The lion law was not repealed.

Be sure to read McFall's Almanac for January.

We trust you feel better since the holidays.

Miss Nannie Cox spent the holidays in Spartanburg.

We have the usual paragraphs of holiday mishaps.

Read the new laws published on the first and fourth pages.

Let everyone strike from the shoulder for success in the new year.

Miss Lucie Ellis has returned to Wilkesboro Female College.

Miss Laura Ellis began a nine months school at Columbia last Monday.

Be careful or you will write 1886, when you wish to write 1887.

It is said that the Commutation Road Law has been repealed.

Mr. Sheriff Brown has been appointed a Commissioner for this County.

Mr. T. H. Boggs has moved to Central where he is running a saw mill.

Health knows nothing of human distinction, and abides with him who treats best.

Mr. N. B. Cary of the Walhalla Bar was in town last Monday on professional business.

Read the SENTINEL and find out what the Legislature has done and what it has not done.

"What would it ever heal but by grief?" The thousand cases daily cured by Salvation Oil.

Mr. C. P. Barrett of Spartanburg made a business and pleasure trip to Pickens during the holidays.

We can recommend our readers to use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in all cases of coughs, colds, etc.

The heaviest frost that was ever seen in this section whitened all nature on the morning of the 27th ult.

The attention of parties desiring to borrow money is called to the advertisement of John B. Palmer & Son.

Miss Susie Ambler after a short and pleasant visit to Pickens has returned to the Greenville Female College.

Mr. Elsie Hill was married to a daughter of Mr. L. A. Brown last week. The officer did not send in the data.

Married December 9th 1886, by Rev. Chapman, Mr. Joe T. Elgin of Seneca, to Miss Nancy Missouri Riggins all of Pickens.

The Texas Tribune says:—"The late atmospheric freshness has brought on many cases of cough, and cold, and Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is in great demand."

A farmer, planter or lumberman is allowed to furnish his hands tobacco in an amount not exceeding one hundred dollars, without being liable to the payment of the special tax.

There was a large crowd at Shady Grove last Thursday, a most sumptuous dinner was served, and several good Sabbath School addresses were made. Every body seemed to have a good time.

Mr. James Anthony had his left arm dislocated at the shoulder joint on the 25th ult. He and his wife were starting on a visit in a toy buggy when it was accidentally up-ask. Mrs. Anthony was not hurt.

Mr. S. S. Carter was recently before Commissioner Thornley on a charge of retailing manufactured tobacco. He gave bond for his appearance at court. He had sold some homemade twisted tobacco to one or two of his neighbors.

Messrs Mc Fern, Shalleross & Co. of Louisville Ky. sent us a beautiful Xmas card, with the words Magnolia Hams inscribed on the north west corner. How much more would we have appreciated one of the many delicious hams sent out by this world renowned firm.

Most of those who are tending lands of Col. C. L. Hollingsworth have arranged to see who will have the premium acre in wheat for the year 1887. No commercial fertilizer was to be used. Whoever makes the most on one acre is to have all he makes. We expect to hear next June of some good yields as the result of this arrangement.

The tournament at Liberty on the 25th was quite a success. The first prize was won by Mr. John Nichols, the second was won by Mr. D. J. Tucker, of Anderson, the third by Mr. W. D. Glenn, of Liberty, and fourth by Mr. C. W. Smith, of Shalton. Mr. Nichols crowned Miss Dora Folger queen of love and beauty, and Misses Emma Allgood, Carrie Grace and Essie Russell received the distinction of maids of honor. The hope which concluded the fun were much enjoyed.

The Christmas Tree in the Institute Hall on the evening of the 24th was a splendid success. It has never been our good fortune to see so many little children glow with happiness and wild delight. The spacious hall was crowded before seven o'clock. When the curtain in front of the rostrum was suddenly drawn aside, the little folks were almost overcome with admiration and wonder by the dazzling presents. Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus were personated by Capt. J. J. Lewis and Mr. A. S. Lesley in a most admirable way. With their acting and comic distribution of the many gifts, more fun for Pickens was never crowded into one hour. This day should never be allowed to pass without a Christmas

Last Sunday night was the coldest yet.

Miss Annie May Griffin spent the holidays in Greenville.

The Methodist Sabbath School will hereafter meet in the morning, instead of in the afternoon.

The dinner given by the ladies at Liberty on the 25th ult., for the benefit of the church, was quite a success.

Married on Nov. 14th, by Rev. W. C. Seaborn, of Oconee, Mr. Franklin Pool to Miss Mary Hollis, both of Pickens.

The office should seek the man, but these times demand that the successful man should be where the office can find him.

Mother the ladies are all out in Spring dresses and I can't wear mine for fear of neuralgia, I can't, child, go, and buy a bottle of Salvation Oil.

Our former highly esteemed "devil," N. C. Madden, was with us a few days before Xmas. He is going to make a good compositor.

To all whom it may concern; It takes an agreement in writing to give the land a lien for supplies. The law gives a lien for rent without any writing.

Dr. John Bramlett who is attending lectures at the Atlanta Medical College spent a part of his holidays with his brother Dr. W. J. Bramlett.

Married, at the bride's home, December 23rd 1886, by Rev. S. A. Gary, Mr. C. E. Day to Miss I. N. Roe, eldest daughter of Carter Roe, all of Pickens County.

It is amusing to see the indifference with which a man will regard a public attack on an opinion which he has not accepted, and the excitement he will manifest when some cherished notion of his own is assailed.

In thinking of the weakness of humanity, be thankful for the circumstances which have favored you, pity those who have not been thus favored, and be careful of your censure.

The News of the 2d instant says two men from Pickens County named Calloway and Hinckle, were arrested near Piedmont on Saturday in the act of selling whiskey.

Married on the 26th of December 1886, by Rev. S. A. Gary, at his own residence, Mr. M. M. Christopher to Miss M. A. Entrieken, both of Pickens County.

On the 22d ult. the General Assembly made Col. J. J. Norton Judge of the Eighth Circuit. We congratulate Occanee especially and the Circuit generally.

Dr. John I. Hollingsworth, who left some time since for Florida, met with the misfortune of losing one of his horses by death at Valdosta, Ga. His many friends will be glad to know that his health is improving.

Married, on Sunday the 19th of December 1886, Mr. Benjamin F. Masters of Pickens County, to Miss Ella Evans of Greenville County, Matthew Gillespie Trial Justice officiating.

Mr. Joseph Moody was before Commissioner Thornley last Monday on a charge of retailing. Samuel Hendricks on a charge of distilling and removing was held for court. Mr. O. P. Galloway on the same charge was dismissed.

There is nothing to get excited about and quarrel over in an opinion, any more than in a potato, if it do not happen to belong to us.

Married, December 26th, by Rev. J. T. Burdine, at the Residence of Mr. Thomas Reeves, Mr. W. B. Youngblood to Miss Harriet Chapman, all of Pickens.

On our second page to day will be found a striking and instructive illustration of the various kinds of baking powders now in the market.

On the 24th ult. in a difficulty between Thomas Julian and Tinch Hendricks, the latter was severely cut in seven places in the back. His wounds were dressed by Dr. Crenshaw, and at last accounts he was improving.

Married, December 12th 1886, at the residence of J. M. Fortner, by W. N. Hughes, Notary Public, Mr. David Hendricks to Miss Minnie Holder, both of Pickens County.

On the 22nd the prayer meeting was conducted by Mr. W. K. Boggs, Rev. H. McLees was present and gave a most interesting talk. Brother McLees has many entertaining reminiscences to tell in connection with his term of office as agent for the American Bible Society in the Mountains of North Carolina. We are always glad to hear him. He never fails to tell us some important truth we never knew before. He is at the same time a learned scientist and a sound theologian.

Dr. L. G. Clayton of Central has a pair of well trained Texas ponies. It strikes us that he hit upon the easiest and safest plan for breaking these wild animals. The one of his which was not trained, he had worked with in a mild way, until it was thoroughly tamed, before he would allow it to be hurt, so when he did undertake to drive it there was little if any trouble. This is the best plan for teaching any animal to work—take it first.

A GOOD YIELD.—Several of my friends have requested me to state how much cotton I made on my lot. The best way I know is through the SENTINEL. I picked 1587 pounds of seed cotton off the lot. There is one acre and a half, and it made 1250 pounds, which amounted to 2857 pounds, which sold at market for $75.45. Who can beat that and not use any guano, and work in the shop

A happy and prosperous new year to all the readers of the SENTINEL.

The young folks in town had many sociables during the holidays, which were much enjoyed.

Mr. A. B. Williams of the Greenville Daily News, and Mr. W. J. McKerrall of the Marion Star and Cotton Plant have formed a co-partnership at Greenville for the publication of the Daily and Weekly News, the Cotton Plant and for doing all kinds of job printing. This makes a strong and most reliable firm, and we bespeak for it a most liberal patronage. Any one wanting the best agricultural paper in the South should subscribe for the Cotton Plant.

FIRE AT CENTRAL.—On the night of the 30th ult. fire broke out in the store house of Mr. James Peak about 2 o'clock in the morning. Both of Mr. Peak's store houses—one single story, the other two stories—were destroyed with their contents. Mr. Rowland's store house and shoe shop, and both of Mr. L. Ross Eaton's store houses were also destroyed. Most of the goods were removed from the last mentioned buildings. It is thought the parties were all insured. The general belief is that it was caused by an accident, but some circumstances point to an incendiary.

GRAND AND PETIT JURORS.—The following is a list of the Grand Jury drawn by the Jury Commissioner to serve for the present year; also Petit Jurors for the approaching term of Court, which convenes next Monday week, Judge Frazier presiding.

GRAND JURORS.—John L. Looper, Wm. G. Cooley, W. T. Bowen, Tyler H. Moore, Wm. H. Reid, Wm. F. Johnson, Mark F. Williams, Samuel S. Edens, Nathaniel A. Keith, B. D. Mandlin, Silas O. Arnold, James R. Harris, Silas F. Robinson, Joseph B. Finley, James G. Freeman, W. B. F. Taylor, George W. Griffin, Wm. D. Glenn.

PETIT JURORS.—George W. Cox, Tillman Smith, Henry W. Farr, Charles A. Dunwoody, W. S. Kennemore, Joseph L. Stansell, George M. Maddox, Abner D. Chastain, Wm. L. Parrott, Wilson C. Morgan, John T. Hitt, W. H. McDaniel, Carter Roe, F. L. Garvin, A. P. Alexander, Smith W. Bowen, Z. T. Jones, Jesse A. Childress, A. W. Brock, Thomas A. Hendricks, George W. Lay, Wm. F. Smith, B. F. Lesley, Jesse R. The case of McAdams vs. Hunt was settled before sale.

In the case of Brazzale vs. Collins, 40 acres was sold to Jacob and John Collins for $900.00.

In the case of Clement vs. Gossett 19 acres was sold to M. F. Williams for $300.00.

An "Ideal" Edition of Longfellow's Poems.

The expiration of copyright is fast bringing into really popular circulation the works of some of the most celebrated American authors, whose writings the high cost of monopoly has kept within the hands of a few. ALDEN, the Literary Revolution publisher, has recently brought out a number of the best books by Hawthorne, Prescott, Emerson, Poe, Cooper and others. He has now just published a very pretty edition of Longfellow's Poems so far as copyright has expired. It is in the form which he is making famous as the Ideal Edition—beautiful enough to be worthy of the name—the type being large Long Primer, the printing and binding (cloth) in excellent taste. People who have been used to buying Longfellow might suppose the price of the handsome volume to be a dollar or more—instead of which ALDEN asks only 25 cents for it. Postage, extra, if by mail. ALDEN's last catalogue, 64 small quarto pages, which he sends free to anyone (his publications are not sold by Book-sellers, but direct only), is a veritable literary wonder in its attractions. ADDRESS JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, New York or Chicago.

The Golden Days, published by James Elverson, Philadelphia, Pa. for 33.00 per annum, is one of the most entertaining and best papers for children and young people, we have ever seen. Is beautifully illustrated and well worth the money.

A Surprise for Christmas.

The publishers of that bright and interesting Magazine, known as THE HOME JOURNAL, will actually send it for three months on trial free, as a Holiday Gift, to every one sending them at once their address and three-cent stamps for postage, etc. As the regular price of this publication is $1.00, every reader should grasp this golden opportunity, and address immediately

A WONDERFUL BOOK OF SONG.

THE POEMS OF FATHER RYAN,

THE FAMOUS POET PRIEST OF THE SOUTH.

The amended and enriched edition. Ringing lyrics of the War. Battle songs which fired the South and compelled the administration of the Free.

Complete in one volume, 433 pages, beautifully illustrated. The engravings include a steel portrait of the author; his old Church and adjoining Residence in Mobile; "Erin's Flag;" and the "Conquered Banner."

The Book will be sent to any address on receipt of price, $2.00.

BALTIMORE PUBLISHING CO., 174 W. Baltimore St., Baltimore, Md.

N. B.—One-half the profits accruing from the sale of this volume of poems from date to 1st of March will be devoted to the fund for the erection of a Monument to Father Ryan, to be placed over his grave in Mobile. Help on the work and swell the fund by purchasing a copy of the book.

Send to the publishers in every town, village and parish to act as agents for the sale of this book. Liberal pay will be given for services rendered. Send for descriptive circulars.
