from the pen of our esteemed correspondent, DAISY DALE." We promise our readers quite a literary treat, which we know they will appreciate and enjoy.

Rev. A. F. Dickson.

Our Village is about to suffer a loss in the departure of this esteemed and accomplished Clergyman from our midst. Having been for many years, the pastor of the Presbyterian Church, he has been no less endeared to his charge by his faithful ministration of holy things, than esteemed and respected in the community as a preacher of ability, and a scholar of fine attainments.

He leaves us next week, in acceptance of a call to supply the pulpit of the Fourth Presbyterian Church in New Orleans . His farewell sermon will be preached at the Presbyterian Church in this place, to-morrow morning, at 11 o'chick.

Light (?) Artillery.

A fine Yam Pototo, from the plantation of Mr. Saunel T. Izlar, can be seen at our office. A fine projectile for a piece of artillery, as it is a six pounder; and we have calculated its range,-the Cooking Range.

THE COTTON TAX .- We make the following extract from the Columbia Phonic:

The Comptroller General of the State has instructed tax officers to include in their quarterly assessments all cotton purchased and sold by morehants, factors, brokers, bankers, or other persons buying or shipping on commission of the State has instructed tax officers to include in their quarterly assessments all cotton purchased and sold by lands of Oliveros, J. ### Report of the Charleston Cotton Market

For the Week ending November 19. Reported for the Orangeburg News by W. WALTON SMITH, COTTON FACTOR.

There has been little or no change in our market during the past week, except that holders were more willing to meet the views of buyers, and more has been done. The sales of the week foot up some 8800 bales. We quote:
