

MAROOINED IN RIVER 30 HOURS.
Efforts to Rescue Man from Perilous Position Finally Succeed.

Anderson, April 22.—Marooned already for 30 hours, without food or water, on top of a pier of Gregg Shoals Hydro-Electric Plant, on Savannah river, C. C. Partain will probably have to spend the remainder of to-day on his perch, where he has been since a bateau in which he and W. L. Conwell were crossing the stream was swept over the dam on Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock, dashing the latter to death on the rocks below.

First reports stated that Partain also went over the dam with his companion, but it has since been learned that he leaped just as the bateau plunged over the precipice, and clung to a pier which stands above the dam. Chambering to the top of the stone pillar, he spent the day and night there, while would-be rescuers made heroic efforts to rescue him.

Efforts to get a cable across the stream have failed, while attempts to get to him with a boat from above or below the dam have been out of the question.

The only hope now of rescuing him is to wait for the flood waters to recede sufficiently to allow persons to walk along the crest of the dam and take him off the pier.

Partain Rescued at Last.
(Anderson Mail, 22d.)

C. C. Partain was rescued from his perilous position this afternoon. A cable across the river and a boat were used in getting him off. Mr. Partain did not seem particularly weakened by his experience, and he stated that he was in need of water much more than food.

"FIDDLE-FIT"
Keep Liver and Bowels Clean and Active with "Cascarets"

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, sour, gassy stomach—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels. A Cascaret to-night will have you feeling clear, rosy and as fit as a fiddle by morning. They work while you sleep.—adv.

PHILIPPINE INDEPENDENCE?
Filipino Democrats Join Nationalists in Their Demands.

Manila, April 19.—The Democratic party of the Philippines will join the Nationalist party in the demand for immediate independence of the Philippines, even using force of arms, if it becomes necessary, to attain that end, Senator Tedorna Sandiko, only member of the Democratic party in the Philippine Senate, said in an address made at a recent luncheon.

The luncheon was given for members of both houses of the Legislature by Ishar Gabaldon, recently chosen resident commissioner at Washington. Sergio Osmana, speaker of the House of Representatives, and the leader of the Nationalist party in the Legislature, addressing Senor Oakaldon, said: "We urge upon you in your capacity of resident commissioner to the United States to tell the Congress and the people of that noble country that we who are gathered here today would prefer to be the lowest and humblest citizens of the Philippines, with independence in our hands, than the leaders that we now are in our country, under the tutelage of another country."

Black Patches for Their Faces.

Atlanta, Ga., April 21.—The prettiness of wearing tiny black patches on pink dimpled cheeks, just as they were worn in the French court under Louis XV, and later in colonial days in this country, has come into vogue more than ever in Atlanta. It is a fad, however, which, only really pretty women can indulge in, for a girl must have real confidence in the attractiveness of her face before she dares deliberately attract the eyes to it by decorating it with the startling and sometimes extremely attractive patch.

Three Killed at Hickeytown.

Fort Smith, Ark., April 19.—Mrs. Chas. Zachary and two children were killed, and more than a score of persons are reported seriously injured in a tornado which damaged the village of Hickeytown, Ark., last night. Hickeytown is 16 miles south of Clarksville, in Johnston county. Its population is estimated at about 200.

Mars Failed to Answer.

Cedar Ranch, Nebraska, April 22.—An effort early to-day to catch a signal from Mars failed. Dr. Fredrick L. Milliner and Harvey Gerner, electrical experts, who made the attempt, announced that they would try again to-night.

SCORES KILLED AND HUNDREDS ARE HURT IN FEARFUL CYCLONE—PROPERTY DAMAGE MOUNTS INTO MILLIONS

Birmingham, Ala., April 20.—A death list which to-night stood at more than 140, and property loss of millions of dollars, was the toll exacted by a series of tornadoes which to-day swept a score of towns, villages and isolated farms in eastern Mississippi, northwestern Alabama and the southern counties of Tennessee.

Communication with many of the stricken districts was difficult, but fragmentary reports agreed that the tornadoes swept down with deadly suddenness, obliterating everything that lay in their paths. In at least one case—that of Rose Hill, Miss.—practically the entire town is believed to have been destroyed, and in several instances all members of a family were reported to have been caught in the debris of its home.

Sweeps Narrow Path.

Striking first apparently in Lauderdale county, Mississippi, about 10 o'clock this morning, the storm swept a narrow path across the remainder of the State, carrying destruction to a dozen or more communities. About the same time effects of the same or a similar disturbance was reported from counties in the northwestern corner of Alabama, the extreme force of the wind being expended before the Tennessee line was reached, in Williamson and Maury counties.

Meridian, Miss., the heart of a rich farming district, suffered heaviest, according to late reports, with a known death list of 21. The village of Glen, Alcorn county, numbered its dead at 10, Aberdeen 10, Ingomar 6, Egypt 5, Baker 5, and Bay Springs 4. A lumber camp near Philadelphia, Neshoba county, lost 12 workers killed and 30 were injured, several of whom may die.

Score of Bodies Recovered.

In Alabama the rural districts around Sheffield, Gurley, Little Cove and Waco sustained the full force of the storm, and, with some sections still cut off, a score of bodies have been recovered.

Across the Tennessee line, 160 miles from blasted Meridian, a tornado upset residences and farm buildings and cut a swath through forests and orchards. Only three deaths are known to have occurred in Tennessee, however.

Later List of Dead.

Following is a list of deaths reported at a later hour in several sections of the storm-swept areas:

ARMY MEN RAISE HATS.

Washington, April 21.—In greeting their friends, officers and men of the army raise their hats or caps, under orders issued yesterday by Secretary Baker. The regulation of 1913 requiring that the greeting be by salute only, was rescinded.

Farmers Plowing at Night.

Greenville, April 22.—Because of a two months' delay in planting, due to wet and unseasonable weather, farmers throughout the State are reported to be working with tractors as late as 11 o'clock at night in efforts to partially make up for what is described as the longest delay in 50 years.

Negro Youth Found Guilty.

Spartanburg, April 21.—Ivey L. Liojahn, a negro youth, tried here yesterday on the charge of murdering J. L. Holbert, a guard at the Spartanburg county jail, several months ago, was found guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be electrocuted on May 2.

Names of Confederates May Be Placed on Memorial Across the Potomac from Washington.

Washington, April 17.—Gen. Isaac Sherwood, himself a distinguished Union veteran, who is a member of Congress from Ohio, to-day introduced a joint resolution authorizing the Arlington Memorial Amphitheater Commission to inscribe the names of Confederate military leaders on the memorial, which is in Virginia, just across the Potomac river from Washington. The resolution explains that, although the commission appointed by Congress to have charge of the construction of the amphitheater included a Confederate veteran in its membership, the majority of the commission could not construe the law to permit the inscription of the names of Confederate leaders. This decision was reached in spite of the fact that Congress has set aside a tract at Arlington for the Confederate dead. A good deal of indignation had been expressed among Southern members of Congress and others here about the narrow decision of the commission, but none of them took any action, preferring that if anything be done by Congress it would more fittingly come from a Northern source.

Salvation Army Charity As Seen by a Traveling Salesman in South Carolina.

In the city of Anderson the other day my attention was called to a small funeral procession leaving one of the mill villages and wending its way out toward the edge of town to lay away an aged woman who had answered the last roll-call. There were only two equipages—the hearse and the Salvation Army car.

Upon inquiry I learned that this was a family who were very poor, consisting of a father who was sick, and a mother and four little children, and this was the mother and grandmother, who, after living to the ripe old age of 78 years, had heard the summons of another shore and had gone home to her God.

In traveling over the land and seeing things from a commercial traveler's point of view, always looking for business, getting the order, catching the next train, and on to the next town, they seldom have the time to look into the finer things of life, and it is good to catch a glimpse of our dear Saviour and His teachings, which are exemplified so clearly in such charity as the Salvation Army is doing, and the great good they are accomplishing, not only in Anderson, S. C., but all over this great country of ours.

I thought, after I boarded the train in leaving Anderson, how lonesome and sad that little home in the cotton mill village would be that night, with mother and grandmother gone, and a vacant chair around the fireside that never more would be filled, and I fancied that when they prayed the bed-time prayer through their tears they would thank God for the Salvation Army, for truly it was their only friend in their dire distress, and the man with the red band around his cap prayed the prayer, preached the sermon and sang the song that gave comfort to their bereaved souls.

God bless the Salvation Army's work in Anderson; God bless their work all over the land, for they are always looking for the "down and out," and every day they are doing thousands of charitable deeds that go unnoticed from the eyes of the world. But there is One who knows, and notes the fall of the sparrow, and He will abundantly bless.

As the train rumbled on I thought of the verse composed by Capt. Sumners:

"Think of the love of Jesus,
Think of His love for thee;
Jesus was born in that lowly stall;
God sent Him down to be
A saviour of poor, lost sinners;
The blind and the sick to heal.
Oh, it was love sent from above
That sent Him to Calvary!"

HE RAPS SOCIETY WEDDINGS.

New Orleans, April 17.—Characterizing modern "evening or society weddings" as approaching to "the abomination of desolation," and confessing that he "is at a loss to describe the brazen immodesty of dress with which the modern bridal party and their friends offend the majesty of Him, in whose presence the very angels are not pure," Rev. John W. Shaw, archbishop of New Orleans, to-night made public the text of a pastoral letter which will be read Sunday in all the churches in this archdiocese.

Discussing society weddings, which, he asserted, has supplanted the nuptial mass to a great degree, the archbishop said:

"To offset extravagant church decoration, which serves merely to flatter the vanity of the bridal party and their relatives, the choir must be lowered to the level of an ordinary theater orchestra, to discourse suggestive operatic airs and a medley of trivial, sensuous music." He concluded with a denouncement of church marriage rehearsals.

The archbishop about a month ago issued a pastoral letter severely denouncing the extreme styles in women's clothing, particularly when worn in church.

You Need More Than A Laxative

To correct constipation, all organs of digestion and elimination should be helped. Try NR and see how much better you feel.

NR Today—Keeps the Doctor Away

To live and be healthy, your body mechanism must properly digest your food, extract all the nourishment from it and promptly throw off the waste that is left. This is accomplished by the processes of digestion, assimilation and elimination—the work of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

The failure of any of the vital organs to do its work properly affects the action of all the others. A forced bowel movement does not help constipation; it only relieves for a few hours the condition that constipation brings about.

Now if you are used to taking so-called laxative pills, oil, purgatives and the like, you know mighty well you've got to be taking them all the time. Moreover, if you stick to any one laxative, you've got to be increasing the dose all the time. That can do you a lot of harm.

Stop dosing yourself with such things just long enough to give Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) a trial, and let the results show the difference. NR Tablets are not mere bowel movers, their purpose is to correct the condition that induces constipation and give you real, genuine, lasting benefit; to improve your digestion and assimilation, give you a good hearty appetite, regulate your liver and bowels, tone up kidney action and give your poison-clogged body a good cleaning out.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) is not harsh; it is mild, easy, pleasant in action, no griping or pain ever follows its use; but it is thorough and sure.

By its action on the digestive organs it promotes assimilation, which means extraction of full nourishment from your food, and thereby gives you new strength, energy, better blood, better appetite. By toning, not stirring your lazy liver, NR sends bile into the intestines, improving intestinal digestion. Lastly, by encouraging more vigorous bowel and kidney action, NR drives poisonous impurities out of and cleans up your body.

Try Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) and just see how much better you feel in every way. Get a 25c box today, and take one each night for a week. You'll say you never felt better in your life. NR is sold, guaranteed and recommended by your druggist.
