ket for the Week Ending Jan. 23.

Reported for the Orangeburg News by

W. WALTON SMITH, COTTON FACTOR.

On Friday the first day of the week now under review, with a good demand and light stock, prices improved from 10 to 15¢ on our quotations of last week. The demand on Saturday was active with a further improvement of about 10¢. On Monday the market was very firm, prices continuing to improve to the extent of 10¢. On Tuesday the market was depressed under unfavorable news from abroad, and prices declined 10¢. On Wednesday the market opened weak, and sales were made at a price of 10¢, but closed higher. There was a fair enquiry on Thursday with prices in favor of holders.
The sales for the week foot up some 4,500 bales. We trust

the following quotations:

Carolina, 11
Spartina, 12
Deerfield, 13
