I. W. W.'s MURDER SOLDIERS.

Dastards' Bullets End Lives of Overseas Men Parading.

Centralia, Wash., Nov. 11 .-- Warren Grimm, Centralia lawyer, and Ben Cassagranda, Centralia real estate man, died late to-day from wounds' received when Industrial Workers of the World fired on Armistice Day parade here to-day. The death list early to-night stood at three, Arthur McElfresh having been killed instantly. All were overscas men. Dale Hubbard, one of the siz men wounded, was reported dying. The other wounded will recover, it was said. All the killed and wounded were overseas veterans.

Sixteen alleged Industrial Work-ers of the World were arrested early to-night, and more were being placed in jail as fast as they could be found. Former soldiers were guarding the jail to keep the prisoners from a mob which crowded around the building. Immediately after the shooting, a crowd of spectators and marchers seized a man they believed to be the ringleader of the I. W. W. They put a rope around his neck, threw the rope over the cross-arm of a telephone pole and started to haul him up. He was in the air only a brief period before the chief of police prevailed upon the crowd to let him down. To-night the man let him down. To-night th was in jail here nearly dead.

Headed by Veterans.

The whole city had turned out to celebrate the anniversary of the suspension of hostilities and a large parade was formed, headed by the city's boys who had helped bring about the glad day a year ago. Wear ing the uniforms that sheltered them in the trenches of France and on the picket lines of the German border, the service men were the cynosure of the hundreds of women and children who lined the streets.

As the column swung around the corner of Tower avenue and Second avenue, the band struck up a patri-otic march. Then bullets came into the ranks from an unseen enemy. Men fell to the pavement and tiny rivulets of blood showed the spectators what had taken place, the crack of the rifles of the assassins having been drowned by the blare of the band.

Tiny puffs of smoke from the roof of a nearby building indicated whence the bullets had come, and the nearness of the I. W. W. hall led to the quick decision that the heroes who had weathered the sanguinary battlefields of Europe had been slain from ambush by radicals who opposed the American system government.

The marching soldiers did not linger to await the order to fall out, but with seeming intuition rushed into the nearby structure and sought their way to the roofs. The snipers had disappeared, but the service men sought highways and byways for all suspicious persons and then sent out pioneers into the timbered country around th

Suddon Terror. Wives, daughters and sweetheasts of the paraders, after a momentary pause from the sudden terror of the fallen. That the firing was intended for soldiers was shown by the fact that all the killed and injured were in the military section of the pa-rade, which was made up partly of residents of Chehalis, Arthur McElfresh was found to have been killed instantly, but Warren Grimm did not die until later. Grimm's death added to the fury of the crowd of civilians that swarmed later about the jail to demand vengeance.

He had been an idol of the town even before the war, as he was a star football player at the University of Washington. He had added to the esteem of his townsmen by a professional career until the war for democracy called him. He had been elcomed the plaudits due a warrior, and his death at the hidden hands of those who opposed that for which he had faced the enemy in the open, drove men and women to frenzy. As soon as the first excitement subsided somewhat, word of the attack was sent to Governor Hart, at Olympia. He communicated with Department of Justice officers at Seattle and then d'spatched 75 mem-bers of the Third Infantry, National Guard, to Centralia.

1. W. W. Outrages Bring Early Crystalization of Opinion.

Centralia, Wash., Nov. 12 .--- Cities of Western Washington joined Cen tralia to-day in arresting members of the Industrial Workers of the World and raiding their headquarters following the firing on an Armistice Day parade here yesterday Four former American soldiers are dead and a fifth is reported dying as a result of the shooting and one al-leged 1. Prosecuting Attorney Herman Allen announced that D. Lamb, 16 years old, who was arrested here as an I. W. W., confessed to belonging to the organization. The boy, Al-len declared, said he had heard his father, James Lamb, who also was arrested, 'a'ling of a plot to start trouble here yesterday. The father, according to Allen, confessed last night that radicals had four former service men marked for death because of their activities in a light waged by Centralia citizens to rid the city of I. W. W. "The J. W. W. expected trouble here yesterday and they were pre-pared for it," said Allen. "When the parade was almost over without trouble appearing they decided to start it themselves.

Dr. David Livingston, who served in the war as a captain, was one of the four marked by the I. W. W. for death, according to Lamb's alleged confession. Livingston is the coro-

Centralia was quiet to-day and Judge George Dysart said citizens had promised to let the law take its course

Veterans to Aid Officials.

"Last night I talked to them and promised that every I. W. W. arrested here would be given a quick and just trial," said Judge Dysart. "The former service men promised to aid officials to jail men. "Brick" Smith, who was lynched, was reported by officials to have a police record in Washington. Durcaused trouble in Western lumber camps, and a lumber company wrote to a patriotic organization that smith was a menace and asked that he be arrested.

Smith was arrested at Cedar Falls, July, 1917, when he and other alleged 1. W. W. defied a freight train crew at a time farmers complained of sabotage being prac-ticed in the grain fields and fruit orchards.

Mayor C. B. Fitzgerald, of Seat-Mayor C. B. Fitzgeratu, of the tle, late to-day issued a warning for all radicals to "leave Seattle off itineraries." The their future itineraries." statement was made after two raids had been made by the Seattle police.

"War to the Death." Seattle, Wash., Nov. 12.—"War to the death" is now on against the Industrial Workers of the World, Robert C. Saunders, United States district attorney, declared here to-"No further evidence than lay. the Centralia murders is needed," he asserted, "to prosecute all I. W. W. to the full extent of the law."

Strasburg, Nov. 4. - Premier lemenceau's speech here to-day, onsidered his political veledictory to France, rose much above party politics. It was, for the most part, a plea for universal tolerance and social justice, and an appeal to the working man throughout the world to resume labor's pre-war methods and "work."

"The world's only salvation from the social and economic chaos from which it is now emerging is "work," d M. Clemenceau.
