Here Solway spreads its sheet of blue, And Lomond's wave in beauty lies ; And Bracklin's torrent thunders through,
Where shadowy forests rise;
Here peaceful lakes are sleeping in the sun,
And rivers through the glens, tike threads

Here patriots lived, and dared to die, Ay, die, they could not live as slaves, And now, beneath the arching sky, A nation venerates their graves; And ages yet to come shall proudly tell Where Bruce so bravely fought, and noble Sportsman's Goods of Wallace fell.

And here the Covenanters stood And died upon the soil they trod

For what they deeemed their country's good
And for the cause of God;
Here in deep caves and in lone vale and glen
They lived as martyrs live, and died as Chris-

And here have poets sweetly sung, The softest strains of Scottish song; Here was King James's wild barp strung, And his rare music borne along; While Michael Bruce and Allan Ramsay, still Live in those ancient songs that ring o'er lake

And Burns-ay, Burns, whose touching notes Are now on every nation's tongue, Where'er the voice of music floats, Or "Auld Lang Syne" is sung; Here breathed sweet Nature's bard such words

A moment's calm consideration will convince any rational person of the impropriety of this custom, which is inexcusable, irrational, vulgar and pro-IT IS INEXCUSABLE.

There is less temptation to this vice than to any other. Some vices are excused by calling them constitutional, but as Archbishop Tillison observes, "no man is born with a swearing constitution" It cannot procure credit to an assertion; because it is oftener used to confirm a rash or doubtful saying wholesale DEPARTENT was than a plain truth. The man who swears seems to doubt his own veracity, and well may others suspect it; for can we believe he will be true to man who is false to God; besides the custom of swearing to truths may insensibly lead a man to swear to falsehoods. Person addicted to this practice scarcely know Planters and Merchants. It us for any books published in America, they will be charged only the price of the book. We pay for the Pestage or express. reproved for it, had sworn that they DUNDEE BAGGING, TIES, did not swear.

IT IS IRRATIONAL

What greater proof of stupid ignorance can be given than to use words without meaning. You call upon God shocking to repeat) to damn your eyes. your blood, your soul; but have you considered what damnation is? It is a word of dreadful meaning; it is to be pronounced accursed of God in the day of judgment. It is to have the word, "Depart from me ye cursed into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels," but ORDERS receive faithful and prompt attention. surely you do not mean this.

IT IS VULGAR.

That some gentlemen swear is too true, but it can never be deemed the mark of a gentleman; for it is a vice common to the vilest characters in the lowest ranks of society. It produces the most disgraceful equality--it puts the honored, the learned, the polished and the delicate upon a level with the most ignorant and depraved. It is profane.

"My son," said a man of doubtful morals, putting his hand on the head of a young urchin, "I believe Satan has got hold of you." "I believe so too," was the reply.

required by every body as a cathartic nor was ever any be fore so universall adopted into use, i adopted into use, in every country at 1 among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative PUL. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not know that it cures their neighbors and friends;

Inown in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel nor any deletarious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar-coating preserves them ever fresh, and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscers to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Myspepein or Indigestion, Listlessmes, Languer and Lees of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Sick and Billious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which canne it. "POLICY HOLDERS' LIFE AND TONTINE,"
