Interesting Lecture.

Rev. J. B. HARTWELL, a. China Missionary, entertained a large and intelligent congregation at the Baptist Church, on Sunday evening last, for an our or more. His sketch of Chinese character, worship, faith, forms, ceremonies, &c., was deeply interesting, and his familiarity with these, and with the general Literature of the teeming Celestial Empire, seemed a sustaining proof of his assumption that the Chinese are an ignorant and illiterate people. In this respect. Mr. HARTWELL expressed ime to time made in the religious and
