at 11 o'clock; Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. There will also be preaching every 1st Sunday afternoon at same place.

—S. W. Smith, registrar of vital statistics for Keowee township, informs us that for 1918 he registered 135 births in his section, with 72 deaths recorded. Influenza was the most prevalent of all diseases leading to deaths, and illness from this disease quite equaled the total of all other diseases combined.

—Have plenty of pigs, six weeks to two months old. W. M. Brown & Son, Walhalla.—adv.

—Married, at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. L. M. Lyda, in Walhalla, last Sunday afternoon at four o'clock, Miss Minnie Lee Butler and Jesse L. Addis. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Butler, of Route No. 1, while the groom is a son of Mrs. Jas. E. Addis, of the same community. They have many friends who will join with us in extending all good wishes.

—A large shipment of baby garments has arrived at the Red Cross rooms and will be ready by Saturday to be taken out to be made, or to be made at the Red Cross rooms, whichever is most convenient for those doing the sewing. There are a great many of the garments, though they are not difficult to make, nor is there any handwork required on them. Everyone who can, is urged to call at the Red Cross rooms Saturday and take out as many of these little garments as they possibly can.

—We have reduced all staple dry goods from 10 to 15 per cent. If you want staple goods cheap, come in and price. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla.—adv.

—Ford Wyatt, 24 years of age, died at his home not far from West Union last Friday. His death was due to pneumonia, following an attack of influenza. Mr. Wyatt was a splendid young man and will be greatly missed wherever he was known. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his death. The body was buried at Wolf Stake cemetery on Saturday afternoon at 11 o'clock, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. M. J. Stansell. We join with many others in extending sympathy to the bereaved ones.

—Carload of lime. You can get all you want. W. M. Brown & Son, Walhalla.—adv.

—The Paul Hayne Circle held its first meeting of the new year in the spacious parlors of Mrs. J. W. Bell's hospitable home. A large number of club members and visitors enjoyed the occasion. The literary program was supplemented by Mrs. C. P. Corn, sister of the hostess, who "lent her voice in song." Mrs. Bell had prepared for her guests "New Year Greetings" en pi. This game was heartily entered into, the lucky winners of the appropriate prizes being Miss Gertrude Smith and Mrs. L. M. Brown. Delicious salads and sweets, with hot chocolate, were served by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Strother.

—If you can wear a 3 or 3 1/2 shoe we still have some bargains. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla.—adv.

—You have doubtless taken note of the advertisement appearing in The Courier of the current history by Prof. March. This book is being sold in Oconee by E. A. Rolan, who informs us that a good portion of the profits from the sale of this great work will go to the Red Cross and kindred organizations. The people of Oconee have, therefore, an opportunity presented to them not only to secure a very attractive current history bearing the stamp of authority of high order, but at the same time to assist directly in a cause that is very dear to the hearts of us all at this time. Look Mr. Rolan up and let him show you this splendid work.

—Fresh candies, toilet articles at Norman's Drug Store.—adv-3-6

—The many friends of Miss Bertha S. Klaren will be interested in learning of her marriage, which took place in Charleston on December 28th, when she became the wife of Burt D. Allen, of Decatur, Ill. The bride is pleasantly remembered in Walhalla, where she resided with her mother, Mrs. Bertha Klaren, until about a year ago, when she went to Charleston to engage in work there. Mr. Allen is a sailor in Uncle Sam's Navy. We understand that Mr. and Mrs. Allen will make their home in Illinois. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. C. Mueller, D. D., of the Lutheran church, at the home of the bride's relatives, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Thelling. There are many here who will join with us in the wish for the young couple that they may enjoy long life, health, happiness and prosperity.

—For Sale—Nice fresh milk cow and calf. Apply to W. D. Moss, Walhalla.—adv.

—The many friends of Mrs. C. C. Kelley, who has been confined in an Atlanta hospital for some time, will be glad to learn that she has returned to her home in the Tamassee section, having been greatly benefited by an operation and a course of hospital treatment. She is enjoying better health now than for a long while.

—Talking machines, records and needles; also sheet music. Norman's Drug Store.—adv-3-6

—Miss Lillie Hughs is just recovering from an attack of influenza, and her friends here and elsewhere in the county will be glad to know that she will soon be quite herself again.

—Miss Lillie Hughs is just recovering from an attack of influenza, and her friends here and elsewhere in the county will be glad to know that she will soon be quite herself again.

—R. Duncan, of Greenville, was in Walhalla for a short while last Wednesday, having come over for a brief business visit. Mr. Duncan is looking well and states that he is well pleased with his new home and business conditions.

—Exchange.—Will swap Ford touring car or Grant roadster for horse. See me for a trade. J. W. Bell, Walhalla.—adv-2-ft.

—Attention is directed to the professional card, which appears elsewhere this week, of J. L. Moser, who has purchased the surveyor's outfit of the late I. H. Harrison. Mr. Moser will be ready at all times to respond to calls for service in the line of surveying.

—Liquid smoke for curing meat, 75c. per bottle. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla.—adv.

—Robert Stratton, of the U. S. Regular Army, spent a few days recently in Walhalla at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Grant. This was his first visit since he enlisted for service nearly five years ago. He stopped over in Greenville on his return to his post, leaving there Monday of this week to resume his duties on one of the naval vessels.

—Bottles wanted at Norman's Drug Store, Walhalla.—adv-3-6

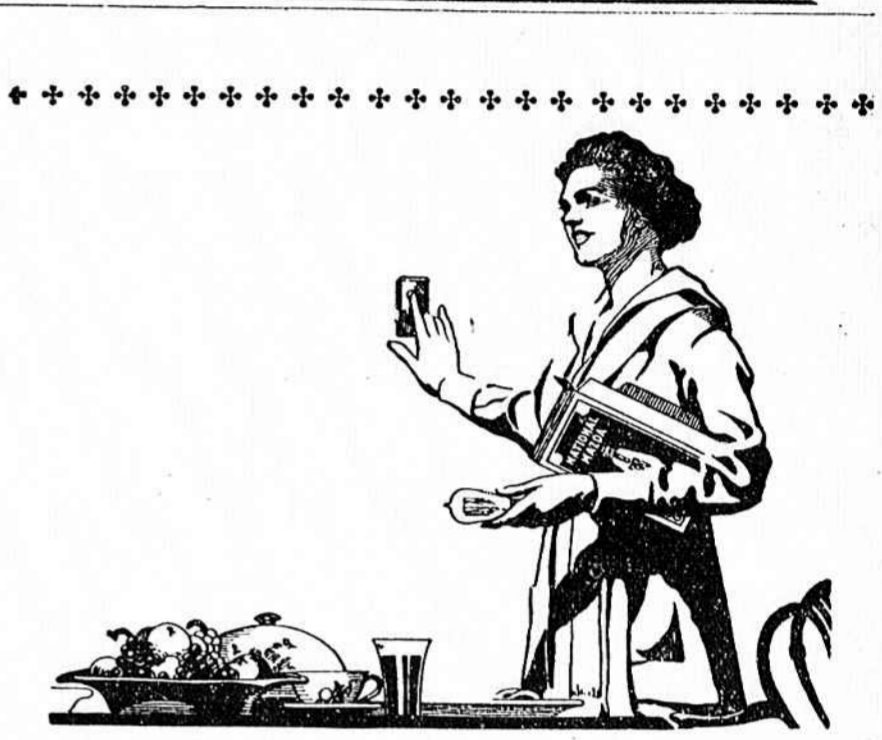

—J. C. Owens, of Alpena, Mich., has been spending some few days in Walhalla recently attending to matters of business. He returned to his home in Michigan last Friday afternoon. Mr. Owens is engaged in the undertaking business in his home town and states that he has been called on to arrange dozens of funerals in the recent past as a result of a serious epidemic of influenza, the disease being of a very fatal type, especially among the young and old people.

—All outings reduced to 25c. per yard. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla.—adv

—Edwin Hughs, of the United States Naval Service, was among friends for a short while last week during a brief visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Hughs. He was most cordially greeted by a wide circle of friends here. Edwin is in the wireless branch of the service, having charge, in company with another youngster, of the wireless station on board the U. S. S. Evansville. Mr. Hughs returned to his post yesterday, going to Norfolk, Va., at which point he will board his vessel for a trip to Santiago. We join with his many other friends in wishing him continued success in his service for Uncle Sam.

—Go to Brown's Garage when you want repairs or supplies on a moment's notice.—adv.

—Among the many "flu" sufferers whom we failed to mention last week we note the following: Rev. and Mrs. Aull are nursing back to health their six children, all of whom are doing nicely; Mrs. J. Arthur Moody and two children have been quite ill, but are improving; L. Earle Beard was taken sick during last Wednesday morning and went at once to the Oconee Hospital at Westminster, from which institution good reports come as to his condition; Mrs. N. L. Fant and daughter, Miss Kathleen, and younger daughter, all doing well, Miss Kathleen being out; Mrs. G. E. Rhodes, now practically well; C. G. Ensley, now able to be out after quite a severe attack; the two daughters of Mrs. F. A. H. Schroder, both recovering. There are doubtless others whom we have not heard of, as the influenza epidemic seems to have stricken some one in practically every home, and where it strikes it generally goes through the entire household. We hope that all of these mentioned will soon be entirely well. And we have the same hope for the many others doubtless suffering of whom we have not heard.
