WALHALLA, S. C.

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 3, 1921.

VETERANS WITH US AGAIN.

The veterans of Orr's Regiment will again assemble in Walhalla on Aug. 15th and 16th. The veterans have always been welcome here, and they will be welcomed by the citizens of our town and community so long as they remain an organization.

When Orr's men assemble on Monday, the 15th, Mayor Brown will be ready to hand over the key to Walhalla and the town will be theirs until the last Orr's man has departed for his home.

DEATH CALLS AN AGED LADY.

Mrs. Wilkes, of Seneca, Passed Away at Age of 93—Personal Items.

Seneca, Aug. 2.—Special: After a visit of a week with Mrs. W. R. Doyle, Mrs. Penner Tribble and children left for Pendleton the latter part of the week before returning to their home in Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Nimmons and children left Monday morning for a couple of weeks in Franklin, N. C.

Miss Tiphaine Burgess expects to leave next Wednesday for a few days' visit to Miss Alice Niell, Washington, D. C. Miss Burgess will go from there on the 15th to Johns Hopkins, where she will take a post-graduate course in dietetics.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carey, of Greenville, was a recent visitor to her sister, Mrs. D. P. Thomson.

Death of an Aged Lady.

Mrs. Mary Ann Wilkes peacefully passed away Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. K. Dandy, at the ripe age of 93 years and five months, having been born March 14th, 1828.

She was loyal to the church of her faith—the Baptist—and was a regular attendant on the services until the past few years. She was frequently seen in her pew after she had passed four score and ten years.

Funeral services were conducted at the home by her pastor, Rev. J. W. Willis. The interment was in Gainesville, beside her husband, who preceded her some years ago.

Cider when first made in England was called wine.

Rye comes nearer to wheat in bread-making qualities than any other grain.

NEWS NOTES FROM CONERROSS.

Looking Forward to Great Meeting When Association Convenes.

Conerross, Aug. 1.—Special: Conerross is expecting a great meeting here when the Beaverdam Association gathers on the 9th and 10th of this month.

Miss Eva Arve, who has a position in Atlanta, is at home on a two-weeks' visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Arve.

G. L. and J. C. Barker spent last Tuesday in Greenville.

Quite a number of Conerross people attended and enjoyed the revival services at Poplar Springs last week, which resulted in the baptism of nine converts yesterday.

Miss Bewley Hunsinger left Saturday for Long Creek, where she will attend the revival meeting and do personal work among the people of the Long Creek community.

Little Miss Lois White returned yesterday to her home in Greenville, after having spent several weeks in our community among relatives.

Miss Ora Arve, of Flat Shoals, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents here.

Miss Hettie Derrick, teacher of the Blue Ridge school, spent a few days last week at Long Creek among relatives. She was accompanied by her mother, who has a position in Anderson, and who also visited her here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gambrell.

Mrs. Roxie Greer and daughter, of Greenville, are guests of T. W. Bryd and family here.

Misses Gracie and Lena Abbott were week-end guests of relatives in West Union.

Mr. and Mrs. John Deaton, of Anderson, are spending a few days with relatives in our community.

Mrs. Lillie Childers returned to her home in Greenville yesterday, after having spent two weeks with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Strickland, of Westminster, was a recent guest of Mrs. S. M. Hunsinger.

Wash Morgan, of Seneca, spent several days last week with S. M. Hunnicutt and G. L. Barker.

We are glad to see Grover Hubbard, of Richland, able to be in our community again. He and his wife and babe were among relatives here yesterday.

Roy Abbott had the misfortune to get his nose broken one day last week in a baseball game at Oak Grove, but we are glad to learn that the wound is doing nicely.

Protracted services will begin on the second Sunday in August. Everybody is urgently invited to attend and assist in making it a great revival.

Sid Hatfield Killed in West Virginia.

Welch, West Va., Aug. 1.—Sid Hatfield, former chief of police of Matewan, and Ed. Chambers, a policeman of that place, were killed in a gun fight in the court house yard here shortly before noon today.

Hatfield was arrested last week in connection with the shooting up of the town of Mohaw, West Va., about a year ago and brought to Welch, where he was placed in jail. Chambers also was to appear in court today in connection with the same case.

GIRLS! WHITEN SKIN WITH LEMON JUICE.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.—adv.

THE NEWS FROM BOUNTY

Looking Forward to Richland Church Dedication—Personal Notes.

Bounty Land, Aug. 1.—Special: Mrs. Julia D. Shanklin and son, J. R. Shanklin, spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kelley at Tamassee.

Miss Louise Clinkscales, of Spartanburg, is visiting Miss Annie McMahon.

Miss Cornelia Foster was hostess to quite a number of young people Friday evening in honor of her house guests, Misses Cecil Foster and Claudia Rhine and Charles Foster, of Mississippi.

An event which is being looked forward to with happy anticipations is the home-coming of many of the former Richlandites on the occasion of the dedication of the remodeled church of Richland, on next Sabbath, Aug. 7th.

Little Miss Mary Thompson, of Westminster, met with a painful accident Saturday morning while visiting in the home of W. D. Wright. In some way a piece of timber fell on her foot, breaking the bone of and almost severing the great toe.

It will be quite interesting news to the many friends of German Alley to know that he was licensed to preach on Saturday, July 23d. He conducted services several times during the protracted meeting at Poplar last week.

Mrs. Sallie H. Doe and daughter, Miss Vera, returned the latter part of last week from Marietta, Ga., where they had been guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. McMahon.

Mr. and Mrs. Samson Strom, of McCormick, and Mrs. Williamson Mills, of Greensboro, N. C., were late guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dandy.

Mrs. W. H. Hughs returned Thursday from a delightful visit to relatives in Pickens.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis, of Pickens, were late guests in the homes of W. R. and G. A. Lynch.

Miss Susan Doyle, who has been a victim of malaria for the past two weeks, is at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Dole, having arrived Wednesday. Her friends hope for her early recuperation.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rice and Mr. and Mrs. Hovy Martin, of the High Bridge section, were guests in this community the first of the week.

A charming entertainment which we failed to mention last week was the reception given the S. T. G. Club by Miss Carrie McMahon on the afternoon of Friday, the 22d ult. The guests were most pleasantly engaged during social hours, and a delicious menu followed.

Rev. T. M. Stribling, of Waynesboro, is visiting his brother, J. P. Stribling, and will remain until after Sunday.

From the Pine Grove Section.

Townville, R. F. D., Aug. 1.—Special: The Misses Stephenson, of Townville, entertained the teachers of Pine Grove—Misses Kathryn Dodd and Pearl Walker and Margaret Livingston—at a beautiful lawn party last Wednesday evening at their lovely country home.

The Pine Grove school opened last Monday with Miss Pearl Walker, of Greenville, as principal; Miss Kathryn Dodd, of Westminster, as intermediate teacher, and Miss Margaret Livingston, of Orangeburg, as teacher of the primary department.

Misses Dodd, Walker and Livingston attended the lawn party at Townville last week, given by Miss Boleman in honor of Miss Edna Shirley and Miss Burdette, of Georgia.

Reunion Near Oakway.

There will be a family reunion at the home of Joe Price on Monday, Aug. 8th, near Oakway. The public is cordially invited to attend and bring well-filled baskets.

VOLRATH-MORGAN REUNION.

Large Gathering of the Kindred and Friends at Birthday Reunion.

Old Pickens, July 30.—Special: On Tuesday, July 26th, there assembled at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Morgan, on Keowee river, near Old Pickens, about two hundred and fifty relatives and friends in celebration of the 80th birthday of Mrs. Martha Volrath and a reunion of the Volrath and Morgan families.

All sizes, ages and sexes were there, from the infant in its mother's arms to the aged grandfather (Robert Roberson), lovely girls radiant in their youthful beauty; handsome young men and middle-aged parents, all of whom seemed to be joyful and happy.

The forenoon was spent in various ways. The innocent little children played and laughed in the beautiful yards surrounding the handsome residence; music, both vocal and instrumental, furnished amusement for those so inclined.

About noon tables over forty feet long were spread underneath the beautiful shade trees in the front yard, and boxes, baskets and other vessels were emptied of their delicious contents, and after prayer by Rev. Morgan all partook of a most sumptuous dinner.

The afternoon until time to start for home was spent in amusement, recreation and conversation. The immense crowd was perfectly orderly, and all seemed to enjoy themselves, especially the aged grandmother, who seemed delighted with the love and attention shown her by her kindred and friends.

The kindred present were: Adam Volrath, wife and three children; John Volrath, wife and three children; Louis Volrath, wife and four children; William Volrath, wife and two children; Victor Volrath; Earle Roberson, wife and two children; E. S. Waldrop, wife and two children; Gladys Peltrey, Bessie Powell and child; Fannie Peltrey, Annie Volrath, Misses Lois, Dana and Lillie Hellis, Mrs. Lillian Woodall and two children of Commerce, Ga.; M. C. Morgan, wife and three children; J. A. Morgan, wife and six children; Frank Morgan, wife and two children; F. S. Morgan, wife and three children; E. M. Morgan, wife and five children; Vendo Morgan and wife, C. F. Morgan and wife; W. C. Morgan, wife and child; J. D. Cater, wife and four children; Miss M. V. Burton, Victor Burton, Major Burton.

Robert Roberson was the oldest of the kindred present, being past seventy, and the two little children of Mrs. Lillian Waddell are of the fifth generation.

News Notes from Chauga.

Chauga, Aug. 1.—Special: School opened here July 25th, with a bright prospect. Miss Ethel Pant, of Birmingham, Ala., is principal of the school, with Miss Laura Matheson as assistant. We had with us at the opening our Representative, Mr. Bruce, who gave us a nice talk on the subject of education.

Clifton Adams, of Seneca, was in our midst recently. He came over to place a monument at the grave of the late W. I. Dickson.

We are having the hottest weather of the season now, and Cobb's Old Mill, on Chauga, has become quite a summer resort. People come for miles to bathe in this mountain stream.

J. R. Suttles is our champion forage grower. He has fifteen acres of land sowed in peas. He is not in the market for Western hay.

John Reid has the finest cotton in this section. He planted his cotton in March.

There is quite a lot of sorghum in our section this year.

W. J. Bright holds the ribbon for the best hand to make syrup.

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely with J. R. Black as superintendent and W. N. Sullivan as secretary.

We are expecting the protracted meeting to begin here on the third Sunday in this month.

To Clean Whitmore Cemetery. The Whitmore cemetery needs to have some work done on it in the way of cleaning off. All persons interested please meet there on Saturday, August 6th, at 8 a. m., with hoes and rakes.
