

LAW OF THE STATE.

Acts and Joint Resolutions, Passed by the General Assembly of South Carolina, Session of 1870-71.

[OFFICIAL]

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE CAMDEN STEAM MILL COMPANY.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of South Carolina, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same:

That Colin Maer, A. J. Freitag and Walter F. Reed, and their associates and successors, are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name of the Camden Steam Mill Company, with power to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, in all the courts of law and equity, to enjoy all the privileges incident to corporations, and may purchase, hold and convey real and personal estate to an amount not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars.

SECTION 2. The business of said company shall be grinding grain, ginning cotton, hulling and pressing cotton seed, or any other similar mechanical or industrial pursuit they may choose to embark in the Town of Camden, South Carolina. The books for subscription to the capital stock of said company shall be opened by the above named persons in Camden as soon as convenient after the granting of this charter, in shares of twenty-five dollars each. Said corporation may have and use a common seal, which they may alter at pleasure.

SECTION 3. The shares shall be deemed personal property, and be transferred only on the books of said company, in such form as the directors may prescribe. The said company shall, at all times, have a lien on all the stock or property of the members of said corporation in vested therein for all debts due from them to said corporation. And no transfer of script or stock shall be valid until such debt, if any, shall be discharged; and said corporation may organize, go into operation and commence business whenever, and as soon as five thousand dollars to said stock shall be subscribed for, and five dollars per share of the same paid into the treasury of the said company in cash, and a certificate signed by the president and secretary of said company, under oath, setting forth said subscription and payment, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of State.

SECTION 4. The stock, property and affairs of said corporation shall be managed by a board of directors, not less than three, nor more than five, one of whom shall be chosen by them president, and all of whom shall hold their offices for one year, and until others are chosen; and said directors shall be annually elected at such times and places as the by-laws of said corporation shall prescribe. A majority of said directors shall in all cases constitute a board for the transaction of business, and a majority of the stockholders, at any legal meeting, shall be capable of transacting the business of said corporation, each share entitling the owner thereof to one vote which may be given in person or lawful proxy. The first meeting of said corporation hereby formed may be called by a majority of the persons named in the first section of this act, at such time and place, and upon giving such notice thereof, as they shall deem reasonable and proper.

SECTION 5. The president and directors, or a majority of them, for the time being, shall have power to fill any vacancy which may happen by death, resignation or otherwise for the current year, or appoint a secretary and treasurer and such other officers as may be necessary, and may require the treasurer and other officers to give bonds for the faithful discharge of their trust and duty as the said directors may deem proper, and also to make and establish such by-laws, rules and regulations as they shall deem expedient for the management of the affairs of said corporation, and the same to alter and amend: Provided, That the same be not inconsistent with the laws of this State or of the United States.

SECTION 6. The books of said corporation containing their accounts, shall, at all reasonable times, be open for the inspection of any of the stockholders of said corporation; and annual statements of the accounts of said corporation shall be made and submitted to the annual meeting of the stockholders. The directors may call in the subscription to the capital stock by instalments, in such proportion, and at such times and places as they may deem proper, giving due notice thereof, under such regulations and conditions as they may prescribe.

SECTION 7. The said corporation shall, within thirty days of each annual meeting of the stockholders, lodge a certificate with the Secretary of State, setting forth the amount of capital stock of said company actually paid in, and the amount of the liabilities of the said corporation, which certificate shall be signed by the president and secretary of said company, and certified to be in force for twenty years.

Approved March 7, 1871.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of foaming the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous, and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.
