LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Barker, of Walhalla, on Sept. 23d, a son.

The Walhalla D. A. R. chapter will meet with Miss Emmie Ansel next Saturday afternoon, Oct. 1st, at 4 o'clock. Members are requested to note that this date for the meeting is a change from Tuesday, Oct. 1.

W. Harry Cary, of Columbia, was in Walhalla for a short while among friends last Saturday. He was in the up-country on business at Greenville and took advantage of his nearness to his old home to run over and meet old friends.

Seed oats and rye, J. H. Alley, West Union, S. C.—38-41.

We are requested by J. B. Cleveland, principal, and Miss Lena Abbott, assistant, to announce that on Friday night next, Sept. 30th, at 8 o'clock, the public is cordially invited to attend a box supper to be given at the Clearmont school. All will be most cordially welcomed.

Piedmont Presbyterian will convene with Richland church on Tuesday next, Oct. 4th, at 8 o'clock p. m. The opening sermon will be preached by the retiring moderator. Dinner will be served on the grounds Wednesday, W. H. Hughes, of Richland, is chairman of the committee on entertainment.

Lucien Maxwell, of Johnston, is visiting relatives here this week.

Mrs. Holman, of Atlanta, Ga., is spending several days in Walhalla visiting among old friends and former acquaintances. She is pleasantly remembered here by many as Miss May Hicks, she being a daughter of the late Prof. and Mrs. John O. Hicks, who resided in Walhalla for many years. Mrs. Holman is accompanied by her little son.

All makes standard sewing machine needles at Moss & Ansel's, Walhalla.—adv. 24-41.

A very interesting meeting of the Hayne Circle was held at the home of Mrs. R. L. Rogers, on Faculty Hill, on Friday, Sept. 23d. Several visitors added to the pleasure of the occasion. The readings were very interesting, as they pertained to taxes, and the power of woman to vote. A beautiful piano solo by Mrs. Harry R. Hughes, was enjoyed by all. After adjournment a delightful sweet course was served by the hostess.

Mrs. L. T. Simmons returned last week from Columbia, where she had been for some time visiting relatives. It will be learned with pleasure that Mrs. Annie Sain, of Lincolnton, N. C., who has been seriously ill for some weeks, is improving now, after a series of five very delicate operations. Mrs. Simmons received news to this effect just before leaving Columbia for home. Mrs. Sain is remembered here as Miss Annie Levandusky.

Gasoline, 22c. gallon; Polarine motor oil, 65c. gallon, (60c. in five-gallon lots). Kerosene oil, 15c. gallon. J. H. Alley, West Union, S. C.—adv. 28-41.

The marriage of Miss Willie Kelly and Grady Burton came as quite a surprise to their many friends here and elsewhere in the county. The ceremony was performed by D. A. Smith on Sept. 3d. The bride is one of Walhalla's most popular young ladies, and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kelly. The groom is the youngest son of Mrs. Julia Burton, of Walhalla. Mr. and Mrs. Burton will make their future home in Atlanta, where Mr. Burton holds a position as stenographer at the City Hall. The young couple have the best wishes of a host of friends for a long life of happiness and prosperity.

Mrs. Frank E. Harrison, after spending a week pleasantly with relatives in Hendersonville, N. C., returned to her home here last Saturday.

The Parsonage Aid Society of the Walhalla Methodist church will meet with Mrs. W. M. Alexander on Thursday (to-morrow) afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

S. J. Barker will move his stock of goods Oct. 1st to the Ritter store room, near the Bank of Walhalla, and he and his family will occupy rooms upstairs in the building.

We are requested to announce that the Woman's Missionary Society of Zion Methodist church will meet next Sunday morning at 9.30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

The Parsonage Aid Society of the Walhalla Methodist church will hold a cake and candy sale on Saturday, Oct. 1st, in the store room of Moss & Ansel. A few dressed chickens will also be sold.

We are selling all auto parts 20 per cent below list. We will make it interesting to you if you will see us for auto parts and tires. J. H. Alley, West Union, S. C.—adv. 38-41.

The Bank of West Union has an announcement in this week's paper, in which the services of this bank are offered their former friends in the matter of financing for the changes of farm methods that are going to be necessary in the future. If interested call at the bank and discuss the matter with those who are in charge of this department.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayne G. Jones last week moved into their new cottage next to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Harrison, on Faculty Hill. The cottage has not been entirely finished, but Mr. and Mrs. Jones are making themselves quite comfortable during a brief period until the work can be finished, while their carpenters are engaged in taking care of their crops.

The drought has been broken in this section at last, a heavy down-pour of rain coming Monday evening and continuing practically all Monday night and up till noon yesterday. There seems to be promise of other showers in the near future. What would be termed a good "season" is now in the ground, and farmers will again welcome dry weather for taking in their crops.

Owing to the threatening storm and subsequently a small congregation, Rev. L. W. Langston did not preach on "The Sin of Gossiping" last Sunday night, as was announced last week that he would, but postponed the sermon until next Sunday night. The public is invited to attend worship at the First Baptist church and to hear this sermon. The services will begin promptly at eight o'clock.

A few of our bargains for this week in hardware are: Cook stoves for $17.50 up; long-handled ditching shovels, $1.75 value, at $1.00; a few more five-gallon oil cans and No. 3 galvanized tubs at 98c.; hay forks $1.00; balling wire, cotton scales, all kinds of bolts and washers, Lynchburg and Oliver plow points, etc.; nails, horse and mule shoes, bridles, harness, etc. "We trade you service for business." J. H. Alley, West Union, S. C.—adv. 39-42

We judge that the farmers of Anderson county are not a bit downhearted in regard to the boll weevil. The farmers of Oconee, too, seem to be on the alert and ready to make the necessary changes in method of farming in order to meet successfully the new conditions. Read what the Anderson farmers have to say on the subject. The Anderson Phosphate and Oil Company publishes on the second and third pages this week a long list of opinions that show the general sentiment in Anderson county on the boll weevil situation. Read these statements.

Walhalla is to have a new law firm within the very near future.—In fact, the firm is already established and ready for business, but have not as yet gotten their quarters ready for occupancy. The firm will be styled Hughs & Watson, the members being Harry R. Hughs and H. M. Watson, both of Walhalla. Mr. Hughs is a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Hughs, of Walhalla, and Mr. Watson is a son of B. Floyd Watson. Offices are being fitted up in the front section of the building occupied by the Hughs Garage, and the new firm will be glad to welcome their friends to their offices as soon as they are completed. Mr. Hughs, we understand, will not relinquish his interest in the garage business. We wish for our young friends a full measure of success.

Henry VonLehe died at the home of his father-in-law, James T. King, on Sept. 1st, after a lingering illness, which had lasted for a period of three years. He was 66 years of age. Mr. VonLehe was born in the city of Charleston, and when a small boy he came with his parents to Oconee, later returning to Charleston, where he worked in a store for some time. He came back to Oconee 27 years ago and engaged in farming on the old VonLehe place near Walhalla. In 1900 he was married to Miss Maggie King. Mr. VonLehe at the time of his death was a member of the First Baptist church of Walhalla. His remains were interred in the Baptist cemetery, the funeral services being conducted by his pastor, Rev. L. W. Langston. He is survived by his widow, one sister, Mrs. Wilhelmina Ivester, and one brother, D. VonLehe, who lives in Walterboro, this State. Mr. VonLehe was an honest, conscientious man—one who paid strict attention to his own affairs and let others' affairs strictly alone. He was a Christian and lived his faith and profession daily. There are many who will learn with regret of his passing. The Courier joins with others in extending to the bereaved ones sympathy in their sorrow.

Lewis C. Harrison spent the past week-end in Charlotte, attending the Made-in-Carolinas Exposition.

Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Corn, of Johnston, are visiting at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Strother, this week.

Miss Eula Todd, after having taught a summer term of school at Earle's Grove, is again at home here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Todd.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Knox, of near Westminster, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Knox, of Manassas, Va., were guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Todd.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Pitchford, of Greenville, will be glad to learn that Mrs. Pitchford has sufficiently recovered from a recent illness to be able to walk again.

It will be learned with much pleasure by friends here that little Miss Marie Pitchford, of Greenville, who has been suffering from an attack of typhoid fever and pneumonia, is now recovering, though her recovery has been very slow.

Mrs. Rosa Lewis, of Montgomery, Ala., after spending two weeks with her brother, S. X. Pitchford, and family, left Tuesday morning for Atlanta. Mrs. Lewis has many friends in Walhalla who are always delighted to meet her.

Married, at the residence of D. A. Smith, notary public, on Sunday afternoon last, Sept. 25th, Mrs. Dollie Justice, of Mountain Rest, and W. A. Rowland, of Walhalla. The young couple have the best wishes of a host of friends for a long life of happiness and prosperity.

Rainfall and Temperature.

WE WERE MISINFORMED ABOUT

Certain Details in Regard to Recent Burning at Long Creek.

Long Creek, S. C., Sept. 22. Editor Keowee Courier:

In reference to your article in this week's paper about the total destruction of my store and the post-office at this place, I wish to state that there was not any Mr. Wilson connected with it in any way. I also wish to say that the officers had not stayed at my house during the raid in question, nor had I seen them. The rest of the account was substantially correct. Yours truly, George W. Matheson.

Oak Grove R. S. I. A. to meet.

The Oak Grove School Improvement Association will meet at the Oak Grove school house on Friday night, Sept. 30th, with a view of meeting for the month of September.

At the last attempt at a meeting only a few were able to attend on account of the rush of farm work. Besides arranging some plans of work for the association during this year there will be a social feature prepared for the entertainment on that night, Sept. 30. Remember the date and all come and join this association and work for the upbuilding of your community. (Miss) Ruby Hickson, Principal of School.

DYED HER SWEATER AND SILK STOCKINGS.

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple that any woman can dye or tint faded, shabby skirts, dresses, waists, coats, sweaters, stockings, hangings, draperies, everything like new. Buy "Diamond Dyes"—no other kind—then perfect home dyeing is guaranteed, even if you have never dyed before. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. Diamond Dyes never streak, spot, fade, or run.—adv.
