

PICKENS SENTINEL

J. E. ROGGS, Proprietor. Entered at Pickens Postoffice as Second Class Matter.

THURSDAY, JULY 28, 1893.

TO A PATRIOT. We do not care to repeat what we have heretofore said of Governor Tillman...

Our fight is not against the people, but against the selfish demagogues. We have never been more certain than we are now that the people of this State are entitled to a government of their own...

It is a well known fact that the people of this State are entitled to a government of their own. We have never been more certain than we are now that the people of this State are entitled to a government of their own...

administration except to make appropriations to help carry on the work and equip the college, and they almost failed to appropriate anything last year...

Now, indeed, if Governor Tillman and his followers would only consent to the suggestion of the people, the characteristics of our Lord Jesus Christ would today be a happy, prosperous and contented people...

military, judicial, legislative, and executive of the State, in Benjamin R. Tillman and his successor chosen by him, (with the right to also choose his successor indefinitely)...

The Government of the State would be greatly simplified and the expenses immensely reduced. The "rebate" on whiskey purchases would amply pay the Governor's salary...
