

The Markets.

UNION, Oct. 27.—Our cotton market has been more active the past week than has been known in one week, for many years. The sales last Friday were larger than ever known before in one day. Our market maintains the very highest figures, as follow:

Friday, Oct. 24 10.05 @ 10.10
Saturday, " 25 10.10 @ 10.15
Monday, " 27 10.20 @ 10.25
Tuesday, " 28 10.25 @ 10.30
Wednesday, " 29 10.30 @ 10.35
Thursday, Oct. 30 (noon) 10.35 @ 10.40
Sales for the week, 1,040.
COLUMBIA, Oct. 28.—Cotton market weak. Middling, 10.40 @ 10.45. Receipts 278 bales. Sales 278.
COLUMBIA, Oct. 28.—Cotton dull—middling 10.35 low middling 10.25; good ordinary 10.15; sales 1,000; stock 63,688.
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Cotton quiet sales 315 bales—middling uplands 10.45; middling Orleans 11.35. Futures closed steady.
LIVERPOOL, Oct. 28.—Cotton quiet and nominal, spinners holding off—middling uplands 7 1/2; middling Orleans 7 1/2; futures dull and steady.

WHAT IS THE MATTER?—Why so pale, so languid? Are you sick? Evidently, your liver is not doing its duty. You cannot live in comfort or peace until you are relieved. Go to the nearest drug store and buy a box of Dr. Gilmer's Liver Pills. A few doses will restore you to perfect health, and give a rosy tint to your cheeks.

A LESSON FOR HUSBANDS.—It may be that your wife is not a good cook, or that she is a careless housekeeper. But if true, be assured the fault is yours if you have never furnished her with that admirable and practical little monthly, The Housekeeper, published at Minneapolis, Minn., at 75 cents a year. Write for sample copies which are sent free, and our word for it, your wife will have a half dozen pair of hands and a week's help, earned as premiums for clubs of new subscribers before New Year's. The Magazine itself is a treasure, and one copy is worth ten times the cost of the postal card it takes to ask for it. Address,
HOUSEKEEPER,
Minneapolis, Minn. 42-14

A LUCKY WOMAN.—The Publishers of "The Housekeeper" are bent on the general introduction of that helpful and beautiful household monthly and they make some extraordinary offers in their premium list—gloves, ties, napkins, table cloths and spreads, tidies, silver thimbles, and a variety of articles ladies like. But the most liberal offer is this: They will send The Housekeeper one year free, that is to January 1st, 1881, for the First Lady from any postoffice, who encloses 25 cents in postage stamps, which barely covers the cost of postage and mailing. Any lady who sends and fails to be first will receive the Monthly four months, or her money back as she directs. The regular subscription price of the monthly is 75 cents a year and cheap at that. Sample copies with full particulars, free. Address,
THE HOUSEKEEPER,
Minneapolis, Minn. 14

Cooking and Heating Stoves.

THERE is no school like experience, no stimulus like success; and for long and continued efforts to lighten and lessen the labors of the household, shorten the time and reduce the cost of cooking, there has been given no greater evidence of the fact than the number of Stoves sold by me in the past year, resulting in part from the popularity of the Stoves on hand and to arrive, which are unrivaled in appearance, unequalled in operation, unsurpassed in efficiency and unexcelled in economy of fuel.
