A FORMER WALHALLA BOY Talks of His Work for Uncle Sam In His Great Navy.

The following item, clipped from the Spartanburg Journal of January 8th, will be of interest to many in Walhalla. Kenneth Linler, the youngster referred to, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Linler, who for several years resided in Walhalla, but who moved from here to Spartanburg:

Spartan Lad Saw Service.

Kenneth Linler, of Spartanburg, who enlisted at the age of 16 years in the United States navy, has served his country for 15 months in foreign waters and is now back in what he terms "God's country" once more. He enlisted in the navy 18 days after war was declared and was sent to Norfolk, Va., for training, and later transferred to Charleston, where he assisted in putting the German interned ship Kiel into commission.

Kenneth sailed on August 19, 1917, for Ireland and arrived there safely. For six months he sailed in those dangerous waters, visiting Ireland, England, France and Wales with only one "sub" attack. He then returned to the United States and remained here only two weeks without having any opportunity to visit home. One morning at 10 o'clock orders were received to cast off, and in a short time the Spartanburg boy was again on the high seas. A "zigzag" course was taken for that British Isles and it was here that young Linler underwent his second submarine attack, but the British destroyers conveying the American ship put Fritz to rout. For three months he again sailed in the danger zone, seeing ships sunk and on one occasion taking survivors off the British ship Etonian, and the dead from the United States ship Manley were brought back to the United States to Philadelphia on the Spartanburg boy's ship.

After reaching Philadelphia on the return trip he was transferred to the mine force, a special branch of the service. In two weeks he was sent to Scotland on the United States ship Saranac, which is said to be one of the mine fleet's finest ships. For nine months he laid mines in company with other ships of the fleet and planted two mine fields which reached from Norway to Scotland. They finished three days before the armistice was declared, a system of mines which had the Germans completely blocked from the North Sea.

Orangeburg Man Regains Speech.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 9.—Private Rickenbaker, of Orangeburg, S. C., who was made practically dumb by a gas shell explosion on the battlefield in France, regained his speech in a wrestling match at Camp Gordon, to-day, and to-night he is talking in old form. His opponent got a tight grip around Rickenbaker's chest, and the latter cried out in pain, and he has been talking naturally since.

Card of Thanks.

Editor Keowee Courier: Please allow me space in your paper to express my gratitude to our neighbors for their deeds of kindness and pleasant visits to me during my recent illness from influenza. We also want to sincerely thank our good neighbor ladies for the bountiful supply of nice Christmas cake, brought and sent in by them. Each box was highly appreciated. May God bless and return those deeds of kindness in time of need.

Your gratefully,

Mrs. Earl D. Simpson, Walhalla, R. F. D. No. 1, Jan. 6.

Poet Indicted For Treason.

New York, Jan. 9.—Hermann Scheuffer, poet and author, a native of San Francisco, born of German parents, was indicted to-day by the Federal grand jury for treason. He is accused of having aided the cause of Germany against the United States while in Berlin by writing articles for The Continental Times, a newspaper published by the German Government propaganda bureau.

Huns Violate Armistice Rules. Paris, Jan. 9.—At the last meeting of the armistice commission, Marshal Foch called attention to the actions of the Germans, who, he said, while evacuating Poland and the Baltic provinces, left their arms with the Bolsheviks, thus violating the conditions of the armistice. Marshal Foch added that Germany would be held accountable for the damage done by the Bolsheviks thus armed.
