Dock Pearson, a young man of about 18 or 20 years of age, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff P. Pearson, in the Tamassee section Friday of last week, his death being due to an attack of influenza. Young Pearson had been living in Walhalla for some time and was an employee of the Walhalla plant of the Victor-Monaghan Mills Company. He was in the first stages of the influenza when he left Walhalla, walking, to go to the home of his parents. His death occurred a few days after his arrival at his old home. He was a young man of good character, and had made many friends here, who sympathize with the bereaved ones in their sorrow.

pathy in their great sorrow. Funeral services were held yesterday and the interment took place in Westview cemetery.

—For cheap lumber and glass windows see Geo. T. Morton, Walhalla. Adv.—43-45.

—Thomas Edward Sanders died at his home here last Monday morning after a brief illness from influenza, which quickly developed into pneumonia. He was sick for only a few days. His death comes with a peculiarly deep sadness, as he leaves a widow and a number of children to mourn his death, the widow being a wife of but a few weeks. His first wife died several years ago, and just about a month ago he married Miss Fannie Bethany Reid, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Reid, of Walhalla. He was a son of the late Rev. J. M. Sanders, and was born in this county September 16, 1876. Besides his widow and children he leaves five sisters and three brothers. The sisters are Mrs. D. F. McAllister, of Americus, Ga.; Mrs. P. W. Hopkins and Mrs. Burt Hopkins, of Anderson; Mrs. Clem Wilbanks, of near Walhalla; Mrs. W. H. Brewer, of the Wolf Stake section. The brothers are John Sanders, of near Seneca; James Sanders, of Return, and Robert Sanders, who lives near West Union. There are five children by his first wife—Mrs. Joe R. Grogan, Selma Louise, Susan Emma, Charles Wm. and Henry Sanders. His aged mother also survives him. Mr. Sanders was a member of the Poplar Springs Baptist church, with which he had identified himself in early life, and was a member of the Richland Camp, Woodmen of the World. In the recent primaries he was nominated by a large vote for the office of County Supervisor of Oconee and would have taken office at the first of the year. For some years past he had been closely identified with this office in the capacity of overseer under the County Supervisor. His death is deeply regretted by a wide circle of friends, with whom The Courier joins in extending sympathy to the bereaved ones. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon and the interment was made in the Poplar Springs cemetery after a short service by Rev. L. M. Lyda.

—For Sale.—74 acres of land, 3 miles of Seneca, on main public road; one mile from graded school; fifty acres in cultivation; good pasture. Terms to suit purchaser. Apply to (Dr.) W. R. Craig, Walhalla.—adv.

—The body of Mrs. John H. Brown was brought up from Columbia last Monday and taken to the Mountain Rest section for interment on Tuesday. Mrs. Brown was taken sick about two weeks before her death, having contracted influenza, and the disease developed into pneumonia, causing her death last Sunday. Mrs. Brown was about 28 or 30 years of age, and was well known in this section. Besides her husband she leaves two children and her parents to mourn her death. Before marriage to Mr. Brown she was a Miss Edgins, being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Edgins, who resided in this county for some time, but about a year or so ago moved to Columbia, where Mr. Brown and Mr. Edgins were in business together. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of many friends in their grief. Mr. Brown and his two children and Mr. and Mrs. Edgins accompanied the remains to the up-country. Interment was made in the Double Springs cemetery yesterday. Mrs. Brown was a splendid young woman and will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

—Had I received silver dollars for one bale of cotton and the seed, I would have had 14 1-3 pounds of silver—$236.00 being the amount received. Buy best lumber and windows cheap and build farm houses. Sell cotton for 14 1-3 pounds money per bale. Buy from Geo. T. Morton, Walhalla.—Adv.—43-45.

—The announcement of the death of F. P. Guernsey, Jr., came as a surprise and shock to the people of Walhalla and east Gloom over every quarter where he was known. Few knew of his illness until but shortly before the announcement of his death came. Mr. Guernsey one day last week, while at work in the plant of the Guernsey Manufacturing Co., had the misfortune to get his hand badly injured, and finding that he could not work in the plant with any satisfaction, he decided that he would take an enforced rest with his wife and child in Chattanooga, Tenn., with relatives. He left Walhalla, by automobile in the afternoon of one day last week, and on arriving in Seneca stated that he was not feeling at all well. On arrival in Chattanooga he went direct from the station to the home of his sister, Mrs. T. J. May, and was put to bed at once, as he was suffering intensely with what, it was later ascertained, was a severe attack of pneumonia. He was unable to withstand the attack and died Sunday afternoon. His father left here on receiving word of his critical condition, and reached Chattanooga before the end came. Mr. Guernsey was a young man of splendid character and fine parts, and his death is deeply deplored by many friends here and elsewhere. He was born at Dover, S. Dakota, on December 4th, 1885, being at the time of his death just nearing his 33d year. On March 19, 1916, he was happily married to Miss Elva Stout, of Burnsville, N. C., and his wife and one child survive him. He is also survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Guernsey, of Walhalla, and two sisters, Miss Bessie Guernsey, of Walhalla, and Mrs. T. J. May, of Chattanooga. Mr. Guernsey was a member of Blue Ridge Lodge, No. 92, A. F. M. The Courier joins with hosts of other friends of the two bereaved families in extending sincere sym-

—News has reached this office that Mrs. A. A. McMahan, of near Seneca, is in a sanatorium in Atlanta, where she is being treated by a specialist. Mrs. McMahan is very pleasantly remembered as Miss Jessie Chalmers and has hosts of friends here and elsewhere, who will join with The Courier in the hope that her stay may prove very beneficial.

—For Sale.—7-room residence, with 15 acres of land; best known as the Col. J. S. Newman place; in town of Walhalla; nice orchard, fine well; all necessary outbuildings in good condition. Apply to Jas. H. Darby, Walhalla, S. C. (or at Seneca Oil Mill.)—adv.—42-41

—Miss Sophie Puckhaber, of Charleston, arrived in Walhalla yesterday to be with her brother, Louis Puckhaber, who is seriously ill with pneumonia at the home of Mrs. H. L. Brandt. Miss Puckhaber is a trained nurse and came up to give her professional services to her brother in his illness. Friends of the family will be glad to learn that his condition this morning is thought to be somewhat improved.

Card of Thanks.

Editor Keowee Courier: Permit us, please, through your columns, to express to the many friends in Walhalla and community our sincere appreciation and thanks for the many deeds of kindness and thoughtful consideration that were extended to us in our recent bereavement, and especially for the deep interest manifested in the welfare of our loved one. We pray the richest blessing may attend all these kind neighbors and friends.

Mrs. Elizabeth Schroder, Mrs. F. A. H. Schroder and Children, Walhalla, Oct. 16, 1918.
