SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 13, 1868.

Successful Rescue of Burglars.

On Thursday last, while Deputy Sheriff Silas H. Sydnor and two assistants were coming to Orangeburg, with three prisoners under arrest for burglary, the party was attacked on the Belville Road, near the suburbs of Orangeburg, by a party of negroes, led by Jake Hanton and Joe Brown, who were friends of the prisoners. Joe Brown being also one of the parties named in the warrant, not yet arrested. In the melee which ensued, the prisoners escaped; but two of the rescuing party were badly wounded. Mr. Sydnor and his assistants came at full speed to the Sheriff's office, and an armed party immediately set out to retake the prisoners, and take the rescuers into custody. This party found and took into custody Jake Hanton (wounded), Adam Bookhart (wounded), and Orrin McCord, (unhurt), who were identified as three of the rescuing party. In attending to Jake Hanton, who was thirsty, Orrin McCord, with one of the Sheriff's party was sent to a branch in the road for water. On reaching the branch Orrin attempted to wrench the pistol from the hands of his guard, who shouted for help. Orrin thereupon broke and ran, and though called upon to stop, would not do so; and would have gotten away, had not the guard shot at and wounded him, so that, after running some two or three hundred yards, he was over taken.

On the approach of the wounded prisoners, who as rescuers of accused felons, became liable to an arrest for felony themselves, intense excitement was manifested by a number of the negroes in town, led on by evil-minded men among them; but the admiral's self-possession of Deputy Sheriff B. M. Shuler, who called upon the leading negroes to assist him in preserving the peace, operated to quiet the excitement, until the prisoners were carried to the Keeper's quarters in the jail. Afterwards, however, Randolph, who now appeared on the scene of action, came very near being successful in raising a disturbance in the town; but Town Marshall, Mr. John Williamson, promptly attended to the matter, and through his instrumentality, Randolph's noisy crowd was dispersed, and the imminent danger of a serious difficulty in the town, was averted.

In the early part of the affair, the Sheriff telegraphed to Columbia for troops, and on yesterday morning, Lieut. Connor, of the 8th Infantry, arrived with a detachment of 36 men of the same command. A party was mounted and dispatched as soon as possible, after the alleged burglars and their rescuers, under the Deputy Sheriff; and we trust the violators of the law will be promptly overtaken, and meet their trial in due time.

Skillful Dentistry.

We inspected a very fine specimen of dental mechanism a few days ago, which is worthy of notice. It consisted of a set of teeth, in vulcanite, with an artificial palate attached, which work on silver hinges and springs. We understand that the insertion of this into the mouth and throat of the subject rendered articulation distinct, which before had been quite imperfect. The work was that of Dr. L. D. Radzinsky, whose office will be found on Market-street, in this place, opposite Whitmore's Factory Building.

Bayne's India Rubber Scrubber.

Messrs. BULL & SCOVILL have proven benefactors to the community by the introduction of the above article for household use. As a scrubber, it surpasses anything we have ever seen; and in these days of uncertain labor, it is just what every cleanly housewife requires. It is very cheap, and simple in its construction; and has the merit of being a Southern invention, being made in Columbia, in this State. Every house in the District should be supplied with one of these articles.

Mark Twain realized $1805 in gold from his first lecture in San Francisco.

We are under obligations to Mr. E. EZEKIEL for a bottle of imported Ajo, of the best brand. Our readers will see by referring to our advertising columns that Mr. Ezekiel has opened a complete stock of Choice Family Groceries, Imported Ajo, Porter, etc., at the store formerly occupied by Messrs. Chas. Bull & Co.

A man lately advertised that on the receipt of ten cents he would send a splendid steel engraving of "that noble hero, General Jackson." The splendid steel engraving proved to be a two cent postage stamp.

Ashley, the infamous original impeacher, of Toledo, Ohio, is sending around circulars among his leading constituents inquiring whether it will be best for him to try for a reelection.

Report of the Charleston Cotton Market for the Week Ending June 11.

Reported for the Orangeburg News by W. WALTON SMITH, COTTON FACTOR.
 Our market for the past week has been very dull and depressed, with a declining tendency in prices. The sales made, which amount to some 200 bales, were at irregular prices, and in favor of buyers. In the present state of the market it is impossible to give quotations.
