mr. Editor, for the kindness.

For the Kingdom,
Wm. S. Morrison,
President O. C. C. S. S. A.

MOTHER! GIVE CHILD
"SYRUP OF FIGS" IF
TONGUE IS COATED.

If Croup, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Clean Little Liver and Bowels.

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomachache or diarrhoea. Listen, mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

At End of their Rope?

Paris, Oct. 9.—Gen. J. M. G. Mallette, the military critic for the Temps, has written a letter from the front saying that the German armies are at the end of their strength, and that the German high command is hoping to save them.

"An armistice, even with the obligation to evacuate all invaded territory and Alsace-Lorraine," he continues, "would allow the German command to withdraw its armies in security to a distance sufficient to give time to reform the ranks in preparation for the moment when Berlin will denounce the Allies' conditions as impossible."

The Huns Abroad and The Pacifists at Home

(Contributed by CASPAR WHITNEY, now at the front for the "N. Y. Tribune," to the National Security League's campaign of Patriotism Through Education.)

Although Germany, while yet a "friend," intrigued against our peace and order, urged Japan and Mexico to make war on us, and murdered our men, women and children, there are those among us professing loyalty and intelligence who practically say this is not our war and appear unable to realize that the defeat of the boche is as vital to us Americans as was the victory of 1776.

Then we declared for independence; now we fight to maintain it.

It is not merely that we fight in answer to indignity and material injury done us through attack on our rights as a nation and on the lives of our citizens—not merely to uphold our place among self-respecting peoples—that we are at war; but literally for our self preservation as a republic.

To muzzle this war-mad wild beast we have taken up arms—that the world shall be safe for the freemen of the world.

The world cannot rest in peace while Germany holds the destiny of other peoples in her blood-dripping hands. The world cannot live in peace with a people that commits, or permits her sponsors to commit in her name, the foul acts of treachery, of vandalism, of bestiality, of murder, that have marked the trail of the German army over Europe.

One doctrine or the other must prevail; either the German brutal right of might or the civilized might of right—one or the other—must succumb in this conflict to the death. And should it be the German doctrine—then shall we fall under the domination of a people that have robbed and raped and looted and burned and killed, that the "kultur" of a military oligarchy shall live.

Prussianism is devoid of honor, truth, justice or mercy, as its own acts have proved, and its defeat is a necessary first step for the peace of the world and the freedom of civilization.

For the safety of American institutions it must be destroyed; for the safety of American freedom, yours and mine and of all of us.

We are in the midst of war, our war, the war of every freeman, of every man and woman who does not indorse cowardly murderous assault upon the weak and innocent, brutal injustice, and atrocious acts; and if we would preserve the Stars and Stripes and all they stand for we must fight the Huns abroad and the pacifists at home with all our strength.

THE LONG CREEK SECTION.

Resignation from Academy of Miss Abbott Deeply Regretted.

Long Creek, Oct. 8.—Special Rev. L. H. Raines filled his regular appointment at the Mountain Grove at Long Creek church in the afternoon.

Among those from the Long Creek Academy who recently stood the teachers' examination were Misses Jennie Tate and Bertie Harris. Others from the school were Misses Ethel Matheson, Myrtle Thrift and Dora Breedlove. They were accompanied by Rev. Raines, he being a member of the board and having to be present officially.

The Y.W.A. girls from Clearmont spent Thursday and Friday at the academy. In the afternoon of Thursday they went up on Round Top Mountain, accompanied by several from the academy. After they returned they all met in the reception hall at the Sullivan Home, and three interesting games were enjoyed for a while, and then they were ushered into the dining room, where refreshments were served. Those from Clearmont who went up on the mountain trip were: Miss Jane Hunsinger, chaperon; Misses Addie Mae, Evalout and Rosetta McClain, Hattie Mae Owens, Odell and Rose Waitfield, Fay Driver, Pauline Wilson, Rose Owens and Miss Burriss. Those from the academy were Rev. Raines, Misses Estelle Smith and Cornelia Holland.

The many friends of Miss Katie Abbott regret to learn of her resignation as matron of the academy. Miss Abbott resigned last Monday for the purpose of accepting work with the firm of C. W. & J. E. Banknight, of Walhalla. We regret her departure very much, but with for her great success in her chosen work and wherever she may go in the future.

Sam Fretwell and Keith Alexander, of Conners, spent last Sunday at the academy.

The school at this place is progressing nicely. It seems to be better than ever before, and we are all hoping that its growth and improvement will be steady and continuous.

Buy over here and win over there. Freemen buy bonds; slaves wear them.

TALK PEACE; COMMIT HORRORS

Cambon Declares Conduct of Huns Outrage to Civilization.

Paris, Oct. 9.—Jules Cambon, the former French ambassador at Washington, and one of the foremost figures in French affairs, said to the Associated Press to-day:

"At the moment that the Central powers address themselves to President Wilson to obtain an armistice and begin negotiations for peace, the German armies renew the horrors they have been committing in all of the occupied territory.

"St. Quentin, Lens, Cambrai, Douai are burned, mined, ruined. Having formerly been prefect of the department of the North, I know what this new horror means to the regions devastated by the German armies. These represent the richest territory of France, where the largest industrial establishments are located. All these centers have a glorious past. They are filled with splendid monuments and museums and libraries of priceless treasures. In Cambrai stands the tomb of the illustrious Fenelon.

"One cannot view without profound sadness all the ruins the German invaders are leaving behind them—ruins that represent not only material losses, but moral losses as well.

"The conduct of the German armies is an outrage to civilization and to humanity."

APPROVES WILSON INQUIRY.

It Is Felt that His Note Covers the German Situation.

Paris, Oct. 9.—President Wilson's reply to the German peace note was published in the noon editions of the newspapers to-day and was greeted with general satisfaction and expressions of approval throughout Paris.

"The note could not be improved upon; substitute Paris for Washington as the date line, and the reply might have been dictated here," is an epitome of French opinion as indicated by the popular reception of the Presidential document.

"The note could not be improved upon," was the consensus of opinion when the newspapers containing the note came out, and the people literally fought for copies of the editions of the Paris papers. The note was reproduced in these journals in heavy, black type under big headlines.

No Respite Given.

The significant passage in the note in which President Wilson refuses to entertain the possibility of a cessation of hostilities, and demanding the immediate withdrawal of the German troops is interpreted in military circles as meaning that the Allies will give the Germans no respite in their retreat.

Bonds speak louder than words. If you can't fight, your money can.

WHAT THE VICTORY OR DEFEAT OF GERMANY MEANS TO EVERY AMERICAN

(Contributed by ALBERT PAXSON TERHUNE, author and globe-trotter, to the National Security League's campaign of Patriotism Through Education.)

Germany's victory would mean all that the alarmists have said—the setback of humanity, democracy, civilization, rights of man, etc. But, to America, it would mean infinitely more.

It would mean our first national defeat; and, thus, would smash our perfect record for victories—a record as old as our nation—a record that means more than the right to brag. Even as a beaten army never wholly regains its old form—even as a beaten ring champion sinks at once into desuetude—so our nation (its traditions of victory gone) would suffer far worse deterioration than the mere fact of defeat could inflict.

It would mean that the man who has risked all in his country's struggle for Right could never again feel his former calm certainty that Right must triumph. Thus, the moral tone of the individual, as well as of the nation, would inevitably be lowered.

This country has never embarked in a war of conquest. From 1775 to the present we have fought for Liberty or for Union or for the Oppressed—ever for some sterling principle of right. From childhood we have been taught to believe that the high unselfishness of our war aims has given us the victory. We have seen the decay or destruction of men and nations that have battled for dominion—as Germany is now battling. Should we fall in this, our mightiest war for the Right, the average man must lose forever the simple Faith which has led our dear country from nothingness to its present estate. For that Faith, more than for anything else, our sacrifice is a hundredfold justified.

Albert Paxson Terhune.

HOW TO AVOID BACKACHE AND NERVOUSNESS

Told by Mrs. Lynch From Own Experience.

Providence, R. I.—"I was all run down in health, was nervous, had headaches, my back ached all the time. I was tired and had no ambition for anything. I had taken a number of medicines which did me no good. One day I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for women, so I tried it. My nervousness and backache and headaches disappeared. I gained in weight and feel fine, so I can honestly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any woman who is suffering as I was."—Mrs. A. DELINE B. LYNCH, 100 Plain St., Providence, R. I.

Backache and nervousness are symptoms or nature's warnings, which indicate a functional disturbance or an unhealthy condition which often develops into a more serious ailment.

Women in this condition should not continue to drag along without help, but profit by Mrs. Lynch's experience, and try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and for special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.
