WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND.

It is well known to physicians, and alast too well known to suffering women themselves, that they are subject to numerous diseases peculiar to their sex such as suppression of the Menses, paintal and scanty Menstruction, Congestion, Ulceration and Falling of the Womb, attended with an endless train of sympathetic and constitutional disor, ders, which embitters the whole life, and which have long been considered as almost incurable. But at 182t the remedy has been rounded.

Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator. It is not a "cure-all," but a remedy for one class of diseases, all of which pertain to the Wown.

Any sufferer from the diseases mentioned can take this temporary, and thus relieve herself without revealing her condition to any one, and without subjecting her womanly modesty to the shock of an examination by a physician.

To bring health and happiness to the home, of suffering women is a mission before which royal favor sinks into insignificance. What earthly bedeation can compare with one which protects from "That dire disease whose ruthless power "Withers beauty's trancient flower?" which gives ease, for pain 'doy for norrow, smilest for tears, the rose of health for the pallor of disease, the light, clastic step for dragging weariness, nights of soft repose for heavy hours of tossing restlessness, bounding 'vigor, for languishing dulhess, the sweet line of full grown brenty for the sharp and withered form of emaciation, a long life of mental physical, social and domestic enjoyments for a few sad days of pain and gloom, ending in an early grave? Such is this mission, such are the keaults of Dr. J.
