NEWS NOTES FROM CONERROSS.

Lightning Strikes Home, Shocking but Not Injuring Inmates.

Conerross, June 1.—Special: Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Alexander and children and Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Alexander, all of Greenville, were welcome visitors in the community recently. They visited at the homes of Mrs. Mary Dilworth and J. W. Alexander.

Mrs. C. E. DuBose and children, Hew and Frances, of Tamassee, spent last week with the former's aunt, Mrs. J. B. Vaughn, and family, of this community. They arrived Saturday and were accompanied by Miss Minnie Vaughn, who spent Sunday and Monday with their uncle, Joe Duncan, of Westminster.

Miss Jessie Barker spent the first part of this week with relatives near Westminster.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roach are entertaining a little boy at their home, the young gentleman having arrived last Friday week.

Eulius Smith, wife and children, of West Union, were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Smith's father, J. D. Abbott, recently.

Decorations Day was observed at Conerross by a few of the ladies, who met at 4.30 with flowers and decorated the graves of the old soldiers who were laid to rest in the Conerross cemetery.

T. D. Barker and wife, of near Westminster, were recent guests of the former's brother, G. L. Barker, and family, of this vicinity.

Little James and William Armstrong, of Richland, spent the first few days of last week with their grandmother, Mrs. S. M. Hunsinger, of Conerross, while their mother attended the class reunion at the G. W. C. at Greenville on Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Montgomery and Mrs. S. J. Barker and children, of Walhalla, were recent guests of the Misses Barker.

Miss Pearl Hunsinger carried her Royal Ambassador chapter to the annual meeting at Walhalla last Friday. Several of the ladies also attended and enjoyed the meeting.

Grover Hubbard and wife, of Richland, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse King, of this place.

Mrs. Henry Keil, of near here, and her daughter, Mrs. W. G. Shull, of Greenville, left last Thursday for Washington, D. C., where they will visit their daughter and sister, Miss Bessie Keil, who is a trained nurse in that city.

A sumptuous birthday dinner was given to Mrs. Margaret Addis, a very aged lady, at her home near here on her birthday on May 24th, by her children, several of whom live near her, while others were scattered in different parts of the county and State. Her children and grandchildren comprise a very large family, but nearly all were present on this interesting occasion, as well as a few friends. Mrs. Addis's many friends wish for her many more happy birthdays.

During the electric storm which passed over this community Sunday afternoon the home of B. W. Alexander was struck by a bolt of lightning, which played practically all over the house, leaving its marks, but no damage was done to the house except in the dining room, where the heavy bolt struck the side of the room, splitting the weatherboarding and cutting off the lower end of the room, and also splitting some of the framing. The screams were shaken out of the windows and a few window panes were shattered. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, Jesse King, Grover Hubbard and Miss Janie Alexander, who were in the house at the time, received slight shocks, from which they all soon recovered. Miss Lucy Patterson and little Vivian King were also in the house, but they were not shocked. There were also several babies in the home at the time, but if they were shocked by the bolt they gave no evidence of it. Those receiving the shock were not in the dining room, where the main bolt struck, but were scattered in different rooms about the home, some up-stairs and others on the first floor. We feel very grateful that the occupants of the house escaped with no serious injury.

Other effects of the storm in our community, so far as we have heard, comprise the killing of two head of cattle that were in Mrs. H. J. Hesse's pasture, one belonging to C. E. Gambrell, of Richland, and one to Mr. Hedden, of West Union.

Mrs. W. Abbott and daughter, Miss Annie, of West Union, are spending this week with the former's sister, Mrs. S. M. Hunsinger.

W. O. Alexander made a short trip to Greenville.

The committee appointed to arrange the program for Christian Education to be carried out here at a later date request all of the children who have been given parts to be present at Sunday school next Sunday to practice.

Rev. I. E. Wallace, of Seneca, pastor of the Seneca and Richland Presbyterian churches, spent last Thursday with members of his church at the latter place, stopping with Mrs. E. C. DuBose, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gambrell, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Alexander. He was accompanied by Mrs. Charlie DuBose and children, of Seneca.

Quite a number attended the Children's Day and Cradle Roll exercises at Rocky Knoll last Sunday, both of which were carried out beautifully, and were enjoyed by all.

G. L. Barker and family and Miss Tizzie Barker spent the week-end with relatives in Seneca.

Cradle roll exercises will be carried out at Conerross next Sunday by the leader, Mrs. S. M. Hunsinger. All of the mothers of the cradle roll members are requested to bring the babies from three years of age down, also those that are to be promoted.
