LOCAL AND PERSONAL

—To cook perfectly and with the greatest economy of fuel and labor, get a Cole's Down-Draft range. Sold by Ballenger Hardware Co., Seneca, S. C. See ad. elsewhere.

—Baylis W. Harrison, of Greenville, spent a day or two in Walhalla on business last week.

—Mrs. L. R. VanDiere and Mrs. McCurry Neville spent several days in Atlanta last week.

—After this week the Walhalla Ginney will be in operation Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays until further notice. W. F. Millam, Manager.—adv.

—Mrs. Harry Norman and little daughter returned home Friday last, after spending several weeks with Mrs. Norman's parents in Hartwell, Ga.

—Sam J. Isbell, of Walhalla, was one of the exhibitors at the Oconee County Fair at Westminster last week, where he was awarded blue ribbons on his fine apples.

—Just received, a shipment of the well known High Point buggies. Call and get one. (If you ride, ride right.) W. M. Brown, Walhalla, S. C.—adv.—38-tf.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Collins, former citizens of Walhalla, but who for some time past have been residing at Toccoa, Ga., have moved to Gainesville, Ga., where they will reside for the present.

—Claude McMahan returned last week from Montana, where he had been for the past two months looking after land interests. After spending a few days in Walhalla at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Alexander he, with his wife and little son, left for their home in the Fairview section.

—A pretty assortment of dress gingham, fast colors, a real 30c. value, for only 20c. We have a very large selection of patterns. Trade at home. Why trade elsewhere? The People's Department Store, Main St., Walhalla. "Better goods for less."—adv.

—We are requested to give notice to all B.Y.P.U. delegates and members that the West Union church and B.Y.P.U. have taken the authority to make a change in the order of serving dinner at the convention on Saturday. They will be prepared to serve dinner to all delegates and visiting members.

—Miss May Powell and Jas. Stephens, both of Seneca, were united in marriage on Nov. 5th at 5.30 p. m. at the home of Rev. L. M. Lyda, of Walhalla. The young couple have a host of friends to wish them much happiness. They will make their home in Greenville, where Mr. Stephens is employed.

—We invite you to our store to attend the Christmas opening, beginning Nov. 15th. We have the most beautiful line of gifts and Christmas goods on display in Walhalla, and the prices are right. Bell's Drug Store.—adv.—4f.

—Last Saturday, Nov. 4, the Sunshine Band of the Presbyterian Sunday school held its regular meeting with Miss Clara Sloan. The topic was "Brazil." Several selections were read, among them a very interesting letter from a missionary. After singing some songs, the band adjourned. The next meeting will be held on Saturday, Dec. 2d, with Miss Sara Macaulay.

—For every one-dollar you spend with us you get a chance at the beautiful genuine Madame Hendren Talking Doll, which is to be given away by us to the one holding the lucky number on Christmas morning. At Bell's Drug Store, Walhalla.—adv.—tf

—Sam H. Orr, of Walhalla, is loud in his praise of the Oconee Fair at Westminster last week. He had on exhibition two 8-months-old pigs and four 2-months-old pigs of the Duroc Jersey breed. On the two pigs he was awarded the blue ribbon and on the four he received the red ribbon. There is no good reason why this and our neighboring communities to the north and west of us should not have been properly represented at the fair.

—Do you know that many people who formerly left Walhalla to buy shoes are now getting fitted at The People's Department Store?—"The Home of Walkover Shoes."—adv.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Perrin, of Anderson, spent a few days in Walhalla, this and last week at the home of Mrs. Perrin's mother, Mrs. Hettie Macaulay. Mr. and Mrs. Perrin have been making their home in Orangeburg, where Mr. Perrin was engaged in road work for the government. He has been transferred to Anderson, however, for the present, and they will make their home in that city. Both Mr. and Mrs. Perrin have numerous friends here who will be glad to learn that they will again reside in this part of the State.

—We will charge $3.50 per bale for ginning this season, furnishing bagging and ties. We use 2 and 2 1/2-pound jute bagging and whole ties. Jute bagging adds weight and makes a neat bale. Schaeffer Gin Co., Westminster, S. C.—adv.—35-tf.

—Miss Miriam Davis was the delightful young hostess at a Halloween lawn party on Saturday morning, Oct. 28th, from 9.30 to 11.30 o'clock, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Davis, in Midway. The party was in the nature of a farewell party, honoring Misses Carolyn and Kathryn Hetrick, who have left Walhalla to make their home in Princeton, Va. About twenty-five young people enjoyed the hospitality of the young hostess. Various games were played and a real good time was enjoyed by all present. Refreshments, consisting of fruit, peanuts, popcorn, candy and punch, were served by the young hostess and her mother and sister, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Loyd Brown.

—We will charge $3.50 per bale for ginning this season, furnishing bagging and ties. We use 2 and 2 1/2-pound jute bagging and whole ties. Jute bagging adds weight and makes a neat bale. Westminster Oil and Fertilizer Co.—adv.—35-tf.

—Miss Clara Verner, of Seneca, was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Steck.

—Quite a number of Walhalla people were in Greenville last week attending the Textile Exposition, the circus and the football game.

—Aluminum Ware Sale.—The greatest sale of genuine aluminum ware ever held in Oconee county will be held in Walhalla next week. Be sure and watch next week's paper for information.—adv.

—The Hayne Circle will meet with Mrs. Jas. Darby on Nov. 24 instead of Nov. 17th, as programmed. Members of the circle are urged to take note of the change.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Walhalla Baptist church will meet with Mrs. R. W. Grubbs on Friday morning, Nov. 10th, at 9 o'clock. All the members are urged to be present, and to attend prepared to sew and quilt.

—Now is the time to buy your Oliver plows. Get ready for the fall season. Buy the Genuine Oliver. W. M. Brown, Walhalla, S. C.—adv.—tf.

—J. F. Rogers, of Walhalla Route 2, brought to our office Monday three splendid specimens of the Aberdeen turnip, which he raised on his place. Mr. Rogers says that these turnips came to full growth during the dry season, and, while he has a large crop, all full size, he thinks they would have done much better had there been some rain during the time they were maturing. He has eleven rows of these turnips in his garden and expects to realize a neat little sum from their sale. They are extra fine, not cumbersomely large.

—Mrs. W. F. DuPre and children, who have been on an extended visit to Mrs. DuPre's mother and brother, Mrs. S. F. Jones and Geo. L. Jones, and other relatives, left last Friday for their future home in Washington, D. C. Mr. DuPre accompanied his wife to Walhalla, they having driven through in their car. After a short visit here he left for Washington to take up his duties as valuation engineer for the government. Fred Lumpkin, of Seneca, a nephew of Mrs. DuPre, accompanied her to her new home in Washington. They went through the country, driving their touring car.

—To attend—Nice office rooms in same building in which Bell Telephone Co. has its office, on Main St. Can rent your single office or suit of rooms. See me at once if interested. Very desirable location. W. M. Brown, Walhalla, S. C.—adv.—tf.

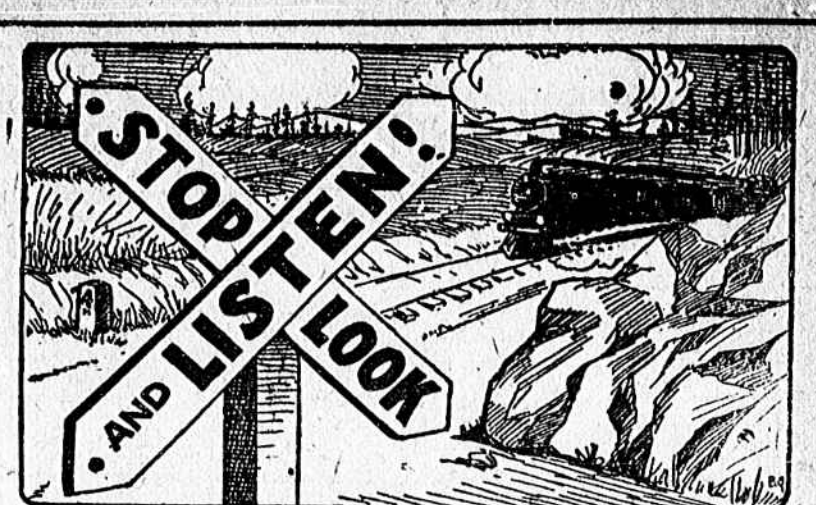

—A very interesting recent occasion was that of a birthday dinner in the Mountain Rest section, when two brothers—J. S. Callas, of Mountain Rest, and N. S. Callas, of Seneca—celebrated their 33rd birthday anniversary together and with a number of their friends. The celebration occurred on the 29th of October, and was greatly enjoyed by both "the boys" as well as those friends and relatives gathered about them. J. S. Callas has never resided without the bounds of Oconee county, and has moved but four times, one of these being when he married and left his father's home to make a home for himself and his wife. We wish for these brothers many more happy celebrations together.

—On last Tuesday evening, Oct. 31st, the West Union B.Y.P.U. entertained quite a number of young people at a Halloween party given at the home of A. F. Smith. The parlor and reception hall were beautifully decorated in autumn leaves and witches, cats and lanterns. One of the most interesting features of the occasion was the way in which the guests were ushered into the reception room by the ghostly figures at the door. After the cat contest, in which the girls won, the lights were turned out and ghost stories were told. Russian tea and sandwiches were served near the close of this long-to-be-remembered evening.

THE NEW STETSONS ARE HERE.

That's all we need to tell you. New Fall Styles with the distinctive mark, and the good, old-rock bottom Stetson Quality.

If you're a regular Stetson customer, of course you'll want one of the new Fall Styles. If not, let us urge you at least to come and try one on.

You can judge for yourself what this Stetson "feeling for style" is, that the young men talk about.

The Stetson Quality Mark on every Stetson Hats.
