By streeting him and enging him,
As If the man was same.

And of a wretched wind bug,

Waxo given him the importance and det

Of which he was so fain, And contrived, like brother asseful

odt spredssil et flettisk trote ten Foundhimmatter for dispatelien geze d

Claims, puff, and bounes insane,

SELECTED STORY.

The Mistaken Mother.

ALLS WELL THAT ENDS WELL.

Act well your part, there all the honor lies."

dy Say what you will. Mrs. Lincoln, any

"Well, they do say," replied Mrs. Lincoln, allowed frankly to differ with you. True,

the less entitled to be considered of the first

Mrs. Otis; "you'll never make me believe a mechanic is a gentleman, in the true acceptation of the term. There may be some who are pear tolerably respectable when thrown into good company, but there is something, to my

I can never consent to any arrangement that would lead to introduce them into the first society. Least of all, shall any, with my permission, ever salute me as his mother in-law.

"It doubtless appears so to you, Mrs. Otis;

You cannot have examided it in the true light.

and reflected properly upon it. Pray, whom do you consider as the only persons who should

"Why, professional men, of course, such as lawyers, doctors, ministers, &c., as well as particular employment. I do not wish to be understood as saying that mechanics, farmers compose what you call the first society?"

society, for being a mechanic."

who is not her equal, at least in rank."

And loose exemision Train.

Thon's skin for Train,

In short, like willing stokers

Have got up steam for Train.

Clap oblicion's stopper on him,

And g'or his Ercless vein Put the kindly seal of silence—

And so upset this Train.

occupation in life. External accomplishments. either with or without wealth, should never surveres a passport to a polluted heart, into the me the door by Mrs. Lincoin, who had volun- Randolph intended no personality, and therebosom of respectable society. While honest industry, should ever be recognized with a to those waiting to greet them. smile of commendation, and its antagonist, indolence, should find no favor whatever." Well, it is folly to talk to me. My mind is unde up. Mary is not going to have George Hamblin nor any other mechanic. She shalf of the virtuous and good forever fixed upon the suprincipled and dissolute, whatever their live and die an old maid first." "Very well; it is no particular concern of Sher and printer of the Village Chroniclemina," said Mrs. Lincoln; "but we gliall sool and his lady, hitherto the accomplished Miss whether she is herself disposed to regard his advances with favor. . Indeed I have already seen enough to convince me that he has nothing to fear so, far as she is concerned. It is not long since I chanced to observe them very closely engaged in conversation by themselves. It was on the occasion of Mary's last visit to her aunt. Leaning with clasped hands upon an carnestness that at once convinced me of as "Dr. Williams," indeed was no other than her devotedness to him. Let us hear what she has to say for herself." Mary has just now returned from a short daughter shall never marry a mechanic that walk. Well knowing the prejudice of her point is settled beyond question. What right mother against mechanics, she resolutely inhas a mechanic to seek her hand? She moves sisted that Mrs. Lincoln must have taken her now in the best society, and I intend she shall cousin Lorenzo for Mr. Hamblin, as the perhever imite herself in marriage with any one son with whom she was promenading while at hor gunt's.

At this moment the door bell rang and that George Hamblin has actually offered gentleman was immediately conducted in the himself to her, or is on the point of doing so, room, whom Mary recognized and introduced and if such be the fact, and my advice was as Dr. Williams, a young physician from a asked in the matter, I would say, let Mary ac- neighboring village. Mary had met him at a cept him by all means. She can never do bet- party, and he called in passing, just to present ter and may do worse. As to your remark his compliments, and to see that she had sufferabout rank, if you intend to intimate that his ed no inconvenience from her exposure to the rank is not equal to your daughter's, I must be damp air on the night of the party.

His age was about twenty-two, his statue a George is a mechanic, but I have yet to learn little above the medium height, complexion that a well educated and accomplished young dark-eyes and nose prominent, and his exman like him, is any the less a gentleman, or pression agreeable.

he took his leave, not however, without receiv-"Oh, now, you needn't talk so to me," said ing and accepting a very pressing invitation from Mrs. Otis, in which her daughter, of course, modestly joined to call again.

He had no sooner left the house, than Mrs tolerably well educated, and know how to ap- Otis embraced the occasion to draw a lively comparison between him, as one of the learned professions, and mechanies. With an air of mind, so vulgar in the idea of a mechanic, that lively satisfaction, she said:

"Show me your mechanic, Mrs. Lincoln who is able to converse with Dr. Williams. Did you note the variety and extent of his knowledge, his happy faculty of communica-Pshaw! Mrs. Lincoln, the thing is preposted tion and good manners. In point of everything pleasant and agreeable, may even valuable in a gentlemen, I will place Dr. Williams, but your views on the subject are all wrong. little as I have seen of him, against my dozen

> Mrs. Lincoln, not disposed to continue the controversy further, and ever willing to acknowledge merit whenever she saw it, very cheerfully concurred in the favorable opinion munication, and polish of address.

and the like are not respectable in their places, Mrs. Tancoln; all 1 ask is that they move in

Dr. Williams soon became intimate at the house of Mr. Otis, who, with his lady, spared no pains in making his visits agreeable to him. It was also quite apparent that Mary con-As the writer is not at liberty to disclose Leaving, this part of the picture to the intigination of the reader, we come directly to the fact. All parties joyfully assenting, the bans were duly published, and the day of mar-

Mary never looked more beautiful than on the morning of her marriage day-

Heaven was in her eye, In every gesture, dignity and love."

At the appointed hour, the bride and bride Mrs. Otis to offer their congratulations to the large, kinky-headed, lethargie. of al alari D ppy (couple on their return, and tender the isual civilities on such occasions.

The minister soon performed his part of the eremony, when husband and wife with their tond: and immediately returned, and were met the company assembled in the drawing-room, ine said : "Allow me, ladies and gentlemen, to intro-best of the somewhat awkward position in which she found herself placed, she said :

"I perceive that I have, though I trust not with your approbation," taking his hand, been deceived both in your name and occupais no place for them-it is now too late. With mechanics, I had associated the idea of ignorance and want of gentlemanly accomplishments. Hence my unfavorable opinion of them as a class. But in you I observed no deficiency of education, I like your apparent sincerity, I was pleased with your deportment -ves; more, I entertained the most entire confidence in your honesty and the purity of your for persons and papers. Adopted. moral principles. Why then, should I hesitate? The little deception that has been practiced I am well aware was at the instance of her who is now your wife-borne on by friends not excepting her own father, in whom she After a half hour of pleasant conversation | confided-is of slight moment. Only let there it her delight to please her husband, being con- the usual oath. fident that everything that promotes his hapher tenderness and good humor, lessens his bless you both."

"You are correct in the opinion that I yieldexpressed of Dr. Williams-adding, however, ed with great reluctance to the little artifice young men of pleasure, retired merchants, and that there were many 1 echanics fully equal to which has been employed. I finally assented others who are living on their money without him in extent of knowledge, readiness of com- only on the strongest assurance from those whom I know to be your true friends, that I It is proper to remark here, that Augustus should be held blameless in the matter. If I Otis, Esq., the husband of Lady Otis, was a have sailed into port under false colors, it was gentleman of great good sense, and a lawyer of not my own inclination, but in obedience to a distinguished ability. Himself the son of a commanding signal from the very prize I have confirmed.

"All's well that ends well."

THE OHANGEBURG NEWS. PERCERCED WERKLY

OBANGERRE S. C.

EMERE DIBILE, RILL VIRGIL C. DITCHER, Associate Editor.

WON NEWBER 3.

thotion far the request of Randolph who wad he was satisfied with the pocket of or open settles

Of course he was satisfied, not no haiter was had of the net, the net of public or which raised his respecteday and led him same and sorape." That fact was that disnoughted him in Charleston, and is therefore not white let to mileage, he made a regulation ou the believen at ruis for thirtys wo dollars, whitelesd from Orangeburg! which district he corresponds with Moses renewed the motion, but we market of Hayne it was laid on the table, and the constitu Leave of absence was granted to Raine Drime, Joiner, Crews, Harris, Webb, Mil

The Chair reported that an answer find been received from senator Howard, be Michigan was adopted. Ayes 55-Noes 50. Absent 16. stating that he could not address the assent blage at present, but hoped to be 46141841008 shortly."

Rose, from the Comunities on Pettering reported favourably on the petition of one Thomas Owens to be released from disabilities. Adopted. 2d it of house lin has humanist

A report from the same committed in federal to the lisport duty on rice was infede therend cial order for Monday at 4 Pi hpdt outled woo. Imagley offered some resolutions in Tregard to a public school fund, which were referred to the Committee on Education agas of T :2

Langley offered resolutions of thanks to Congress and Grant for supporting with Constitution, which were adopted. Moses and Byarecording their votes in the negative al ataouds Duncan, from the special committee of aight on dividing the State into telengh emionatedig. tricts, reported the following ordinancepino le

That the State Ishall be divided diff four Congressional Districts, as dellows : as Fistalis trict si Lantastor, Chesterfield; Mpriborough, Darlington Marion Horry Georgeton har Wil. liamsburg, Sumter, Clarendon, and lalershipe. Second district; Charleston, Colleton, Beaufort and Barnwellas Third edistrict; Orangoburg, Lexington, Richland, Newberry, Edgefield, Abbeville and Anderson; and the fourth district; Ocomec, Pickens, Greenville, Ladrens, Sphrtanburg, Union, Yohk, Chester and Pair field counts on the to open three fields by Congress, each of the said districts shall elect one member to represent this State win Congress. After such new appointment by Congress, the Legislature shall divide the State into as many Congressional Districts as we are into as many Congressional Districts entitled to members in the House of Lepresontatives Section 3. At the first election aunder this constitution, two Representatives shall be elected at large on the State ticket to repr sent the overplus of population. Should they obtain scats, they shall contine to be so elected until the new appointment after they census of The debate on the improchanget article 0781

The report of the Judiciary Committee was ben taken up, and, on motion of Bowen, the second section was so amended las itof provide that one of the judges of the Supremer Court should go out of office every two years. It was then passed for a third reading 16 to flaw tools On motion of Bowen, the third section was

On motion of Bowen, the fourth section was amended that on the first election of subreme judges, the chief justice should be commission ed for six years, one of the associate justices for four years, and the other for two years. At

Sections 5, 6, 7 and 8 were passed to a third

Section 9 was stricken out. Sections 10 or 111 were passed to a third reading, and baring the discussion of the 12th section; the hour of adjournment arrived. _______ were Afternoon Session .- It the afternoon session sections 12 to 18, inclusive of the report of the Judiciary Committee, were passed to In third reading with but little alteration, and thous-

semblage adjourned to 11 A. M. today, atT

Popular Fallacies of andilo

That you can receive one dollar a day spend two and get rich. Het poilonstemont ods han fast, can raise the money to go into a circul. That to do man coofavor, and then refuse him another, test't make him twice as madeas f you had refuged him the first, af official cut? That when a friend presents you a lichindent

That when you kny on credit, knowing very well you will not pay, it is not steeling ed?

That the next year's texes will be lighteres That every one man is to die except jouent or law, pitch in you are bound to win It I ? That when you buy a horse, he will be ber tain to turn out as represented abutesco Hiw th That if you always say what you think, you will win the legard of the entire common train nssemblage proceeded to business.

The minutes of yesterday were read and confirmed.

Bell moved that the consure of Bandolph be expansed from the minutes, but withdrew the BATES OF ADVERTISING ACT OF of Square 1st Innertialisa not starting of 34.60 Adve tising space.

IZLAR DIBBLE, Attorneys and Solicitors. Practice in Courts of the State and also of BANKRUPTOT

ORANGEBURG, S. C. SAMENINATUS BAMER MBRES IS THE PLACE TO MEET

W. W. LEGARIS, BOUTTY.

QOURT HOUSE SQUARE. ORANGEBURG C. IL., Su. CA. does the state of the state of

" T.J. MATONE. ATTORKET AT LAW.

WALTERBORO, S. C. Presides in the Courts of Orangeburg College, and strend premptly to

E. G.DENAUX, WATCH MAKER AND JEWELLER. Work Neath) Repaired and Itin w was assessed wateranted, larence a but

RUSSELL STREET. PROGRAMMA A MASSIA O

BULL & SCOVILL. AGENTS FOR THE Paultable Life Insurance Company ALERE OF NEW YORK, POLICIES NON-FORFEITABLE. Apridend Doclared Annually to Pelicy Holders

beier to whom instructions in English of granteness MURRAY ROBINSON, Sr., AUCTIONEER. OFFICE AT ROBINSON & CO.,

Ringsell-Street, Orangeburg, S. C. BRIAG LLEBERGE

gottoV. D. V. Jamison & Son. 18 " Offer their Services as AUCTIONEERS to the citizens of Orangeburg District. PS Bales attended to in any part of the District Co. J. M. Son. S. G. JAMISON.

FIRE! EIRE! FIRE INSURE YOUR LIFE

Now Hivlon

SOLD SANT or north a Region & Co. Cornelson, Kramer & Co. ARE AGENTS FOR JEFFERSON FIRE INSURANCE

Chartered Capital $250,000. JAMES' RIVER INSURANCE HOLLEG ENDONES AND OF HER. Chartered Capital $1,500,000.

Picdmont Real Estate Insurance FOR LIFE'ON CHARLES and HOL Chartered Capital $1,060,000.1 ofT ALL SOUTHERN COMPANIES.

oct 25/4 8 113.1.171/ Properties Bereet

Yos, I understand you prefer as an assot Wast DUNER,

U.....

their proper sphere, and not intrude themselves where they do not belong MA ... I DETO TO worthy mechanic, he was never heard to speak | captured." of mechanics in any other than terms of the mechanics you can produce."

start, And each warm wish springs mutual from the heart.

from, attended by her cousin Lorenzo and a lung female associate, stepped into a carriage rou the minister of the parish, residing at the diagonbout eighteen miles distant. In the centime, a small party of friends, Mrs. Lin-

Conducting them at once into the presence

duce to you Dr. Williams, better known as ing some of them with fulsehood. . . . buy Foorge Hamblin, the mechanic-editor, pub-

All eyes were fixed on Mrs. Otis, who stood half amazed, in doubt whether to credit what she had just heard as the sober reality, or whether the occasion had been seized on by Mrs. Lincoln to play off an innocent hoax at her expense. She was soon, however, convinced that the gentleman, now her son-in-law, his arm, she was looking up into his face with whom she had known and so highly esteemed and the other from 3 P. M. to 6 plain Mr. Hamblin, the mechanic.

Collecting herself, and resolving to make the

Mrs. Otis, he said:

they als no lived new trainer privately in to To at I as you of them (From the Charleston Mercury.

THE NEGRO CONVENDION ..... A next to a servery che rules to admit

. WEDNESDAY 26TH. Hings tester Morning Session.—Brother Whittemover ings of the last meeting were read and colf firmed.

Cardoza and Nash, obtained extensions of Swalls, from the Committee on Rules and Regulations, made a report recommending that the resolution for a morning and evening diction and Arthmy disc garwolfor adT session, be laid on the table like mobile it ods The ayes and noes being called the report

Leslie moved a reconsideration. Bishop James, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church of New York, was introduced to the assemblage, and recived with becoming Randolph, in debate, said that those moni-bers who opposed the two sessions, did not work either in committee or on the floor, It Elliott called him to order, and demanded an in readiness at the door, and hastened to await, apology. I sel bloow home sequit ods that que The scene was ...musing. Elliott small.

black, kinky-hoaded, vivacious, delt himself insulted, or pretended that he felt himself inold among the rest, assembled at the house of sulfed by Randolph, ginger-bread coloured. The chairman was in a dilemma, and submitted the delicate question to the assemblage. He was not relieved. Forty-eight roted ave. and forty-eight voted nay. Completely cornered, the chair decided that bered to introduce the newly married couple fore allowed him to proceed, and anitaring Ransier moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table, which was lost ayes 38; nays; 69. The motion to reconsider was carrieds Randolph, huge of mouth, again offended the sensibilities of his brother nigs by charg-

Ransier called him to order. Elliott, glad of the chance offered a resolution of censure. Randolph's evil star was in the ascendant. The resolution was passed. The chair was mild, very, in administering the required rebuke. He said the vote of the Langley offered a resolution, which wa a lopted, that the assemblage should have two sessions daily-one from 10 A. M. to 1 P. M.

assemblage was sufficient, without further re-

Swails, from the Committee on Rules and Regulations, reported unfavourably on a resolution that the delegates should draw no pay after March 5th.

During the discussion of this report the hour of adjournment arrived and all a albert

Afternoon Session .- The report on the reso-Intion allowing no pay after March 5th was tion. Be it so. Had I regrets to express, this taken up and on motion of Avright, the whole matter was laid on the table.

Leslie, from the Audit Committee, reported several accounts, which were ordered to be paid. Rose, from the Committee on Petitions, reported unfavourably on the petition of B. O.

DeLarge moved that the petition be referred to the Judiciary Committee, with power to send

Bowen, from the Judiciary Committee, re commended the following resolution, which

That the General Commanding this Military District be requested to issue an order applie ble to the State South Carolina, authorizing be no further deception-as I am sure none is any attorney, solicitor or counselor, admitted to intended-and I can most cheerfully forgive. practice in the Courts of the United States, or Take my daughter, it is your choice-it is hers. In any Court of Record in any State, and resi-To you, my daughter, just entering upon new | dent in this State, to appear and practice in all and important relations in life, in the language the courts of this State, and that any male of another let me advise you that the good person twenty-one years of age, who is a citizen wife is one who is strictly and conscientiously of the State, and who satisfies the Court of virtuous, she is humble and modest from reason | Common Pleas and General Sessions, or Disand conviction, submissive from choice, and trict Court of this State, that he prossesses the obedient from inclination. What she acquires requisite learning, may be licensed to practice by love she preserves by prudence. She makes in all of the courts of this State upon his taking

George Washington Solomon Dill, offered piness must, in the end, contribute to her own. three resolutions, one making all male persons She always rejoices in his prosperity, and by twenty-one years of age qualified voters, another vacating all State offices immediately on the cares and afflictions. Go-and may heaven ratification of the constitution, and the third providing that delegates receive pay from the Young Hamblin, as may well be supposed, day they left home until their return, allowing was not free from embarrassment. Addressing the same time for return that it took them to come--all referred to appropriate committees.

The first section of the report of the Indiciary Committee, was passed to its third reading, and during the discussion of the second, the hour of adjournment arrived. THURSDAY 27TH

Runion prayed, the roll was called, and the

and it of stellarings, and anomal profurerest.

That the man who can't pay for his break.

est you nething. and addenoted if il

That if you have a good cause in love, war,

Convent Thomas received his private A. i.