Mauldin Street, Walhalla, S. C.

SERVICES ON THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF EACH MONTH.

Sacrament of Penance... 9.30 a. m. Mass and Sermon... 10.00 a. m. Reverend Thomas J. Macklin, Rector. P. O. Box 82, Anderson, S. C.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

—Mrs. H. C. Busch spent last week at Clemson College with her daughter, Mrs. E. T. McClure.

—Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hoefer, of Columbia, are visiting their cousins, Mrs. H. C. Busch and Miss J. Baumgartel.

—Miss Lois Kelley has returned home from a three-weeks visit in Atlanta. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. H. Grady Burton.

—Miss Hadie Thompson, who has for several months been visiting relatives and friends in several sections of this State, returned last week to Walhalla, and will be for some time at her home near town.

—Hemstitching and Pecot Edging. —Will give your orders careful attention. Mrs. M. Puckhaber, P. O. Box 165, Walhalla, S. C., near the Brandt old home.—adv.-31-34.

—We are requested to announce that the Cole reunion will be held at Double Springs church, Anderson county, on Saturday, Aug. 19. All the relatives and friends are cordially invited to attend and enjoy the day together.

—Mart Hardin, of Walhalla, has accepted a position with the Victor Mill at Fayetteville, N. C. Mr. Hardin was a loom fixer in the local Victor-Monaghan plant, and is held in high esteem in the community. We regret to see him leave the village.

—R. W. Whitten, of Pendleton, will sing at the Walhalla Monaghan Mill M. E. church next Sunday morning, Aug. 13, at 10 o'clock. Mr. Whitten will also begin a ten-nights singing school, beginning Monday, Aug. 14th, from 7 o'clock to 9 o'clock. Every one is cordially invited to attend.

—For Sale.—1921 model Maxwell touring car; good as new; run only 1061 miles. Call and see this splendid car at Green Motor Co., Walhalla, S. C.—adv.-29-1f.

—Misses Frances Kaufman and Eugenia Moss entertained at the home of the former on last Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Kathleen McCarey, of Florence, who is visiting her homefolks. Jolly games and delightful refreshments were the order of the day, and a very pleasant afternoon was spent by the young ladies of the "sub-deb." age.

D. M. Alexander, of Centerville, Md., was in Walhalla for a short while Monday, having come through on his way to the upper section of the county, where he is looking after improvements on his property, which is well known as the Keith Quarters, or the Looper place. This property he purchased some time back and is making extensive improvements. He was accompanied by his brother, J. L. Alexander, of Greenville.

—Federal court will convene at Rock Hill on Sept. 11th, Judge H. H. Watkins presiding. The following citizens of Oconee have been drawn as grand jurors to serve at that time: W. H. Prince, Walhalla Route No. 5, and Ira S. Pitts, Westminster. J. W. Byrd, of Seneca, was drawn as a petit juror. For the second week of court Rufus Earle, Townville, and J. H. Barnett, Westminster, were drawn as petit jurors. The second week jurors will attend the session beginning Sept. 18.

—Rev. W. F. Sinclair, who has been pastor of the Second Baptist church for two years, will go to Spartanburg, where he is to conduct revival services for Rev. W. A. Stephenson next week. Following this meeting he will be with Rev. M. J. Stansell at New Hope, in this county, for a week. Rev. Sinclair has had considerable experience in revival work in his own churches, having received about 65 members by baptism since coming to this work here, and a much larger number by letter.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lake, Jr., are visiting relatives at Newberry.

—Rev. T. M. Stribling, of Waynesville, Ga., was among his Walhalla friends for a short while last week. He is always a welcome visitor here.

—Mrs. Frank K. Schroder, of Pendleton, is at the home of Mrs. Cora Schroder, recuperating from a severe illness with pneumonia, which she sustained just before coming here. She is improving rapidly, and her friends hope to see her out again shortly.

—Rev. T. B. Epling, of Beards-town, Ill., spent a few days in Walhalla, arriving here Friday afternoon and leaving Monday for Greenville and other points in this State. Rev. Mr. Epling, who was at one time pastor of the Walhalla Lutheran church, preached to the congregation here Sunday morning, and he was most cordially greeted by the members of his old flock.

—Doesn't this "listen good" to you? It's the attractions which The Star Theatre, Seneca, is offering the balance of this week and the first of next week. Thursday, Aug. 10, Dunstun Farnum in "The Devil Within," and a good comedy; Friday, Aug. 11th, Elaine Hammerstein, in "Remorseless Love," and a Pathe News reel; Monday, the incomparable Constance Talmadge in "Mrs. Lellingwell's Boots," and Tuesday, Aug. 15, May Allison, in "Extravagance," with the excruciatingly funny Aesop Fables. These are pictures you cannot well afford to miss. The theatre is cool and pleasant, and there is always good music.

—On Tuesday of last week Deputy Gus Sullivan and Rural Policeman W. L. Littleton raided a still near Poor Mountain, three miles west of Walhalla. The still was in operation and 150 gallons of beer were destroyed, four gallons of whiskey were poured out and the still cut up. One man, John Moore, was brought to jail. Last Friday evening ten gallons of whiskey were found near the Brasstown church, and on Saturday in the same section, two more stills were found, with about 1,000 gallons of beer at one and about 500 gallon sat the other. Ten large fermenters were destroyed. No one was at either of these places.

—Miss Janie Neville delightfully entertained some of her friends last Wednesday afternoon in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. McCurry Neville. Three tables were laid for bridge and one for rook. After several exciting rubbers and games, cards were laid aside for refreshments. The color scheme of white and gold was carried out in the refreshments, which consisted of white and yellow cream in canteen, angel food and pound cake. After this course mint julep and yellow and white mints were served. The prizes also showed the color scheme, they being white and gold flower baskets filled with shasta daisies. Mrs. Marion Smith, of Mississippi, won the prize at the rook table, while Mrs. James Darby, Mrs. Monroe McDonald and Miss Janie Neville Shanklin, of Clemson, won the prizes at the bridge tables. Mrs. McCurry Neville was presented with a box of hand-embroidered Madeira tea napkins by the hostess. Those enjoying Miss Neville's hospitality were Misses Sue Gignilliat of Seneca, Julia Maxwell, Eloise Strother, Janie Neville Shanklin of Clemson, Mesdames Marvin Phinney, Monroe McDonald, Fair Dodd of Atlanta, McCurry Neville, Gus Shanklin of Clemson, Jesse Neville, and James F. Neville.

—J. C. Rampley and Derrill Darby are on a camping trip for the week at Highlands, N. C.

—Lewis C. Harrison leaves this week to spend several days at Highlands, N. C.

—Miss Anna Darby, of Greenville, is expected in Walhalla to-day for a visit among friends and relatives.

—We are requested to announce that there will be no meeting of the Walhalla Methodist Parsonage Aid Society until Sept. 7th.

—Friends of C. G. Ensley, who has been suffering from an attack of typhoid fever for some weeks, are glad to note that he is able now to be out again, though he is still very weak. We hope to see him enjoying his usual robust health soon.

—The many friends of Haskell Jordan, of Anderson, will be glad to learn that he is convalescing nicely after a serious operation at the Anderson hospital. Mr. Jordan formerly resided in Seneca, where he was engaged in the moving picture business, but some time ago accepted a position in Anderson and moved to that city with his family.

—We have four car loads of good flour, bought right; two cars Anchor brand salt, two car loads of shorts. It takes a lot of money, room and work to handle all this—but we want your business and we buy in large quantities in order to give you the best prices and the benefit of car load rates. We appreciate your business, we need your business, we work for your business, and we feel like we deserve your business. So let's come together and do business. Remember, we trade you service for business. J. H. Alley, West Union, S. C.—adv.-32-33.

LOCAL NEWS FROM CONEROSS.

Several from Community Enjoy the Summer Assembly Sessions.

Coneross, Aug. 7.—Special: Every one interested in the Coneross cemetery is urged to meet there next Friday, Aug. 11th, for the purpose of cleaning off the cemetery. Let everybody come early Friday morning with such tools as they think to be necessary for the work, and let us put it in good shape.

Ray Barker and wife, of Atlanta, spent last Thursday with their cousins, the Barker family, at Coneross.

Tom Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Turner, of Stevens county, Georgia, spent several days last week with the former's sister, Mrs. Luke Adair, of this place.

Miss Bewley Hunsinger, of Long Creek, spent a short while here with her mother, Mrs. S. M. Hunsinger, on her way to Greenville, where she is in attendance upon the summer assembly. She was accompanied from here by Miss Pearle Hunsinger and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Montgomery, who went in their touring car. Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery visited relatives in Greenville, and are on their way to visit at several other points in this State before their return home.

Miss Pearle Hunsinger also attended a few days of the summer assembly and was called from there to Six Mile, where she has accepted a position as matron at the Six-Mile Academy. After spending some time there she will probably be at home here for a while before taking up her new work permanently. We congratulate Miss Pearle on getting work at that good place. As such positions in all Baptist schools require a high order of character and fitness, Miss Pearle will feel her responsibility as matron, but she will prove herself worthy of the high trust imposed upon her. She will have many opportunities to do great work for the Master in the way of personal service among the pupils and also in the church work in the several churches near there. When we shall lose Miss Hunsinger from our church we will have lost one of our most noble young ladies and best church workers, as she is one of our Sunday school teachers, leader of the Royal Ambassadors, Bible readers, leader of our B.Y.P.U. and secretary of our Y. W. A.'s. But we wish her much success in her work at the Six-Mile Academy.

Mrs. Corene Roach returned home here after spending a month with relatives in Westminster.

Nelson Steward left here Wednesday for Franklin county, Georgia, where he is visiting his sister, Mrs. S. D. Kelley. He will spend a week or ten days there.

Miss Harriet Dulse returned to her home in Seneca yesterday, after spending about ten days with her aunts, the Misses Barker, of Coneross.

T. W. Byrd spent Wednesday and Thursday and Friday with relatives in Salem.

Mrs. Annie McDonald and granddaughter, Miss Edna, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben McDonald and son James were guests of relatives in Greenville Saturday and Sunday.

Alford Steward and family, of Westminster, are visiting the former's father, Elisha Steward, near here.

Miss Minnie Barker returned home Friday after having spent about a week in Greenville. She was visiting her cousins, W. O. Alexander and family, and Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Farmer and children, also stopping over with her brother and wife at Calhoun on her return. While in Greenville she attended the summer assembly and heard some of the most wonderful addresses from the different men and women of the State. She reports every part of the assembly splendid, and says that it is worth more than one can express to attend the meetings. The assembly will last through this week. We urge any one who can do so to attend, if only for a short while. Miss Lettie Barker also attended the assembly and is now visiting relatives in Pickens before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Cleland, of near Westminster, spent Friday with their daughter, Mrs. Henry Hesse, of this section. They were accompanied by their children, Little Miss Sophie and L. A. Jr.

Miss May Byrd was a recent guest of her aunt, Mrs. Ollie Duncan, of Walhalla, for a few days.

Messrs. Stanley and Robert Morgan and Misses Velma and Agatha Smith, of Pickens, spent a few days recently with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Alexander, of Coneross, and Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Alexander, Jr., of Greenville, who are on an extended visit here, were spend-the-day guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Barker, of Westminster, recently.

The Blue Ridge school picnicked at the tunnel Saturday and enjoyed it very much, as this was the first time for the most of the teachers and pupils to view the beautiful mountain scenery and enjoy the mountain breezes that come so pleasantly in and around the tunnel.

A. W. Nix, of Madison, spent Friday night with his sister, Mrs. Annie Byrd, of this community. He was accompanied by his grandfather, Ed. Nix, of Salem, who was on his way to Madison for a visit.

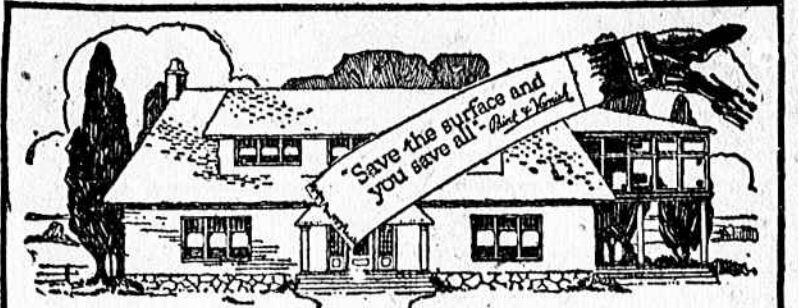

We have been informed that Rev. Thompson opened revival services at Poplar Springs Baptist church yesterday and will run probably all of this week. Mr. Thompson is a good preacher, and we wish him great success this week.

Misses Janie and Cordye Alexander delightfully entertained at their home here Saturday evening in honor of Miss Annie Belle Watkins, who was visiting at their home. During the social hour delicious punch was served. Those present report a most enjoyable time.

Misses Lena and Gracie Abbott enjoyed a trip to Highlands, N. C., recently. They were accompanied by R. A. Reeves and Miss Kathleen Dodd, Robert Gambrell and Miss Irene Reeder, of West Union.

Miss Gertrude Claudsea, of Charleston, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Davis and daughter, Miss Millie Mae, of Westminster, on their visit to Mrs. Nettle Hesse the past week-end. Miss Claudsea is a cousin to Mrs. Hesse's family and the family of Mr. Davis, and is spending some time with Mrs. Davis, and will probably be in our community again. She is a very interesting young lady, and we are glad indeed to have her visit here.

Mrs. Julius T. Dill, of Anderson,

"What A Charming Home!"

Folks may say this about your house, if you keep it well painted. You not only add to its beauty, but more important, protect the surface from rot and decay.

Lucas Tinted Gloss Paint

will "save the surface" and beautify at the same time. It is real economy to use it, because of its long life and great durability.

Give us the opportunity of estimating the amount needed.

THE STUB in his Check Book shows to whom he paid his money, and he may make it show exactly for what each sum was paid.

IN OTHER WORDS, the Check Book Stub is a simplified form of keeping books that is valuable to any man, and especially to the working man or farmer who possibly keeps no other form of books showing his receipts and expenditures.

THE MAN WHO PAYS CASH as he goes frequently wonders what becomes of his money. Not so with the man who pays with checks on his bank account.

The Enterprise Bank, Walhalla, S. C.

Miss Claudsea is a cousin to Mrs. Hesse's family and the family of Mr. Davis, and is spending some time with Mrs. Davis, and will probably be in our community again. She is a very interesting young lady, and we are glad indeed to have her visit here.

Mrs. Julius T. Dill, of Anderson, was a guest in the home of J. Davis Abbott and family here last week.

Quite a number from here attended the singing convention at New Hope yesterday.

Mrs. S. M. Hunsinger and J. V. Dilworth and family, of this section, attended the birthday dinner of Mrs. Paul Gillison, of Bounty Land, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Stephens and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Huffman and family and Mrs. J. C. Bates, of near Greenville, were spend-the-day visitors at the home of W. T. Haynes and family here Saturday.

Jim Lynch and family, of Seneca, were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Duckworth.

Miss Lena Abbott left yesterday for Salem, where she will take up work this morning as teacher in the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hesse and Miss Zadio Hesse attended the Cleland reunion, which was held at the home of Will Cleland, of Westminster, yesterday.

The Coneross choir will meet at the home of J. L. Duckworth next Tuesday evening.

Charlie DuBose and family, of Seneca, spent yesterday with B. W. Alexander and wife, of Coneross.

Ice Cream at Neville School House.

The Neville Rural School Improvement association will serve ice cream at the school house on Thursday (tomorrow), Aug. 10, beginning at 7 o'clock p. m. The money raised from the sale of cream will go for the improvement of the school. The public is cordially invited, and liberal patronage will be appreciated.

Herbert Sullivan, Secretary.
