

SO LIKE A WOMAN.

"Do you love her, uncle?" "I am too old to indulge in the luxury of rhapsodies," he said with a laugh, "but I'll tell you this, Theo, I am very fond of the girl, and very well satisfied that you'll approve of my choice."

after a short time, and so he sauntered out into the garden, and Theo and Madge were alone. Her spirit rose with her sense of danger, as does that of all finely organized natures, and she turned to him bright and brave at once, though he had grown to be very dear to her, and though she knew that he was suffering horribly on her account.

Very earnestly and gently he spoke, beseeching her to open all her heart to him, and to tell him if any other image had ever displaced his. And Madge listened to him thoughtfully, and analyzed her own emotions, and finally answered him.
