

Reached in Raising Funds—$75,000 is Part She Should Pay.

About one-half the $33,000,000 asked for by Herbert Hoover for the starving little children of Central Europe and the Baltic provinces has been raised.

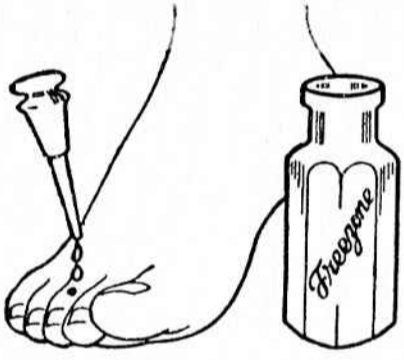

Mr. Elliott says, however, that even with this splendid gift, the goal is only half reached in South Carolina as well as throughout the country.

All checks in South Carolina should be made payable to Franklin K. Lane, Treasurer, European Relief Council, and sent to William Elliott, State chairman, Masonic Temple, Columbia, S. C.

Near Scene Arkansas Killing—Tied to Log on Banks of Mississippi.

Wilson, Ark., Jan. 26.—Henry Lowry, colored, alleged slayer of O. T. Craig, Mississippi county planter, and Craig's daughter, Mrs. O. C. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home on Christmas day, was burned at the stake early to-night by a mob near Nordena, a short distance from the scene of the double killing.

Before the torch was applied Lowry is said to have confessed, implicating two other negroes. Officers to-night were searching for these negroes, and their arrest is expected in the near future.

Lowry was brought across the Mississippi river into Arkansas by a group of men, who earlier in the day had taken him from the officers at Sardin, Miss., who were bringing him from El Paso, Texas, where he was arrested last Friday.

It was planned to take the negro back to the Craig plantation, near Nordena, but later it was decided to stop on the levee a mile from the Craig home, where, it was stated, Lowry was chained to a log. Asked if he wanted to say anything before punishment was inflicted, the negro is said to have asked for food, which was brought to him, and also asked to be allowed to say good-bye to his wife and children. They were summoned. He had, it is reported, refused to confess up to that time.

The body was burned to a crisp. According to accounts of the lynching brought to this city, Lowry's clothing was saturated with gasoline and brush piled about his body before he was set afire.

After the lynching the crowd left the scene. Up to a late hour there had been no further disorder.

Mr. Craig and Mrs. Williamson were shot to death when they attempted to quiet Lowry, who had created a disturbance on the Craig plantation. Hugh and Richard Craig, sons of the planter, also were wounded, but both have recovered.

Lowry, in his alleged confession, is said to have declared that he had been drinking at the time of the killings.

Five Placed in Jail. Marion, Ark., Jan. 26.—Five negroes have been placed in jail here charged with harboring a fugitive Henry Lowry, negro tenant farmer, who was lynched to-night near Nordena, Ark., at the time of the killing last month of O. T. Craig, a Mississippi county planter, and his daughter, Mrs. C. O. Williamson.

Lowry is said to have remained in the vicinity of the double killing several days, eluding a posse which was searching for him almost continuously, and finally escaped from the State, making his way to El Paso, Texas, where he was captured last week.

The negroes held here are alleged to be members of the same fraternal organization of which Lowry was a member.

Two of the five, Morris Jenkins and his wife, were arraigned to-day and held under bonds of $5,000 each to await action of the grand jury at the February term of court. The others, Matt Orr, Walter Johnson and John Radditt, are to be arraigned to-morrow.

Would Remove Sheriff. Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 26.—Governor Thos. C. McRae to-night characterized the lynching of Henry Lowry, colored, at Nordena, Ark., as the most disreputable act ever committed in Arkansas, and declared he would recommend to the Legislature that any sheriff or officer who permits or does not prevent the lynching of a person within his jurisdiction be summarily removed from office.

California Mountains on Move.

Berkeley, Cal., Jan. 26.—The mountains of the coast in the vicinity of San Francisco are moving slowly northward, causing enormous earth strain and producing rebounds, in one of which Mount Tamalpais jumped back 6.6 feet, according to Prof. A. C. Lawson, of the University of California, in a geological bulletin made public here.

Tamalpais moved northward ten feet between the years 1854 and 1906 and then hopped back 6.6 feet in 1906, at the time of the San Francisco Andreas slip, which caused the great earthquake of that year, Prof. Lawson said.

Mount Hamilton, near San Jose, he said, moved northward at the rate of four feet a year from 1893 to 1903, but after a sudden shift in that year continued at the rate of 2.2 feet.

Official Figures of Various State Convassing Boards Made Public.

Interesting comparisons of the popular vote for President in 1912 and 1916 are made possible by the official figures of the various state election canvassing boards, compiled by the Associated Press and made public here Sunday. They show the total popular vote of 26,759,708 for the candidates of seven parties compared with a total population of 18,515,240 for the candidates of five parties in 1916. The results from Tennessee alone are unofficial.

Harding's plurality over Cox was 7,001,763. Four years ago the Socialist plurality over Charles E. Hughes was 591,385. New York State gave Harding a vote of 1,411, his largest return in any State, as compared with Cox, 1,241. The State of both the Republican and Democratic candidates, gave 1,182,022 and Cox 780,037. Illinois gave them, respectively, 480 and 534,394, and Pennsylvania 1,218,215 and 503,202.

The 1920 vote for Eugene V. Debs, the Socialist candidate, was 913,585, while in 1916 Benson polled 585,113. Four years previously, however, Debs rolled up a vote of $97,011. The Socialist party vote in New York State was 203,114, a gain of 157,170 over 1916 and of 187,210 over 1912. Debs polled only 28,000 in South Carolina and 38 in Idaho, while in Vermont the party filed a nomination.

Dr. Aaron Watkins, the nominee of the Prohibitionists, polled a vote of 187,470, a decrease of 10,000 from the party vote of 1916. Out of a total of more than half a million votes cast in North Carolina, the "dry" candidate received 17,000, while in Virginia he polled 8,000. Greater New York, including New York city, the Kings, Queen and Richmond counties, with a total of 1,276,768, polled 1,660 "dry" ballots.

The total vote polled by Farmer-Christensen, Farmer-Labor nominee was 252,435, all cast in eighteen States. Cox, the Socialist-Labor candidate, received 42,950 votes, and Macaulay, the nominee of the State Tax party, 5,747.

The 1920 popular vote for Harding and Cox follows:

New York, Jan. 26.—A spattering fuse attached to a large square bomb in the basement of a house in process of reconstruction in Brooklyn, was cut in the nick of time early to-day by the night watchman, Tony Franko. Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 26.—Ten thousand rounds of rifle ammunition stored in the basement of the Cleveland Gray's Armory exploded this morning when flames swept through the structure. ASSOCIATE JUSTICE COTHRAN.

Greenville Lawyer Chosen to Succeed Late Justice Hydrick.

Columbia, Jan. 26.—Early this afternoon Thos. P. Cothran, of Greenville, Speaker of the House of Representatives, was elected on the third ballot by the General Assembly as Associate Justice of the South Carolina Supreme Court over four opponents—R. Withers Memminger, of Charleston, Judge of the Ninth Circuit; Thomas S. Sease, of Spartanburg, Judge of the Seventh Circuit; Edward Melvor, of Cheraw, Judge of the Fourth Circuit, and Jesse F. Carter, prominent attorney, of Bamberg.

Shortly after his election Mr. Cothran stated that he intended to resign the Speakership at once, but he will remain a member of the Greenville House delegation until such legislation of importance affecting his home county is disposed of, particularly the Greenville supply bill, and then he will resign from the House of Representatives.

As Mr. Cothran lacked only nine votes of election over all of his opponents on the first ballot and two votes on the next ballot, the names of Judge Memminger and Judge Melvor were withdrawn by those who placed them in nomination. On the third ballot Mr. Cothran got 106 votes.

The New Associate Justice, who succeeds the late D. E. Hydrick, who died in Washington recently, is a lawyer and legislator of wide and varied experience. He has the reputation of being an astute lawyer in the State and an attorney of large attainments. He is a member of the firm of Cothran, Dean and Cothran, of Greenville, one of the leading law firms of the Piedmont section.
