On sale at your drug store.

You're as Old or as Young as Your BLOOD

If you would stay young in health as you grow older in years, have a care for your blood. Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup puts life into your blood; purifies and enriches it; makes it tone up the whole system. Also keeps your bowels open and is a tonic and a cleanser combined. Good for the whole family. Sold at your drug store.

Andy Aron, Thompsonville, Ill., wrote Aug. 31, 1918: "I feel that I should send in my testimonial for Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup, which I have used for two years. Before I used it I could not do a whole day's work; because I was so weak in my kidneys, but I am now strong and healthy."

J. M. Sexton, Box 147, Ocala, Fla., wrote Jan. 22, 1919: "I used a bottle of your Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup in my family with a four-year-old child that had bad kidneys, caused by measles. Found it to do more good than all the medicine that I ever got hold of."

COLLEGE JUNIOR KILLS SENIOR

At Fraternity House—Whiskey Said to Be at Bottom of Trouble.

Hanover, N. H., June 16.—Henry E. Maroney, of West Bedford, Mass., a senior at Dartmouth College, was shot and killed during a quarrel at his room in the Theta Delta Chi Fraternity House, by Robert T. Meads, of LaGrange, Ill., a junior. Meads, after being arrested on a Boston-bound train between Canaan and Franklin, admitted the shooting and claimed that he fired the fatal shot in self-defense. He wired his father, A. H. Meads, of Chicago, to come here and defend him.

Deputy Sheriff Claude M. Murray, who made the arrest, said the prisoner admitted the shooting, but that he would claim self-defense. He said that he and Maroney had been drinking.

Liquor Smuggling Charged.

Hanover, June 17.—Robert T. Meads, of LaGrange, Ill., the Dartmouth College student whose liquor smuggling traffic is alleged to have led to the killing of Henry E. Maroney, of West Bedford, Mass., a fellow student, early yesterday, was a prisoner at the county jail at Woodsville to-day, awaiting action by the grand jury on a charge of murder. His companion in flight, Cecil Nicely Wise, of Akron, Ohio, was held as a material witness.

College authorities to-day said that the connection of Erwin T. Weis of Hull, Ala., with the case was due to a confusion of names, and that Weis had nothing to do with the affair.

The body of Maroney was sent to his home to-day, accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Maroney, and by his brother, Walter Maroney, a freshman at the college.

Meads' defense, it is said, will be prepared under the direction of his father, a lawyer of Chicago.

Hallmates of Meads to-day discussed the peculiarities of the young man, including a habit of shooting freely when in the mood. County officers found the walls of his room peppered by shots. In his freshman year, when a room-mate, Norman F. Arnold, was killed by Meads through the discharge of a rifle, Meads was exonerated through an ante-mortem statement by Arnold, but suffered a partial collapse, which necessitated a long rest from study.
