HOYT AND POPE.

THE CHAIRMAN OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE IN DEFENCE.

Dr. Sampson Pope's Charge Against its Action—The Case examined as it stands and presented to the public.

The following correspondence between Col. James A. Hoyt, chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, and Dr. Sampson Pope, of Newberry, S. C., explains itself.

GREENVILLE, S. C., July 17, 1890. Dr. Sampson Pope, Newberry, S. C.

Dear Sir:—In the proceedings of the Democratic County Convention of Newberry County, I find the following statement in the preamble and resolutions introduced by you: "Said Executive Committee did meet, and by a vote of thirteen to one did refuse to give us a State primary."

GREENVILLE, S. C., July 14, 1890. Dr. Sampson Pope, Newberry, S. C. Dear Sir: Your favor of the 8th inst. has been received, and answer delayed by my absence from home.

NEWBERRY, S. C., July 16, 1890. Dear Sir: Your letter of the 14th was received, and in reply I have this to say: Mr. Gonzales obtained information from some member of your committee upon which he based his letters of the 9th and 10th of May to the News and Courier.

While trying to stop a fight at Bakersville, N. C., on Friday, Stokes Burlington, a prominent citizen, was stabbed to death by Mitchell Green, a notorious rough. Green is in jail and may be lynched.

THE SOLDIER WAS A FATHER.

A Romantic and Thrilling Story of the Civil War—How a Letter From Home Caused a Desertion.

(From the Baltimore Sun.) NEW YORK, July 23.—There was buried at Greenwood yesterday a man with a curious history. He had been a Confederate soldier, as brave as any of his comrades, but he deserted his army during the war and was tried by court-martial for doing so.

GREENVILLE, S. C., July 17, 1890. Dr. Sampson Pope, Newberry, S. C. Dear Sir: I am just in receipt of your favor of the 16th inst. I regret that you did not see proper to inform yourself as to the facts before introducing the resolutions into the County Convention.

Effect of the Lodge Bill—The Measure, if Enacted and Enforced, Will Cause Trouble in the South.

NEW YORK, July 24.—When asked for his views of the probable effect on the industries of the South of the passage of the Lodge bill, General Roger A. Pryor said: My opinion is that the enforcement of the bill, if enacted, will inevitably provoke collisions of violence in the Southern States, and consequently capital will be withdrawn from the South, or at all events will no longer be sent thither.
