

CONERROSS COMMUNITY MOURNS

Death of Child of Former Citizens, Personal Items of Community.

Conerross, April 11.—Special: Mrs. Charlie Roach, who had been confined to her bed for some time with tuberculosis, died at her home in this community last Friday about 12 M. Her body was laid to rest at Double Springs cemetery on Saturday at 1 p. m. Mrs. Roach leaves her husband and six children to mourn her death, besides several sisters and brothers, who are Baxter McCall, Mrs. Louis Roach, of this community, and Mrs. Ira Swafford, of above Walhalla, and one other brother, whose name your correspondent was unable to learn. The friends here and elsewhere of the family sympathize with them in their sorrow.

The Conerross G. A.'s expect to spend next Saturday afternoon fishing, picknicking and egg hunting in Mrs. Hesse's pasture, near the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hesse. All of the G. A.'s are urged to come promptly at 2 p. m., bringing lunch, fish-hooks and Easter eggs.

Several from here enjoyed the meeting at Westminster last Tuesday.

Otis Arve, of this community, who will graduate at Long Creek Academy at the close of this session, entertained his graduating class last Friday evening at a birthday supper, that being his 21st birthday. Also, later in the evening, quite a number of guests arrived from this community to enjoy the social, which proved a most charming affair, the arrangements having been presided over by his sister, Miss Ora Arve. Miss Bewley Hunsinger, of Long Creek, also accompanied the class and enjoyed the entertainment. Roy Arve brought them down Friday in a two-horse wagon and took them back Saturday to Long Creek in the same conveyance, which seemed to be just what they wanted, and everyone seemed to enjoy the trip both ways to the fullest extent. They returned with plenty of dinner and fishing poles, as they were expecting to go by way of the tunnel and picnic there at noon, and also expected to spend some time fishing in Chauga. The merry crowd consisted of the following: Misses Bewley Hunsinger, Grace Ayers, Estelle Smith, Clarence Scherard and Dora Keece, and Messrs. John Blacklock, Carroll Moon and Otis Arve, of Long Creek, and the young chauffeur Roy Arve, of this place.

Miss Mattie Morton, of Walhalla, spent Saturday and Sunday with her cousins, Misses Florence and Thode Abbott, of this section.

Miss Ollie Belle Byrd is confined to her bed again, but we hope she will soon be up and about.

We are glad to have Miss Ora Arve at home again, her school at Flat Shoals having closed about a week ago.

Master Thomas Dows, about 13 years of age, of Walhalla, had the misfortune to get his arm broken while on the road from here to Walhalla one day last week. He was riding on the wagon with P. K. Fisher, and jumped out of the vehicle while it was in motion, and in attempting to climb back, the wagon still going, he got caught some way and was thrown to the ground. The wagon ran over his arm near his elbow, breaking the arm just below the elbow. He was taken as quickly as possible to his home and a physician summoned. We hope his hurt is getting along all right. The young man had been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. F. M. Codell, near here, and was returning to his home.

Clearmont school, in which Miss Lena Abbott was teaching, closed on Friday last with a very interesting program. Miss Abbott has done excellent work at Clearmont this session.

This community was saddened and shocked when the news was received last Thursday of the death of little Virgil DuBose, the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. DuBose, of Laurens. The parents are well known in this section, they having moved from this community. Mr. DuBose is a son of Mrs. E. C. DuBose, of near here, and Mrs. DuBose, prior to her marriage, was Miss Ethel Barker, of our community. This death was particularly sad and unexpected owing to the horrible manner in which the child came to his death. On Wednesday, April 5th, at 12 o'clock, he fell into a tub of hot lye soap that had just been made and poured up and was badly scalded, living only about seven hours. The little fellow was playing in the yard near the tub and was pulling on a rope, which broke, and the little fellow stumbled backward into the soap, receiving fearful burns on his back and body, though his face and neck were unharmed. He was conscious almost until the end and bore his excruciating pain with unexpected patience, passing away in a beautifully calm manner, trying to tell his mother of something he was seeing, although she could understand but little, but no doubt it was the angels and the beautiful city beyond, of which he had caught the first enchanting view.

Virgil was a bright and beautiful child, watched by the Father all the while. He wanted him, and he alone could fill a place there at His throne.

Give him up—let him sleep—The morning shall break,

Then your slumbering darling into life shall awake,

And parents and baby again shall unite

To be robed by our God in the garments of white.

Mr. and Mrs. DuBose have the sincere sympathy of many friends here and elsewhere in Oconee.

Mrs. E. C. DuBose, Misses Lizzie and Jessie Barker left last Thursday for Laurens to be with their son and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. DuBose, in their hour of trouble. Mrs. DuBose and Miss Lizzie Barker returned home yesterday, and Miss Jessie will remain in Laurens for a week or two longer.

J. S. Abbott and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ennis Abbott attended the Julian reunion at Return yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Alexander, Miss Mary Alexander and Mrs. Manette Bearden and brother, of Greenville, were week-end guests of relatives here.

The friends of Mrs. K. I. Roach will be sorry to know that she is suffering from rheumatism, though she is not confined to her bed. We hope she will soon be well.

The Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors will enjoy an Easter egg hunt near the church here Saturday afternoon.

Perry Woolbright, of Townville, was a recent guest of his nephew, W. E. Woolbright.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wilson went to see the latter's sister, Mrs. Floyd Burdette, of Walhalla, last week. Mrs. Burdette has been quite ill for several weeks. Her friends will be glad to know that she is improving.

Mrs. Martha Wilson has been quite indisposed for several days, suffering from grip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rankin and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Y. L. Hix, of Townville, the first of the week.

Little Miss Bennie Moore is a recent arrival in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Moore, Born last week.

Davis Sanders' many friends offer their congratulations to him on his having won second place in the preliminary oratorical contest held in the school auditorium in Seneca last Thursday evening. "There is to be no Retreat" was his subject. Davis won second place last year, which shows that he possesses oratorical genius, and his friends anticipate hearing encouraging reports of his future efforts.

Mrs. Mary Reid, of Anderson, who has been recently visiting her sister, Mrs. M. J. McDonald, was a guest Sunday of Mrs. H. P. Holleman, of Seneca.

Mrs. J. N. McDonald is recovering from a severe case of poison oak.

The Improvement Association of Bounty Land, which meets next Friday afternoon at 3.30, hopes to have Miss Ethel Counts give a talk on "Home Nursing." We hope the members will meet promptly, as the Sunbeam Band, with Mrs. J. D. Stuart as leader, has arranged to meet at 4 o'clock at the school house to hear a talk by Mrs. W. P. Leister, of Jordania. Mrs. Leister is superintendent of the Sunbeams of the Beavertown Association and is an interesting talker and earnest worker in the cause of Christianity and the uplift of humanity. Mrs. Moon, of the Seneca school faculty, will be present. After the talks the little Sunbeams will engage in an Easter egg hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Hovey Martin, of Seneca, were guests recently of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Lynch.

Misses Bessie Mae Stribling, Carrie McMahan and Nettie Hubbard attended the State Convention of the Christian Endeavor, which convened in Greenville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Nilam and son and daughter, Henry and Miss Cornelia, of Sandy Springs, were late guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wright.

Miss Lennie Lewis, of Pickens, is expected to-day as a guest of her sister, Mrs. W. R. Lynch.

Mrs. M. J. McDonald, who has been quite ill, is very much improved. This will be joyful news to her many friends everywhere she is known.

Miss Cornelia Foster will be hostess to the W. M. S. of Rock Springs church next Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is requested.

Miss Ruby Reid, of Anderson, was a week-end guest of her grandmother, Mrs. M. J. McDonald.

One of the most interesting meetings of the "Gypsy Smith Circle" was that held last Friday afternoon with Mrs. Dean Davis as hostess. The meeting opened promptly at 3 o'clock by singing hymn "Joy to the World," to a soft phonograph accompaniment. After Scripture reading by Mrs. D. A. Perritt the guests joined in the study of home mission work for a period of one and a half hours. Then followed a delightful social hour, during which a contest on Bible characters was engaged in. The contest consisted of about one and a half dozen questions. She who gave a majority of correct answers most promptly answered was to be prize winner. Doubtless every lady in the Circle answered correctly every question, but your correspondent's tongue proved of unusual gibbness of expression on this occasion, thereby winning for her a dainty and beautiful pair of blue-tinted rosettes with invisible elastic attachments. Delicious tomato salad, hot buttered rolls and coffee were served. Those of the members who were present were: Mesdames D. A. Perritt, M. E. Marcott, W. E. Woolbright, John Maxwell, J. D. Stuart, Walter McKie, M. C. McDonald, Jasper Doyle, J. C. Sanders, Dean Davis and Miss Sallie Davis. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. W. R. Lynch.

Mr. and Mrs. Day visited relatives in the Fairview section last week.

Charles and Bruce Davis, of Walhalla, visited their cousin, Davis Sanders, the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ellison and son, Robert, of Greenville, were week-end guests in the Maret home.
