Advertising Rates.

Advertisements inserted at the rate of $1 00 per square, of (9) nine lines, or less, for the first insertion, and 50 cents for each subsequent insertion.

Contracts made for THREE, SIX or TWELVE months, on favorable terms. Advertisements not having the number of insertions marked on them, will be published until forbid and charged accordingly.

These terms are so simple any child may understand them. Nine lines is a square—one inch. In every instance we charge by the space occupied, as eight or ten lines can be made to occupy four or five squares, as the advertiser may wish, and is charged by the space.

Advertisers will please state the number of squares they wish their advertisements to make.

Business men who advertise to be benefited, will bear in mind that the SENTINEL has a large and increasing circulation, and is taken by the very class of persons whose trade they desire.

PICKENS C. H., S. C.:

Thursday, March 30, 1876.

Next Monday the County Democratic Convention meets.

Recessed.

The Legislature on Thursday last, 23d inst. rescinded the resolution to adjourn sine die on that day, and on Friday, concluded to take a recess until the 10th day of April next. Most of the Republican members are delegates to the State Republican Convention which meets in Columbia about that time, and as members of the General Assembly they have free tickets on the Railroads, and will be enabled to attend the Convention without railroad expenses, but if the Legislature had adjourned sine die, their tickets would have been taken up and then they would have had to pay their way to the Convention. Thus they economize at the public expense.— Railroad Companies should be prohibited by law from issuing free passes to members of the Legislature.— This would be one of the surest means of shortening the sessions. When a final adjournment will take place it is hard to tell. A better class of Legislators is sadly needed in South Carolina.

The Pickens Democratic Club receives daily new accessions to its membership. Let organization be the watchword.

New Hampshire Election.

The Republicans carried New Hampshire in the recent election by 3,000 majority. The result would not have been surprising to any one had it not been for the exposures of high official corruption in Washington just before the election; but taken in connection with this fact, we confess it is hard to account for the result, except upon the hypothesis of the moral degeneracy of the American voter.

The Abbeville Press and Banner is one of our most valuable and esteemed exchanges. It has been recently enlarged and greatly improved. Its selections are made with care and taste, and its editorial columns are each week ably filled with the freshest and spiciest matter. Its typographical and mechanical execution can scarcely be excelled. May the Press and Banner long wave!

The Price of Introductions.

General Rice charged Evans, a post trader, $1,000 for an introduction to Belknap. This was a sound price for simply an introduction, but we suspect, Evans made it pay. Belknap then was a great man, but now he has fallen so low, that "there is none so low as to do him reverence," save General Grant. Secretary Bristow, as he says himself, received a retainer and ten thousand dollars for arguing a case in the Court of Claims, and introducing his client to Attorney General Williams as a "gentleman of character and standing." This is the first time, we believe, in the history of this or any other civilized government, that prices are charged for introductions. This is now etiquette indeed, and it is to be hoped that it will receive such a death blow from the Congressional Investigating Committee, that it will never more be heard of in this government.

Grant wants to "kick out" Bristow, because he is the only honest man in his cabinet. Grant dislikes honesty either in himself or others.— He and his cabinet have effectually killed the Republican party.

The Peabody School Fund. We learn through Mr. R. A. Bowen, School Commissioner, that the application for aid from the "Peabody Educational Fund" for the school located at "Nine Times," Pickens County, has failed. Dr. Sears, the "President of the Peabody Education Fund," has informed Mr. Jilison, State Superintendent, that the amount of fund, that can be given to South Carolina, has already been exhausted; and therefore, no aid can be extended either to this school or any other new application in this State.

The conditions upon which aid can be obtained from the "Peabody Educational Fund" are so numerous and rigid that but few communities, in our sparsely settled country, can avail themselves of it. When cities fail to secure aid thinly populated country places can scarcely hope to do so.

Greenville tried a few years ago to keep up such a school; but the conditions necessary to obtain aid, grow harder and harder from year to year, and she, therefore, abandoned it. The conditions necessary to obtain aid are too rigid for the South; and, as a consequence, most of this fund of Mr. Peabody, goes to the education of the most populous States, such as the Eastern, Middle, and Western. We regret that the good people of Eastatoe have failed in this noble enterprise. We hope, however, that they will continue, even by their own unaided efforts, to roll the ball that, they have so laudably commenced to move.

Marsh and his wife, the chief witness against Belknap, on learning that they would be punished equally with the Secretary, fled to Canada for refuge; but, on being promised immunity from punishment, have returned to give testimony before the Congressional Investigation Committees. It is better for one man and his wife to go unpunished than that the chief sinner escape and the nation suffer thereby.

General Grant, after the disgrace of Scherck, minister to England, appointed Mr. Dana to the court of St. James, but "Beast" Butler, who, also, is a Massachusetts' man, feeling himself slighted by the appointment of Mr. Dana, has brought against him the charge of literary piracy, and the Senate has refused to confirm the appointment, and the President will have to look out for some one else; he need not get disheartened, for the Republican camp it seems, has a host of spotless angels. We now hear Mr. Longfellow spoken of in this connection.

He that is not with us is against us, and not to unite with the Democracy is to be a Republican in fact and in truth.

The deeper the Democratic Investigating Committees dig the more fraud they unearth. A few days ago Mr. Barlow, the head of a firm of mail contractors, testified that in 1872, when a Republican Congressional Committee was investigating the mail routes, he paid a Washington lawyer named Farrer forty thousand dollars with the understanding that no inquiries should be made about his routes. "He didn't know and he didn't want to know" what was done with the money; but he did know that the Congressional Committee didn't interfere with or inquire into his contracts.

A joint resolution was passed in Congress, authorizing the Secretary of War to issue to the Washington Light Infantry of Charleston, S. C., and the Clinch Rifles of Augusta, Ga., three hundred and twenty improved breech loading rifles; to fully arm and equip said organizations to participate in and form a part of the Centennial Legion of the original thirteen States of the Union, which Legion has been designated to appear and participate in the International Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia.

The woman in the case against Mr. Pendleton is "Mrs. General" Roddy, a prostitute who was recently before a New York police court for blackmailing or stealing, or both.

There will be no postal cards after the first, unless Jewell gets $685,000 special appropriation.

THE CHARLESTON FIRE.—The boundaries of the burnt district are: on the South, Columbus street and Rogers alley, on the north the race course, on the east, South Carolina railroad, and on the west, St. Philip and Perry streets.

Resolutions of the Centennial Committee of the Twelve Mile River Association.

At the last meeting of the Committee, Elder W. B. Singleton, the Chairman being present, and J. C. Hudson acting Secretary in the absence of G. W. Taylor, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, the Centennial Committee of Baptist Convention of South Carolina, has charged us with the Centennial work in the Twelve Mile River Association. Therefore, resolved—

1. That we request pastors and active brethren and sisters to aid us in circulating such books as will give our people a better knowledge of Baptist history, and a more correct idea of Baptist principles; particularly that blood-bought principle of religious liberty secured by the Baptists of one hundred years ago.

2. That we ask our pastors to preach a Centennial sermon, or a Baptist memorial sermon at every church during the month of April, or as soon as prepared. We suggest Heb. 10, 32 as an appropriate text: "But call to remembrance the former days." However, such passages of Scripture as set forth religious liberty may be read, and the people addressed without using any particular text.

3. That we urge the following named brethren to visit as many churches as possible, and attend other meetings as they may have opportunity, and make Centennial speeches or preach sermons, D. H. Kenmore, T. W. Tolleson, G. W. Taylor, J. T. Lewis and W. G. Field.

4. That we recommend a Centennial mass meeting, and request Elder W. C. Lindsay to be with us on the 5th Sunday in April. By invitation of the pastor, brother W. B. Singleton, we appoint a mass meeting to be held with the Secona Baptist Church, one mile from Pickens C. H., on Saturday and Sunday, April 29th and 30th. We hope that all working members of our Association, and all pastors who are preaching to our churches, will be present to take part in this discussion, and hear the speeches and sermons, as follows:

Saturday, from 10 to 12. Civil and Religious Liberty. Discussion to be opened by W. C. Lindsay or J. C. Hudson.

Saturday, from 1 to 3. Religious Liberty and the Baptists. Discussion opened by G. W. Taylor.

Sunday, from 10 to 11—Sunday School Centennial Mass Meeting, with speaking and singing.

Sunday, from 11 to 1—Baptist Memorial Sermon, by W. C. Lindsay.

Sunday, from 2 to 3—Centennial Sermon by some one appointed by the committee at that meeting.

In due respect to the ladies, we have left an hour each day to be devoted to them, and doubtless they will offer an entertainment that will attract general attention.

5. That we respectfully ask the PICKENS SENTINEL and the Working Christian to publish these resolutions.

W. B. Singleton, Chairman; G. W. Singleton, E. H. Barton, O. H. C. Smith, G. W. Taylor, Secretary; J. C. Hudson, acting Secretary.

GUILTY.—The Senate has found Judge Montgomery Moses guilty of five of the nine charges proffered against him by the House, and he has been dismissed from office. He was only a dead cock in the Radical pit, and they have simply dragged him out.

It is Found at Last!

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.—A new era is dawning upon the life of woman. Hitherto she has been called upon to suffer the ills of mankind and her own besides.— The frequent and distressing irregularities peculiar to her sex have long been to her the "direful spring of woes unnumbered."— In the mansion of the rich and in the hovel of poverty alike woman has been the constant yet patient victim of a thousand ills unknown to man—and these without a remedy. "Oh Lord, how long!" in the agony of her soul, hath she cried. But now the hour of her redemption is come. She will suffer no more, for Dr. J. Bradford's Female Regulator—Woman's Best Friend—is for sale by all respectable Druggists throughout the land at $1.50 per bottle. In another column of this newspaper will be found some interesting particulars concerning the Female Regulator and other information highly important to woman.

Near Marietta, Ga. March 21, 1870. Messrs. Wm. Root & Sons:—About one year ago I bought a bottle of Bradford's Female Regulator from you, for one of my daughters who had been suffering with suppressed menses for some time. I have had several physicians attending, but met with no success until I was persuaded to buy a bottle of the Regulator, and it is the very thing for which it is recommended. She is now in perfect health. I hope all suffering females will at least try one bottle and have health again. Very respectfully, D. DOBBINS. March 9, 1876 27 4
