

FORMER PRESIDENT AT REST.

Funeral Services Simple—Many Nations Transmit Their Regrets.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Jan. 8.—Long before the hour set for the simple funeral services for Theodore Roosevelt this afternoon, silent crowds of villagers and visitors collected in the vicinity of Sagamore Hill, Christ Episcopal church and Young's Memorial cemetery. Many tried vainly to gain admittance to the grounds of the Roosevelt estate, but mounted police, special deputy sheriffs and detectives kept all on the move.

Visitors were impressed with the hush that fell over the town as the hour for the service approached, and the general air of sorrow on the countenances of the citizens. School children, dismissed for the day, assembled in the streets and talked in subdued whispers. The droning of the army airplanes that hovered over the Roosevelt mansion seemed to accentuate the stillness. Business virtually was suspended. Many buildings were draped with crepe and flags drooped at half-mast.

Only the immediate members of the family were present at the prayer service at the house prior to the rites at Christ church, as follows:

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Capt. and Mrs. Archibald Roosevelt, Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Mrs. Richard Derby, Mrs. Douglas Robinson, (the colonel's sister), Mr. and Mrs. T. Douglas Robinson, the former being the colonel's nephew; Rear Admiral W. S. Cowles, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alsop, W. Emlen Roosevelt, and John. K. Roosevelt, cousins of the colonel; Mr. and Mrs. E. Reeve Merritt, Mrs. J. West Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. Langdon Warner; Mrs. Hilbourne L. Roosevelt, John E. Roosevelt, Mrs. Fairman Dick, Mrs. Moore Robinson, Mrs. Langdon Geer, Mrs. John E. Roosevelt, Mrs. James A. Roosevelt, Mrs. Frederick Roosevelt, Samuel Roosevelt and Miss Annie Taylor.

Rev. George E. Talmage, a friend of the family, read the Episcopal service for the dead at Christ church at 12.45 o'clock. There was no special music and no eulogy. The only departure from the impressive ritual was the recitation by the rector of Col. Roosevelt's favorite hymn: "How Firm a Foundation."

Admission to the little village church where the colonel worshiped was by card and was limited to less than five hundred. President Wilson was represented by Vice President Marshall, and the army by Gen. March, and the navy by Admiral Winslow, and delegations represented both branches of Congress. Governor Smith and leaders of both branches of the Legislature represented New York State.

Among the close friends of the former President were Senator Lodge, William H. Taft and Charles E. Evans. A delegation of Rough Riders, who served under the colonel in the Spanish-American war, had places of honor.

Among the organizations sending representatives were the American Academy of Arts and Letters; St. Nicholas Society; Camp Fire Club, Harvard Club; Book and Crockett Club, Republican Club, American Defense Society, and Union League Club.

Interment was in a plot selected by Col. Roosevelt soon after he left the White House. The site of the grave is on the crest of a knoll overlooking Oyster Bay cove.

Condolence from Brazil.
Rio Janeiro, Jan. 7.—President Alves to-day cabled his condolence to Mrs. Roosevelt and the foreign minister instructed the Brazilian embassy at Washington to express to the family of the former American President the profound regret of the Brazilian people. Edwin V. Morgan, American ambassador, received many visitors and telegrams of condolence.

Regrets from Uruguay.
Montevideo, Jan. 7.—The foreign minister of Uruguay sent the following

ONE DOSE RELIEVES

A COLD—NO QUININE

"Pape's Cold Compound" Ends Bad Colds or Grippe in a Few Hours

Relief comes instantly. A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grippe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs. It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness. Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine—adv.

ing cablegram to Washington to-day:

"In the name of the Uruguayan government, I wish to express my sincere regrets over the death of Mr. Roosevelt, who as a noble fighter deserved the love of those who fight for the principles of universal justice."

Sorrow in Argentina.
Buenos Aires, Jan. 7.—The Argentine foreign office has instructed the Argentine embassy at Washington to express to the United States government this country's sorrow over the death of Theodore Roosevelt. The embassy is directed to send a representative to the funeral and place a wreath at the grave in behalf of the Argentine government. A personal representative of President Irogoyen called at the American embassy to-day to express sympathy.

Clemenceau Sends Cablegram.
Paris, Jan. 7.—Premier Clemenceau sent the following cablegram to Mrs. Roosevelt to-day:

"On my return to Paris I learn with profound regret of the death of Col. Roosevelt. France loses in him an excellent friend. Always animated by generous ardor, he has shown his sympathy for her on every occasion. He was proud to give his sons in the allied cause, and to thus contribute to the triumph of right. I will keep in faithful remembrance the amiable relations I have had with him.

"I beg you, madame, to accept the expression of my deepest condolence."

Washington in Mourning.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Washington joined with the little village of Oyster Bay to-day in mourning the death of Theodore Roosevelt. While the funeral of the former President was being conducted in the town which knew him as a private citizen, government activities, insofar as possible, ceased in the city, which knew him as a public official. Flags all over the government buildings here were at half mast to-day and will remain so for thirty days in accordance with the proclamation issued by President Wilson at Paris. The Senate, over which Col. Roosevelt was the presiding officer for a short time before becoming President, stood adjourned. The House planned to meet for only a brief session.

Sons Receive News.

With the American Army of Occupation, Jan. 7.—News of the death of Col. Roosevelt was withheld by a friend from Capt. Kermit Roosevelt, of the 7th Artillery, until the captain had been given an opportunity to read his father's latest letter.

Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., is with the 25th Infantry near Montebau. Dr. Richard Derby, Col. Roosevelt's son-in-law, is a surgeon attached to the headquarters of the 2d division.

Word of the death of Col. Roosevelt was received over the wire of the American signal corps and was flashed immediately to all headquarters in the area of operation.

Mourning in Italy.
Rome, Jan. 7.—Col. Roosevelt had many friends and admirers here. Pope Benedict, when informed of Mr. Roosevelt's death, expressed profound regret. The pontiff said that, as President, Mr. Roosevelt was most favorable to Catholics, one of his cabinet members being of that faith. He also recalled the visit of William H. Taft to the vatican during Mr. Roosevelt's administration for the purpose of negotiating the matter relative to the Friar's lands in the Philippines.

SOME STARTLING FACTS.

More children die during the teething period than consumption kills annually. The pain and discomfort that comes with this disease of childhood may be avoided. Save doctor bills and sleepless nights by giving the sick, crying and restless child a few doses of Dr. Thornton's Easy-Tweeter as directed. It tides the tiny finks over the critical period of life safely. "Give the baby a chance. 18 doses for 25c., at all dealers. Easy Tweeter Medicine Co., Canon, Ga.—Adv.

A. C. L. Strike Ends.

Wilmington, N. C., Jan. 9.—After having been out almost a week because of the presence of non-union workmen in the local Atlantic Coast Line car repair shops here, 300 or more union workmen will resume work to-morrow morning, leaving the cause of the strike to be adjudicated by G. D. Rosser, their representative, and Willard Kells, general superintendent of motor power for the railroad.

Americans Burn Kadish.

Archangel, Jan. 7.—Activities were renewed by the American and Allied forces on the Kadish front yesterday. According to incomplete reports to headquarters here the Americans burned the village of Kadish, retired from it and then went forward and re-occupied the ruins.

"THEY SHALL NOT PERISH"

How in God's name can you let millions die the most hideous death dealt to humanity—Starvation? You cannot do it! You will not do it! America will save the orphans and babes from their hunger. Will you do your part? You could not do otherwise and be a man, much less an American! Every penny you give goes for food and clothing for the starving, helpless people of the near East.

YOUNG BLANCHETT'S DEATH.

Company Commander Writes His Family—Louis Commended.

For a long while there seemed to be considerable doubt as to the death of Louis Blanchett, of Wallhalla, on the battlefields of France. His death was reported, apparently confirmed, then there were rumors that first reports were incorrect. Finally, however, Wm. Blanchett, a brother of the young soldier, cabled for information.

The following personal letter from W. D. Workman, who was originally the commander of the organization to which Louis Blanchett belonged, (the 118th Infantry) sets at rest the varying rumors and establishes beyond question the fact that Louis died of wounds received on the battlefield in the performance of duty:

Capt. Workman's Letter.
Headquarters 1st Battalion, 118th Inf., American Expeditionary Forces France, December 6th, 1918.

Mr. Will Blanchett, R. F. D. No. 1, Wallhalla, S. C.—I have received your cable, "Is Louis Blanchett dead or alive?" and am replying at the earliest possible moment. I have made an investigation and regret to inform you that Louis is dead. The facts of the case as learned, on investigation, are briefly as follows:

The company was camped on October 15th, 1918, in a field near Bohain, France. Louis and the other men who were on duty with the kitchens were asleep in the field that night when a large shell exploded in their midst, killing one man and wounding severely Louis and another man. Louis was given immediate attention and was sent back through the hospitals to Rouen, France, where, in spite of all that could be done to save him, he died eight days later, and his death was reported to his company commander. In all probability Louis was buried near the hospital in which he died.

I am surprised and grieved that you were not notified of his death by the department. I will always regret that I was not with "A" Company during any of the fighting, having been transferred to the 60th Brigade, which was on the same front. I have only recently been returned to the 118th infantry, and as soon as your cable was received I was glad to investigate.

As Louis's old company commander I trust that you will let me take this opportunity to express to you my sympathy in your time of great sorrow. Louis was an excellent soldier and was loved and respected by his officers and comrades. He died at his post of duty in the presence of the enemy.

He gave his life in the defense of us all, and while I know that you must always lament the fate which cut short his life in the days of his young manhood, death came to him in the noblest form in which it can come to any of us.

His friend, Charlie Pitchford, is taking charge of his watch and other effects and will return them to you. I have instructed Charlie to write you in detail the circumstances of his death.

With the kindest of regards to you and yours, I am,
Sincerely your friend,
W. D. Workman.

$11,000,000 for Requisitioned Ships.

London, Jan. 9.—Edward N. Hurley and R. B. Stevens, of the American shipping board after conferences with representatives of the Norwegian Shipping Association, have agreed that the United States shall immediately pay the Norwegian ship owners $11,000,000, which is the amount the Norwegians actually had invested in contracts, material and ships when they were requisitioned by the United States. The matter is left unsettled, however, as the amount is far below what the Norwegians claim. Further claims will be taken up in Washington. The Norwegians declared that some concerns face disaster unless they obtain funds immediately.

TO CUT SHORT A COLD TAKE A CALOTAB.

The New Calomet Tablet That Is Entirely Purified of Nauseating and Dangerous Qualities

Of all the medicines in the world the doctors prize calomet most highly to break up a cold overnight or to cut short an attack of influenza, grippe, sore throat or a deep-seated cough and possibly to prevent pneumonia. Now that all of its unpleasant and dangerous qualities have been removed, the new kind of calomet called "Calotabs" is the doctors' ideal treatment for colds, etc. One Calotab on the tongue at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, your work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your whole system is purified and refreshed. Calotabs is sold only in original sealed packages; price thirty-five cents. Your druggist recommends and guarantees Calotabs by refunding the price if you are not delighted.—adv.

Trotsky Commanded Arrest.

Copenhagen, Jan. 8.—Nikolai Lenin, the Bolshevik premier of Russia, has been arrested at the command of Leon Trotsky, minister of war and marine, who has made himself dictator, according to a Moscow dispatch to the Gothenburg, Sweden, Gazette.

Trotsky was prompted to make the arrest because of a difference of opinion with Lenin concerning Bolshevik reforms, the dispatch states. Lenin desired to effect a coalition with the Menshevik or Moderates, while Trotsky wished to continue the reign of red terror.

No Worms in a Healthy Child
All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS chill TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the Child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.
