Fire. End back and

On Sunday morning last, the kitchen portion of the residence of Mr. D. Louis, caught on fire from a spark on the roof, and for a short time threatened becoming a serious affair. But the prompt assistance furnished by friends and neighbors, and the timely arrival of the Engine Companies of the village, soon put the flames under control, and the damage was slight.

We were glad to observe that our colored friends vied with the whites in their efforts to extinguish the fire ;---an evidence of good will on their part which is fully appreciated. Mr. Louis requests us to extend his heartfeit thanks to all his friends, whose efforts contributed to save his home from destruction : and we would add those of your humble serwant of the quill, who is under similar obligations. We c nfess, that morning we felt for awhile, like the boy who "stood on the burning deck" must have done.

If not registored, register at once. Registration closes on Monday.

Democratic Nomination. The Central Democratic Club on Wedness day last, nominated for the State Senate, Dr Thomas A. Elliott. The Election will take place on Tuesday next.

You cannot register on Tuesday.

Fine Corn. Our old friend, Joseph Minuicken Esq. has sent to our office six cars of corn, a specimen of his crop. On 31 acres, our friend raised 126 Bushels of this corn. Pretty good for Ball Swamp, or anywhere else.

Vote on Tuesday next.

Steam between Charleston and Liverpool.

Do any of our planters wish to try the Liverpool Cotton Market ? If so, the adver tisement of Messrs. Robert Mure & Co. informs them that steamers will leave Charleston on the 1st and 15th of each month, and that they can make consignments to Liverpool, without any forwarding commission in Char leston.

We hail the establishment of this line, as an evidence of renewed commercial enterprise in the city, and we trust that steam communica tion batween Charleston and Liverpool, may be permanently established.

ORANGEBURG, S. C., October 17th, 1868. To our fellow-citizens of Orangeburg District . For your information, we hereby certify, that we have examined into the Election Laws now in force, and are unanimously of the opinion, that every one of those, who have been heretofore denied the right of voting, on account of having formerly held certain offices, is now entitled to register and vote. The disqualification, under the new Constitution, only extends to holding office, and not to voting.

Registration, however, is necessary. HUTSONS & LEGARE. IZLAR & DIBBLE, SIMONTON & GLOVER, W. J. DETREVILLE, T. H. COOKE.
