—Mrs. J. W. Edmonds and children, Misses Clara, Ruth, Kathryn and Mason, of York, S. C., were the week-end guests at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. R. N. Vaughan, Walhalla Route 1. They were accompanied by Stokes Turner, also of York. They came over Friday night in a touring car. Mrs. Edmonds is well known in Oconee, this having been her home for a number of years. She at one time resided in Walhalla.

—You have had trouble with your battery, but it was not a Willard. One Willard will end your battery troubles. Hughs Garage, Walhalla.—adv.

—Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Rhodes will leave this (Wednesday) afternoon for Atlanta, where they will attend the eight triennial convention of the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf. This organization is a very large one, and about one thousand will be in attendance upon this session. Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes will stop at the Piedmont Hotel and will be in Atlanta the remainder of this week. We wish for them a very pleasant trip.

—The Paul Hayne Circle was delightfully entertained at its regular meeting on July 1st by Miss Janie Harrison. Interesting readings by Mesdames C. W. Pitchford, Jr., J. C. Neville and J. A. Stock were given, and a beautiful piano solo was charmingly rendered by Miss Carrie Darby Harrison, which ended the program for the afternoon. After a short business session the club adjourned and enjoyed a pleasant social hour, during which time the hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Hayne Jones, served a delicious sweet course. Dainty little red, white and blue baskets, filled with candy, were presented each guest as a souvenir, a pretty reminder of the approaching Glorious Fourth.

—Miss Sallie Stribling was hostess to the members of The Paul Hayne Circle on July 8th, at her lovely home, "Liberty Lodge," near town. Owing to the fact that the change of date conflicted with the Forty-two Club, the meeting was small, but none the less enjoyable. Interesting readings by Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. John Denny, and a beautiful violoncello selection, furnished the program for the afternoon. There being no business, the Circle adjourned and enjoyed a pleasant hour in social chat. The hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Tabitha Stribling, served her guests a delicious frozen fruit salad course. Miss Biggerstaff, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. L. W. Langston were guests of the Circle.

—Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. King, at Return, on Sunday, July 10, at 10 a. m., Miss Gladys Nola King and Sergt. Harry Marlor Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Powell, of the Return community. Rev. L. M. Lyda, of Walhalla, officiated at the wedding, which was a quiet but pretty home wedding that made this popular and highly esteemed young couple husband and wife. Mrs. Powell, as Miss King, was a lovely and useful and truly accomplished young lady, while Sergt. Powell is a World War veteran with a military record of distinction. Both are noble-minded and Christian young people, of whom their community and church are proud, and to whom are cordially extended the congratulations and sincere good wishes of the entire community. May this first happy day lengthen into a long life of happiness such as is earth's type of heaven's eternity.

—C. G. Jaynes spent several days this week in Atlanta on business. He is expected back to-day.

—Married, on Sunday, June 10th, Miss Emily Crumpton and Gaillard Lusk. The ceremony was performed by J. H. Hinnicutt, notary public. The young couple have the best of wishes of numerous friends.

—Mrs. M. R. Smith and little daughter, who have been visiting Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Fant, left Monday for Mississippi, to join Mr. Smith, who has accepted a position in the State Agricultural College of Mississippi.

—Luther Rogers and two daughters, Misses Flossie and Florence, were recent visitors at the home of J. S. Cannon, of Salem. They were entertained during their stay by Miss Emma Barnes and brother Floyd, Melton and Brack Lusk, Clarence and Miss Clara Lusk, and Misses Sophia and Adah Cannon.

—"Dollar Day" at Anderson tomorrow (Thursday). See advertisement on fifth page and take advantage of this opportunity. Practically every store in Anderson is co-operating in this "Dollar Day" movement, which is merely a united effort on the part of the merchants to give the very greatest values possible for each and every dollar spent with them.

—We are requested to announce that there will be a reunion at the home of Miles Morgan, on Keowee river, July 26th. Everybody is cordially invited to attend and take the customary well-filled baskets. The Reunion is in celebration of the anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Martha Vollrath, now well past 80 years of age, and the reunion is for the Vollrath and Morgan families.

—It will be good news to many people in all parts of the county to learn that the County Highway Commission yesterday authorized the construction of the new road leading from Walhalla to Mountain Rest and beyond, a distance of something like eleven miles. This will connect with the highway work above, making effective the good work done on the upper end of the road leading to Highlands. The gap of bad road between Walhalla and the newly constructed road into North Carolina has been a "thorn in the flesh" of no inconsiderable portion of the public of Oconee for some time, and the decision of the Commission will be hailed with delight. It is estimated that this road, completed, will cost about $50,000.

—An occasion of unusual interest in Walhalla was that of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Strother, on July 11. Those attending this happy occasion were Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Strother, of Johnston; Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Williams, of Augusta, Ga.; Mrs. Mamie Strother Watson, of Thompson, Ga.; Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Corn, of Johnston; R. D. Wright and Miss Troxelle Wright, of Newberry; Williams Welch, of Washington, D. C.; Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Darby and family and Miss Eloise Strother, of Walhalla. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Strother were married July 11th, 1871. There were about two dozen seated at the tables for dinner. The centerpieces for the tables were a beautiful wedding cake with lighted candles and a large basket of yellow and white flowers, both gifts from friends, for the occasion.

At each place was found a place card for each guest, and a favor, a yellow rose, containing yellow bon-bons. An elaborate course dinner was served, the color scheme of yellow and white being carried out in detail. A feature of the occasion was the registering of the names in the "wedding book." Many attractive and dainty trays were sent in during the day, also many handsome gifts and greeting cards from friends and relatives, and many called to express sincere congratulations and good wishes to the bride and groom of fifty years.

GIRLS! WHITE SKIN WITH LEMON JUICE.

Squeeze the Juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.—adv.

Trustees' Meeting Next Saturday.

The meeting of the school trustees of Oconee county will be held next Saturday, July 16th, at 10 a. m., instead of Friday, July 15th, as announced. All are urged to take note of the meeting date and be present.

NEWS FROM BOUNTY LAND.

Full Budget of Interesting Items of News About Many People.

Bounty Land, July 11.—Special: This section has been blessed with two very good showers within the last few days, although the rainfall was far short of a good season. We have not had a good, soaking rain in about two months, and crops have suffered very much from drought.

Mrs. J. N. McDonald, Mrs. Robt. McDonald, Mrs. C. E. Gambrell, Mrs. Julia D. Shanklin and Mrs. J. D. McMahon all attended the Missionary Conference in Sandy Springs last week and report most hospitable entertainment by the people of Sandy Springs and a delightful meeting. They were accompanied by E. R. Shanklin and Jefferson McMahon. Charlie Power, of Anderson, is a guest of his sister, Mrs. M. C. McDonald.

Jay Gillison, Jr., the 12-pound son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gillison, arrived Thursday last as a permanent citizen in the community. Congratulations are extended the happy parents.

Misses Eta and Ida Adams, of Townville, have been guests of their sister, Mrs. Florence Sheriff, during the past week.

Our school at Bounty Land will open next Monday, July 18, promptly at 8.30 o'clock. The principal, Miss Lilla Ballenger, has been fortunate in securing Supt. J. P. Coltes, of the Seneca schools, to make the opening address. All pupils are requested and urged to come on time. Parents and friends are also cordially invited to be present at the opening. Miss Carrie McMahon has been elected as assistant, and we feel assured of a successful term.

The "lay-by" school for illiterates will open at 5 o'clock this (Monday) afternoon, with Miss Cary Doyle in charge. About 14 men and women have expressed enthusiasm in regard to the anticipated work and a willingness to put forth an effort to regain in some measure what might have been accomplished earlier but for lack of opportunity.

Mrs. J. P. Stribling and son David visited relatives in Carnesville, Ga., recently.

Harry M. Pickett and two children, Harry, Jr., and little Miss Jessie, of Greenville, were guests the first of the week of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wright.

The open meeting Sunday evening of the Christian Endeavor of Richland was well attended and an interesting program capably rendered by the young people, with Bruce H. Stribling as the leader.

The family reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ballenger on July 4th was quite a delightful affair of last week. All the sons and daughters, with their wives and husbands, (except Dr. B. O. Whitten), and children, making a party of 27, were present. After the picnic dinner in the cooling shadows of the friendly oaks, Rev. H. A. Knox read an appropriate Scripture selection, then "Blest Be the Tie that Binds" was sung, this being followed by a prayer offered to God in praise for the many blessings showered upon each individual home represented, and upon our nation. The remainder of the evening was enjoyed in conversation.

Mrs. B. O. Whitten and two little daughters, of Clinton, are here for a two weeks' visit to the former's parents, they having remained over after the Ballenger reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Stribling attended the District Sunday School Convention at Oakway. Mr. Stribling acted as one of the judges in the several contests.

Mrs. John Archer has been suffering for the past several days from a sore foot. Her many friends will be glad to learn of an improvement in the condition of the "offending member" and hope for entire recovery.

Miss Louise Carmichael, of Coma, Ga., is visiting her cousin, Miss Bessie Mae Stribling.

W. S. Power, of Anderson, was a late guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. McDonald.

Little Misses Lucy Beth McDonald and Sue Power spent a few days last week with their aunt, Mrs. H. P. Holleman, of Seneca.

The ice cream sale conducted by the Young Woman's Auxiliary Saturday evening was a pronounced success, notwithstanding threatening weather conditions. The young people enjoyed lively games well calculated to create a craving thirst for ice cream, and the supply was quite equal to the demand.

The numerous friends of Miss Janie Holcombe, of Westminster, learn with deep regret and sympathy of her serious illness and hope for her early convalescence. Miss Holcombe taught the primary grades of the Richland school last winter, and her efficiency as instructress and the favorable impression she made on the Richland people is evidenced by the fact that she was re-elected for the next scholastic term.

The County Singing Association, which met at Bounty Land school house Sunday afternoon, was largely attended, and furnished some fine soul-stirring music. The Sunday school was suspended on account of this singing, and the songs, so full of prayer and praise, were sung and heard with deep spiritual interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown, of Walhalla, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Thompson, Dave Crenshaw and sister, Miss Jennie, of Newry, were late guests at the home of E. L. Stone.

Little Miss Annie Mae Tarrant spent a few days last week with her aunt, Mrs. Arwood Davis, in Seneca.

Miss Olive Lynch will leave the latter part of the week for Pickens county, where she has accepted a school, which will open Monday.

Miss Julia Davis is expected home this week from Atlanta, where she has been during the past year with her aunt, Mrs. Lou Thompson. Her friends will be delighted to welcome her back.

Homer Ballenger spent the week-end in Anderson.

Miss Louise Wright spent last week in the girls' camp at Tamassee.

Claude Lynch has accepted the position as fireman on the Blue Ridge train.

Miss Belle Stribling most pleasantly entertained the "Somewhere-to-Go Club" last Wednesday afternoon. A number of interesting contests were engaged in and the contestants were delightfully refreshed with ice cream and cake. This club was organized last summer, but was suspended during the winter months on account of the absence of so many of the members, who were attending colleges or teaching. The club was reorganized about two weeks ago, when Miss Cary Doyle entertained.

The Bounty Land Literary Society will meet every Friday evening at 8 o'clock during the summer season.

Meetings at Double Springs.

We will begin a series of meetings at Double Springs church on the 4th Sunday in July. Rev. A. M. Smith, of Anderson, will assist in the services. All are invited to attend the services. D. A. Joffcoat, P. C.
