Our buying power enables us to name these prices.

—Highest market price paid for cotton. Baylis W. Harrison or Geo. T. Morton, Walhalla.—adv.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hughs are entertaining another young lady at their home, the little miss having arrived last Thursday, October 30.

—The trustees of Neville School District are very anxious to secure a first grade teacher for their school. It is hoped that it will be possible to start the school by November 15. Apply to Jos. Kerr, Trustee, Walhalla, S. C.

—If you will try White House and Sunflower flour one time, you will always buy it. Mitchell & Reeder, Westminster, S. C.—Adv.-34-1f.

—Abner L. Clinkscales, of Dallas, Texas, was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Todd, of Walhalla, and renewed many old acquaintances while here. Mrs. Todd is a niece of Mr. Clinkscales, who went to Texas some 52 years ago. His recent visit was the first made to his old home since he left this section half a century ago. There are quite a few of our older citizens who remembered him and were glad to meet him again.

—Hon. John D. Cappelmann, of Charleston, was among friends in Walhalla last Saturday, Sunday and Monday, and on Sunday morning delivered a splendid address at St. John's Lutheran church. He was heard by a good congregation, for Mr. Cappelmann is an old Walhalla boy who is always most cordially welcomed here. On this visit Mr. Cappelmann was the guest of his sister, Mrs. H. B. Schroder, and family.

—All makes standard sewing machine needles at Moss & Ansel's, Walhalla.—adv.-24-1f.

—Do people read advertisements? W. M. Brown & Son say they do, as they had reason to find out last week. There was a mistake in the price of the Fordson tractors as quoted by us, the price given being $750 for the Fordson tractor and plow, when this price is for the tractor alone. The Browns tell us they could have sold all the tractors and plows they have on hand, on the road or in prospective transit at the price quoted. The mistake was ours in rearranging the advertisement for printing.

—We are in receipt of a card from Rae L. Fahnestock, who has for some time been located in Atlanta, instructing us to change his paper to Akron, Ohio, to which place he has recently gone to take a position in a machine shop. Mr. Fahnestock finds his new work very pleasant and states that he is one of a force of 450 deaf mutes in the employ of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co.'s plant. There are 27,000 employees of the Goodyear factories at Akron, he states.

—Mrs. M. L. Hamby, of the Mountain Rest section, has our thanks for a sample of her Porto Rico yam crop. Mrs. Hamby, who lost her husband by death about a year ago, has been conducting her farm operations by herself, and we are informed that she is making a success. She has, we are informed, a wonderful lot of potatoes that she has had taken in from a very small patch set to Porto Rico slips. The samples sent to us are fine, weighing 2 1/2 and 3 pounds each, and this, we are informed, represents the general average, though there are in the lot some smaller and some larger.

—Permalife storage batteries are guaranteed for 20 months—for all makes of cars. Piedmont Auto Co., Walhalla.—adv.

—There are many in Oconee who will regret to learn of the death of Miss Hauda Brown, of the Boone's Creek section of our county. Miss Brown died at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Chapman, of Liberty, Pickens county, whom she had gone to visit and wait upon about a month ago. Mrs. Chapman was seriously ill with typhoid fever at the time Miss Brown went to visit her, and when the former began to recover Miss Brown was taken sick with typhoid, began to recover, and then was taken with a relapse of the treacherous disease. She was a daughter of J. D. Brown, of Boone's Creek, and was a young woman of splendid traits and a noble character. Her death occurred on Saturday last, and on Sunday, at Boone's Creek, the body was laid to rest, Revs. C. R. Abercrombie and D. Ramey conducting the services. A large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends attended the services and paid the last sad tribute to the deceased. We join with others in extending sympathy to the bereaved ones in their hour of sorrow. The deceased was a consistent member of the Boone's Creek Baptist church.

—Miss Edna Smith left Monday for Anderson, where she will take a stenographic course with the Anderson Business College. Her friends wish her much success.

—Tell us your farm troubles if it's buy or sell. Harrison & Morton, Walhalla, S. C.—adv. 42-1f.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Kay, of Belton, were week-end visitors at the homes of A. L. Ellison, A. G. Smith and J. H. Cason, respectively, in and near West Union.

—Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Ballenger and children, of Atlanta, are spending ten days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Knox, of West Union. Mrs. Knox and Mrs. Ballenger are sisters.

—Permalife storage batteries are guaranteed for 20 months—for all makes of cars. Piedmont Auto Co., Walhalla.—adv.

—T. B. Lades, of Route No. 2, presented us yesterday morning with a sample of his Porto Rico yam crop. He states that he had a comparatively small area set in slips, but that his yield is remarkably heavy. The two potatoes brought to The Courier office weighed 8 pounds—one 5 and one 3 pounds. The larger is of peculiar formation, one half being in the shape of a large piece of corrugated piping, while the opposite end is of a smooth surface with what appear very much like Irish potato "eyes." The potato crop of this section appears to be an unusually fine one.

—I will sell, at public outcry, for cash, to the highest bidder, at my residence in Walhalla, on Saturday, the 22d day of November, 1919, at 2 o'clock p. m., the personal property of Mrs. H. M. Jafferson, deceased. Mrs. M. M. Tribble, Administratrix Estate Mrs. H. M. Jafferson, Deceased.—adv. 45-17.

—See Baylis W. Harrison or Geo. T. Morton before you sell your cotton.—adv.

—Last week we announced the dissolution of the partnership existing between P. K. Barker and S. J. Barker, who had entered business together under the firm name of P. K. & S. J. Barker. The new firm will be known as Barker & Maret, the members of the firm being S. J. Barker and E. P. Maret, both of Walhalla. These gentlemen will be pleased to have opportunity to serve you. They will be found next door to Ansel's furniture store, where they have a full stock of fancy and heavy groceries.

—A. W. Elrod was in Walhalla for a short while Monday, having come over to Walhalla for the purpose of completing the record in the matter of a Confederate pension. Mr. Elrod has been spending a good portion of his time lately in Georgia with his daughter, Mrs. Eva Hopkins, of Lula, Ga. This was his first visit to Walhalla in several years, though at one time he was a resident of Oconee and a frequent visitor here. During his stay in Oconee he is making his home with his daughter, Mrs. J. A. Brock, of Seneca. He has many friends in this section who are pleased to see him.

—If you want better bread and whiter bread buy White House plain and Sunflower Self-rising flour. Mitchell & Reeder, Westminster, S. C.—Adv.-34-1f.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dabbs, of Mayesville, S. C. were visitors in Walhalla for a short while last Wednesday. They were traveling through this section of the State by automobile, and were looking over property in Walhalla with a view to possible location here. They were charmed with this section, the climate, our people and the country in general. Walhalla would most heartily welcome these good people to our midst. Mr. Dabbs is known to most everybody in South Carolina by reputation and work, he having been prominently identified with the Farmers' Union as president for a number of years and in other capacities.

—Miss Ola Talley and Joel Abercrombie, both of the Salem section of our county, were happily married last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Talley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. R. Abercrombie. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served for the young couple and those friends invited to witness the ceremony, and immediately after the dinner the young couple left for a trip to Greenville and other points in the upper part of the State. They will be absent for a week or ten days. The groom is a son of B. H. Abercrombie. We join with other friends in extending to the young couple every good wish.

—Highest market price paid for cotton. Baylis W. Harrison or Geo. T. Morton, Walhalla.—adv.

—Quiet marriage was solemnized in Anderson on the evening of October 28th, at the Baptist parsonage, when Miss Dewey Otis Bruce became the bride of Thomas Zerl Bruce. The ceremony was performed by Dr. John E. White, the ring service being used. The groom resides at Sherman, Texas, and the bride is a daughter of Dr. S. G. Bruce, of Anderson, well known to many in Oconee. The marriage was attended by only a few near relatives of the young couple, who were, however, the recipients of many handsome presents, which attested the esteem in which they are held by a wide circle of friends in this and other States. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce will leave in a short while for Texas, and will make their home at Sherman. The Courier joins with others in extending to the young couple every good wish for a long life of happiness and prosperity.

—Mrs. C. G. Strong left Tuesday for Chester, where she will be for a few days visiting among relatives and friends.
