

The Mother of Eight and Her Doctor
Reared Her Family WITH SIMPLE HOME REMEDY

An American Mother Beats Them All

There are few families in which the record of Mrs. Gustave Koch, Box 24, Kewick, Keokuk County, Iowa, has been surpassed. Not in the fact that she reared a family of eight is her story remarkable. Thousands of families are larger. The history of the Koch family is unique in that the mother, with all her loving care, pinned her faith to a simple home remedy and never had a doctor for her children. Here is what she says: "Peruna has done my children good. I have a family of eight and never had a doctor, only your medicine. We all think Peruna a splendid tonic." So far as we have learned, Peruna is the only known remedy for which such a wonderful claim can be made. Like Mrs. Koch, there are thousands upon thousands of mothers who place their entire dependence upon Peruna. That Peruna has merited this confidence is attested by the words of them all night and all day, but it was hard to see them on account of a heavy fog and some brush and smoke.

I think I wrote you about the other nights we had, and I haven't much to write now. If I should write you all I can think of I would not have much to tell when I get back. You know you told me, when I was home last, you were afraid I might not come back, and I told you I would; but believe me, I thought several times I wasn't going to. You would wonder how it could be possible to come out of such places if you had only heard the guns, even without hearing the bullets and big shells, and I have felt some of the big ones a few times, but luckily was not hurt very bad.

Well, I haven't much to say about when I am going to be home, but I think I will be home by May anyway, if not sooner. Of course I hope it will be sooner.

This is a pretty nice country, but nothing like the United States, and everything is so expensive here now. The high prices you have are not anything in comparison with those here.

Well, I can think of a lot more to write, but guess this is about all you will want to read at one time. Will write you again soon. I will be here until next week, I guess. I will write you again while I am here, as I haven't anything to do at all; and you may know I am taking advantage of having a chance to rest up, for we have had it pretty hard until lately.

What are Fred and Alice doing? Tell Fred to be good and have a good time, too; and you must all try and have a good time. How are Mary and her family? Fine, I hope.

Will close, hoping this will find all well. Hope to be with you again soon.

Your loving son,
Henry S. Corbin.

Co. I, 321st Infantry, A. E. F., A. P. O. No. 791.

P. S.—Say, Fred, is my shotgun in good shape? I wish I had it here for a few days. There are lots of ducks here. I heard you went hunting Thanksgiving Day and didn't have much luck. Write me a long letter and tell me all about things.

FEEDING NEW CORN TO STOCK

Not Safe for Hogs and Mules—Liable to Produce Disorders—Give Hogs Minerals.

New corn is not a safe grain for work horses and mules, as it is liable to produce colic and indigestion. If it must be fed, feed only the drier ears, not more than four or six ears at each meal. A small quantity of salt should be sprinkled on each feed. A better and safer method is to feed half corn and half oats.

If green corn is fed to hogs, the safest plan is to feed the entire stalk with the ears on the stalks. Feed small quantities at each meal; spread the corn out in the feed lot so that each one will get its full share.

Keep a full supply of wood and coal ashes, burnt wood and corn-cot charcoal under cover in the feeding pens, so the hogs can help themselves. These minerals are useful in correcting the acidity of the green fodder and corn.

BERGER GETS TWENTY YEARS.

Four Others Receive Same Sentences—All Granted Bail.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 20.—A maximum sentence of 20 years in Leavenworth prison was imposed by Federal District Judge Landis to-day on Congressman-elect Victor L. Berger, of Milwaukee, and four other Socialist leaders, who in final pleas likened themselves to history's greatest martyrs. The five men, convicted of conspiracy to obstruct the draft in violation of the espionage act, succeeded in obtaining release on $25,000 bail from Federal Judge Aischuler in Circuit Court, and declared they would carry their legal fight to the United States Supreme Court.

Besides Berger, publisher of the Milwaukee Leader, the other convicted men are: Rev. Irwin St. John Tucker, lecturer and writer.

Adolph Germer, national secretary of the Socialist party.

J. Louis Engdahl, editor of the American Socialist.

William F. Kruse, head of the Young Peoples' Society League.

Judge Landis overruled motions for a new trial, for a stay of execution and for bail, but granted the filing of a petition for a writ of error. Counsel for the convicted men then went before Judge Samuel P. Aischuler, of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, and asked for bail.

Judge Aischuler granted them bail, increased from $10,000 to $25,000, with the understanding that they refrain from resuming their former acts and utterances during pendency of their case. William Bross Lloyd, Chicago millionaire, who was the Socialist candidate for United States Senator at the last election, provided surety for the five.

Save Your Living Without Money Cost

We are all at a danger point. On the use of good common sense in our 1919 farm and garden operations, depends prosperity or our "going broke." Even at present high prices no one can plant all or nearly all cotton, buy food and grain at present prices from supply merchant on credit, and make money. Food and grain are higher in proportion than are present cotton prices.

It's a time above all others to play safe; to produce all possible food, grain and forage supplies on your own acres; to cut down the store bill. A good piece of garden ground, rightly planted, rightly tended and kept planted the year round, can be made to furnish nearly half your living. It will save you more money than you made on the best two or three acres of cotton you ever grew! Hastings' 1919 Seed Book tells all about the right kind of a money saving garden and the vegetables to put in it. It tells about the farm crops as well and shows you the clear road to real and regular farm prosperity. It's Free. Send for it today to H. G. HASTINGS CO., Atlanta, Ga.—Adv.

FARM ANIMALS

RAISING WELL-BRED SWINE

Return Money Invested More Quickly Than Any Other Farm Animals Except Poultry.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

No branch of live stock farming gives better results than the raising of well-bred swine when conducted with a reasonable amount of intelligence. The hog is one of the most important animals to raise on the farm, either for meat or for profit, and no farm is complete unless some hogs are kept to aid in the modern method of farming. The farmers of the South and West, awakening to the merits of the hog, are rapidly increasing their output of pork and their bank accounts. The hog requires less labor, less equipment, less capital, and makes greater gains per hundred pounds of concentrates than any other farm animal, and reproduces himself faster and in greater numbers; and returns the money invested more quickly than any other farm animal except poultry. In the trucking and mixed-farming sections of the United States hogs are used to consume various unmarketable substances. The value of milk is known on every farm although it may not be fully appreciated, and any one who has had pigs knows the keen appetite they have for milk and its products. In the neighborhood of many large dairies pork production has become a very prominent and lucrative supplement to the dairy industry. The hog is also a large factor in cheapening the production of beef. Hogs are placed in the cattle feed lots to utilize the corn and other feeds which the cattle have failed to digest and which otherwise would be wasted. Hogs following steers in many cases have increased the profit per steer by $6 to $9. Farmers and hotel and restaurant owners are using kitchen refuse to produce salable pork. In fact, as a consumer of by-products the hog has no rival.

However, this propensity in many instances is being taken unfair advantage of through ignorance and lack of care. Milk products, animal offal, etc., which contain disease germs, especially those of tuberculosis, are given to hogs. This practice not only results in spreading disease but causes loss in the hogs themselves through condemnation at slaughter. All such products should be effectively sterilized before being fed.

After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."

Don't Let Catarrh Drag You into Consumption

Avoid Its Dangerous Stage. There is a more serious stage of Catarrh than the annoyance caused by the stopped-up air passages, and the hawking and spitting and other distasteful features. The real danger comes from the tendency of the disease to continue its course downward until the lungs become affected, and then dreaded consumption is on your path. Your own experience has taught you that the disease cannot be cured by sprays, inhalers, atomizers, jellies and other local applications. S. S. S. has proven a most satisfactory remedy for Catarrh because it goes direct to its source, and removes the germs of the disease from the blood. Get a bottle from your druggist today, and begin the only logical treatment that gives real results. You can obtain special medical advice without charge by writing to Medical Director, 27 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.
