DOES IT ENLIGHTEN?

Commenting upon the report of the recent State campaign meeting as made by The Courier, the Greenville Daily News, under the heading, "Let Records Decide," has these very pertinent remarks to make:

"Did the State compaign endighten the people on the affairs of government in the way it should there would be an argument for retaining the State campaign. But it does not After six weeks of sauntering from county seat to county seat with an extravagant waste of time for the candidates and a monumental expense, the campaign came to a close in Spartanburg. If this mobile show had succeeded in giving South Carolinians accurate knowledge of appropriations and expenditures, s of schools and colleges and the like, the time and cost might have been worth while. But it has had quite the opposite effect, it confused most minds about the details of State government, fomented factionalism and imparted false conceptions. Out of the mass'of conflicting testimony preseuted him by truthful and menda cious politicians the voter is bewill dered in separating the wheat and the chaff. The campaign has been of no value to him except in permitting him to look upon the faces of those who would serve him, and he would have derived equal satisfaction at gazing upon a photograph supplemented by an artist's brush.

"The State campaign is of no practical benefit, for it does not expose the merits of candidates. The real merit of a candidate is to be found in his record, and that is the answer to The Courier's question as to what 'a poor citizen is to do' after he has been puzzled by the campaign howitzers. It is ten times more certain that a candidate will conduct himself as he has been doing all the derol out of the mass before getting the information. Let the campaign meetings be pitched on a higher plane or let us abolish them.

Close Charleston Yard Nov. 1st.

A dispatch from Washington says: Acting Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt has set the date for the final closing of the Charleston, S. C., navy yard for the first of next November. It had been expected that the yard would be closed about Sept. 1st, orders having been issued that it should be closed as soon as possible. Owing to the unemployment at Charleston, however, the acting secretary decided to defer the closing and provide for the gradual discharge of the navy yard employees.

In an order signed by Col. Roose velt he said the department's decision to close the yard "remains unchanged, and the conditions which necessitated this action have in no way been aliered.

6 Colds & Headache

"For years we have used Black-Draught in our family, and I have never found any medicine that could take its place," writes Mr. H. A. Stacy, of Bradyville, Tenn. Mr. Sta-cy, who is a Rutherford County farmer, recommends Black-Draught as a medicine that should be kept in every house-hold for use in the prompt treatment of many little ills to pre-vent them from developing into serious troubles.

THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

"It touches the liver and does the work," Mr. Stacy declared. "It is one of the best medicines I ever saw for a cold and headache. I don't know what we would do in our family if it wasn't for Black-Draught. It has saved us many dollars . . . I don't see how any family can hardly go without it. I know it is a reliable and splendid medicine to keep in the house. I recommend Black-Draught highly and an never without it." At all druggists.

It is the intention of the Mar Depariment, it is said, to replace the instructors with officers on he ac-while should he be elected than that he will conform to picturesque promises he makes not at all in accord with his history. There ought to be a Dun or Bradstreet agency to give reliable and unbiased information about the records of our prospective officers. But the conscientious citizen 'is pretty skilful at sizing up men and if he will take time to inquire into the records he will need the services of an appraiser. The voter is not so often fooled by policicians as by himself,"

It has been quite some time since The Courier made its first slap at the ugly face of the South Carolina State campaign. We recall, some years ago, having referred to the campaigus as "a three-ringed circus," and thereby calling down upon ourselves somewhat of an avalauche of adverse comment by nummers of papers that seemed to find controlling good and worth while in our State campaigns as they are conducted. We would not say that there is absolutely nothing good in them. It may be that, as a training school, in course of time South Carolina will evolve a number of statesman out of a horde of mountebanks, who prate of generalities, condemn "the system"-which we certainly would not think of endorsing as a whole-but giving nothing tangible upon which a citizen may judge as to whether "the system" would be Setter or worse for their having a lanul in "the system's" workings.

if, however, we are to wait on "this "three-ringed circus" to evolve a set of statesmen, some of us are going to have to wait dutil the heroafter to meet them.

The citizens could get a lot more information and enlightenment from attending a Friday evening's school debating society meeting than from va State campaign meeting, and would mot have to sift a lot of rot and fol-
