

THE BOUNTY LAND LOCAL NEWS

Coming Marriage Announced—Several Cases of Illness Reported.

Bounty Land, May 15.—Special: Mrs. S. H. Coe has been visiting her son, Will Coe, at Union, for the past week or two.

Mrs. J. H. Reagan, of Weaverville, N. C., has returned to her home, after a visit to her cousin, J. J. Ballenger, and family.

Miss Saye, of Greenville, spent the week-end with her friend, Miss Nettie Hubbard.

Rev. Herman Alley, of Mars Hill, is on a vacation, which he will spend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Alley. He was accompanied home by Albert Corpening, of Missouri, who addressed the Bounty Land B.Y.P.U. at the school house on the evening of May 1st.

Several of the B.Y.P.U. members here gave a demonstration in the work at Newry Sunday evening and quite a number went from this community.

Mrs. Julia D. Shanklin, E. R. Shanklin and Mr. and Mrs. Joe N. McDonald attended Mothers' Day services in Seneca yesterday and were guests of Mrs. Fannie Foster.

Some of our young people attended the singing at Clemson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar McKie, of the Picket Post section, visited the former's parents here Sunday and celebrated his father's 62d birthday.

Miss Cary Doyle spent the week-end with friends in Sandy Springs and attended a Sunday school party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dock Craig.

John and Homer Ballenger made a recent business trip to Columbia and visited their sister, Mrs. B. O. Whitten, at Clinton, on their return home.

Mrs. Jasper Doyle returned Wednesday from Anderson, where she spent a few days the first of the past week.

Miss Mollie Kennedy, of Newry, spent the week-end with Misses Janie and Katie Owens.

Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Wyly and two sons have been visiting in Greenville during the past week, having accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ellison, who were late guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Marett.

We wish to correct an error in our last communication. We reported one broken arm too many. Chester Owens has only badly strained the muscles of his arm and his people thought the arm broken. We are glad to know that the report was not correct.

Following is a copy of an invitation received by relatives of Rev. Henry Benson Dendy, of Hartwell, Ga.:

"Mr. and Mrs. R. Stewart Marks request the pleasure of your company at the wedding reception of their daughter, Nellie Spann, and Rev. Henry Benson Dendy, on Thursday afternoon, June first, from five-thirty until seven o'clock, 2734 Wheat Street, in the City of Columbia. Ceremony at five o'clock."

Rev. H. B. Dendy is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ervin Dendy, of Hartwell, Ga. He is a graduate of Davidson College and has just finished a theological course in Columbia Seminary. He has a large circle of friends who extend hearty congratulations and the best of good wishes for unlimited happiness in the future for him and his fair companion.

We regret to report the serious illness of A. W. Perritt, who is suffering from appendicitis. He will be taken to Anderson Hospital to-day for an operation. His father, D. A. Perritt, will accompany him. His many friends hope for a successful operation and quick recovery.

Allen Stewart has been quite unwell for several days. We hope for his speedy recovery of health.

Several new cases of flu have been reported, though none of them of a serious nature, and we hope the victims will soon be convalescent.

DEATH OF MRS. M. J. STANSELL.

Splendid Woman Called to Her Reward on Sunday May 7th.

West Union, R.F.D. 1, May 15.—Special: On Sunday morning, May 7th, at 10.30 o'clock, the angel of death invaded the home of Rev. M. J. Stansell and claimed his wife, Mrs. Pearl Stansell, to the great beyond. She leaves her husband and one little daughter, Helen, and her father and mother, nine brothers, one sister and many other relatives and a host of friends to mourn her death. The remains were laid to rest at Mountain View church, Pickens county, on the day following her passing away.

"Gone, but not forgotten"—Yes, she has gone; she is not here—Gone from those she loved so dear; Let us remember and not forget—She is not dead, but liveth yet.

Yes, she sleeps, but not forever; There will be a glorious dawn; For we shall meet to part no, never, On the sweet resurrection morn.

There we see a precious blossom That we nursed with loving care, With all our hopes and labor serve, Waiting till we meet in another world.

A precious one from us has gone, A voice we loved it stilled; A place is vacant in our home Which never can be filled.

God in His wisdom has recalled The boon His love had given; And though the body slumbers here The soul is safe in Heaven.

Two Who Loved Her, Joe and Bennie Becknell.

Ministers' Conference Postponed. The pastors of the Beaverdam Association will not hold their regular conference on May 22d, 1922, owing to the fact that a number of them will not be back from the convention at Jacksonville at that time.

R. F. Jones, Secretary.

CLOSING OF FAIR PLAY SCHOOL.

Exercises Brought to Close a Brilliant and Successful Session.

Fair Play, May 15.—Special: The exercises of the Fair Play High School came to a brilliant close on last Friday night. The operetta given by Miss Thompson was indeed a rose dream. As the eight roses in red and white paper dresses, and the eight fairies in airy dresses of yellow and white tulle, came flitting in to take their places on the stage around the little rose who was dreaming, one felt as though in Fairyland. Their sweet young voices were blended in lovely music, and the twins, "Can" and "Can't," Hop-o-My-Thumb and the beautiful queen, caused much favorable comment in the audience. Adding to this beautiful scene a happy little messenger in emerald green came tripping in to the strains of the lovely music, announcing the arrival of a tiny rosebud. The awakening of the little rose and the chorus by the fairies and roses brought to a close this wonderful visit to Fairyland. The children's voices were entirely untrained until Miss Thompson began the work about a month ago. At the beginning of the year Miss Thompson offered a prize to the pupil who did the best work during the term. This prize, a handsome lavalliere, was awarded to Hazel Leathers. Montez Marett was such a close second that she was awarded a lovely pin. The children showed most careful training, reflecting much credit both to themselves and their most capable teacher. We are delighted to know that Miss Thompson will be with us another year.

A troupe of amateur players of Fair Play presented most acceptably to a large audience on Friday night the many perplexities, misunderstandings and amusing incidents in the life of "A Poor Married Man." It was an all-star comedy, and with this said our readers may well imagine what an evening of side-bursting laughter we spent.

B. N. Singleton, our superintendent, is a young man of marked ability, and we appreciate the splendid work he did in our school this year, and with his splendid training we expect to hear great things of him in the school world.

Mrs. Bob Tompkins and babe, of Seneca, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Meares.

Misses Ida Dooley and Violet Cawthon, of Anderson, were recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Leathers.

The Ladies' Auxiliary met with Mrs. Betty Harris on Saturday, as did their sisters all over the entire Southland, this date being the tenth anniversary of the birthday of the auxiliary.

The W.M.S. at a recent meeting deemed it wise to have bi-monthly meetings—one a social and the other for mission study.

Little Mary Elizabeth Sheldon is visiting in Columbia and Newberry with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sheldon, of Westminster.

Invitations have been received in Fair Play to the graduating exercises of the Westminster High School, and we note with pride the names of Bessie Glenn and Joseph Stribling, of our town, on the class roll.

Invitations have also been received from Anderson College, where Miss Gatha Davis, a former Fair Play girl, will graduate with honor.

Mrs. D. V. Wright has returned from an extended visit to her daughter in Anderson.

Miss Sallie Perkins, of Westminster, was a visitor to commencement exercises here. She was accompanied home by her sister, Miss Sue Perkins, who has completed her third successful term in the high school.

The string band of South Union added much to the entertainment at the school house Friday evening and a number of Fair Play people attended the fiddlers' convention at South Union on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Cothran, of Belton, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Luther Marett.

Miss Mary Cheswell Entertains.

Westminster, May 15.—Special: The happy event of Friday evening last was a party given by Miss Mary Cheswell, which was highly enjoyed by the seniors of the Westminster High School. As the guests entered punch was served by little Margaret Gilbert and D. P. Butler, Jr. After this they were entertained for several hours in the spacious parlor, which was beautifully decorated in the class flowers, sweetpeas. While there was a bit quiet, little Margaret Gilbert came in and gave several selections in aesthetic dancing.

About the tenth hour the guests were summoned into the dining room by the hostess. The room was elaborately decorated in sweetpeas and ferns. Here they were served with delightful refreshments, which consisted of a candle-light desert with several different kinds of cake. Shortly after this each of the guests was awarded a diploma, which bore the "fortune" of the recipient. Then again the music was begun and all seemed bright and happy.

In a short while our watches reminded us that it was time for "Home, Sweet Home." The night though late, seemed yet young, and the guests departed, going out into the moonlight, praising the hostess on what a wonderful evening she had given them.

Methodist Revival at Walhalla.

There will be a revival meeting at the Walhalla Methodist church for fifteen days, beginning May 28th and ending June 11th. The preaching will be done by Rev. R. P. Morris, of the Shandon Methodist church in Columbia. Brother Morris is a strong young preacher. All who hear him will be helped. The other churches of Walhalla are invited to co-operate as fully as may be possible.

A. W. Barr, Pastor.
